This Town-- That World

WHY?
We are reminded, just now, that the 17-year locusts will return this year. And that points to some of the many mysteries which, for all man's scientific knowledge, we have not yet fathomed.

Is this the same type of locust which plagued the Pharaoh, all those thousands of years ago? Use your imagination a bit, and you will hear the cry of the locust... "Pharaoh." It is the same locust that returns, unfailingly, every 17 years. Why?

And why does the salmon complete its cycle — spawned in the headwaters of the Columbia whither the parent-salmon fought its way to spawn and die; then the young salmon going back out to sea again whence came the original, and finally completing the cycle itself by fighting the rapids, even man-made dams, back up the river again to spawn and die — why?

And why do the seasons roll inexorably around, and the branches bud and leaf and die and burst into bud and leaf again? Then one more question. Why do men, with all their vaunted intelligence, doubt that there is a Supreme Intelligence who planned all this and set it in motion?

SECRET WEAPON?

There are Democrats who will tell you that the reason for the Russian peace move is that the Republicans, wanting to get rid of McCarthy, threatened to send him to Moscow.

NELSON DIES OF GUNSHOT

Middle Creek Man, 21,
Hunting Mishap Victim, Coroner's Jury Holds

A jury empaneled by Coroner James J. Carter held last Thursday that the death that morning of Ashland Nelson, 21-year-old Blue River man, was the result of a hunting accident.

Nelson was found in the hills on Buckeye Fork of Middle Creek shortly after 10 a.m., shot in the abdomen, his shotgun lying nearby. Witnesses testified at the inquest they heard him calling his dog, shortly before the shotgun was fired. The belief was expressed, following the investigation, that Nelson had stood on a stump while calling his dog and had attempted to place the butt of the gun at his feet, missing the stump but striking the lock against it.

Nelson died, en route to the hospital here. He was quoted by those bringing him here as having said, "My gun was my best friend, and it killed me."

The victim was a son of Joe and Lula Brown Nelson, of Blue River. Besides his parents, he leaves five sisters, Misses Fanny, Martha, Ollie, Maggie and Stella Nelson, all of Blue River. Funeral rites were conducted Saturday afternoon from the Buckeye school, the Revs. Foster Ing, Burial was made in the Buckeye cemetery under direction of the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

BIDS EXCEED FUNDS, SLOW SCHOOL WORK

Court, School Board Delay Contract Award;
Changes Being Studied

With no more than $400,000 available for the work to be done, and the lowest bids offered totalling $475,430.66, the Floyd fiscal court and Floyd County Board of Education in joint session Tuesday were forced to delay awarding of contracts on the proposed 23-classroom county high school building here.

The court entered, on the same day, an order providing that 10-day notice be given all bidders on revisions which must be made in order to get the project within the $400,000 limit.

The court, acting as the Board's fiscal agent, has voted bonds in that amount for the school structure, and the entire construction plan has been approved by the State Department of Education on the basis of a $400,000 expenditure.

After a spirited session with the architects, Hayes & Lusk, of Ashland, board members and County Superintendent Virgil O. Turner expressed the belief that changes can be made which will have no deleterious effect on the structure and its equipment as a whole and which will bring the cost within the sum available.

Superintendent Turner said it is hoped to have the building ready for classroom work by opening of the September, 1954 term. Commenting on the situation faced Tuesday when bids ran the construction figure too high, he said, "The present administration inherited the contract with Hayes & Lusk. Construction as planned calls for superfluous items that in many instances are ridiculous. The Board will have to work out something to reduce the cost of the building."

Low bidder on construction of the building itself, exclusive of plumbing, heating and wiring was Akers & Akers, of Banner, who asked $238,281.47. Other low bidders: plumbing, W. B. Henry & Company, Bowling Green, $24,491.07; heating, R. C. Dyer, $35,148.12; wiring, Elliott Glass Co., Pikeville, $27,510.

SLATE OF 7 IS SELECTED

As League Directors,
Officers; Mail Vote
Asked on Nominations

A slate of seven candidates to serve the Floyd County Good Government Taxpayers League as its directors for the next 12 months, with two of the group to be president and secretary-treasurer, was submitted to League members for a balloting by mail following last Saturday's scheduled annual election of officers.

Although the nominations were closed without an opposing ticket being offered, Dr. Edward B. Leslie, League president, explained that members may write in names of others for the posts to be filled.

Dr. Leslie was nominated for reelection as president and Polk Saunders for secretary-treasurer to succeed Joe H. Cooley. These two and the following were nominated for places on the League's board of directors: John Warrick, Prestonsburg, and Gorman Collins, Lackey, incumbents, Herman Porter, of Allen, Lon C. Hill, Prestonsburg, and Woodrow Horn, Lackey, new directors.

Told of the action taken to name him to the board of directors, Mr. Hill said Tuesday that he is not a member of the League, that he plans to participate this year in politics himself and so will not act as a director if elected.

"I appreciate this compliment to my integrity," he said, "however, I feel that no person actively engaged in politics should have a hand in directing the affairs of an organization of this kind. I do not think it would be proper for me to serve as a director, and I suggest that the post be given to some other good citizen."

The meeting at which nominations were made was brief. Opponents to the League organization, as it existed last year and as proposed for this year, asked additional time for an election, but were told, "Today is the deadline."

Sam Hale, of Blue River, asked for more membership cards, remarking, "Up to today we have had no opportunity to get membership cards," and was told by Gorman Collins,

LETCHER MAN LAKE VICTIM

Manies' Auto Quits Road Near Dock; Fog Blamed
For Tragedy, Tuesday

John E. Manies, 47 years old, Detroit factory foreman and a native of Neon, Letcher county, drowned in Dewey Lake early Wednesday morning when his auto dropped from the road leading to the Brandy Keg dock into approximately eight feet of water.

A verdict of accidental death by drowning was made by an inquest jury empaneled by Coroner James J. Carter.

The tragedy occurred around 6:30 a.m., in heavy fog, and this condition is believed to have caused Manies to drive his car over the 15-foot embankment skirting the road and the Brandy Keg arm of the lake. Four Huntington W. Va., fishermen—Ervin and Dallas Finley, Robert Ledbetter and Cullie Dameron—witnessed the tragedy from the dock, less than 100 yards away. They said the car was traveling at a speed of not more than 25 miles and that it slanted across the road, dropped over the bank, impended and hit the water upright. They said there was no apparent attempt to set the brakes.

The Huntington men said they heard Manies call a woman's name, then saw him knock out a window of the car, a 1949 Mercury sedan. The auto then quickly sank. Help was quickly summoned but the auto was not recovered from the water till after 8 a.m.

Manies is the sixth person to drown in the lake since it was impounded in 1950.
The victim, a former McRoberts restaurant-owner and photographer, had been visiting relatives at McRoberts and Neon, and had left there Tuesday afternoon to join his wife and son in Detroit where he was employed. He has a married daughter who lives at McRoberts.

The body was taken to the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home. Burial arrangements await arrival of relatives.

FFA CHAPTERS IN 2ND PLACE

Oil Springs Is Leader
At Field Day; Williams
Wins State Contest Spot

Although the Oil Springs chapter, Future Farmers of America, won the lion's share of honors at the annual Eastern Kentucky FFA Day held last Thursday at West Liberty and was awarded the coveted gold-embell chapter title, two Floyd county chapters, those of Prestonsburg and Maytown high schools, placed among the silver-embell, or second-place, group.

One of the individual winners who will represent the district at the state FFA convention in June was Louis Williams, of Betsy Layne, who won his place in the novelty instrument contest.

The Oil Springs group won 12 of the 27 contests, and 10 members of that chapter won individual awards and the right to enter the state contest.

Other chapters receiving the gold-embell award were Boyd county, Frenchburg, Owsley county, Pritchard, Virgie, and Sandy Hook.

Representing 24 chapters in 16 counties, more than 700 farm boys took part in the district-elimination contests.

Silver-embell or second-ranking chapters, in addition to Maytown and Prestonsburg, were Johns Creek, Rowan county and Wolfe county.

Million-Dollar Bond Issue Voted

COUNTY FARMERS AGAIN TO PARTICIPATE IN KENTUCKY GREEN PASTURES PROGRAM; COUNTY AGENT ANNOUNCES CONTEST RULES

The Kentucky Green Pastures Program will be conducted again this year by the Extension Service of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Last year 22 Floyd county farmers were enrolled in the program and they established or improved about 328 acres of pasture. Five farmers had their soils tested and fertilized according to soil test, and 48 acres of sudan grass and Korean lespedeza were sown for emergency pasture.

