IT'S KENTUCKY

An expatriated Kentucky woman now living in Marshallville, O., sends us a clipping of a newspaper article stating that the famed Kentucky rifle is a misnomer, that the weapon didn't originate in Kentucky but really was first made in Pennsylvania. "Please print in your paper if this story is true or false," she writes.

Well, if we want to be technical about it we will have to admit that it's true. The storied weapon that played such a part in the early history of this country was, to start with, a Pennsylvania product.

But so was Daniel Boone. Yet to what state does he belong? Where did his reputation as a hunter, woodsman, adventurer and Indian-fighter grow? Born in Pennsylvania, he moved to the Yadkin river section of North Carolina before he ever saw Kentucky. And after he pioneered in Kentucky he moved to Missouri.

Yet the aura of romance and adventure and greatness that hangs about Boone was Kentucky-born. Boonesborough bears his name. He lies buried in Frankfort, Kentucky.

Boone used the Kentucky rifle—used it well. Here in the "Dark and Bloody Ground" the weapon gained its reputation. Where else would a straight-shootin', trusty firearm get a better test?

A tree sprouted in Brooklyn but grown in Kentucky is a Kentucky tree, we would remind all and sundry.

COUNTY BOARD
ADOPTS TEXTSSpecial Meeting Held
For Selection of Books;
Teachers Suggest Picks

Textbooks to be used in Floyd county schools from Grade 1 through high school were adopted at a special meeting Tuesday of the Floyd County Board of Education.

About one-fourth the textbooks used in the schools is adopted annually. Last year saw local authorities for the first time have a hand in selecting texts for pupils.

County Superintendent V. O. Turner said the textbooks were selected after Floyd teachers studied the various books applying to their fields of instruction. After the teachers had turned in their score sheets on the various texts, the findings were compiled by a committee. This committee in turn recommended the texts for purchase, making their recommendations solely on the basis of teachers' reports, he said.

Texts chosen cover these branches: Language, Spelling, Kentucky History, Government, Elementary Science, Art, Composition, Literature, Public Speaking, Dramatics, Creative Writing, General Art, Creative Graphics, General Language, Latin and French.

The Board of Education accepted with minor exceptions the work done under contract by W. B. Henry on plumbing and wiring of the new high school building here.

LINES DRAWN
FOR PRIMARY
CAMPAIGNINGCongress Seat Fights
In Democratic Ranks
Expected To Be Shot

Lines for the Congressional and Senatorial primary election campaigning were pretty well defined this week, although the list of candidates may not be complete.

The big fight, as usual, is developing in the Democratic party where U. S. Senator Earle C. Clements is opposed by Ex-Congressman Joe B. Bates, who has the support of the Chandler administration.

In the race for Congress from the enlarged Seventh district Congressman Carl D. Perkins, of Hindman, already is opposed in the Democratic primary by Ralph Walters, of West Liberty, and County Judge Ervin S. Pruitt, of Pike county. A fourth candidate for the Democratic nomination is probable, with George Glenn Hatcher, former Secretary of State, admittedly "surveying the prospects." "I have been traveling over the district the past few days and have been encouraged greatly to enter the contest," he said.

The last day for filing is next Wednesday. The primary is May 29. Thurston B. Morton, of Louisville, has resigned his post with the State Department, to make the Republican race for U. S. Senator. He is unopposed.

MORAN DEATH
HELD SUICIDEMartin Plumber Found
With Arms Slit; Probe
Into Death Conducted

Joe Moran, 51-year-old plumber, who was found dead at his home at Martin last Friday afternoon, was a suicide victim, authorities said this week.

Veins inside both elbows had been severed. Moran had been dead several hours when found sitting in a chair in a bedroom of his home in Ice Plant Hollow at Martin. Childless, he lived alone. His wife is a patient in a tuberculosis sanatorium.

Moran left no note. Although there was no official inquest, Coroner James J. Carter said County Judge Henry Stumbo, County Attorney Hollie Conley, Deputy Sheriff Troy Mullins and Joie Maynard and Dr. H. J. Sherman joined him in the investigation into the tragedy.

A native of this county, Mr. Moran was a son of Dave and Susan Moran. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Evelyn Miller Moran, a brother, Walter Moran, Jackson, Mich., and two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Belah and Mrs. Flossie Thomas, both of Michigan.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday morning from the chapel of the Hall Brothers Funeral Home by the Rev. John P. Carr, and burial was made in the Martin cemetery.

