PETER PIPER STYLE

This labor shortage certainly does get folks in a pickle, as witness the following from The Oregonian, Portland newspaper:

"Pickle packers' prospects of getting pickle pickers to pick pickles for pickle packers to pack are poor. "Pickle packers let pickles go to pot to partake of pleasanter pickles in war production, leaving pickle packers without pickles to pack, and in a pretty pickle."

GETS HIMSELF SALUTED

Adrian Conn, government guard at a West Virginia powder plant, was home this week, dressed in a uniform fit for MacArthur. Adrian was having himself a time, and was getting quite a laugh about the private, home on furlough, who snapped smartly to attention on the street here and saluted him.

TWASNT' HERR

Russell Johns, office manager for the Kentucky-Virginia Stages at Paintsville, hopes to die if Hitler didn't call on him last week. Walked right into the office, with an aide, yesir, and proceeded to propound numerous questions concerning the rubber situation: How well-stocked are you on tires for your buses? are you having any trouble with your local tire boards in getting tires? are your tires bought outright, etcetera, etcetera.

Mr. Johns dutifully made answer, then started in asking questions himself. He wanted to know about Hitler's tire situation, how he got rubber, what system he used in tire distribution.

After which Hitler left to spend the night in Pikeville. He was Mr. C. D. Hitler, bus and truck representative, Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, Columbus, Ohio.

THE WHALE

While playing the Nimrod to an elusive lacteal bovine the other evening—why not simply admit I was out cow-hunting?—I saw an outdoor decoration up Trimble Branch that indicated somebody thereabouts had been reading about the Flying Tigers. On the side was painted a picture of a whale, and, just to be certain nobody became mistaken about the house number, "THE WHALE" was printed in big letters, right below the picture.

THEY LIKED PRESTONSBURG

It's a shame Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudolph had to move from Prestonsburg to Huntington, W. Va. Besides being nice folks, they had more good things to say about Prestonsburg and its people than you'd ordinarily hear, hereabouts, in a year.

SCHOOL EVENT DRAWS CROWD

County Officials Join Patrons of Bonanza School at Fete

Community Day at Bonanza's school Friday not only attracted neighborhood attention but also drew to the school residents of surrounding communities, including county officials from Prestonsburg.

Community Day is an institution which the Bonanza school, and last Friday's get-together was typical of those during the four years since the Day was inaugurated.

The program was begun by school music. Harry R. Burke, Prestonsburg attorney, and resident of the community, delivered the address of welcome, and the invocation was given by the Rev. Alex Stephens, clerk of the Floyd County Board of Education.

Followed brief addresses by County Superintendent Town Hall, County Agent S. L. Isbell, County Judge E. P. Hill, Jr., and County Attorney Woodrow W. Burchett.

County Superintendent Hall and William Paris Conley, a son of the school principal, delighted the crowd with an instrumental duet. Those singing the community's "big day" school year feasted, country-club style, on a lunch which there is no better, according to townspeople present.

In addition to Principal Conley, teachers preparing for the Community Day at Bonanza were Mrs. O. J. Conley, Mrs. Milt Stanley and Miss Hazel Hill.

SHOPPERS IN HUNTINGTON

Misses Katherine Stratton and Ethel Akers left Saturday to shop in Huntington.

COUNCIL RACE HERE TAKEN TO COURT

Status of Candidacy Of Howard, Gibson Under Attack

A court decision was sought today (Thursday) to void the candidacy of S. B. (Bass) Howard and Mont Gibson for the Prestonsburg City Council from Ward No. 2.

Contention that Howard and Gibson are not bonafide candidates was established in a suit filed late Wednesday night by R. G. Francis and James Morell, Jr., their opponents in the Council race—if there is to be a race.

The suit alleges that the required number of 20 legal voters and residents of the ward did not sign the single petition filed with County Clerk A. B. Meade by Howard and Gibson. Candidacy of the two also was attacked on the ground that only one petition was filed for the two, seeking the same office.

An injunction to restrain County Clerk Meade from causing the names of Howard and Gibson to be printed on the city ballot was asked, and the plaintiffs also seek to have the petition of candidacy declared null and void.

In alleging illegality of the petition on the grounds that it does not bear the names of 20 or more legal voters and residents of the ward in which the election is to be held, the plaintiffs set out that Bill Smith, I. A. Smiley and Norma Hughes, whose names appear on the Howard-Gibson petition, are not registered voters; that Frank Price and H. H. Graham, though signing the petition, are residents of Ward No. 1, and that the following names were forged to the petition: Mrs. Frank Goble, Dove Vaughan, Nelle Frasure, Nora Burchett, Henry Music and George Belcher.

A decision was expected to be handed down in the case today.

Loser of Tire Finds His Report to Cops Is Late by Hours

Prestonsburg police were several jumps ahead of County Agent S. L. Isbell Friday morning instead of the farm agent being only a few jumps ahead of them.

When he found a tire and wheel from his auto missing, he immediately reported the loss to Chief of Police Epp Laferty. Whereupon the latter informed him he had had the missing articles for hours and, moreover, had known to whom they belonged.

Besides Laferty and Policeman Albert Horn had, hours earlier, jailed Sport Hale as the thief. They captured him after Richard Quillen, superintendent at the NYA shop here, had reported a man, armed with a knife, peering through windows of the shop Thursday night.

Hale was held under $1,000 peace bond and $1,000 bond to answer to the next grand jury's action. He was in jail Wednesday.

12 RECEIVE TREATMENT

Against Hydrophobia After Having Been Bitten by Dogs

A dozen persons from Bull, Abbott and Middle Creek communities were receiving treatment this week at the Floyd County Health Department after having been bitten by dogs.

All 12 had been bitten within the preceding week, Dr. Marvin Ransdell, health department director, said. They comprised the largest number of persons to be threatened at any known date with hydrophobia as a direct result of having been bitten by dogs.

County Agent S. L. Isbell said he had learned of threatened rabies outbreaks in the Little and Big Mud and Frasure's Creek sections where mad dogs have been reported. The threat, he added, may be the worst in years.

Two cases of diphtheria also have been reported to the health department from widely separated communities. The patients are Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roland, of Langley, and Bill J. Crider, of the Johns Creek section.

Army M. P. Claims Floyd Deserter; 2 Others Held

Arrested October 1 by Constable Willie Johnson at Wheelwright for drunkenness, and later booked at the county jail here as an army deserter, Barney Blackburn was claimed Tuesday by military police from Ft. Thomas.

Also held in jail, charged with army desertion after having been arrested by Constable Johnson, or a deputy in the upper Left Beaver section are Clell Broglin and Howard Adams.

Jailer Guy Horn had no information this week as to when Broglin and Adams will be claimed by army authorities.

THOMAS HALL IS VICTIM

Floyd Native Passes At Flemingsburg, Cancer Victim

Thomas Hall, 47 years old, prominent Flemingsburg business man and a native of McDowell, this county, died at his home in Flemingsburg Saturday morning after an extended illness of cancer.

Though Mr. Hall's death was not unexpected, news of his passing was received with deep sorrow by hundreds of friends and relatives in this section.

He was a son of Ben and Lucy Hopkins Hall, well-known residents of this county, and before moving to Flemingsburg about 15 years ago was a teacher in the Floyd county schools. He was a brother of the late O. C. Hall, former Commonwealth's Attorney of the 31st Judicial District.

Surviving Mr. Hall are his widow, Mrs. Mary Gibson Hall; a son, Corp. Daniel B. Hall, Camp Lee, Va.; one daughter, Miss Josephine Hall, of Frankfort; three brothers, E. V. Hall, former Floyd County Superintendent of Schools, and Dr. J. F. Hall, both of Flemingsburg, and W. J. Hall, of Dema, Knott county; five sisters, Mrs. Rosa Hall, Dayton, O., Mrs. M. J. Hall, Weeksburg; Mrs. Florence Martin, Mrs. Evelyn Martin and Mrs. T. J. Turner, all of McDowell.

The body was taken to McDowell where funeral rites were conducted Monday, with burial being made in the family cemetery.

WHITE NAMED CLUB PREXY

Kiwanis Club Here Elects Officers Thursday Eve

N. M. White, Jr., was elected president of the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club at the annual election of officers held Thursday night, last week, at the club's regular meeting at the Valley Inn. He succeeds R. D. Francis.

County Agent S. L. Isbell was chosen vice-president; Palmer L. Hall, secretary, and Jo M. Davidson, treasurer.