Farmers who are interested in raising livestock the cheapest and easiest way should enroll in the Green Pastures Program, County Agent Burgess said this week. Once a pasture is established, it will provide grazing for many years if it is properly managed. Cover crops can be managed to furnish pasture in late fall and early spring and cut in half the amount of hay and grain to winter a cow. Most pastures in this county provide good grazing in the spring and then "dry up" in July

Princess Elkhorn Tells Scholarship Plan; Will Hold Tests This Month

Continuing a program begun several years ago, the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, of David, will award five college scholarships to this year's high school graduates, it was announced this week by Wm. Crawford, vice-president and general manager of the company.

Four awards will be given to sons and daughters of employees of the company, and the fifth scholarship will go to a qualified high school student graduating this year in Floyd or Johnson counties. The recipient of this award need not have a parent employed by Princess Elkhorn.

All applicants must submit to competitive qualifying tests. Selections will be made on a two-fold basis: on scholarship test results and on the high school record of the student.

Two of the five scholarships will go to girls and will include two years' study at Pikeville College or three years at the St. Mary's hospital School of Nursing, Huntington, W. Va. Two others will be four-year scholarships for study in electrical, mechanical or mining engineering. Another will be a four-year award for a boy or girl to study medicine, teaching, engineering or theology.

Scholarship applicants planning to study a course that does not involve engineering will take their tests at 9 a.m., April 20, at the Martin high school gymnasium. Engineering scholarship applicants will take tests at the Paintsville high school, April 22, at 9 a.m.

ATTENDING BAR ASSOCIATION

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Harkins attended the Kentucky Bar Association which held its annual spring meeting at the Seelbach hotel in Louisville this week.

COURT VOTES TB FUND AID

Joins Education Board
In Help; Health Dept.,
County Agent Financed

Faced with a fund shortage and the threat of having to curtail services of a fulltime special nurse in the fight on tuberculosis in this county, the Floyd County Tuberculosis Association found valuable friends this week in the Floyd county fiscal court and the County Board of Education.

Each body voted appropriations of $900 to supplement the Christmas Seal fund on which the Association depends to finance the Floyd county TB work which has attracted the attention of health authorities over the state. The Christmas Seal sale which was launched last December failed to meet needs of the Association.

This aid was voted by the court and school board at their meetings, Tuesday. The fiscal court also voted an appropriation of $5,600 to continue the 1953-1954 work of the Floyd County Health Department and a total of $2,150 for the work of the County Agricultural Agent. The County Agent appropriation was broken down into three funds: $750 for the agent's travel, $1,100 for secretary's salary, and $300 for office expense and supplies.

After re-employing W. J. May as county treasurer, the court directed him to make a division of county funds so as to equalize between the three banks in the county the amount each has of county money on deposit. The salary of Mr. May was set at $75 a month, as before.

Teachers To Impersonate Famous Figures at Meet

Impersonators of such historic and literary characters as Stephen Foster, Carrie Chapman Catt and Johnny Appleseed will be met at the meeting of the 20-year Teachers Club at Maytown Friday night, it was stated by Mrs. Betty Stephens, secretary, this week.

The meeting will be held at the Maytown school at 7 o'clock p.m. The club to date has a total of 48 members, all having taught 20 years or longer.

Slight Production Increase In Area Coal Seen in March

Coal production has increased some extent over the months of January and February in the mines associated with the Big Sandy Coal Operators Association, it was disclosed this week. While still far short of last year's production the loading of railroad cars is on the increase, it was noted.

The fourth week of March saw 4,599.8 railway cars of 50-ton average each loaded while the preceding week's figures stood at 4,070 cars. This first week of March when only 3,766 cars were loaded, was the lowest in production of the month. The second week's loadings totalled 4,370.

A few mines in the Association have reached a production equal to the corresponding period of last year. They are Elk Horn Coal Corporation, Kathryn Elkhorn, the Elkhorn mine of Pond Creek Pocahontas Coal Company, Sizemore Mining, Turner Elkhorn Mining Company and Utilities Elkhorn Mining Company. Mines working the full week from March 23 through 27 were Elk Horn Coal Corporation, Kathryn Elkhorn, the Elkhorn mine of Pond Creek Pocahontas and Utilities Mining.

WOMAN DEATH HIT-RUN CASE

Is Decision Reached By Probers; Woman's Movements Described

The probe into the death, early Tuesday morning at Printer, of Mrs. Bessie Greer Mullins, 37 years old, apparently was ended Wednesday with authorities writing off the case as a hit-run fatality.

The woman, a resident of Printer, was found at 1:10 a.m., Tuesday lying on the highway, her skull gashed in three places at the back, and she died while being placed in an ambulance to be taken to a Martin hospital.

Murder was at first suspected, but Sheriff's deputies, E. L. Sturgill and Frank Crum, District Detective Alex L. Davidson, Coroner James J. Carter and State Police Detective Cornett concurred later in the opinion that Mrs. Mullins had been hit by an automobile.

Authorities traced her movements in detail. First, they said, she was taken to Drift in a taxicab driven by Edmund Barnett, of Martin, around 2:45 p.m., Monday. There she went to the home of a Shelton family. Around 6 p.m., she was taken home by a man named Mattingly but refused to leave the car on arrival home and was taken back to Drift. She then went to the Drift Theatre, leaving there at 9:15. From Drift she rode a truck driven by Woodrow Wells to the mouth of Spurlock, and there she returned to the coal tippie at the lower limits of Drift with Bobby Allen and Carl Little, who later took her to a little near the home of Bob Friend at Hunter where she left their car. Her pocketbook was found in the lane near the Friend home where the two said she left the car.

She was last seen around 11:45 Monday night on the highway at Printer by Caner Crisp, who was driving homeward from work in the mines at or near Drift. She was attempting to thumb a ride, Crisp said. Crisp said the woman he saw was wearing a green coat, and this was the color of the coat worn by Mrs. Mullins when found.

Crisp said a car which he could not describe was driving past him at the time.

Kathryn Elkhorn Coal Company, of Drift, has worked more days this year than any other mine in the Association, with Turner Elkhorn Mining Company, at Drift, a close second. The former has chalked up 61 days while the latter has 60 to its credit. Other mines that have a good work record for the year are Floyd Elkhorn and Guaranty Mines.

Moore and Circuit Clerk W. W. Cooley to file itemized expense accounts will stand. The order sets 9 o'clock Monday, April 13, as the date for the three to file these statements.

Both Allen and Moore said Wednesday their expense statements, as already filed with the court, are as complete as others given consideration and as exact as the audit of the Louisville firm. Both indicated they will not file additional statements, Circuit Clerk Cooley recently said he had made an audit which covers in detail not only his expenses but all receipts and that he will rely on this rather than on the Louisville accountants' figures.

The court settlement made Tuesday with Davidson, Stumbo and Burchett showed a total of $15,410.86 due the county.

Dr. Gideon D. Ison, 72, Dies in Atlanta Hospital Of Heart Attack Sunday

Dr. Gideon D. Ison, 72 years old, father of Dr. C. B. Ison, of Garrett, died Sunday night at an Atlanta, Ga., hospital after suffering a heart attack while en route from his home in Bonita Springs, Fla., to his former residence at Blackey, Ky.

Dr. Ison had practiced his profession 45 years before retiring six years ago when he moved to Florida. He was a member of the Masonic order, the American Medical Society and was a past president of the Letcher County Medical Society.

Surviving, besides his son at Garrett, are his widow, Mrs. Bertie Ison, four sons and one daughter, Dana Ison, Lexington, G. D. Ison, Jr., Pikeville, William Ison, Billings, Mont., E. C. Ison, Louisville, and Mrs. Hester Marcum, Lohair, Ky.

The funeral was conducted Wednesday at Blackey, the Rev. Meyer, of Wayland, and the Rev. Sharpe, of Maytown, officiating. Burial in the Kingdom Come cemetery was directed by the Hindman Funeral Home.

ISSUE WOULD FINANCE SELF, MAYOR HOLDS

Current, Future Needs
Of Streets and Water System are Considered

Faced with the need of doing something about a variety of city problems, the Prestonsburg City Council voted unanimously Monday night to authorize a bond issue of $1,000,000.

This proposed issue, the largest in the town's history, is the answer, from the present administration's point of view, to the approaching need of a sewage disposal system, a renovated and expanded water system and paving needs which are almost citywide.

The Council, seeing the approaching needs of the fast growing town, appointed a committee of councilmen three months ago to make a study and survey of what other towns with problems like Prestonsburg were doing. Their report recommended an approval bond issue of $1,000,000. An approval bond issue was identified as one that is revenue-producing and will not need the sanction of the voters.