BLAZES AGAIN
HIT VICINITYHughes Building Here,
Harris Estate Residence
Levelled During Week

Fire continued to exact losses in Prestonsburg and West Prestonsburg this week with blazes leveling two more structures.

The building owned by S. D. (Davey) Hughes on South Lake Drive and used by him as a fruit market and living quarters burned between 4 and 5 a. m., Tuesday.

Early Wednesday night, a five-room residence in West Prestonsburg, owned by the Hiram Harris estate and occupied by the family of the Rev. R. J. Moose, was destroyed with practically all its contents.

Cause of the Hughes fire has not been determined. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes reportedly were in Michigan at the time of the blaze. The fire was discovered by a passerby and had gained such headway that the fire department was unable to save the structure. The loss, partially covered by insurance, was unofficially estimated at $12,000.

The West Prestonsburg blaze was the fifth in that community within a month. A small untenanted dwelling owned by the Hiram Harris estate near the town's corporate limits burned last week. Wednesday night's fire

School Walks Planned
By Highway Department

Engineers will be in Prestonsburg next week to make a cross-section survey and plan for the building of sidewalks along U. S. 23 to the new county high school building. Representative Lon C. Hill told The Times, Tuesday.

Plans for the project have been received at the Highway Department offices in Frankfort, but it was discovered this week that these are only a rough draft, Hill said.

The Prestonsburg man was assured the planning will be such that sidewalks will conform to specifications of the highway after any changes are made in the rerouting of U. S. 23 via the present Auxier road.

FLOYD NATIVE
DIES IN TEXASClark, Faculty Member
At University of Texas,
Victim of Heart Seizure

Dr. David Lee (Lonnie) Clark, native Floyd man who for 30 years had been professor of English at the University of Texas, died of a heart attack at his home in Austin, Texas early Tuesday morning, relatives here have been notified.

Dr. Clark was preparing to leave home for the University when he was stricken. He died within 10 minutes. The seizure was wholly without warning, his wife told Prestonsburg relatives.

A native of Allen, Dr. Clark was a son of the late Lindsay and Rebecca Mayo Clark. He received his early education in the Floyd county schools, leaving this county to study at the East Texas Normal College soon after the founding of that college by his uncle Prof. Bee Mayo, of this county.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Maris Clark, Austin, Texas, two sons, Charles and David Clark, instructors, respectively, at Yale and Harvard in the field of physics, and one sister, Mrs. Anna Stephens, of Prestonsburg.

The funeral was held at Austin today (Thursday) and burial was made there.

FLOYD PUPILS
IN TOP RANKFive from School Here
Win 'Superiors' at Pike
Regional Speech Fest

Floyd county (Prestonsburg) high school students took five top ratings of "superior" and six "excellent" rankings in the Pikeville Regional Speech Festival last week-end.

A total of 44 "superior" ratings, which make the winners eligible for the Kentucky State Speech Festival April 19-21 in Lexington, and 69 of "excellent" were awarded during the two-day meet. In all, 176 students from seven counties took part.

"Superiors" won by students of the Prestonsburg school were: Joyce Burchett in poetry reading, with the poem, "November Night"; Sarah Noel Hill in serious monologue, giving "Anne of a Thousand Days"; Phyllis Fraley in humorous monologue, with "Boy Crazy"; Betty Sizemore, with "All My Sons" in dramatic reading, and Judy Snodgrass in discussion.

Students winning "excellent" ratings for Floyd county were Amanda Nealey in poetry reading, Glenna Jarrell in expository prose reading, Rebecca Conley in oratory, Nancy Rose in discussion, Rex Music in radio speaking and Helen Jo Howard in dramatic reading.

Held off the Pikeville College campus for the first time, this year's festival took place in the newly completed Education building of the First Methodist Church of Pikeville. The church offered the facilities because the expansion program begun this year at the college made it impossible to find space in the school's buildings. Dr. A. A. Page, college president and festival manager, said.

Benham high school, winner of the Pikeville festival's championship trophy each year since it was first offered in 1952, carried it back again with a score of 161 points, based on entries and awards. Beltry was runner-up with 157.