The new officers will be installed at the first meeting of the club in January.

Prof. Ishmael H. Triplett, superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, conducted one of the most interesting programs of the year on the topic, "Mathematics and Its Value to a Business Career."

The meeting was the last to be attended by George Straughn, and he was presented a gift in appreciation of his loyalty to the club by Mr. Francis, club president. Those attending:

Sam Isbell, Bob Francis, Jo M. Davidson, Ishmael Triplett, N. M. White, C. L. Hutsinpillar, Palmer L. Hall, Town Hall, Woodrow Burchett, Claude Caudill, Jack Keenon, W. B. Garriott, C. H. Smith, J. B. Clarke. Guests of the club were Richard Feller, U. S. Navy Warrant Officer Larry Dunden, Joe Barry. A new member, Wade Hall, was received into the club.

RETURN FROM NEW YORK

Mrs. Cecil Kendrick and Mrs. Billy Goble and children returned from New York City, Thursday, having gone to see Mr. Goble, who was there for a few days, prior to his departure for service at points unknown. They report Billy having gained weight and looking fine.

Approach of Deadline Finds Floyd Short of Scrap Quota

As Saturday's deadline on the Kentucky scrap drive campaign drew exasperatingly near, Floyd county has hopes of getting little beyond the halfway mark in its drive to gather a quota of more than 5,000,000 pounds of metal and rubber, County Agent S. L. Isbell, Floyd salvage chairman, said Thursday.

Floyd county's schools staged their second assault on the Scrap Front Wednesday and, as a result, the county's scrap total has jumped from the 1,231,000 pounds of last week to 2,137,462 pounds as of today (Thursday). And only a few schools had reported at that time.

The Wayland school with an enrollment of 937 had the heaviest per capita scrap contribution for the county, and Thursday was in third place over the state with 555 pounds per pupil, Mr. Isbell said. Other school figures given by the salvage chairman follow:

Martin, 463 enrollment, 414 pounds per capita; Prestonsburg, 565 enrollment, 190 pounds per capita; Betsy Layne, 396 enrollment, 100 pounds; Eva Allen's school, District 14, 35 enrollment, 171 pounds; Wheelwright, 835 enrollment, 307 pounds; Norma Stepp's school, District 35, 29 enrollment, 160 pounds; Dick Burchett's school No. 43, 22 enrollment, 180 pounds.

Mr. Isbell said he had no definite reports on salvaging of industrial scrap over the county as a result of co-operation between miners and coal operators, although some mining communities had added heavily to school totals.

QUOTAS PILE UP HERE

As Volunteer Workers Fail To Meet Needs Of Army Hospitals

With a quota of 55,000 surgical dressings coming up next month for Floyd county volunteer women workers, Mrs. Lillian Keenon, director of this phase of Red Cross endeavor, pointed out this week that the county's women are far behind the quotas allotted them for September and October.

Twenty-five thousand of these dressings needed by army hospitals for wounded fighting men of the U. S. forces were asked for the period ending Oct. 31. As of Wednesday, this week, only 2,500 of this quota had been reached.

"While we realize," Mrs. Keenon said, "that the work actually got under way only last week, and that the start is always slow, I am disappointed in the response of Floyd women to this patriotic endeavor." Our boys," she emphasized, "cannot be taken care of in army hospitals unless these surgical dressings are available. And they cannot be made available unless the women of Floyd county are willing to shoulder their part of the work American women must do to make these dressings. To all those who have helped, we are most grateful; to those who have not helped, we extend a most urgent call for help. It's the job we women must do," Mrs. Keenon concluded.

Changes of hours of work for those volunteering their services were also announced by Mrs. Keenon. Work will be done at the central workroom in the Masonic building here daily from 10 a.m. till 4:30 p.m. Work, of evenings, will be on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, beginning at 7:30.

HUNTINGTON SHOPPERS

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Clarke and daughter, Oval, and son, Billie, Mrs. Mary Branham and little son, John Ellis, were in Huntington shopping Thursday.

Coffee Rationing to Start Nov. 29

Cup a Day Allowed Each Person Aged 15 or Older

Coffee rationing starts Nov. 29, the government announced Monday, but it will be more liberal than the bugaboo which has frightened housewives in many cities into hoarding and overbuying.

One pound every five weeks will be allowed for every person who was 15 or older when sugar rationing started last May. This works out to slightly more than one cup a day, and a household where children 15 or older do not drink coffee, the grownups can have the children's share as well as their own.

Moreover, it will still be possible to get a cup of coffee in a restaurant, regardless of how much is used at home. Details of the rationing for restaurants are still to be announced, but it probably will follow that of sugar, restricting commercial users to a certain percentage of their former consumption.

No rationing of tea, cocoa or other beverages is being imposed, at least for the present, but supplies of these may be limited.

Retail sales of coffee will be stop-

GRID TITLE AT STAKE

As Cats, W'wright Meet Saturday; K.M.I., Next

The Floyd county football championship will be decided Saturday afternoon when the Prestonsburg Black Cats go to Wheelwright to clash with Walter Price's Maroon eleven.

Coach "Eck" Branham, of Prestonsburg, said this week that he will take his entire squad to Wheelwright. Both teams are expected to "shoot the works" for a decision in the encounter.

Both teams should be in good physical condition, since neither has suffered from overwork recently. Both were idle last week-end.

Coach Branham returned over the week-end from Baltimore, Md., to resume his coaching duties, and will remain here, he said, until called for military service.

Big game of the season for the Black Cats is that of Saturday, next week, when the Cadets of Kentucky Military Institute pay Prestonsburg their first visit. The Cadets last year was Kentucky's ranking grid team in high school circles, and this year is a formidable opponent for any eleven.

Dema Merchant-Farmer Is Victim of Cancer

Sol Stone, prominent Dema merchant and farmer, died Monday night at his home after a long illness of cancer.

He is survived by one son, Duffus Stone, Softshell, Ky. Mr. Stone had many other relatives in this section, as well as a host of friends.

Funeral rites were conducted Wednesday at Dema, the Rev. Green Bradley officiating, and burial there in the Turner cemetery was made under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Potter's Field Is Seen For Lowry, Committed To Asylum in 1940

Committed to the Eastern State hospital, Lexington, in May, 1940, after having been picked up unconscious from a Beaver Creek roadside, N. J. Lowry appeared Thursday to be destined for a grave in Potter's Field.

Lowry died at the Lexington institution Wednesday night. Efforts of officials here to locate relatives were unavailing, and hospital authorities said the state would bear no burial expenses.

Lowry was unable to tell authorities here whence he came, his destination or names of relatives.

GIRL TRAINEES LEAVE HERE

Shifted from NYA Shop Here to Dayton; 159 Yet in Training

Floyd county's first feminine contingent, trained in the NYA shop here for work in the nation's war plants, left Prestonsburg Thursday to receive the two months of specialized training at Dayton, O., that will qualify them under Civil Service as War Department employees at Patterson Field, Dayton.

Upon completion of this training the girls will begin work at a salary of $1,500 a year, and during the two-months training period they will be paid $19 a month, plus room, board and medical attention.

Girl graduates of the NYA shop here who left Thursday are Ruby I. Sherman, Mary M. Leslie, Rhoda J. Leslie and Mildred Boyd, all of Emma; Zella M. Stratton and Mattie Lou Hamilton, both of Ivel; Alkie M. Derossset, East Point, and Maggie Hunt, of Woods.

Five boys also left the same day for Dayton to receive the same training after completing courses here. They are Richard E. Mills and Howard Boyd, of Tomahawk; Estill Leo Tackett, Hartley; Estill Harris, Bevinville, and Mack Fouts, Jr., of Fed.

Two NYA grads—Joe D. Weddington and Adrian Gunnel, both of Emma—went directly from Prestonsburg this week to war production work at Norfolk, Va.

With 40 per cent more floor space available after the recent completion of an addition to the shop 159 boys and girls were receiving training here after those who had completed their courses had departed, it was said. Fifty percent of the training given here is based on a related program between the Mayo Vocational School, Paintsville, and the National Youth Administration.

A new course being added at the shop in sheet metal riveting. The welding department now meets requirements of the War Production Board, shop officials stated. Classes are open at all times, and new students may enroll at any time, according to Goebel T. Burton, personnel director. All girls now employed in the shop are from Floyd county and room here. The shop is operating at full capacity, Mr. Burton said.