Mayor Curtis Clark said the bond issue will be self-liquidating. For instance, paving could be done with the money procured from the bonding company and repaid by the property owners, say, over a period of 10 years. A re-vamped water system, adequate to attract industry, and supply the expanding needs of the town, would also pay for itself, it is argued.

Over the Council was hanging the "must" of the sewage disposal system that must be built in the next two years, as directed by existing anti-pollution legislation. Mayor Clark stated the situation: "If we drag around and, faced with the absolute need of building a sewage disposal system for about $500,000, we will have to borrow that money. Then when our water system and paving needs reach the critical stage it will be impossible to borrow

CIRCUIT COURT SESSION OPENS

Shortage of Jurors Causes Slow Start;
Grand Jury Names 5

The Floyd circuit court, with short docket for the April term, got under way slowly this week as only 13 of 36 petit jurors summoned had reported for duty as of Tuesday afternoon. Completion of the panel was not expected until Wednesday.

The first day of court, Monday, was devoted to empanelling of the grand jury. Gordon Collins, of Lackey, was named foreman.

Judge Edward P. Hill's instructions to the grand jury Monday morning were brief. "This is election year," he reminded the jury, "and I hope we have no political influence brought on jurors." He advised that if any juror has an interest in any case coming up for invest-

Court Votes on Settlement But Withholds Final Order

County Judge Henry Stumbo said this morning (Thursday) that work of the fiscal court Tuesday toward a settlement with Ex-Judge Alex L. Davidson, Judge Stumbo himself and County Attorney W. W. Burchett on expenses in connection with the audit of official incomes made by the Joseph Cotton Company, Louisville, is not being officially entered as the court's order at this time.

"We have new information bearing on travel expenses and other items, and will wait till the next court meeting to make a final decision," he said.

He also said the order, when entered, will cover all offices involved. At the same time, Judge Stumbo said the court's order of Tuesday requiring Former County Clerk Jarvis Allen, County Clerk DuRan

"I Ain't Had Time"

On page 13 of the July 26, 1952 depositions of the Magistrates, question 16 was asked Preacher Wright: "Have you made any effort as magistrate to find out if Mr. Burchett, or any other public official, has been receiving excessive salary or compensation?" After this officer charged by law with protecting the interests of Floyd county had answered under oath that it wasn't any of his business, he further incriminated himself by making this amazing and remarkable statement in answer to question 17: "I ain't had time to find out."

The Floyd County Good Government Tax League is keeping a weather-eye on this Magistrate who after more than 2 year's office has not the time to look after the interests of Floyd county and we challenge every other taxpayer on Right Beaver Creek to do the same.

Worth more... and why

There's an old saying that a thing is worth what someone is willing to pay for it. Well, if you could tour the wholesale and retail used car auctions around the country, if you could survey hundreds of used car lots you would discover that used Fords bring higher prices than any competitive make—and by substantial amounts.

THAT'S WHY we feel our '53 cars should not be compared with cars in the same price range. Not because our competitors don't do a good job—obviously they do—but because we feel Ford Cars have more in common with the highest priced automobiles. The similarities are far greater than the differences.

For example. Today, the most expensive cars in this country have V-type, 8-cylinder engines. Ford Cars have had this exact same type of engine for over 20 years.

What's more astounding, the current Strato-Star V-8 sells for hundreds of dollars less than several other makers charge for a six-cylinder car. Now there's nothing wrong with a Six but they do cost less to make. Ford makes a Six—the most modern overhead valve Six in the industry. And if it's a six-cylinder car you want, Ford has it and for less money than the V-8, which is as it should be.

What about ride? Here's another Ford similarity with high-priced cars... Riding Comfort. One of the misconceptions for many years has been that weight—sheer weight—is what it takes to make a car ride well. Ford has found that you can make a 3000-pound car ride softer and hold the road better by far than many cars that weigh a full 1000 pounds more. In the '53 Ford, for example, front end road shock has been reduced up to 80%. We say it compares most favorably with the heaviest cars sold today.

What about automatic transmissions? It would take the fingers of both hands to count the various kinds of automatic and semi-automatic transmissions on the market today. The one we offer is called Fordomatic. It is the most versatile on the market, it represents the most profound consideration of engine-to-wheel power transfer—and that it does the best job for our engines isn't even open to question. It "shifts" better than you could shift by hand.

What you can see is also important. Here again Ford Cars lead not only in their price field but in the medium and upper brackets as well. Ford visibility is Full-Circle Visibility. This means huge, curved unobstructed glass area, front and rear, plus side windows that allow all passengers what the hotels call "room with a view."

Appearance? A higher price, of course, does not make a car more beautiful. Conversely, beauty in a Ford comes "for free." Ford has found that it costs no more to develop a beautiful car than one that is less pleasing in appearance: You can drive up to the most exclusive doorways in the world and feel perfectly at home in your Ford. Fords "belong" . . . in exactly the same social category as the finest, one-of-kind creations. After all, a Ford is a custom creation multiplied.

What about running costs? Here's one place that Ford's advantages are obvious. For oil and gas economy Ford has the big cars whipped. Ford parts cost less. Ford service charges are less. Ford tire mileage is thousands of miles greater. And, Ford depreciation is the lowest of any car on the market—bar none.

What are Fords made of? Some people have the idea that the costliest cars are made of "better stuff." It's true that some high-priced cars have costlier upholstery and fittings. What Ford has is so good, both in durability and appearance, that you probably could not tell the difference. You might even prefer it, because of its better design and more pleasing appearance.

Then there's the question of sheet metal. If you were to measure and analyze the sheet metal structure in the most expensive car, you most likely would find it identical in thickness to the corresponding panels in Ford.

After all, then, what is the difference between a Ford and the costliest cars?

In our opinion, the difference is largely a matter of dimensions, weight (and the power required to move it) plus the distinction of owning a car that not so many other people own. The desire for these things is understandable . . . and probably justified for people who are willing to pay the price to satisfy it.

As to comparing Ford with other cars in its price range, by all means do so if you wish. But, as we said before, you'll get a better picture of Ford value by comparing with cars that are most like Fords—those that are priced up to twice as much. In fact, we think you'll quickly begin comparing the other cars with Ford—because the 1953 Ford has really established the New Standard of the American Road.

Woman's Club Elects Officers for Next Year

Mrs. John G. Archer was hostess to the Prestonsburg Woman's Club last Thursday for its regular monthly meeting. The president, Mrs. W. W. Cooley, presided. During the business session the following business was transacted: The nominating committee presented the following candidates for offices next year: President, Mrs. Russell Shaw; first vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Keenon; second vice-president, Mrs. E. S. Collins; recording secretary, Mrs. John G. Archer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Byron Nunnery; treasurer, Mrs. Lon Hill. There being no other candidates, the recommendations of the nominating committee were voted for unanimously. These officers will be installed at the May meeting. The club voted to give $10 for traveling expenses to Louisville to Bill Baker Burke who was sponsored by the club at the Seventh district contest for the Egyptian Music Camp, who won the contest. The club also voted to give $5 to the American Cancer Society. The club was again reminded of the visit of the T.B. X-ray unit which will be sponsored by the club on April 21. The following members volunteered to help with the clerical work incidental to the X-ray unit: Mesdames J. H. Keenon, Cecil Kendrick, H. L. Ley, Dave Stephens, Keith Barts, N. L. May, Lon Hill and Raymond Irlie.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. W. W. Cooley introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Arthur Bradbury, of Wheelwright, who spoke on "The Story of English China." Mrs. Bradbury told something of the history of English China, especially Wedgwood China. She also showed samples of the materials used in the making of China. It was interesting to learn that it takes heat of 3,000 degrees Fahrenheit for the firing of china, and that each piece of china passes through approximately 340 hands from the starting point until it is finished. Mrs. Bradbury showed how the designs were made and placed on the Wedgwood china. She displayed various pieces of china that she had brought from England, several of which were pieces made in commemoration of the coronation ceremonies of several English kings.

After this interesting program, the hostess, Mrs. John G. Archer, and co-hostesses, Mesdames Gwynn Ford, Ed May, Dave Stephens, Val Strahan and Miss Alice Harris, served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames H. L. Ley, G. M. Haggard, Lon Hill, Raymond Irlie, E. S. Collins, A. C. Harlowe, W. W. Cooley, James Donahue, J. D. Mayo, Cecil Kendrick, J. H. Keenon, M. Robert Regan, N. L. May, Russell Shaw, and guests, Mesdames Arthur Bradbury, Martin L. May, Marvin Ransdell, Jarvis Allen and Ethel Powers.