Dorton high school came from behind to win the region's debating crown, downing Virgie and Heller debaters in successive matches to total five wins and one loss in the regional festival. The runners-up from Heller finished with a 4-2 mark to become the second team

NAME COLLINS
GOP CAIRMANRepublican Meet Here
Saturday Reorganizes;
Slate Other Meetings

Gordon Collins, of Lackey, brother of Sheriff Gorman Collins, was named chairman of the Floyd county Republican executive committee here last Saturday afternoon. He succeeds William Darby, who declined to seek re-election.

The committee re-elected Mrs. Viola Stewart, of Maytown, chairwoman, and Lloyd McGarey, of Martin, Secretary. George T. Roberts, of Prestonsburg, was named treasurer to succeed Foster Meade, who has moved out of the county.

The organization was effected quickly, and none of those elected had opposition.

Discussed at the meeting was the loss of Republican votes to the Democratic party in this county because the Democrats have not primary elections. The Republicans plan to see to it that they have spirited primaries themselves at next county election. They are considering at least a dozen candidates for magistrate in each of the county's four districts and 13 candidates for the office of constable in each district.

Delegates to the Republican state convention will be named Saturday afternoon at 2 in a caucus at the courthouse. Floyd county is now entitled to 21 delegates, as compared to 16 four years ago.

The G. O. P. district organization will be effected in a convention at Paintsville, April 13. Dr. M. D. Flannery, Pikeville, present chairman, and Sheriff Gorman Collins are the only known aspirants to the post.

Two Community Services
In Easter Observances
Announced by Churches

The first of two Holy Week community services to be held here will be the Good Friday service at the Methodist Church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The sermon will be brought by the Rev. Ira McMillen, pastor of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church.

The second will be the Easter Sunrise service at the athletic field Sunday morning at 6:45. The speaker will be the Rev. Orville Pearson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

A special effort was being made this week by local churches to create widespread interest in church and Sunday school attendance on Easter, and this pre-Easter week revival services continued at the Presbyterian Church.

Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church has set its Sunday school goal at 500 here and 850 more in its missions for the day.

The Methodist Church will present the cantata, "The Seven Last Words," at its Sunday night service.

A Sunrise service at the Cow Creek Freewill Baptist Church will be conducted at 7 a. m. by the Rev. Leven Burchett.

State Has Fewer Doctors
Than in 1910, Says Report

Kentucky can thank Arkansas and four other southern states when deficiencies in medical services are considered. The five states of Arkansas, North Carolina, Alabama, South Carolina and Mississippi all crowd Kentucky for the bottom, with Mississippi carrying off the dubious honor.

Eye-opener facts on the medical situation in Kentucky are its 40 percent fewer doctors now than in 1910, a current shortage of 1,400 doctors, non-existent medical care in most areas for the indigent and a rate of infant mortality that is exceeded by but three other states. All this and more is pointed out in the Legislative Research Commission's recent report on Medical Education.

Rural Kentucky suffers more from the deficiency in medical service than do the urban areas, the report says, and Eastern Kentucky, of all the rural areas, is in the most critical condition. Jefferson county, with a per capita income of $1,825, the highest in the state, has the second

Salk Vaccine Shortage
Forces Clinics Delay;
New Dates To Be Set

Because of a shortage of Salk polio vaccine, the series of polio clinics scheduled to start in Floyd county Monday has been postponed, M. V. Clark, county health administrator, said today (Thursday).

The vaccine shortage exists throughout Kentucky, and new dates for clinics must await replenishment of supplies.

Mr. Clark said the health department has a small supply of vaccine on hand and physicians also have limited supplies. Parents may take their children to the health department or to their local doctors for immunization as long as the vaccine supply lasts.

Expressing keen disappointment at the situation, Clark said rural schools will close soon, and the clinics delay past their closing date will make the work of reaching these pupils difficult.

COURT OKEHS
RICE VERDICTLast Week's Opinion
Affirms 21-Year Term
Given Floyd Officer

Conviction of W. L. "Leva" Rice, former Floyd deputy sheriff, of voluntary manslaughter in the slaying here in December, 1954 of Reedy Whicker, of Martin, was upheld last Friday by the Court of Appeals.