Coffee Sales To Stop Temporarily Nov. 21; Tea May Be Scarce

prices sufficiently to pass on to consumers the higher taxes on liquor, wines and beer which take effect Nov. 1 and that bars likewise could raise their prices on drinks of straight liquor and bottled beer but not draft beer.

3. Donald Hammond, executive secretary of the Association of Maryland Distillers, said in Baltimore that distillers on their own initiative were rationing liquor to dealers, allotting certain percentages of former supplies to various areas.

4. The OPA announced a quota of 1,090,200 re-capped tires or re-capping services for the nation in November, which compared with the October quota of 939,940. Quotas for Grade 2 tires available to war workers were increased but reductions were made in quotas of new tires available for drivers on List A and on passenger car inner tubes.

5. The OPA gave notice that eligibility rules for supplemental "C" gasoline rations would be tightened

183 TO TAKE ARMY EXAMS NEXT WEEK

Board 44 Contingent, Largest To Leave Since War Began

One hundred eighty-three selectees to leave here from Draft Board 44 Thursday, Nov. 5 for final army service examination at Huntington, service examination at Huntington, W. Va., is the largest single group from this county since the war began.

Of the 183, a number are volunteers, Harry T. Hill, clerk of the board, said. Some of the volunteers are youths of the 18-19-year group.

Skeans, Father of 8, Is a Volunteer

One of the volunteers is Taylor Skeans, 42, of Dock, father of eight.

Two selectees in the group leaving next Thursday are Hubert and Robert Ferrell, of Emma. Twins, they are 20 years old.

Three volunteers, all below the present draft age limit, are Frank Whitte, Bert Calhoun and John Younce, Jr., all of Water Gap. The three volunteered with the idea of leaving together, but blood tests of two hemolized. All three were ready to cancel their army "reservations," since they were about to be separated. But H. T. Hill, clerk of Draft Board 44, assured them that, if second blood test reports are not received in time for the Nov. 5 call, he will take the two volunteers needing blood tests directly to a laboratory, so that all three may enter the army together.

Two colored selectees—William Elmon Honaker and William Davis Amey, both of Tram, leave here Oct. 30 for Huntington.

Former Garrett Man Returned Wednesday From Harlan County

Deputy Sheriff Arthur C. Carter returned Jake Stanley, former Garrett resident, from Harlan to the county jail here Wednesday for probable imprisonment of two years on a child desertion charge.

Stanley was convicted of the charge at a recent court term but his sentence was probated.

He said he had been in a hospital and only recently had returned to work.

WE WELCOME YOU R. M. HALL'S BARBER SHOP R. M. HALL, Manager Opposite Bank Josephine PRESTONSBURG, KY.

THE HOME FRONT

THESE THINGS AFFECTED YOUR HOUSEHOLD

- Thank You, Editor. Bread and Flour. Pork Pinned. Prunes and Raisins. Reserve Tires. Gift Kits. Loaded Soup. Truck Warning. Livestock Destiny. Inventory Control. Save Nylon. Seamen, Too.

First off, let's take a minute in this Office of War Information column to thank the editor. He does a lot of things for people that go 'way beyond the requirements of his subscription price, but the latest mass demonstration of editorial co-operation in the nation's interest—that of promoting the recent scrap drive—is amazing.

All of us ought to be grateful because the failure of that drive was of concern to every one of us. It depended on all of us, too, but somehow we, who make up the American public, seem to need some prodding before we bestir ourselves—and the editors surely gave us the prodding.

The drive isn't over—it will last as long as the war—but it brought in enough scrap to help the reserve pile upon which the mills must depend for continued operation.

Knowing what defeat in this war would mean to us, let's thank the editors for prodding us into a realization that the scrap was necessary NOW.

Now let's turn to the well-worn but always interesting matter of food prices. The OPA and the Department of Agriculture have acted to prevent increases in the prices of flour and bread. Both prices have been pegged, but the new program provides for making wheat available to millers at prices which will allow maintenance of the present ceiling levels.

Then, also, in the food line, the OPA gave assurance that the retail price of pork would be effectively controlled.

The WPB has released 20 to 40 per cent of various varieties of dried prunes and 40 to 100 per cent of raisins for civilian consumption.

OPA estimates that the motoring public has between five and ten million automobile tires stored away against the Big Blowout.

Gift kits containing shaving cream or toothpaste tubes can be purchased for members of the armed forces without turning in old tubes.

New types of canned soups are higher in food value than the old-style soups—one reason why most of them cost a few cents more, OPA says. The words "new and improved style" or "new recipe" on labels are the key to the difference in price. One kind of bouillon now has 130 per cent more dry food solids, one kind of chicken soup has 60 per cent more.

Owners of more than five tires may not give away the extra one or leave them with or trade them in to tire dealers or service stations. Only the Railway Express Company has been designated as the government's collecting agent.

The nation's trucking system faces a disastrous breakdown Nov. 15, if applications for certificates of war necessity are not promptly returned by operators of trucks, buses and taxis. Two hundred and fifty thousand a day were mailed out, but only 6,000 to 8,000 a day were being returned last week. This indicates the jam which will come near the deadline—after which day, gasoline, tires and repair parts may be sold only to certificate holders.

Authority to control the disposition of livestock has been conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by the WPB.

An order controlling the size of inventories of finished consumers, goods of wholesalers, retailers and manufacturers will be issued soon, the WPB says. Over-buying of consumer goods is responsible. The order will require the achievement of normal (as indicated by sales-to-stock ratio) inventories by early next year.

Women are requested to save their discarded silk and nylon hosiery until a collection campaign can be staged. Hosiery containing any silk or nylon fibers also should be saved. The service flag customarily flown to indicate that members of a household are serving in the armed forces may also be used by families of a merchant seaman. These seamen face tremendous danger to supply the troops.

Getting back to nylon hose, the government reduced retail prices from a high of $2.20 to $2.50 to not more than $1.65 a pair for the most

Committee To Study Farm Labor Problem

Appointment of a special committee of members of the staff of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station to co-operate with other agencies and with farmers in a study of the farm labor situation, is announced by Dean Thomas P. Cooper.

All phases of the farm labor problem will be investigated, he said, with a view to helping farmers find ways to operate at full capacity in 1943. The seriousness of the farm labor problem is not generally realized, Dean Cooper believes. Apparently some people do not understand how many key men have left the farm and how difficult it is to farm without skilled help.

The committee is planning to gather information on ways to save labor in growing and harvesting crops, including the greater use of machinery, home-made labor-saving devices, harvesting crops with livestock, the use of self-feeders, cooperation among neighbors, work that can be done by women, boys and girls, shortcuts, and the like.

Conferences with farmers, and letters received at the Experiment Station, indicate that farmers already are making their plans for next year. Many of them need further information about what the labor situation may be another season. It is apparent to them that they must plan, organize their work and carefully manage every operation, if they are to produce the food needed in the war effort.

W. D. Nicholls, head of the farm economics department at the Experiment Station, will head the committee. Other members are Howard W. Beers, J. H. Bondurant, T. R. Bryant, E. J. Nesius, and Roy E. Proctor. There also will be an advisory committee representing other departments, since the labor problem involves all phases of farming and home-making.

$300 REWARD

The undersigned will pay a reward of $300 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to our garage early in July and who on two other occasions have prowled about our premises leaving gasoline in close proximity to our residence.

commonly-sold full-fashioned stockings.

WPB orders controlling the delivery and acceptance of scarce materials apply to liquidation sales of all kinds, says a warning. Auctioneers, receivers and trustees in bankruptcy are warned about the disposal of restricted items.

Governmental agencies exercising regulatory power over prices subject to OPA control have been authorized to file petitions for amendment of OPA regulations.

The War Manpower Commission has reported 97 areas in which there is still much unemployment and has urged the placing of war contracts in these districts, Several Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky areas are included.

War housing completed since July 1, 1940, totals 500,000 living units.

Rigid control of the evictions of tenants resulting from the sale of houses is contained in an amendment to the maximum rent regulations. Purchasers may not occupy the property until one-third of the purchase price has been paid, and three months must pass after issuance of a certificate of eviction before the tenant can be forced to vacate. Special cases may be recognized as exceptions.

Four hundred major cities have been ordered to enlist their trash collection machinery in a systematic and continuing collection of tin cans. It hopes to get 10,000 pounds of pure tin.

Restaurants participating in the share-the-meat program have been asked to provide half portions for those patrons who wish to reduce their consumption. They also are asked not to emphasize dishes of restricted meats and to reduce the number of such dishes placed on the menu.