Official Organ for Floyd County, Ky.

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927 at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the act of March 3, 1879.

Kentucky Is Not a Poll Tax State, But...

KENTUCKY is not a poll tax state, we are reminded, but most of its counties, including Floyd, exact that tax of all who will pay. The collection of the tax is left within the discretion of the counties themselves.

And so exists a tax law which is more inequitable even than Kentucky's ill-starred dog law. For the dog tax law affects nobody in Floyd county while the poll tax is collected from a part of the people while others ignore it. On top of that, the poll tax provides double or treble taxation for some.

To get down to cases, only the owner of property pays the poll levy. To go through the involved process necessary to collect the $1 tax from those who do not own property is a labor the collector cannot justify, and so only a part of the people bear this part of the tax load. Moreover, those poll tax payers who reside in an incorporated town such as Prestonsburg with an independent school district will pay not only the county but also the city and the school district this per capita tax.

Floyd county has upwards of 10,000 taxpayers, about 6,000 of whom pay this poll tax while the other 4,000 laugh at it.

It occurs to us that the $6,000 added to the county treasury is not so badly needed that the county is justified in setting up and maintaining a tax system which obviously plays favorites.

Floyd county and its incorporated towns might, indeed, profit by being able to tell outside interests and residents that here there is no poll tax—no tax on the head for those males between the ages of 21 and 65.

One Solution

KENTUCKY faces the necessity of retrenchment during the next fiscal year by $5,000,000 from its present budget, because of a sharp drop in revenues.

Except for salary expenses, which can be cut in instances scattered here and there, where shall the cuts be made? The schools need more money, not less. The same is true of roads. The major phases of state government need full financial support.

What is the answer? New taxes? Who would suggest a higher income tax or a stiffer levy on real estate and personal property?

Why not a sales tax which would collect on the basis of our spending and would affect all, not just a part of us?

Hatcher Named Head of Insurance Sales Over West Virginia

James J. Hatcher, of Huntington, W. Va., formerly of Prestonsburg, has been named to head the Huntington sales office of The Massachusetts Protective Association, Inc., and The Paul Revere Life Insurance Company. The appointment of Mr. Hatcher, a result of the consolidation of the Parkersburg and Huntington sales offices, follows the resignation of Emmett A. Marshall.

Mr. Hatcher's management record includes a citation for outstanding sales performance presented to his agency last year. The current appointment places him in charge of the West Virginia sales activities of his companies.

To Conduct Revival

A revival meeting will begin at the First Church of God at East Point, Sunday morning April 19, with the Rev. Yancey Moore, of Middletown, Ohio, as evangelist. Rev. Moore is an outstanding minister, having done what has been described as great work in Ohio, and states that services will be held each evening for two weeks. The Rev. Roy Benton, pastor of the church, invites the public to these services.

Judge Asks Cancer Fund Support; 10,000 Persons To Suffer Cancer, Claim

County Judge Henry Stumbo this week called for full support of cancer control activities during April which he proclaimed as "Cancer Control Month."

The proclamation pointed out that one-fifth of all the people of the county will eventually develop cancer. This is based on statistics which reflect cancer incidence throughout the state and nation.

In Floyd county this would mean that at least 10,000 local residents will eventually have cancer, unless a big change is made in the statistical trend.

The judge's proclamation said cancer had reached such proportions that a concerted effort by everyone is necessary to combat it and pointed out that nation-wide efforts to focus attention on cancer will be made during April.

The text of the proclamation follows:

"WHEREAS, the people of this community have demonstrated on many previous occasions their ability to meet crisis with action and

"WHEREAS, it is statistically true that one-fifth of all the citizens of Floyd county eventually will develop cancer unless new methods of protection are developed without delay, and

"WHEREAS, this widespread threat to the health and lives of our people has reached proportions that demand concerted action by everyone, with their time and their financial support, and

"WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has authorized the President to designate April as a special occasion for taking cognizance of this problem, and

"WHEREAS, a vast nation-wide effort is being made through government agencies and by volunteer public organizations to concentrate attention on the disease cancer at this time, and

"WHEREAS, the American Cancer Society will conduct its annual crusade to educate the public and raise funds during the month of April.

THEREFORE, I, Henry Stumbo, County Judge, do hereby ordain and proclaim the month of April as: CANCER CONTROL MONTH and FURTHERMORE request that all citizens of this community observe this occasion and lend their support to the American Cancer Society's 1953 crusade."

THIS IS A BIG CAT

This matter of communities setting up censorship boards to pass on what you and I shall read goes much deeper than what you see in a move to improve the morals of the country.

Anybody who has had a taste of the sort of literary tripe they set before the public these days will agree something is needed, but this is a cat the belling of which is a difficult and delicate task. If censorship could be achieved sensibly, hitting at only those works which are prurient for the pure sake of prurency, we would say, "Sail 'n' with your hatchet," but censors are as human and as full of errors as writers and book publishers, and they could go off on a literary witch-hunt.

If your board of censors sits down to expunge every reference to sex, every phrase which calls a spade a spade, it's going to rip into books which as a whole have solid merit. For instance, you could lift out of context certain passages from the Bible and Shakespeare which, without the wisdom, truth and beauty of the whole, would make the most blasé modern turn a violent shade of red.

On top of all that, there is a danger that the world's genius for expression might be thrown into a straightjacket through the same kind of thinking that at one time would have had Kitty Foyle, for instance, banned from the book stalls. (Dig up a copy of Kitty Foyle, of years ago, and see if you think the would-be censors of that day were right.)

It's a big problem, this business of trying to get only the good and the beautiful before those of us who can read. Perhaps it would be easier to educate us to look for the good and the beautiful and so to have an instinctive contempt for the shoddy.

Personally, I'd like to do a bit of book-burning, myself. I can think of dozens of magazines and books devoted, per se, to sex, crime and other vile scribbles 'stew. But I still say, I might save a few matches by exposing myself and mine to good books first, thus cultivating a taste for something better than those things we are inclined to think only fire will purify.

COMMENDS FISCAL COURT

We read in last week's paper about the action of the fiscal court in cutting off the salary of Alex Davidson, the Commonwealth Detective, and suing Burnis Martin for the overpayment to him. The people in our section have talked for a long time that the services of the detective were not needed, and that the money could be put to a better use on roads and to help the needy people in Floyd county. We think this action by the fiscal court is a good thing and the court should be commended for it.

We have also been reading in our section THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES concerning suits that have been filed against some of the officials and notice that some of the other officials and former officials have been left out of these suits. It seems that somebody is trying to play politics in these law suits and we think that all the officials and former officials should be treated alike and that such a campaign of law suits will react against those people using such methods to further their own political interests.

Respectfully yours,
HARGIS HAYES

Floyd School Musicians Win Way to State Fest Thru Regional Ratings

Floyd county school musicians will play a large part in the State Music Festival at Lexington, May 6-9, as a result of outstanding performances in the Regional Music Festival held at Pikeville Junior College last week.

Twenty-five students from this county won ratings giving them the right to join other region representatives at the state festival.

Prestonsburg high school produced four groups and seven individual winners; Wheelwright high school, two groups and one soloist; Martin, one group and two individual winners, and Maytown one winning soloist. All these go to the state festival.

Phoebe Caldwell, Betsy Layne's lone representative, entered in piano solo for the regional festival only, was rated "superior." Other top ratings for entries not registered for state competition went to Connister Turner, McDowell, alto horn; McDowell, baton-twirling ensemble, and Barbara Martin, Wayland, baton-twirling.

The gathering of student-musicians represented 19 schools from Floyd, Pike, Harlan, Martin and Johnson counties, with 12 bands and 16 school choruses entered.

Judges of performances at the festival, which began last Thursday and continued through Saturday were John Zurluh, instrumental music supervisor, Louisville city schools; Rolf E. Hovey, head of the Berea College music department, and Ford Montgomery, University of Kentucky piano instructor.

gation, he or she should step aside and take no part in the probe. Four offenses were specifically cited for grand jury consideration: bootlegging, drunk driving, forest fires and useless dogs.

The judge pointed to the rabies threat presented by roving dogs as well as the destruction they cause in gardens. "I have an unlicensed dog, myself," he said. "But I keep him up. If a dog is worth having, it's worth caring for."

He ascribed the decline in the crime rate to the fact that many of the county's younger men are in the army and in defense work elsewhere.

As of Tuesday afternoon, the grand jury had returned five indictments, naming the following on major offenses:

Virgil B. Cavins, for the December, 1951 shooting and wounding of Jesse Cavins; George Clark, child desertion; Dennis Newsom, detaining a woman against her will; Charles Homer Stanley, child desertion.