The court's opinion involved Rice's conviction on change of venue to the Lawrence circuit court from this county and also upheld denial by the Oldham circuit court of a writ of habeas corpus on which his release from the state reformatory at La Grange was sought.

Rice's attorneys attacked validity of the grand jury indictment against him, claiming a grand jury investigation was not made. This phase of the appeal was not discussed by the high court, Joe P. Tackett, of Prestonsburg, one

Andrew Jackson Finlayson, 63, of Salyersville, but a native of Dwale, this county, died March 12. Mr. Finlayson was a son of the late John and Catherine May Finlayson and was married to Pauline Stephens Finlayson, who survives.

He was a civil engineer, helped to survey the first railway line to enter Magoffin county and served with the 309th Engineer Corps in the European theatre in World War I. He was a member of Salyersville Masonic lodge and the First Baptist church.

Survivors include, besides his wife, one sister, Mrs. B. F. Stapleton, of Lexington, and six nieces and nephews.

14-YEAR-OLDS
TOP SPELLERSCounty System Spellers
Compete Here Saturday;
Girls Outnumber Boys

Two 14-year-old eighth-grade schoolgirls, both from the lower section of the county, are spelling champions of the Floyd county school system.

They are: Eunice M. Craft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Craft and a pupil of the Spradlin Branch school, winner of the Herald-Dispatch bee.

Donna Powers, of the Auxier consolidated school and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elza Powers, winner of the Courier-Journal bee.

Miss Craft, a pupil of Edgar Bingham, and the runner-up, 13-year-old Ruby Jean Robinson, of the Johnson school, will represent the county system at the Tri-State spelling bee finals in Huntington next month, all their expenses paid. The winner there will go to Washington, D. C. for a shot at the national spelling title and a $500 cash award.

Miss Powers is a pupil of Carl Horne at Auxier, and the runner-up in the Courier-Journal bee was Dolores Ann Howell, 13, also of the Spradlin Branch school. Of 22 spelling finalists in the Herald-Dispatch bee, 19 were girls. The male contingent was better represented in the Courier-Journal contest with eight out of 23.

Names of Herald-Dispatch contestants appear below in the order in which they were eliminated, with the word missed:

DAVID FRANCIS
GETS SUPPORTOf Coal Industry Group
For U. S. Chamber Post;
Is Princess Elkhorn Head

The bituminous coal industry Monday urged election of David L. Francis, Huntington, W. Va., president of Princess Elkhorn Coal Co., of David, as a director of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States representing the Department of Natural Resources.

Mr. Francis was endorsed by National Coal Association and other organizations in the District of Columbia and states of New York, Illinois, West Virginia, Ohio, South Carolina, Kentucky, Louisiana and Arkansas.

Tom Pickett, executive vice-president of the National Coal Association, pointed out in a letter to National councillors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States that the continually increasing demand on the nation's reserves of fuel "make it desirable" that the Chamber directorate "include a person cognizant of the situation and capable of interpreting and evaluating these conditions." As a director Mr. Francis would be in a position to perform services beneficial to the entire nation through the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Pickett said.

"The National Coal Association considers the election of Mr. Francis of particular importance to this industry, which is expected to provide a progressively greater share of the nation's fuel requirements in the years ahead," Mr. Pickett said.

A brochure is being mailed to Chamber of Commerce National Councillors asking their support for Mr. Francis and listing the highlights of his business career. Mr. Francis was born in Charlottesville, Va., was graduated from the Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., and Yale University, and earned his Master of Business Administration at Harvard. He took the accelerated course in mining at West Virginia University and qualified for a Kentucky foreman's certificate. He is president of Princess Elkhorn Coal Co., and Princess Coal Sales Co.; vice-president of the Powellton Coal Co., and Mallory Stores, Inc.; a director of Appalachian Coals, Inc., and the Big Sandy-Elkhorn Coal Operators Association. He is a Presbyterian, a Mason and is active in work of the Boy Scouts, United Fund and the Cancer Society.

To Conduct Services
At Church of Christ

John N. Mostoller, minister, Central Christian Church, New Castle, Pa., and former pastor of the Paintsville Church of Christ, will conduct an evangelistic meeting at the Arnold Avenue Church of Christ here, beginning next Tuesday. It is announced.

The daily services at 7:30 p. m. will continue through April 13. Special music will be a part of each service, to which the public is invited.