Motorists are asked not to await the beginning of gasoline rationing, but to control the mileage at once.

Frozen vegetable requirements of the U. S. armed forces in 1943 are estimated at 70.9 million pounds.

Bowlers, billiard and pool players have been given OPA assurance that the fees charged for their pastime will not be allowed to advance.

AT THE BICYCLE RATIONING BOARD

Q.—Why do you want a bicycle? A.—It's the only card missing from my collection.

Q.—Do you want a high-wheel or a low-wheel machine? A.—Low. Any idea you have that I am going into a revival of vaudeville is false.

Q.—Have you ever operated a bicycle before? A.—No, but I come from an old family of bicycle people.

Q.—What do you mean by that? A.—My dad could ride backwards. And I had an uncle who could stand on his head in the saddle.

Q.—Are there any bicycles in your family now? A.—These things I trip over in the dark every night can't be road rollers.

Q.—Give the board three reasons why you should be allowed to ride a bike? A.—I can't get any gas. The other two don't matter.

Q.—Do you live near a bus line? A.—Yes.

Q.—Why not use the bus? A.—When I coast down hill I want to do it on my own responsibility.

Q.—Are you aware that there is a shortage of bicycles? A.—Up until the last year I thought they could only be found in antique shops.

Q.—What do you want to do on a bicycle that can't be done some other way? A.—Go through a red light and park where I want to.

Q.—Do you regard your having a bicycle as essential to winning the war? A.—Of course. It will keep up national morale.

Q.—How so? A.—The people need entertainment and when they see me on a bicycle they will get it.

Q.—How far do you live from work? A.—Twenty miles.

Q.—Our records show that it is only two miles. A.—You forget that it's all uphill.

Q.—Have you thought of pooling bicycles? A.—What do you mean? Q.—You take a neighbor to work one day and he takes you the next.

A.—Who do you think I am, Joe Jackson Jr.?

THE SILVER LINING This year, ah me, Good luck is mine. I'll never see A detour sign. —Merrill Chilcote.

The best laugh line of the month in this department's opinion is to be found in "The Cram-bury Tiger," a baseball story by Bugs Baer in Collier's. In a fantastic tale about a busher, there is an episode where a shotgun marriage takes place at the plate during a critical inning. The game is then resumed and the batter strikes out. "He is now in a fine spot," says Baer. "He is struck out and married on a wide outshoot."

The police of a Pennsylvania city have stopped bingo games to save gas, oil and rubber. As if anything in this country could justifiably be given a priority over bingo.

One of the prisoners held for aiding those Nazi spies was a former steward on the Nourmahal, presidential yacht. And we always thought those millionaire boats were well screened.

Playing cards now have the airplanes of all nations on them. Maybe the reason some bridge addicts lost all the time was due to lack of air protection.

Many breweries are now putting out beer only in quart bottles. And Elmer Twitchell complains that when he now goes to the icebox for a bottle of beer he brings along a helper.

R. Roelofs Jr. insists that he went into a big hotel the other day, asked for a room and got the curt demand, "Where's your army uniform?"

AMONG other somewhat tangled snarls the war department is facing a tough problem regarding sport for 1943. It is easy enough and simple enough to say that sport will be abolished.

"This would be a bad thing," a high-ranking officer tells me. "We need sport for future physical fitness, for revenue and for morale. There is no sense in solving headaches by cutting off heads. And we'll have plenty of headaches."

"There is a very good chance that before 1943 arrives all our big league ball players, our professional football players and our college football players will be drawn into some branch of the service. We need too many men. Being married or having dependents won't help those between 20 and 45, especially those who are physically fit, as most athletes should be.

"There is little use in building up a sporting nation if these men can't be used in time of war for active service."

Looking Ahead "What will happen to competitive sport?" I asked. "I'm referring largely to baseball and football."

"Sport will have to get along with what it has left. There won't be any stars left on the professional side. I don't think there will be many stars left on the amateur side for college football either. There may be few big spectacles of any sort—or none at all." But that doesn't mean all sport will be thrown overboard. That would be a serious mistake.

With a draft limit fixed between 18 and 50, something almost certain to happen, with more and more married men drawn in—even those with families—it is difficult to see now how the two major baseball leagues or the professional football leagues can operate after 1942 has slipped over the hill. Men physically equipped to play hard games are the ones that are needed above all other types.

What will be used to fill in the huge gaps is another guess.

The College Side College football may run into the same tangle. The season just ahead will be one of the most spectacular in football history. There will be far more men playing more games, when you include the different service teams.

But with the growing need for men, especially young man power, the colleges will get a terrific raiding. Which is the way it should be. On a general average to find the best type of man power we must look to youth—to those between 18 and 30. So far as war and training for war is concerned, the best years range between 18 and 25.

No one but a complete idiot can gamble on this being a short war. Suppose it isn't a short war, which few who should know think it will be? In that case the younger men, the athletes, will be among those who can help most.

I saw a big chunk of the present German army in hard training around Berlin in 1936 during the last Olympic games. Kids by the thousands—12, 13 and 14 years old—marched mile after mile—up to 15 miles a day.

No matter what the game, youngsters must be caught and trained early in order to reach any real heights.

Training Plan There should be some plan for training and developing boys around 13 or 14 or 15 in this country today. Those to whom I have talked in the army and the war department in general agree with this. These youngsters will be a vital part of our service in case the war lasted five or six years. Not forgetting the force that will be needed after the war is over.

An athlete might be no better than one who was never cast in any athletic test. But he should be. Not in the matter of courage, but along the line of physical condition and trained muscles—in co-ordination and endurance.

This country has been shy in leg strength and leg stamina for a long time. The place to start now is at far younger ages, and some war plan must be worked out to meet this vital situation.

There never has been a better coach than Bob Zuppke to get set for one vital contest. Fritz Crisler, Michigan's able leader, discovered this when he happened to say that Tom Harmon was a better back than Grange ever was.

That was all Zuppke needed. Using this as his theme in a series of blazing oratorical sorties, Zuppke had his team so steamed up by game time that Harmon could find no exits.

WHAT HELPS KENTUCKY HELPS YOU! Every legitimate industry that contributes to the economic and social welfare of Kentucky is vitally important to you. The legal beer industry gives honest jobs to 15,000 Kentuckians — pays them more than $10,000,000 in salaries and wages, every year. Its taxes—$1,364,658 last year, $7,904,876 since 1935—help to build schools and educate your children, contribute to old age assistance, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind, health service, confederate pensions and other public services. The loss of beer's taxes would mean that you would have to dig still deeper into your own pocket to maintain these services. To protect these contributions to Kentucky's welfare, the brewing industry carries on a self-regulation program to maintain wholesome conditions wherever beer is sold. To date, through this Committee's cooperation with State and local law-enforcement officials, 39 retail beer licenses have been revoked because of law violations; 12 suspended; 4 places padlocked; 4 license renewals refused. . . . YOU can help in two ways: (1) Don't buy beer in any place that disregards the law; (2) report any law violation to the authorities or to this Committee. HARRY D. THINGS TO THINK ABOUT:

When ole yellow (America Firster) Lindbergh walked into federal court in Indianapolis the other day to testify for Silver Shirt Pelley, he smiled at the judge and the judge smiled right back at him, according to the newspapers. Later, the jury found Pelley guilty on 11 counts of sedition carrying a maximum penalty of 220 years in prison. Still, according to the press, Pelley didn't seem worried. When he came up for sentence, the judge who smiled at Lindbergh gave him a light sentence of 15 years—less than the maximum penalty on one count. This means Pelley will be eligible for parole in five years.

This Pelley, who conspired against our country is in the same category as the man who defends it. Both march away for the duration. Pelley will be in hardship and danger. He may be in a hospital or in an unmarked grave when Pelley comes out of prison.

Now Ku-Kluxer Asher, also charged with sedition, wants to be tried in Indianapolis. He likes judges who smile at Lindbergh.

If they are short on electric current in Indianapolis, they can use Kentucky's electric chair for the duration.