Only one conviction had been made in the first two days of the term, and this on a plea of guilty. George Laughton (Lawson) was fined $100 and given a 30-day jail term for shooting and wounding, with a credit of 24 days he already had spent in jail.

Some cases were continued, and three were dismissed:

Herbert G. Salsbury, child desertion, for lack of prosecution; Phillip Carr, selling mortgaged property, insufficient evidence; Fred M. Hayes, removing mortgaged property from the state, lack of prosecution; Edward Robinson, destroying property and breach of the peace; Elzie Bolen, trespassing; Harold Jones, arson, lack of prosecution; Vernon Blackburn, assault and battery.

choral and instrumental groups winning places in the state festival are:

Flute — Winnie Sue Cooley, Prestonsburg; Dolores Flanery, Martin; bass clarinet — Reba Salyers, Maytown; David Grigsby, Martin; cornet — Pete Conley, Prestonsburg; French horn — Janet Whitten, Prestonsburg; trombone — Randall Wells, Prestonsburg; baritone horn — Charles Blackburn, Wheelwright, and Bill Baker Burke, Prestonsburg.

Brass sextet — Prestonsburg group, Pete Conley, Jack Burke, Janet Whitten, Bill Baker Burke, Randall Wells and Charles Rowe; male quartet — Prestonsburg, Ballard Wright, Gene Wright, Randall Wells and Joe Jack Arnett; girls' quartet — Prestonsburg, Patricia Pelphrey, Dorothy Herald, Bertha Ruth Tackett, Shirley Hager.

Tenor solo — Ballard Wright, Prestonsburg; bass solo — Roger Marshall, Prestonsburg.

The Wheelwright and Prestonsburg high school bands were rated superior, as were the girls' choruses of Wheelwright and Martin and the Prestonsburg mixed chorus.

The Prestonsburg high school quartet qualified for the state festival with an excellent rating, since there were no superiors in that department, all other Floyd winners were rated "superior." Ballard and Gene Wright, two members of the quartet, are twin brothers.

Other Floyd county "excellents" went to Yvonne Music, Janet Newsome and Virginia Tipton, all of Wheelwright, and Anna Ruth Watkins, Wayland, baton-twirling solos; Carol Sue Cooley, McDowell, and Gordon Hopkins, Wheelwright, clarinet solos; Judith Reitz, Martin, alto-saxophone solo; Justin Turner, Maytown, saxophone solo; Sandra Sue Patrick, Maytown, soprano solo; Prestonsburg girls' trio, Maytown girls' trio, Maytown's male quartet, a mixed quartet from Prestonsburg, McDowell's cornet trio, clarinet quartet and brass quartet; boys and girls' chorus from Prestonsburg, Martin's mixed chorus, and the McDowell and Martin bands.

Fourteen Floyd county entries, like a dozen others in the festival, were registered at the local level only and did not ask for ratings. Local entries were rated this year only if they had specifically asked to be. Otherwise they received only the judges' criticisms and suggestions.

Trumble, Floyd Officers Raid Magoffin-co. Still

Wince Trumble, federal agent, Sheriff A. B. Meade and Deputy Sheriff Rance Marcum captured a moonshine still in Magoffin county, just across the mountain from Little Rough and Tough, below David, Saturday. Preparing a "run," the still-owner was warned of the raiders' approach by the barking of his dog, and he outfooted his pursuers. Sheriff Meade said Trumble later swore out a warrant for the arrest of Delvin Prater. The haul consisted of the still itself and about 150 gallons of mash.

Mrs. Gronnerud Dies March 31, In Chicago

Spring Practise Shows Need for Replacements, Ferrell Says; 45 Train

"Doc" Ferrell, coach of the Prestonsburg Black Cat football team which for the last two years in a row has won the Conference grid title, last week saw little hope of such success next fall as he put his squad through spring practise.

Gone are a flock of stalwarts from the 1952 team, and finding replacements will be a difficult task. The only lettermen returning in the backfield are Chester Shepherd, Lowell Hughes, "Jeep" Alexander and Thurman "Termite" Lafferty, and most of these are on the light side. Either Lowell Hughes or Alexander will attempt to fill the shoes of Delmar Hughes, all-state quarterback, who next fall will be wearing the grid uniform of the University of Kentucky Wildcats.

The line will have only three lettermen back: big Tom Spradlin who will be out for his sixth letter as a tackle, Paul Ousley, end, and Randall Wells, guard. Spradlin was an all-Conference tackle as a seventh-grade student.

Forty-five boys reported for spring training, but most of these are without experience, and two who had been counted upon to take up some of the slack did not last out the training grind. Hope for 1953 hinges largely on the development of green material and possibly on the discovery of new talent between now and the opening of the team's schedule next fall.

The Black Cat football schedule follows, with the exception of the Sept. 11 date which has not been filled:

- *Sept. 4—Whitesburg ----- Away
- *Sept. 11—To be filled.
- *Sept. 26—Elkhorn City ----- Home
- *Sept. 18—Morgan County ----- Home
- *Oct. 2—Jenkins ----- Away
- *Oct. 9—Pikeville ----- Away
- *Oct. 16—Louisia ----- Away
- *Oct. 23—Belfry ----- Home
- *Oct. 30—Wayland ----- Home
- *Nov. 5—Paintsville ----- Away
- *Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference games.

Floyd County Historical Notes

By HENRY P. SCALF

In the Licking Valley Courier, (West Liberty), March 23, appeared a reference to the Webb family, Irma Haney, regent Morgan county, chapter, D.A.R., wrote the column "In Ol' Morgan" and it is here excerpted as being of possible interest to readers of The Times: "The James Webb family history begins with James Webb, an Englishman, who came to America before the Revolution. He was in the War for Independence as an aide de camp to General Washington. At the battle of White Plains he was shot through the body and left on the field for dead. He recovered from the wound, however, and subsequently followed his son Benjamin to Letcher county, Kentucky. Jas. Webb married a sister of Daniel Boone's mother. Another son Jimmie, Jr. married a Pennington and moved to Lawrence county in the early 1800's."

James Taylor Adams, a prominent genealogist and historian of Big Laurel, Virginia, spoke last summer to the annual reunion of the Craft-Webb-Adams family of Eastern Kentucky. It is partly reproduced here:

"So far the first record I have of our branch of the Adams family is in the year 1774 when Spencer Adams was bondsman for Jacob Adams for his marriage to Mary Towson in Rowan county, North Carolina. Rowan county was later to give part of its territory to form the new county of Wilkes; and it was in that part of Rowan that the Adamsses lived.

"The next official record I find of our people is around 1780 when they took up lands on Roaring River. There were John, Spencer, Benjamin, Charles, William and Jacob, all of whom we presume to be brothers. Then in 1785 we find Elizabeth Adams, daughter of Old John, and Archellus Craft marrying and the bondsman for this wedding was Elizabeth's uncle Jacob Adams. Following this the court and church records in Wilkes county are cluttered up with Adams activity.

"In the year 1783 the South Fork of Roaring River Baptist Church was constituted and the first matter of business after organization of the church was completed, was the admission of John Adams and wife by experience and baptism. Spencer and his wife joined about six months later by letter; and about the same time Henrietta, Benjamin Adams' wife, was also a member.

"In the year 1803 Spencer Adams

(then a noted Baptist preacher) led a colony from the Roaring River section of Wilkes county, N. C., and settled on the headwaters of the North Fork of Kentucky River. Old Spencer got about, and it is believed that he had been on a preaching tour in the Bluegrass country, and returning to his home in North Carolina discovered this fertile land and made up his mind to settle it. Anyway he brought his people in, among them being two of his brothers, Old John, our ancestor, and Old Benjamin.

"Now I think it will be of interest to take each of these old Adams brothers and trace their descent briefly.

"Spencer was elected a magistrate almost on arriving here; he also served a term as deputy sheriff of Floyd county; and in 1817 he was elected high Sheriff of Floyd county, which at that time covered all of East Kentucky. Yes, Old Spencer got around. For, while serving as sheriff of his county he also pastored the Indian Bottom Church, the Sandlick Church which he had constituted near his home at the mouth of Sandlick and the Castlewoods church at Castlewood, Russell county, Virginia, and the Deep Spring Church, in Lee county, Virginia; and, with all this, he found time to carry on a very active real estate business and horse-swapping as the records in Prestonsburg and Hazard reveal."