HEALTH FUND
NEEDS VIEWEDFloyd's, Like Other Departments, Facing
Funds Lack by July 1

"Adequate financing of local health departments is the greatest problem facing Kentucky's public health program today," Raymond F. Dixon, president of the Kentucky Public Health Association, told 850 delegates at the opening session March 21 of the Association's eighth annual convention in Louisville.

And M. V. Clark, Floyd health administrator, echoed that statement here this week. Mr. Clark said, "We are shy $2,953.10 as a result of the state's effort to bring us up to the minimum requirements a health department should have to serve a county the size of Floyd."

Mr. Clark explained that the shortage has developed in this way:

The State Department of Health supplied extra money for the employment of an extra sanitarian three-fifths of the time (sharing his services with Martin county), and also made available the money to bring up minimum salaries, particularly those of nurses. This money covers the period from last Dec. 1 till only June 30, this year, and after that no extra allocations are in sight. Governor Chandler has explained to health officials that the state will try to hold its support of last year's figures but that no further increase can be expected.

"That leaves us two things to do: Raise the extra money here, or lose an extra sanitarian and Frank Music (right), general mine foreman of Mine No. 1, Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, receives from Claude Brown, vice-president of the Big Sandy Elkhorn Mining Institute, the bronze plaque awarded the David mine for its 1955 safety record.

All the safety awards made by the Big Sandy-Elkhorn Mining Institute for the year 1955 are the property of Floyd county mining operations.

When the Institute at its Pikeville meeting Saturday evening awarded plaques for the best safety records made during the past year by Class A and Class B member-mines, the No. 1 mine of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company at David was declared the No. 1 mine of the Institute in the matter of safety in the Class A group. At the time the Class B safety award was made to the Price No. 1 mine of the Inland Steel Company.

The David mine's top safety record was made while producing 603,478 tons of coal in 1955 with only six lost-time injuries involving 422 days lost. The Inland Steel mine at Price produced 805,274 tons with only three lost-time injuries caus-

MERGER RULE
PUT IN EFFECT
IMMEDIATELY2 City Board Members
To Be on County Board;
Boards Delay Comment

The Prestonsburg independent school district was merged Tuesday with the county school system by order of the State Board of Education.

The order became effective with its Tuesday issuance. Dr. Robert R. Martin, state superintendent of public instruction, told County Superintendent Virgil O. Turner.

This, it was explained by Dr. Martin in a telephone conversation, would mean, if there is no further litigation that:

1. The five members of the Floyd County Board of Education will be joined at future meetings by two members of the Prestonsburg Board of Education who were retained by the State Board order for service on the new board.

2. This seven-man board will pass pay orders on all bills of the Prestonsburg school system, including teachers' salaries, although actual payment will be made through the present independent district facilities until July 1.

Neither board of education here would indicate its reaction to the State Board, those contacted expressing a desire to see the full order of the State Board before expressing an opinion.

The State Board directed that Tom G. Dingus, chairman of the Prestonsburg independent board, and W. A. Spradlin, oldest member in point of service of that board, shall be members of the board with its present chairman, Dingus' term of office was 1, 1957; that of Spradlin, 1959.

The order also directed that C. H. Frazier, superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, be retained "an appropriate professional capacity" and that contracts, rights and privileges of employees of the independent district continue in force under the merger, but that the board as formed by the merger has the right to promote, transfer and assign all personnel.

The City Board in its merger proposal asked that City Superintendent Frazier be named upon merger of the two systems to the post of

In Appreciation

This is Teacher Appreciation Week, and it is one of the few "Weeks" in which we find no fault. We subscribe without reservation to the doctrine that the women and men who are, next to parents themselves, loaded with the responsibility of shaping young lives, deserve our fullest appreciation.

These are the people, these teachers, on whom any program of education must necessarily depend. All the fine buildings and educational facilities, all the well-planned curricula—none of these, not even full treasuries to pay higher salaries, can take the place of those individuals on whom the child must depend for love, care, guidance, proper discipline and instruction.

The quality of the school depends, above all, on its teachers. Let boards of education and all others interested in the education of children remember that. Higher teacher salaries, deserved and desirable as they are, will not suffice. The women and men who get those salaries must be the best that are available if the parent's tax monies are not to be wasted and the children themselves are not to be cheated.