With civilization fighting for its life, with free labor on the threshold of death throughout the world, we must get rid of our carefree spirit of former years. There is not much to laugh about; too many working men are dying today. They are dying of starvation and brutality in German concentration camps and labor battalions. They are dying under the stars of a tropical night and under the sun of an arctic day. Wherever the flags of England, Russia or America fly along the battlefronts, working men are dying in the uniforms of those countries—they are dying bravely and without complaint, in the hope that their death may preserve what they held dear in life. It should accentuate the determination of LABOR to see that these sacrifices are not in vain—that labor is in the war to win, and to hell with everything else! It is up to labor to see that this war is won. It is on labor in overalls that labor in uniform must rely. If labor in America fails to produce the weapons, the ships and the supplies—Labor at the front will die. Production must not only be maintained—it must be increased. Labor MUST work FASTER, HARDER and LONGER. There won't be any overtime or vacations or even any contracts if the war is lost. The prevailing wages will be those prevailing in Japan and Germany and the "Straw Bosses" will speak with a German accent and wear medals showing how many laboring men they have killed. Labor has graver responsibilities than it ever had before. How it discharges those responsibilities will determine the position it holds in the future. You can depend on Floyd county—the miners will do it, regardless of the cost. We've got what it takes and we'll come through.

SERIOUSLY SPEAKING

By E. F. EPLING

There's no use pretending or trying to make ourselves believe that we're helping to win this war. I'm speaking about—

Those of you who, like myself, scarcely make enough to keep going and do not have any money to buy a bond; Those who have ten or twenty to "blow" between Friday night and Sunday and do not buy even a Defense Stamp; Any who may be so unconcerned about giving a few pounds of scrap metal;

And those "self-firsters" — who have the money, go buy plenty of lard. And more are hoarding coffee.

If the shoe fits, wear it, and try to be open-minded, for you're not a true-blue American, and you're not even thinking about a land where your children may have the privileges and protection such as you yourselves have had in the past.

None is without fault and perfect. But the least and unlearned, even the great and well-informed, know what they're doing to help our men in the service. And those who are not doing anything to help, will you please consider once more, and see just how many things are in your everyday living that are helping to put the brakes on our war machine.

ing to put the brakes on our war machine.

We've tried to give a little of the much credit due the school children in the scrap drives And it's grand to know how they've been assisted by teachers and others, particularly those who've helped with trucks. Americans at work.

One Battle Does Not Win a War

BY fortuitous circumstances, not by harder work or greater determination, some other counties of Kentucky have exceeded Floyd county's collection of the scrap the nation's war production plants must have to supply the necessities of our fighting men in this greatest of all wars.

Floyd county is only somewhere around the halfway mark toward attaining its goal of more than five million pounds of scrap metal and rubber.

But the shooting is not over on the Floyd county Scrap Front. Salvage leaders say the quota will be reached—eventually. They operate on the theory that one battle does not win a war, and that this first onslaught by Floyd countians on their scrap collective scrap pile is not to be the last.

Farms and homesteads of the county have been thoroughly scoured for scrap. But, unlike those sections where farming is a mechanized industry, these, as a rule, supply no great mass of metal. The hope of the county to reach its quota lies in industrial scrap in and around the mines and scattered over the gas field.

Strictly agricultural counties, too, have not hitherto supplied the mountainous piles of junk that have been leaving this county for many months. In these counties, the scrap was not centralized; so junk dealers passed them by to visit industrial centers, such as our mines, to get quick scrap tonnage. That, in some degree, explains the difficulty Floyd county has experienced in meeting its quota while some other counties have been more successful.

In some counties, miles of abandoned railway became available as junk; in others, old bridges were scrapped. In such instances, the salvage work could be quickly finished.

This is not to alibi for Floyd county. For it needs no alibis. Only, its children, teachers and the few others deeply interested in the scrap movement are due for their heroic work from this newspaper and the public in general some acknowledgement of the many handicaps they faced from the outset.

Town Trees

PRESTONSBURG has one distinction granted by Nature. That is its trees.

In autumn this forested town is more distinctive even than in springtime. These autumn days, there is a variety of color beside which vernal verdure pales.

All the delicate shades of color, from silver and pale saffron to dark russet and scarlet, glorify a dying year. These leaves, next spring, will be here in natural transmigration to shade well-known and well-loved streets in Nature's greenness and bright gloom.

There would be no excuse whatever to expend the time required to write this and transmute it into type, were there not a necessity for reminding Prestonsburg citizens that their trees are things of beauty and should be spared the over-active axe.

Where Floyd Countians in Armed Forces Are, What They're Doing Told

Tavis Little, son of Mrs. J. H. Hall, of Melvin, was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the army Oct. 23 at the Infantry Officers' School at Ft. Benning, Georgia. Lieut. Little attended Wheelwright high school prior to joining the army Oct. 26, 1939. While at Ft. Benning, he was a member of the crack Third Student Training Regiment under the command of Col. R. H. Lord.

Noah Dewey Thacker, Jr., 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah D. Thacker, of Martin, enlisted Saturday in the Marines and was immediately transferred to the training base at Parris Island, S. C., for his basic instruction. Upon the completion of this "boot" course of about six weeks he will be assigned to duty elsewhere for his advanced instruction in the methods of modern warfare.

Pvt. Allen Patton, Jr., son of Allen Patton, of Langley, has been transferred from Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., to Bowman Field, Ky., for basic training.

Everett Tackett, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sumpter Tackett, of Martin, enlisted Oct. 22 in the United States Marines and became one of the famous fighting Leathernecks. He was immediately transferred to the Marine Corps Base at Parris Island, South Carolina, where he will receive his basic training which includes intensive instruction in the use of the rifle, pistol, automatic rifle, machine gun and other infantry weapons. Afterward he will be sent elsewhere for his advanced instruction in the methods of modern warfare. He attended Martin high school.

Midshipmen Waldo and Gentry Smith, sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, of Drift, are candidates for positions as naval officers. They are now attending the United States Naval Reserve Midshipman's School of Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. Both men were formerly instructors in Floyd county high schools.

Pvt. Gladis F. Ferrell, of Harold, is now with the Fifth Service Command at Camp Campbell, Ky. He was inducted at Ft. Thomas. Prior to his induction, he was employed at Plum Break, Ohio.

Luther L. Latham, of Melvin, has been promoted to be technician, fifth grade. He is assigned to the 121st station hospital at Camp Barkley, Texas.

The following newly inducted personnel of the United States army have been sent forward from the Snake to swallow his tail. They were all having a good time and encouraging it on. The snake kept right on swallowing itself. Well, they finally saw that snake completely swallow itself up, and to this day they have never found that snake.

So long, I'll be scraping you with scrap soon.

Prompt Action Urged For Truck Operators Seeking Certificates

Mailing of application blanks for use of commercial motor vehicle operators in applying for certificates of nearly 70 Ohio counties, more than 40 in Kentucky, and more than 30 in West Virginia and the remaining counties are rapidly being completed.

R. D. Thomas, of Cleveland, regional manager of the Office of Defense Transportation, warns that it takes some time to analyze the applications and forward the certificates, and in order to have a certificate in the hands of all operators of trucks, buses and taxicabs by Nov. 15, it is necessary that every operator complete his application within 10 days after its receipt.

Without them after Nov. 15 they will be unable to get gasoline, tires or replacement parts.

The mailing of applications to operators of truck fleets has been completed nationally, but the blanks are still being mailed to operators of one and two vehicles. The mailing list is being made up of those operators who registered on Dec. 31, 1941, as owners of commercial vehicles. Anyone who did not register at that time will not receive a blank unless he makes special application to his nearest district ODT office. Floyd county was one of the 80 counties in the state not completed last week, but application blanks were expected to reach all commercial vehicle operators of this section within a few days.

Carriers who fail to return their applications for certificates of war necessity promptly or who cause delay by improperly filling out their applications, may make it impossible for the Office of Defense Transportation to get their certificates to them by Nov. 15, Thomas pointed out.

SINCE THE DAYS OF JOHN LANGLEY, WHO WAS KNOWN AND LOVED IN EVERY PRECINCT, NO CANDIDATE HAS MET WITH A MORE ENTHUSIASTIC RESPONSE THAN HAS BEEN GIVEN TO DR. GABBARD.

WHAT OTHERS THINK AND SAY

"He is one of the most inspired and inspiring men I have ever known. He is a great American and needs to be recognized as such."

Chattanooga Times, Aug. 31

"The Republicans have reached high for their standard-bearer in the Seventh District. Dr. Gabbard is not only mountain-born with a name as familiar as saddle-bags and rhododendron, but a scholar of eloquence and notable accomplishments."

Courier-Journal, Aug. 28

The character of the man, the great services he has rendered to education and to social and moral reform of the people, and the motives which have prompted him to become a candidate make his race unusual.