"Then, in the year 1821, he, with his sons Benjamin, John and Irvin and his sons-in-law Sampson and Abner Caudill, he pulled up stakes in Kentucky and moved to Dallas county, Alabama, where he lived out his days on a large plantation and where he died in the year 1830 and lies buried on a hill overlooking the Alabama River. During the time he stayed in Kentucky his son William died; and he left two children, Spencer and Hannah, whom Old Spencer raised. His son Jesse, the youngest did not go to Alabama, but resided here for several years and then moved to Searey county, Arkansas, where he died and where his descendants still live."

Pontiac

A GENERAL MOTORS MASTERPIECE

Its Great Name Makes Its Price Remarkable!

Consider the respect in which the name Pontiac is held—then consider that this great car is priced only a few dollars above the lowest—and you can come to only one conclusion: that here, indeed, is the biggest value your automobile dollar can buy.

The reason is very simple: Pontiac is the one car deliberately engineered to give you features of the costliest cars at a price right next to the lowest. This has been true for years—but never more evident than in the wonderful new 1953 Pontiac.

You see proof of this in its distinctive Dual-Stroke styling, in its luxurious color-keyed interiors, and in its longer wheelbase and road-hugging weight. You see it even more when you get behind the wheel and realize that under the hood there's more power than you'll ever likely need. And as the years and the miles roll by, you get the most positive evidence of all in its amazingly low maintenance cost.

Why not take your first step toward enjoying the pride and pleasure of Pontiac ownership by investigating Pontiac's modest cost? You'll quickly see that so low a price on so great a car represents a truly remarkable value. Come in at your first opportunity. You'll be very glad you did.

The cancer mortality rate in women is slowly dropping, the American Cancer Society says. But male cancer death rates continue to climb. The best safeguard against cancer is frequent medical examinations, the ACS advises.

3123 more families cook electrically every day!

Who are they? What are their reasons? Take a minute...
Discover why you, too, will prefer this modern method!

It's an impressive figure... 3123 electric ranges sold every day. That's the average rate of purchase for four straight years.

More impressive still is this: these 3123 purchasers include hundreds who are looking for the same things in a range as you are! People who want the best at any price... and young couples who must watch every penny. People in brand new homes... people who live in older houses. New brides with no kitchen experience... and homemakers of sixty years!

Your electric range is at your dealer's NOW

- Low Down Payments
- Easy Budget Terms

Choice of Experts! Electric ranges are the choice in national baking contests... where performance really counts. Many of America's finest ships, trains, hotels, and restaurants, too, have switched to electric cooking.

Yes, whatever you want in a range—safety, cleanliness, speed, dependable thrifty performance—an electric range has it. Be one of the 3123 homemakers who'll enjoy really modern cooking tomorrow... see your electric range dealer today.

Young Mothers "I had never cooked on an electric range until last year," this young mother says. "Now... after knowing all its advantages... I wouldn't consider changing back for anything at all."

New Homes "We've found that practically every buyer wants an all-electric home," says the builder of this attractive development. So... he puts an electric range in every home. Many other builders do the same thing.

Older Homes... Remember... if your house is wired for electricity, you can enjoy the advantages of modern electric cooking without delay. Thousands of older homes "switch over" every year.

Veteran Homemakers "I've been keeping house for 60 years," the lady says, "and have used almost every method of cooking. I'm satisfied the electric way is best." Nothing new to learn!

IT'S A GOOD WORLD
 BY WILMAY
 And everyone rejoices that Russia is making peace moves. We agree with Secretary Dulles, who believes the utmost caution must be taken. Time will prove if she is sincere. It ill behooves us to fall to meet her halfway, but past experience is a good teacher, too. If the new regime does have plans for further conquests, this method would be a like-ly one to serve as a blind and a foil temporarily. A nation whose leaders have plotted and planned to assume world power for centuries, passing on from ruler to ruler the schemes to achieve such, is unlikely to relinquish the cherished hopes so readily, we fear.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH
 by Ewing Galloway
 After reading that Kentucky is 47th among the 48 states in providing free books for its people to read, a couple of Scots named Jesse Stuart and Ewing Galloway have decided to do a wee bit about it. The old, familiar Scottish term is right. What Greenup County's distinguished author and educator and your humble essayist plan to do is truly a wee bit, because the outlay will not exceed $25. Being a couple of frugal guys, we may keep it under twenty.

Midnight, April 15th, Income Tax Deadline
 Frankfort, Ky. — "Kentuckians have less than one week to file their state income tax returns," Robert H. Alphin, State Commissioner of Revenue, reminded today. The tax deadline is April 15. Returns should be postmarked before midnight of the 15th to avoid a late filing penalty.
 Single persons who earned $1,000 in 1952 and married couples with combined income of $2,000 are required to file state income tax returns. Returns may be obtained at courthouses, banks, or local Department of Revenue field offices.

The clinic will remain in Martin the 24th with the Drift Woman's Club sponsoring it on that day. Mrs. Maurice Mitchell and Mrs. J. P. Sammons will help with transportation. Mrs. Louis Warren, Mrs. Russell Laven, Mrs. T. J. Allen, Mrs. George Laven, Mrs. Roy Beckham and Mrs. M. C. Elliott will preside at the registration desk.
 Mrs. J. P. Sammons made a report on the Heart fund. The drive exceeded the goal of $200. The Cancer Drive will be taken charge of by Mrs. W. O. Huddleston and Mrs. George Laven. Mrs. Louis Warren, treasurer, was asked to send checks to the Boy Scouts of Allen and Martin from half of the proceeds of the TV show held last June. Mrs. Virginia Short and Mrs. Roy Beckham were elected to go as delegates to the state convention in Louisville.
 The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Earle B. Martin.

More than nine years ago while lecturing in Jenkins, we pointed out some Russian aims which have since been realized. We asked if the Russian Bear had any more right to gobble up little helpless nations than Germany had, for even then when Russia was supposed to be our ally, a child could see what was in the offing. Later, when speaking in Whitesburg, we were more specific connecting Biblical prophecy with then current events and previous ones, to show what America faced. It was obvious that some could not agree. Time has since confirmed the statements and predictions, based largely upon a study of Russian history since Peter the Great, whose march south was a mere beginning of the vast empire that sprawls over so much of the world today.
 Nice to see Sam Jones the other day. He made one of the best Sunday School superintendents Maytown ever had. He is a good Methodist, who now lives in Grundy, Va., where he attends the Baptist Church. He told E.R. he is the man who got the church there to invite J. E. Felty for their revival, starting next Sunday. E.R. said, "You could not do better. That man prays with more power than most men preach." While Methodist himself, E.R. has requested that Felty preach his funeral, if, and when. Friends know Felty's power can be traced to his courage, and as Gay, his wife, says, to the time he spends on his knees. We like to see him come this way, for usually Gay and the children visit us. The kids call us Aunt and Uncle, music when your nieces live across a continent. A real triumph the day Pudge cast his vote for Aunt Wilma over a blood one in Tennessee. Gay has been more like a sister than real ones we seldom see. God gave her the sweetest contralto in heaven.

Here is the plan. With the help of a dozen or more distinguished teachers and librarians we will pick a two-foot shelf of books well suited to boys and girls of 8 to 16. Stuart, through the superintendent of Greenup or an adjacent county will select a school that has no books but texts and whose teachers take enthusiastically to the idea. The little shelf of good books will become a lending library. The teacher will keep a complete record of the loans. The library cards of the pupils will be checked at the end of the first semester, and the second. The teacher will report all statistical information, plus his or her own impression of the project.
 Truly a wee bit of an experiment but its results may be worth an article in the Readers Digest. Much will depend upon the teacher, but I'm sure Stuart will pick a good one. Jesse is eminently qualified as a picker. As pupil, then teacher he came up through the Greenup county schools. Up is doubly right, up to top place among Kentucky writers.
 Don't get the impression Stuart and I are homing in with something that might conflict with the Harry Schacter-Mary Bingham bookmobile project for taking free books to all Kentucky communities backward in providing reading matter for their citizens. We hope to make our wee bit a big plug for the state-wide public library movement.

Grandma Hagans is poorly, and everyone is sorry, for she is a grand soul. Went to see Gaynell May today. She just got home from the hospital, said every minute was a blessing to her. Every second with her is a blessing to others. Here is such a radiant faith. Her little granddaughters say Aunt Wilma. Tiny Sue is so timid with people, but could carry on a telephone conversation with the President. She never fails to recognize my voice. So does little Lynn Chigsby, who is enough like a favorite niece to be her twin. She says Aunt May!
 Years ago, when every friend bragged about nieces, it seemed a shame to have no one saying Auntie. Elizabeth Hayes gladly offered to accommodate the old lady and say Aunt. When the end of school gets near and report time comes Elizabeth always comes to mind, for the gal writes the most perfect hand in America. Yours Truly's looks like hen scratching. Never knew until after the knot was tied that the boss had to get his sister to read all his courtship letters. Hope how soon they start this adult education program, and that they offer penmanship and science we allus seemed too dumb to learn. Got er allbi about not knowin' how ter write. Had one arm broke three times. Trouble is 'twas t'other arm!