It is a grand calling, that of the teacher—an ill-paid calling, true—an exacting one, with its cares, frustrations and disappointments, but a calling in which the rewards can be, and often are, great.

The teacher who is aware of her responsibility and sensitive to her duty deserves our deepest appreciation at this or any other season.

Elder John H. Caldwell, Boldman Minister, Dies Wednesday at Pikeville

Elder John Henry Caldwell, 76, of Boldman, died at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, at 6 a.m., Wednesday. A heart condition was given as the cause of death.

Elder Caldwell, prominent in affairs of the church of Latter Day Saints (Mormon), for 50 years, was a native of this county, a son of the late William and Mary Caldwell. For years a section foreman for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, he afterwards entered the mining industry, his last work being with the Kentland Elkhorn Coal Company at Dunlap. Elder Caldwell, who was ordained in his church 36 years ago, is survived by three sons, Doyle Caldwell, of Dunlap; James O. Caldwell, of Boldman; and Jack Caldwell, of Ypsilanti, Mich., all of whom are also elders in the church.

He was married to Mattie Ellen Porter Caldwell who preceded him in death in 1948. Surviving besides his three elder sons are the following other sons and daughters: Isaac W. Caldwell, of Boldman; Bernard Caldwell, of Dunham; Prichard Caldwell, of Ypsilanti, Mich.; Floyd Caldwell, of Boldman, a step-son; Hibbard L. Porter, of Boldman; Mrs. Pearl Campbell and Mrs. Cora Elswick, both of Boldman. Forty-two grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral rites will be conducted tomorrow (Friday) at 12:30 p.m., at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Boldman Branch, the Elders Joseph Kranty and William Flannery officiating. Burial will be made in the family cemetery at Boldman under the direction of Baker Funeral Home.

1956 Teacher Appreciation Week Observed Here and at Maytown

Teacher Appreciation Week was observed in at least two Floyd county communities, and in both the observance took interesting turns.

At Maytown, for the first time in this county, the teachers went on vacation Monday as the parents of their pupils moved in to do their teaching chores for the day.

Here, a meeting at the new county high school was attended by approximately 200 persons who heard Otis D. Spurlock, principal, discuss problems, hopes and aims of the school, and who later toured the expansive structure and got acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. Spurlock told the parents that perhaps the greatest concern at the school here is caused by pupils driving to school. Asking parents to consider full implications of the problem, he said that about 35 cars are driven by pupils, that most of these cars are parked at the school but some are left elsewhere. Unless they are detained, boys and girls load into the autos at noon and drive away and one or two wrecks have occurred.

Working to exercise control over the situation, the principal said he had considered calling parents of pupil-drivers together to discuss the problem, adding that he does not want to put into use a "key board" such as is used at some schools where the youthful drivers are required to put their car keys on a board and leave them there.

"Although parents are welcome at any time to visit us, we have set aside Wednesday of each week for them to call," Spurlock said.

Music was provided by two high school groups, an instrumental trio and a vocal trio, also by Cousin Zeb and his Rhythm-Makers, a quintet.

Draughn Is Among 19 At Insurance School

Homer Draughn, local life underwriter for the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, recently attended a Job Fundamentals School at the company's home office in Louisville. Mr. Draughn is one of 20 Commonwealth careermen who attended the school. They studied the philosophy of life insurance, the policy contract, policyowner service, and the operation of a life insurance company.

tette partially composed of high school boys.

County Superintendent V. O. Turner said the Maytown teaching experiment has been tried successfully in other school systems but never before in this county. It was pointed out that the parents, by undertaking the teaching job for a day themselves, learn by actual experience the problems of the teachers of their children and that they also may note conditions that ordinarily escape the teachers' attention.

At a later meeting of parents and teachers there the experiences of the day will be discussed. Mr. Turner said the same experiment may be introduced in other schools of the county.

Famous bulletin from Mobilgas Economy Run

FORD WINS IN ECONOMY TOO!

V-8 WINS CLASS A

In this year's Economy Run a new Ford V-8, with Fordomatic, was the official victor over every car in its field, with a winning average of 47.7643 ton-miles per gallon. This means that the sturdier, heavier Ford carried more weight, with greater gas economy per pound, than any car in its field.