"He deserves to win. He is splendidly equipped for service. He would hew to the line, support every sound policy of government and strive courageously and intelligently against every tendency which threatens to undermine American traditional institutions."

Lexington Leader, July 19

"There is an inner fire of great conviction and tremendous sincerity in Gabbard. The mere sound of his voice is enough to suggest the gates of salvation opening ajar. The Republicans have not had such a man in public life in Kentucky in years."

RED CROSS SEWING

It is highly gratifying and encouraging to see so many women coming daily to the Home Ec room to take part in the Red Cross sewing, that was re-organized here a few days ago. I overheard someone express surprise at the amazing number of women who can sew.

To me, it isn't amazing; for several years, now, more and more women have been doing their own sewing. If one understands dress-making and tailoring, one can have better-fitting, better-made and less expensive clothes than the ready-made, or storebought clothes, and yet be as smartly dressed, too. Besides, in the heart of every woman and girl is that love for beautiful, attractive and smart-looking clothes and the desire to be able to create or make them herself.

Many of the older women did not have the advantage or opportunity to learn sewing, as our daughters do have the homemaking course that is taught in our high schools, and in some schools taught in the seventh and eighth grades, too. It would be a good thing here, if our girls could have sewing and cooking earlier in their teen-age, and more of it than they seem to get. After all, to know the arts of homemaking, to cultivate the knack of making a happy home, is an art and a career in itself. Other women, who never had that advantage in school, either possessed a natural talent for sewing or needle-work, or took a course in sewing as I did.

When I married, I knew nothing whatever about sewing. Just a bit of fancy work, such as hem-stitching, narrow crochet edgings or how to embroider. What I had once learned from mother about cooking, I soon forgot when I became a "working girl." My husband could easily surpass me, in both cooking and sewing, until I took professional dressmaking and tailoring. As a premium and to encourage me in my sewing, the school sent me a volume, "Library of Cookery," which was a big help to me in my early days of keeping house. I have never regretted that sewing course. Early ideas of having a "Dress Shoppe" have grown dim, through the years, yet I still get a real enjoyment and a justifiable pride in my sewing ability, as a result of that sewing course. My books cover sewing rather thoroughly; from laundering to designing clothes; the various kinds of stitches and seam finishing, trimming and decorative and embroidery stitches, taste in dress or color harmony; the suitability or appropriateness of certain clothes for certain occasions or seasons of the year.

So many of these little details could be applied now to the Red Cross sewing. Anything worth doing at all, is worth doing well! Since the Red Cross buys such good materials for us to work on, I wish it would go a step farther and furnish the various findings, to do our best work with. It would be a credit to the workers, and a comfort and pleasure to the wearers of these garments we are making. Just bias tape and thread to match the materials. The seam edges of heavy material should be bound with bias tape; all materials can be pinked. Some materials, such as shark-skin (rayons), closely woven cottons, and some of the light weight, more firmly woven woollens may be pinked. The heavier or loosely woven ones will fray, unless they are bound or over-cast. As some one remarked, "Oh, yes, the Red Cross buys the best of materials." It seems a shame that we do not have the necessary findings to do a better job, for it does make a big difference in the finished garment.

The women are so glad to put their skill, talent and sewing ability to a good use, as their part toward the war effort. I shall be more than glad to help, or even make small samplers of sewing details that used to seem so difficult for me before I learned how. For I certainly would have appreciated it very much, had some one been interested enough to have shown me, when I was young and eager to learn sewing, instead of having to spend so many of my then-young husband's hard-earned dollars. We could use two or three more sewing machines, as well as another iron and board. The average number of women who sew in the Home Ec room is about fifteen.

I hope all the women will continue doing this grand work. And it wouldn't hurt the young single girls to attend. It is a fine chance for you to learn to sew, while you are waiting for "Johnny to come marching home."

MRS. WM. J. FORD, Wayland, Ky.

SHE ALSO SERVES

Editor, The Times: For the past two weeks I haven't received The Floyd County Times and now I feel farther away from home than ever.

What's wrong? I hope you didn't donate the press to the metal scrap drive. If my subscription has to be renewed just let me know, but please keep sending THE TIMES.

I'm just another one of the many who have answered Uncle Sam's call to the service.

FROM 'SOMEWHERE IN THE PACIFIC'

Editor, The Times: Enclosed you will find a two-dollar postal money order for a one-year subscription to The Floyd County Times.

Please send it to the address below until further notice.

I have been away from Floyd county since June 10, 1941 and I am beginning to crave a bit of news from the home front. Hope Shikepoke is still writing his bit in THE TIMES, as he is a personal friend of mine. I am somewhere in the Pacific and I am o.k.

The statement, "Remember Pearl Harbor," I will never forget it, for I saw what happened Dec. 7, 1941. I hope everyone is buying all the War Bonds they can afford so we can get revenge for what those yellow rats did.

NO ROSE-COLORED GLASSES NEEDED

Have you ever put on dark glasses and remarked, "How beautiful everything looks"? It seems that the dark glasses put a glow on everything. The grass and trees look greener, and flowers look much prettier than when looked at without the glasses.

Well, that seems to be the same way with the people when they take in the war situation. They say, "Oh, well, why should I save tires and sugar when there are millions doing just that?" It seems they are looking through dark glasses. What if all Americans said that—where would we be today?

So let's take off our dark glasses and face facts. We won't be seeing the rosy glow we once did. Instead, let's look at the true facts, get busy and do all we can. It won't only be helping our government, but we'll also be helping our morale, 100 per cent, too.

ANN B. LESLIE, Emma, Ky.

WRITES FOR HIS 'PUBLIC'

Editor, The Times: Looks like I have a public now. An old side-kick of mine who now is training in the U. S. Navy to help wipe Hitler off the face of the earth wrote his mother saying he was my public, so I must write.

After writing to the paper on different subjects which I thought would get some thought stirred up, I now am at a loss to know what to try next. There is one thing I won't write about, Politics. On this subject, I believe in the same thought that was handed down to the early Christians when they were taking the Lord's Supper: Let every man examine himself and eat. I still say, let every man think, study and then make up his own mind and vote for the best interest of our country. That is an honor our forefathers handed down to us. Keep that honorable and honest, vote on election day and, above all, don't get drunk before you vote.

In my last letter I tried to get a fight started with the vets. Not a one has said anything so far. The drays sure swarmed on me; they thought I was trying to pick a fight with them. They sure are ready to fight. Somebody had better do some sobering up of habitual drunkards or the vets are going to lose. You take mothers, get them stirred up about something wherein their children are concerned, and—well, they just won't quit.

If John L. Lewis tries to organize all farm labor, that will make the farmers mad, then he will organize all his hogs, cows and chickens and I am afraid it will turn out like my great-great-uncle Jeremiah T. Highbottom's pet snake. He raised the snake from a pup—no, a kitten—that's not right, maybe a chick (snakes come from eggs). He worked for years, training the snake to do all kinds of tricks and to follow him around. One Sunday he had his pet out in the road showing him off to his neighbors, so started Mr.

Mrs. Browning Occupies High Post In Grand Chapter, Ky. Eastern Star

MRS. ILEY B. BROWNING

Mrs. Iley B. Browning (Josephine Harkins), of Ashland, was elevated to the office of Worthy Grand Matron when the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of Kentucky held its fortieth annual session in Woodland Auditorium, Lexington, Oct. 26, 27 and 28.

Mrs. Browning is prominent in social, club, fraternal, civic and business circles in Eastern Kentucky, and has been a member of the Order of the Eastern Star for a number of years, her initiation into the Order having taken place as early in life as the laws of the order permit.

In 1917 she was made worthy matron of her home chapter, Adah Chapter of Prestonsburg, where she still maintains active membership and interest. That year she was appointed Grand Organist of the Grand Chapter, and was re-appointed to the same office the following year.

An accomplished organist and pianist, Mrs. Browning maintains a lively interest in this and other cultural organizations in her home city of Ashland. She is on the directorate of the Clivie Music Association and the Ashland Little Theater; past president of the Three Arts Club. With all her duties, Mrs. Browning finds time to take an active part in civic affairs, being past president of the Charity Club of Ashland, also president of the Crabbe Parent-Teacher Association, and parliamentarian of the Ashland Woman's Club, and one of the organizers of the Wednesday Morning Music Club.

She is past regent of Poage Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and figured prominently in the annual convention of this patriotic organization in Ashland last spring. For the past five years she had been state chairman of the Junior American Citizens Committee of Kentucky Society D. A. R.