See you next week, folks. In the meantime, somebody find a way to tell Mr. Gerald Griffin Jesus never drove anybody from the temple as a child, in the pageant or otherwise. We admire that man, specially his ability, and appreciate his help. He has been so nice to the pageant. But there we wuz on the air Sunday er sayin' the pageant script is strictly Biblical, with The Courier-Journal saying Jesus drove Money-changers out when he was a child. Mr. Griffin was there the day the rain storm broke just when the child Jesus was in the temple with his parents. 'Spose the way the characters ran from that cloudburst made him figger we got mixed up ourselves! Which we shore did on plenty of points but not on the script. So far only James Salisbury and Sherrill Frasure has had the nerve to mention the worst mistake we made. The Journal story also mentions the Blessed Virgin. The pageant author is Baptist. The pageant is under the sponsorship of Martin Sunday Schools, and the public schools. These groups do not defy the mother of Jesus. Mary was a virgin, but only the Douay Bible, the Catholic version, deifies the mother of our Lord. We love everyone and have some dear Catholic friends, but this pageant is not Catholic.

HEALTH NOTES

by DR. MARVIN RANSDALL

Spring Fever and Fatigue

"Spring fever," when used to describe physical fatigue and lethargy, attacks most frequently and with greatest force at this time of the year, although it can come during any season.

There is a reason for this. Sometimes the body is merely reacting to the change of warm spring days after the long cold winter. Winter weather, too, tends to keep a person indoors at sedentary pursuits and fatigue may be the body's way of demanding needed fresh air and exercise. Or, fatigue may be caused by loginess, the result of steady eating of rich, heavy foods, usually consumed during cold months when the appetite is sharpened.

Some people, suffering from chronic fatigue, resort to excessive amounts of stimulants like coffee or patent medicines or pills which are supposed to give them "pep." This puts a further strain on the body, whipping it into action past its endurance. The poisons generated by fatigue are increased, and what is left of the body's resistance to illness and disease is completely broken down.

There is another type of fatigue—prolonged, excessive exhaustion for no easily explained reason—that should never be lightly dismissed as "spring fever." This kind of fatigue, frequently associated with infection and disease, means that something is seriously wrong. The sufferer should go to his doctor immediately for a complete physical examination, including a chest X-ray.

Fatigue, coming at any season of the year, can be dangerous to health and even life if it is ignored and allowed to become chronic. It is a physical "safety valve," an unmistakable signal that the body has had enough mental or physical activity until it has a chance to recuperate. The best immediate treatment for ordinary, temporary fatigue is rest. The first and best step toward correcting chronic, unexplained fatigue is to visit the doctor for a complete medical check-up.

If You Remember . . .

The future governor of Kentucky was a mere boy, just entering his teens but he could wield a hoe with the grownups in the long corn rows around the slope. It was the heat that bothered—that, and the unpredictable inclination of the young girl who hoed in the upper row to throw water or dust on him at times. He and the boy in the next row minded, of course, but they bore it with a grin.

The boy who hoed in the next row entered the legal profession, became a barrister of wide note and rose high in the judicial hierarchy of the state. These two met often in the hectic days of campaign for political preference and in affairs of importance at the state capitol. The governor asked the judge about Mary and was only told that she had married and lived in Eastern Kentucky. It is an old custom to ask about a man's folks. Mary was the judge's sister.

James-Hunt Marriage Solemnized, April 1st

Miss Beatrice James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wess James, of Endicott, and Mr. L. T. Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ealum Hunt, of Woods, were married Wednesday, April 1, at the home of Rev. Isaac Stratton, at Banner. Rev. Stratton performed the single ring ceremony.

Miss Magdalene Hune was maid of honor and Mr. Billy Gene James served as best man.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ezra James, Mr. and Mrs. Cletis Setser, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jervis, Miss Phyllis Cline, Miss Lois Hunt, Miss Magdalene Hunt, Miss Mildred Setser, Mrs. Lonnie Setser, Bill David Setser, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hatfield, Billy James, Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Music and Mr. and Mrs. James.

The couple left for Michigan, April 3, where they will reside.

heard that he would speak. She rode muleback from out of the countryside. If there was anything to distinguish her from the crowd it was a black slat bonnet. She stood in the press of people and sought to remain unknown.

The governor came out on the platform and looked around at his audience, smiling and acknowledging the applause of his friends. Suddenly the smile was gone and he stared into the heavy press of people—stared at a woman in a black slat bonnet. Coming down, he pushed aside the crowd, ignoring the many offered hands until he reached her side.

When he put his arm around her they were alone in a great crowd. Time dropped away, backward, and they re-lived the past. They were young, barefoot, hoeing corn, throwing water and dust on each other, wending their way to school along a country road, attending Sunday school at the crossroads church. For a moment they were alone in a great crowd with their memories.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY AT PIKEVILLE, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, PETITIONER, VS. CERTAIN INTERESTS IN MINERALS UNDERLYING 416.01 ACRES, MORE OR LESS, AND ADJACENT LANDS IN FLOYD AND PIKE COUNTIES, KENTUCKY, JOHN ALLEN, ET AL., AND UNKNOWN OWNERS, DEFENDANTS. CIVIL ACTION NO. 300, D. J. FILE: RUL-WOC 33-18-188-219

In announcing as a candidate for the Democratic nomination of County Court Clerk, I, Imogene Stumbo Moore, realize that this is a task which must be taken very seriously and with a deep sense of responsibility.

As far as I know, this is the first time a woman of this county has ever tried to be elected to this office. As we all know, however, most of the work has usually been done by women. This shows that a woman could efficiently hold the position as Clerk.

I was told by one of my opponents that I am not well known in this county. This is true as far as my personal self is concerned for I have never done anything which would make me notorious enough to make the headlines or front page of our local newspaper.

My father is Walter Stumbo, son of Bill and Artie Salisbury, Stumbo, of Printer. His brothers are Charles of Lancer, Perry of Betsy Layne, Harry and Kendall of Printer and Dr. J. A. of Martin. His sisters are: Viola S. Allen, Printer; Ida S. Williams, Printer; Maude S. Hall, McDowell, Arizona S. Clifton, Allen and Galdonia S. Conn, deceased and Essalona S. Carroll, deceased; Mona S. Muncie, and Bertha Stumbo.

Grandfather Spurlock later married Adam Sizemore, son of Penny Sizemore. Mother's brothers and sisters are: Anne England Tackett, Artie S. Moore, Nora Stumbo, Herbert Sizemore, all of McDowell, Servia S. Akers, of Ohio, Henry Spurlock, Printer, Herbert Sizemore, of Detroit, and John Sizemore, deceased.

Grandfather Spurlock was the brother to B. M. (Berl) Spurlock, Wheeler, John H. (Bubbin), Jake, Jobie and Rebecca Akers.

Grandmothers sisters and brothers are: Amy H. Martin, Susie Bradley, Chaddie Salisbury, Will Halbert, of McDowell, Adam Halbert and John D. Halbert, deceased.

I attended some of my high school at Caney Creek but was graduated from McDowell high school. I received my college training at Lees Junior College, Jackson, Ky.

I have taught in Floyd county for nine years—one year at Wheelwright and the remainder at McDowell.

In 1944 I was married to Clyde Moore, son of Harry L. and Fannie Moore of Orkney. He is a brother to Ballard, Rufus, deceased, Gardie, Arnold, Ralph, Ronald, Edgie and Ivie. His sister is Opal Hayes, wife of Otis.

If you elect me as your County Court Clerk I promise one thing—that in EVERYTHING I shall do my very best to serve you, the people without choice of individuals, and shall try to help make Floyd county a better place in which to bring up our children.

Sincerely,
IMOGENE S. MOORE

RECOMMENDATION FOR CLERK

To All My Friends and Voters in Floyd County:

I, Berl Spurlock, hereby recommend to you Imogene Stumbo Moore as a candidate for County Court Clerk.

This candidate is the granddaughter of my deceased brother, Burl Spurlock. She is well qualified and has taught school in this county for nine years.

As I am not able to come and see you personally, I take this means of asking your help and support for her. Your vote will be appreciated and will help us to have a better Floyd county.

Sincerely yours,
B. M. SPURLOCK

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

BACK TO THE HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Well, all good things have to end, and so does my visit back home. I am on my way to my home in Ohio. Home? well, my rooms are there. My home is here.