This latest Ford victory was scored over a rough and rigorous 1,468.8-mile route running from Los Angeles to Colorado Springs. Through the heat of Death Valley and over chilling mountain heights... through gas-eating city traffic and over the straight-line open road... Ford proved anew its traditional reputation for economical performance.

The winning Ford was a regular-production model taken right from the assembly line. It was no different than thousands of '56 Fords you see on the road and in dealer's showrooms. This proves that Ford, the Performance, Style and Safety leader, leads in Economy, too! That adds up to four big reasons why the '56 Ford is worth more when you buy it, while you drive it, and when you sell it, too!

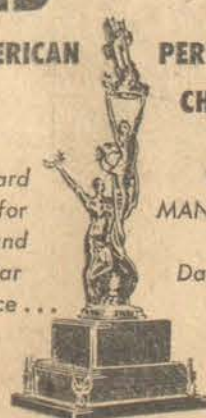

The "ton-mile" formula is used by contest officials to insure equal chance for all cars in each class, regardless of size or weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by the number of miles traveled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.

Test Drive the Economy Winner... '56 Ford

take salary cuts," Clark summarized.

In his address Mr. Dixon said that the counties' fiscal courts, which are the chief appropriating agencies, are not to be blamed for the lack of public health funds. The courts are unable to control basic factors such as increasing competition for the county tax dollars and the handicapping limit of 50 cents on assessed valuation of property, an amount too small to cover the county needs.

Although public health funds for the entire state have risen over the past twenty years from $548,000 in 1934-35 to $1,360,000 in 1954-55, Kentucky's per capita expenditure of 87 cents is still below the expenditures of most other states and is far short of our own needs. In comparison with other states our greatest shortage is in funds appropriated for the counties for their local health departments. "This shortage," Mr. Dixon said, "will continue until counties assume a public health tax, which seems to be the best solution to the financing problem." He pointed out that, since 1954, nine of the 13 counties that have tried for the tax have passed it. This proves that people are willing to tax themselves when they are shown what an adequately financed health department can mean to them.

The convention was attended by Mr. Clark, the Floyd Health Department's three nurses, Catherine Wiechers, Elizabeth Harris and Regina Mayo Roberts, John M. Stumbo and Earl Compton, sanitarians, Mrs. Lucy Ransdell and Mrs. Pauline Sparks, clerks.

BOOKMOBILE AID FORMED

Friends of Libraries Organize Chapter Here To Further Book Move

Meeting in the Bookmobile headquarters in the old high school building here Tuesday, most of the Woman's Clubs in the county sent representatives to organize a Floyd county chapter of Friends of Kentucky Libraries. A Friends chapter has functions similar to P-TA groups. Its work in the several towns will be to promote library service there just as P-TA groups aid the schools.

Miss Margaret Willis, field worker of State Library Extension, spoke at the meeting in support of the Friends idea. She also stated that few counties in Kentucky have done as well as Floyd in its Bookmobile work. She pointed out to the members of the Library Board and representatives of the Woman's Clubs that Floyd county is fortunate in having fiscal court members who have vision enough to support the Bookmobile and that few activities could bring as many benefits to the people of the county.

Present at the meeting were members of the Library Board: V. O. Turner, Mrs. Anna Sue Stumbo, and Mrs. Avanelle Wells; also Robert J. Wallace, librarian.

Representing the Woman's Clubs at the meeting were: Mrs. Russell Laven and Mrs. John Sherman of the Allen-Martin club; Mrs. Lon C. Hill, Mrs. Zella Archer, Mrs. R. V. May and guest, Miss Florence Hill, of Prestonsburg; Miss Alice Williams, Mrs. Edward Lykins, and Mrs. Beecher Hardwick, of the Betsy Layne club; Mrs. Ivan Reed and Mrs. Stumbo, of the Drift club, and Mrs. Wells and Mrs. N. D. Howard, of the Lackey-Garrett-Wayland club.

Mrs. May, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Reed were elected president, vice-president and secretary, respectively. This group of officers will decide on the chapter's official name, its functions and membership.

Miss Conley Is Winner Of Speakers' Tourney At Williamson, W. Va.

Miss Rebecca Sue Conley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conley, of Prestonsburg, was the winner of the Better Speakers' tournament at the Northeastern Regional Baptist Training Union Convention held at the East Williamson Baptist Church, Williamson, W. Va., Monday night. Subject of her speech was "Nothing Less Than the Best." Three other speakers from the Ashland, Pikeville and Williamson churches were entered in the contest.