Mrs. Browning is a director of The Bank Josephine, which was organized by her father, the late Walter S. Harkins, of Prestonsburg, and named in honor of her mother, Mrs. Josephine D. Harkins. She is president of the Hamilton Coal & Land Company, Prestonsburg.

Three years ago, she was appointed Grand Adah of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and was elected Associate Grand Conductress the following year, Grand Conductress a year later and Associate Grand Matron last year. Her elevation to the office of Worthy Grand Matron, the highest in this Grand Chapter of Kentucky, this year brings her into an exacting position for which she is admirably fitted.

Among those attending the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star of Kentucky, at Lexington this week, from Adah Chapter No. 24 are Mesdames Marvin Alley, Joe Hobson, Jo M. Davidson, Luther Shivel, Henry Stephens, Jr., E. P. Arnold, W. B. Garriott, Mary D. Allen, Josie D. Harkins, Walter Van Landingham, Glenn C. Spradlin, Lida Spradlin, Lida Cottrell, Osa F. Ligon, Ruth D. Sowards, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harkins, Miss Josephine Davidson, Mrs. Katherine Langley, of Pikeville, Mrs. Florence Marshall, of Martin.

Mrs. Josephine Browning, member of Adah Chapter, was elevated to the chair of Worthy Grand Matron of Kentucky on Wednesday after the banquet given on Tuesday evening in honor of the Associate Grand Matron and Associate Grand Patron, Mrs. Osa F. Ligon has been appointed Grand Deputy for this district, and Miss Josephine Davidson has received the appointment of Grand Esther of Kentucky by Mrs. Browning and their installation was held on Wednesday along with other state officers, Worthy Grand Matron is the highest honor that can be bestowed on an Eastern Star of any state, and Adah Chapter is proud of its member, Mrs. Browning. Many courtesies have been extended in her honor this year in many parts of the state.

A Quartet of 'Cat Sophomores

GENE MEEKS—HALFBACK

BEN KESSINGER—HALFBACK

GEORGE SENGLE—END

TOMMY EWING—QUARTERBACK

These four University of Kentucky sophomores have played dominant roles in the success of Coach Ab Krwan's football machine. George Sengle, a product of Louisville Manual High, and Tommy Ewing, from Ashland high school, have started the major portion of the games this season.

Sengle works from the left end post and Tommy handles the signal calling duties when he's in the game, which is quite a bit. Gene Meeks was Kirwan's chief sophomore threat in the backfield until he received a very painful back injury recently. At the time of his injury, he had scored 30 points in three games, which is pretty fair country ball totin'. Ken Kessinger has been used as a utility fullback mainly this season, but he's shown great promise, and Ringmaster Ab Kirwan is counting on him more and more as the season progresses. He's a big scrapper, weighing 200, and stands six feet, one inch.

4-H Clubs To Observe Achievement Week

Kentucky 4-H clubs, in step with other clubs over the United States, will observe Nov. 7 to 14 as Achievement Week. It is announced by J.

W. Whitehouse, state leader of boys' and girls' 4-H club work. What 4-H clubs have done in helping to win the war will be the theme of a statewide radio program on Nov. 7, to officially open the week. Taking part will be Charles Hatcher, Campbell county, and Miss Lucy

Byrd Oliver, Barren county, president and secretary of the Kentucky Association of 4-H clubs, along with 4-H club leaders from the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. In every county-seat town throughout the week will be window arrangements, planned by county agricultural and home demonstration agents, to show how 4-Hers worked for victory in 1942, through scrap and rubber collections, home canning, clothing conservation, hog and corn production, and the sale of stamps and bonds.

In Estill county, a farmer reports cutting his alfalfa five times, each cutting averaging a ton. Twelve homemakers' clubs in Webster county have contributed to a fund of $24 for library books.

ROUND up your scrap metal—it's needed to make steel. Steel for armor plate to protect him from bombs and bullets. Steel for weapons to help him do the job that must be done before he can come home again.

You don't want production figures. It's enough to know that 50% of all new steel is made of scrap—that our steel mills now have only enough scrap in sight to last another 30 days at the most!

What happens after that depends on all of us. If production falls and you've not done your part, will you rest easy?

Next week we're starting a collection drive—to build the biggest stockpile of scrap metal you've ever seen. Then when the mills need it, we'll have it—because you came through... for his sake!

U. S. FOREIGN LEGION
Most people don't realize it, but there are many enemy aliens who are officers in the U. S. army. In fact the army, true to the American tradition of the melting pot, is made up of American citizens of almost every national and racial background, including 2,720 German aliens, not to mention 2,700 Germans who are naturalized citizens.

The Italian total is 2,472 aliens and 3,781 naturalized. In addition, there are 644 Japanese in the army, plus 3,000 Japanese-Americans, formerly of the Hawaiian national guard, most of whom are assigned to the 100th battalion at Fort McCoy, Wis.

The army goes on the assumption that any man who wants to fight can be a good soldier. Of course, the "enemy aliens" are checked and double-checked before they are admitted for enlistment. The men who pass these tests are found to be even more zealous for the defeat of the dictators than the average American.

Latin-American Battalions.

To make the melting pot more complex, the army has a Filipino infantry battalion, and is forming a battalion for Norwegians in the U. S. and Norwegian-Americans. Instruction and conversation in this unit will be in the Norwegian language.

Equally eager to fight are thousands of Latin-Americans, especially from the nearer countries, such as Cuba and Mexico. The office of the U. S. military attaché in Havana is flooded with applications from young Cubans who want to wear the uniform of Uncle Sam. Most of them would renounce Cuban citizenship if necessary.

But what they do not realize is that if they come to the United States, they are likely to be swept into the U. S. army, whether they like it or not. Within five days after entering this country, aliens must register for the draft, and they had better leave the country pronto if they don't want to be inducted.

Not yet arranged, but highly desirable, is a Latin-American battalion. There are now ten Latin-American countries which have declared war on the Axis, and thousands of their young men want to follow up that declaration with something more than police duty at home.

BACK-BREAKERS

An American diplomat returning from Italy tells this revealing story about the true sentiments of the Italian people.

In his office at the U. S. embassy in Rome he found a clerk, an Italian girl, crying. When he inquired what was wrong, she replied: "Oh, I'm ashamed to be an Italian. You remember what boasting the Fascists did about the Greek campaign? They said: 'We will break their kidneys.' But everybody knows who really beat the Greeks; it was not our army; it was the Germans. But now—have you seen the poster on the streets this morning?" And the girl broke into tears again.

The diplomat looked outside at the poster, which that day was appearing all over Italy. It showed a Greek soldier lying on his face, with a steel bar across his back. On top of the bar was the Fascist insignia, and on the side, the swastika. The caption read: "We said we would break their kidneys. Mussolini is always right."

Note: All reports from Italy tell of a growing disgust with the Mussolini government, and a growing hatred of the Germans. But the people are too cowed to revolt.

NO-CHAUFFEUR ARNOLD

Trustbusting Thurman Arnold hails from the small town of Laramie, Wyo., and he doesn't see any reason why he should hire a chauffeur to drive his car. So he drives it himself.

One evening, after he and Mrs. Arnold had been dinner guests of Mrs. Evalyn (Hope Diamond) McLean, they were going out the front door, when the doorman said, in his most elegant manner, "Shall I call your car, Mr. Arnold?"

With a dour expression on his face, Arnold said, "You can call it, but I don't think it will come."

CAPITAL CHAFF

¶ The Thurman Arnolds are mourning over the fact that Angelica has eaten Henry Wallace's corn. When the vice president heard about it, he having given the Arnolds a present of Iowa hybrid corn, he remarked: "I hope the corn did Angelica some good." Angelica is the Thurman Arnolds' cow.

¶ Mrs. Claude Pepper, wife of Senator "No-X-Card" Pepper of Florida, walks to social engagements or takes the street car.

¶ There may be a gasoline shortage, but you would never know it at Washington's Congressional Country Club. On a recent Sunday there were so many golfers that caddies had to double up and carry two or three bags each. On the same Sunday, motorists so jammed the highways between Washington and Eastern Shore beaches that cars were lined up for three hours waiting for the Chesapeake ferry.