What is the saying? "Home is where the heart is." My home is here in Floyd county, then, because everything I hold dear is here in Floyd county and vicinity, my son, parents and relatives and friends are here. But I can't stay. Why? My husband is working in Ohio and where his work is I have to stay. And when we leave there, do we come back to our homes here? No, we will migrate farther on, toward Michigan, I suppose.

So, unless there is something done soon, I don't know where we will be, but, it won't be home. What can we do? Well, we can sell our home here, or rent it. For how much? Well, the rent we get for a six-room house will pay about two weeks' rent on three rooms away from here. And do we have our son with us? No. And if we do, it will be extra money. Then what of our son who is in Korea? Where will he come back to? To his home here in Kentucky where he was raised and all his friends are? Or to Ohio? Ohio, I guess, as there won't be work here for him but jobs like mining, and my heart aches for him when I hear him say, "Mom, I'd rather stay here and work in the mines than to leave home."

Sometimes I wonder, what will happen to the people of Eastern Kentucky in the future. Are we going to go on supplying states, other than Kentucky, with laborers when we should be using them at home? Who would keep sending their children to a neighbor's house when those same neighbors would clean their faces, and call them wild, ignorant, barefooted numbskulls.

YOU KNOW WE WOULDN'T! We would stop them doing there in a minute. But we do even worse now. We raise our boys to manhood, then ship them away to our neighbors—Ohio and Michigan. Don't they do the same thing?—Call us wild, ignorant, barefooted numbskulls.

What are we going to do? Let's let our editor of The Floyd County Times know how we feel, because he understands. He knows and appreciates how we feel and he is for us. My heart's desire is for every Kentucky man or woman who reads this to write in how he feels. Let's see how many feel just like I do. Let's wake up to our duty of keeping what has been our homes and let's stay here.

Even if I myself can't return, I hope everyone else gets back where he belongs—HOME.

SYLVIA FERRELL
HIGHLANDS—OR HIGHER GROUND

Editor, The Times:
It's all interesting those words as you always write, eulogizing our beloved Kentucky. And I'd like to write about many things; however, I hope to stick to the theme, "higher ground."

If we're true Americans, God-fearing people and good Kentuckians, we'll not be swayed by the Communist lies, for they are a part of the devil, for he is a liar from the beginning.

Now, why can't those Floyd countians come to an honorable peace and compromise pertaining to the lawsuits? Not knowing enough to take sides, should I desire to, in this controversy, I am only saying, it's not good reading when we see the people so divided, even though in political matters; for these mud-slinging tactics make us wonder how many of our people may be bitten by a Clocia that might have hibernated in red territory.

I'd like to be able to look up towards the top of old Cumberland, gaze on the fleecy clouds as a glorious morning sun burst forth some morning, especially on Easter morning, and visualize the dawning of a morning over nineteen hundred years ago, when our Saviour was victorious over death, hell and the grave. I've drifted from the majestic hills, always down stream to the mouth of the Big Sandy, and then away up into the Buckeye state, among real fine people, often meeting with our own people from Kentucky. But there's a longing to be in the land of our birth.

While I miss the natural beauty of higher ground, I've not drifted spiritually down stream, but been lifted higher in reverence to God, and praise for my Christ, for absence makes the heart grow fonder, and I continually seek God's blessings to bring my only son back to me. And I'm asking his blessings on your loved ones, that's so far away from home. My prayer is, all of you may be blessed.

JOE H. COOLEY FOR SHERIFF

I wish to take this means to announce my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Floyd county.

It has been a step taken with deep reluctance and after long hesitation and but for my friends and the many people who are interested in good government I would not have become a candidate. They insist and properly so that the efficient and honest administration of the sheriff's office is vital to the peace, happiness and well being of the county. Their faith in me, their offers of support and the pointing out of the clear path of duty compel me to enter the race. Interested in good government as I am I could hardly do otherwise.

Let me say at the outset that I am in the race to win—not only for myself but for the honest, hard-working proponents of good government who are to be served by the sheriff's office. The office belongs to the people. After election it should still belong to the people. Although in the race to win I do not propose to indulge in any misleading or smear campaigns, no old fashioned vote-buying and corrupt practices are planned. As far as I am concerned it will be a respectable solicitation of the electorate.

At the outset I shall give you a platform upon which I intend to conduct my campaign. If elected it will then serve as a bond between me and the people.

1. My administration will be orderly and realistic. Efficient and honest operation of the office will mean the difference between a crime wave and isolated incidents of law violation.
2. I want only what the Constitution of Kentucky states to be the maximum amount the office can pay—that is, $7200 per year. All above the constitutional limit I shall turn over to the County Treasurer.
3. I will select deputies that will be a credit to a great county, who will execute their duties impartially and efficiently. The effective administration of law enforcement rests to a great extent upon their shoulders.

4. I will cooperate in every possible way with the school authorities so as to promote a better school system. My office will be at their disposal in every way.

5. I pledge cooperation with the city police forces of the Floyd county towns, the city councils and the citizens. Under my administration there will be no infringement of the city officials' rights but a working together for the betterment of law enforcement.

6. A statement of taxes collected, of expenses and disbursements will be made, sworn to and published.

7. No charge of 1¢ per mile will be made for the serving of court papers.

8. No illegal collection of fees will be exacted but only the fees set out on the statute books as being legal.

From time to time I shall explain my position more fully. A well-informed electorate can make a wise choice.

Yours for Good Government,
JOE H. COOLEY.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I take this means of announcing my candidacy on the Democratic ticket for the office of Jailer. As you may recognize me from the above picture I am the man who operates the small stand at the foot of the courthouse stairway. I began business here seven years ago and have earned my living by this means.
It was the only means by which I could support myself, for as you know, I am totally blind.

I began to work for a living in the mines when a very young man.
Nineteen years ago a few friends and I went hunting and I was accidentally blinded by a gunshot. Since that day I have never begged nor asked for something out of sympathy. All I have ever asked, and it is all anyone should ask, is an opportunity to earn a livelihood. That opportunity I ask of the voters of Floyd county in announcing my candidacy for office.

My present home is in the basement of the jail where I do my cooking and housekeeping. I could have lived with any of my brothers and sisters who live in other communities, but it is here that I can earn my living. If I can by your help be elected to the office of jailer, it will enable me to put aside a little money for a secure old age.

If elected I promise you I will employ competent personnel to run the jail for me. I shall require it to be run in an efficient manner, worthy of the trust you will have placed in me.
Your support will be appreciated.

Announcing Bill Hall For SHERIFF
To the People of Floyd County:
Among the five candidates for sheriff, four years ago, 2,882 of you cast your vote for me, Bill Hall.
I ran second in that race four years ago, an honor for which I am deeply grateful to the people of Floyd county. I respected and honored the right and the integrity of those who cast their vote for the other four candidates.
Since that race four years ago and especially during the last few weeks many of those who cast their vote for the other candidates have come to me, pledged their support, and urged that I announce myself as a candidate for sheriff in the coming Democratic primary.
I now earnestly solicit your vote and influence and when elected I pledge to the people of Floyd county four years of HONEST ADMINI-STRATION. I pledge to the taxpayers I will keep proper records of all my receipts and expenditures and at the end of each year as required by K.R.S. 61.290, I shall file a sworn statement of them in the local newspaper, and send a copy of the sworn publication to the state auditor as required by law. I shall list only those expenses as are authorized by law and for my services
I shall retain only the amount that I am legally entitled to.
When elected to the office of sheriff I will not be controlled by any clique or group of politicians.
All men and especially those young men of draft age will be treated as every mother wants her son to be treated for every young man wherever he may be and whatever he has done has a mother who expects only decent treatment at the hands of the law.
For an HONEST ADMINIS-TRATION, for decent treatment at the hands of the law, for STRICT but FAIR enforcement, vote for, nominate and elect BILL HALL.
FOR A BETTER FLOYD COUNTY
Your Friend,
BILL HALL

F. & A. M.
Meets each second and

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

This is to announce my candidacy on the Democratic ticket for County Judge of Floyd county.
I have worked hard to do a good job for the people. None of us succeed in everything we attempt to do, there are none who do not make mistakes along the way. But I submit in all earnestness that I have succeeded in doing many needed things for our county, such as the improvement of roads, the paying off of much of the outstanding debt and reaching out to the ordinary citizen who needs help; and I also say that whatever mistakes I may have made, they have been errors of judgment, and not mistakes prompted by any intention at any time to do wrong.
Later, I will point out in detail
the work I have done and the things achieved. My record will be open to you all.
Your support will be deeply appreciated.