Notes of an Innocent Bystander:

The Wireless: Agitation for a definite break with Vichy is growing on the networks. Louis Bromfield, Waverly Root, Richard de Rochemont and others argued that we should put the enemy label on Laval and the rest of the Hitler funkies. . . . Lots of fun on the Columbia Workshop show, "Let Me Tell You About My Operation." This outfit sometimes blunders on the yarn, but the presentation is always crisp. It's a program with a style. . . . Somebody in need of some new angles are the sponsors of the class musicals. What are they so awed about? It's only a song they're announcing—not a funeral, as their hushed tones lead you to suspect. . . . Have a haha. Harry Flannery records in his good book, "Assignment to Berlin," that he was forbidden to broadcast the word "Nazi." It seems the Nazis themselves know how the word smells in free lands.

Man About New York:

Mayor LaGuardia will soon officiate at his last wedding for the duration. The bride will be Marian Anderson, famed oriole. The groom will be a surprise to the Mayor and the nation. . . . Norma Shearer is not sealed. Says her wedding ring is the one Irving Thalberg gave her. . . . The Mickey Roneys are about to confirm the rumors which others have denied. . . . Judy Garland's front page story is being edited. . . . Steve Crane, who eloped with Lana Turner, spent his last ten Gs banging at the H'wood gates.

"This Is the Army" will continue its run until Oct. 1. Then tour coast-to-coast in principal cities. If a radio deal clicks Army Relief will be richer by another $130,000. . . . The Ziegfeld Theater is for sale for $300,000. A radio chain may buy it. . . . One of the glamour gals from H'wood will be dropped from pictures (all studios banning) if she doesn't quit those 3-day binges. . . . Reader's Digest and the Satevpost have reconciled. The Digest will carry H. Sherman's Post piece on inflation. . . . Julius Streicher's "Der Stuermer" describes the editorial staff of the N. Y. Times as consisting of: W. Winchell, D. Thompson, W. Pegler, W. Lippmann and Mrs. E. Roosevelt.

Bing Crosby is hoping for an Air Corps assignment. . . . Harper and Brothers will publish "Sabotage" by A. Kahn and M. Sayres. The expose alleges a Nazi plot to sabotage U. S. morale via certain congressmen not known to readers of this dept. . . . The most snobbish of the Miami Beach hotels will not open this season—the snoboteurs.

Spy No. 1 (Dasch) worked as a waiter at Glen Island Casino. . . . The Count Von Reventlow (Barbara Hutten's ex) and the Dep't of Justice agents in Colorado are having tete-a-tetes. . . . M. Arlen, the book writer, is down to 110—very ill in New England. . . . If you hear him saying: "He's nuts!" "Swell guy," "Terrific" and "No foolin'?"—that's His Majesty the King of Greece. . . . The Book-of-the-Month choice for October will be "The Seventh Cross" by Anna Seghers (Little Brown) and "They Were Expensible" by W. L. White (Harcourt Brace).

March of Time's "Men of the Fleet" is a honey of a recruiter. . . . Anthony Cramer, one of the alleged Nazi spy aids, had a plastic nose op about 2 months ago. . . . Two more picture detective mags have been barred from the mails because of obscenity. . . . Beulah Macfadden, the mag man's daughter, and Robert Decker, the tennis champ, will be knotted shortly. . . . Hollywood film director Raoul Walsh one month ago turned down $30,000 for his race horse, Grand Manitou. It died the other day.

Standard Oil of N. J. is inviting stockholders around the nation to a series of swank dinners (which get no publicity) in order to explain the various attacks against it. . . . Rear Admiral Yates Stirling Jr. will be editor in chief of "Naval Review" due on Navy Day. . . . Elissa Landi is writing her autobiography in novel form.

Col. Gomez, the playboy and spender, is with us again. The Venezuelan Gov't, which barred him once, welcomed him back and turned over to him the three million smacker estate confiscated from his parent. . . . Rarely carries less than $100 bills—for tips.

The Front Pages: The bad news from the Russian fronts led the editorialists to rebuke us for hoping too much. We've been drunk on optimism, they scolded, figuring all the fight had gone out of Hitler. . . . Even the galleiter rags over here changed their tune. They had been worrying about a Red Army victory, but once they got scared they found out that's what they wanted. . . . The Times, which has always been nice to Congress, had to express its disgust for the sappler members. —Buy War Bonds—

GETTING WITHIN PUNCHING DISTANCE OF TOKIO

NEW YORK—Recapture of the air bases of Chuhshien, Lishui and expected recapture of Kinshwa by Chinese land forces, places United Nations air forces in position for long-range bombing of the Japanese capital. Tokio is now but seven hours from these Chinese bases. The big Japanese industrial centers of Nagasaki and Osaka are much closer. So from now on Mr. Moto can be looking aloft for an encore to the performance of General Jimmy Doolittle and his merry men.

RED CROSS SEWING STARTED

Red Cross sewing and knitting was begun, a week ago, in the Home Ec room of the new high school building. It is gratifying to see the large number of women turning out daily to sew or knit, as their part toward our war effort. There are three sewing machines in the sewing room; two more could be easily used. Last week, the women made girls' woolen dresses, of brown herringbone weave; made princess style, trimmed in brightly colored yarn saddle stitching. Many of the women donated the yarn for the trimming. Several took their sewing home with them, rather than to sew at the school building from 2 to 4 p.m., as many of the miners are going to work at these hours.

Mineworker Gives His Views On Congressional Election

Listen, all you voters—and especially you miners—we all know that Franklin D. Roosevelt is our friend—the greatest friend Labor has ever had in the White House. No one denies this. Then why hand him a slap in the face by trying to defeat the chairman of the Military Affairs Committee—A. J. May, of the Seventh District?

"Jack" is up the highest we have ever had a Congressman; and if he is defeated, the other man will just go to the foot of the class.

Now as to the chairman of the Military Affairs Committee, there have been 12 main bills introduced in Congress that were necessary for the absolute all-out war on the Axis: (1) Guam Fortification; (2) Conscription Act; (3) Lease-Lend Act; (4) Draft Extension; (5) Neutrality Revision; (6) Arms Embargo; (7) Military Airplane Appropriation; (8) First Lease-Lend Appropriation; (9) Second Lease-Lend Appropriation; (10) Repeal of Ban on Arming Ships; (11) Lifting Belligerent Zones; (12) Ship Seizure Bill. Any man, regardless of political party, ought to be able to earn a share of 75 per cent on the above bills in times like these. If he didn't, his constituents should find out why before they vote for him again.

Four Kentucky Congressmen scored 100 per cent. They were Vincent, Spence, Gregory and our own Jack May. Our chairman has been doing his utmost in the war effort. Those out-of-the-state big-wigs who are advocating Jack's defeat have nothing against him—they just want to smear Roosevelt. Well, they tried us miners out when Roosevelt ran against Williekie and this old district of ours gave the largest majority in history for F.D.R. Now, they are trying us miners out again and I predict that again we will not take a back-handed slap at Roosevelt by voting against A. J. May.

Remember, miners, we've all got brothers, sons, fathers and friends shedding their blood every day because our so-called friends like Senator Wheeler and the other isolationists didn't have sense enough to vote for preparedness while JACK MAY DID. Why swap a known quantity for an unknown?

I notice that the Roosevelt-haters are carrying clippings from The Courier-Journal. Well, all I can say is, we might just be mountain coal miners—but, remember, we have sense enough to elect a Congressman who voted 100 per cent on war measures—while The Courier-Journal's pet Congressman, O'Neal, in their district, only voted 92 per cent. Seems that we could give them some advice.

And listen, fellows—those people who opposed F.D.R. and the administration's efforts to prepare for war have no right to demand the driver's seat now. The nation spoke in 1940 when F.D.R. was returned for a third term—let's give our Commander-in-Chief whatever he needs to work with.

If Jack May should be defeated, the Berlin-Rome Tokyo radio stations would broadcast to the world that Kentucky wasn't backing the war effort. Knowing the Floyd county miners as I do—I don't think it will happen.

MORTON (Shikepoke) McGLOTHEN (Adv.)

COFFEE RATIONING

When the nation-wide rationing starts Nov. 22, with all salesmen eliminated from this class.

The WPB laid down rigid style and production restrictions for enameled household ware.

While consumer rationing of coffee substitutes has not been imposed, shipping uncertainties affect most of them. Supplies of cocoa and powdered chocolate are being cut to 60 per cent of the 1941 consumption by a limitation on cocoa bean grinding. The beans come mainly from Africa and Brazil.

Tea also may be scarce. All stocks of green tea, which came from Japan and China, have been frozen for government purchase and none is available to the public except small quantities.