Miss Conley will represent the Northeastern Region at the Kentucky Baptist Training Union Convention in the statewide contest, April 13, 14. Winner of this event will go on to Ridgecrest, N. C., or Glorietta, N. M., to represent Kentucky Baptists in the south-wide contest.

The local church was represented at the East Williamson meeting by a delegation of 15.

To Receive Degree From Canadian School

Miss Mary Elizabeth McGinnis, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Fred H. McGinnis, of Banner, will be graduated April 13 from the Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta, Canada, where she has been taking a four-year theological course, specializing in Christian Education.

Miss McGinnis was graduated from Prestonsburg high school in 1952.

Woman's Club Workshop Ends First Year's Work With Dinner at School

The Arts and Crafts Workshop, sponsored by the Prestonsburg Senior Woman's Club, terminated the year's activities with a potluck dinner held Thursday night at the Floyd County high school. Twenty-four women enjoyed this event.

Mrs. Otis Spurlock, of Allen, who taught basket-weaving to afternoon and evening classes of local and nearby Federated Club members and other interested women, was presented a gift from the basketry classes in appreciation of her time and talent.

The workshop, with Mrs. H. L. Ley, chairman, held a series of arts and crafts courses during the current club year. These were planned to teach women the arts and crafts which afford great personal satisfaction and pleasure in doing, and at the same time contribute greatly to the beauty of their home. It also served to teach these skills to potential leaders in Scouting and other character-building groups.

A class in rug-hooking was taught by Mrs. Grover Lowe, Mrs. John Hale and Mrs. Victor Hale. Mrs. James Camicia instructed the metalcraft group, and linoleum block printing was taught by Mrs. Ley.

Mrs. Lon Hill, president of the Senior Women's club, announced that the club hopes to sponsor another workshop next year when new arts and crafts will be taught.

The following were enrolled in the classes: Mesdames Lon Hill, Victor Hale, J. H. Keenon, W. W. Wallen, J. H. Nunnery, Harold Dorsey, William Crawford, Walter Crace, Herbert Salisbury, Jr., James Camicia, John Hardin, James Donahoe, Woodrow Allen, E. D. Roberts, William Hunt, Greenville Spradlin, W. W. Cooley, Virgil Goble, Ed May, Robert Regan, Gwynne Ford, Chalmers Frazier, W. C. Rimmer, J. H. Arnett, Kilmer Combs, Paul Combs, Marvin Music, Otis Bussey, Grover Lowe, John Hale, Joyce Allen, Ed Music, W. E. Miller, H. L. Ley, Misses Alice Harris and Ella Noel White.

new physicians is inadequate to maintain pace with the increasing population or to overcome the critical over-all shortage," the report goes on. Kentucky, with only one medical school, has to depend heavily upon other states for the medical training of its citizens. "Forty-three percent of Kentucky's physicians were trained in out-of-state medical schools," it says.

It is in rural Kentucky where only the faintest glimmer of adequate medical services exists. There the picture, dreary from a statistical standpoint, is probably worse in actual practice because of the lower incomes which preclude alleviation by visits to large medical centers in the cities. Rural Kentuckians get less than half the medical attention of city dwellers. The physician-population ratio of the state's rural counties is one to 1,976 persons. Urban areas have an average of one physician to 816 persons.

One Kentucky county, the report shows, doesn't even have a doctor and another with 13,707 population has one doctor. Forty-five counties have a doctor for every 2,500 people or more. Over 5,000 births occurred in Kentucky in 1949 with no physician in attendance, contributing to the third largest infant mortality rate in the nation.

Floyd county doesn't fare as badly in medical services as many Eastern Kentucky counties but here the physician-population ratio is one to 1,726 persons. The county has a total of 31 physicians, 27 of whom are general practitioners and four specialists. Lawrence is in the same physician-population ratio category with one to each 1,802 persons but with only a total of eight physicians. Johnson has a ratio of one to 2,188 and Pike, 2,618.

The Legislative Research Commission thinks one of the solutions to the problems that beset the state in the way of inadequate medical services would be the establishment of a medical school at the University of Kentucky. This would cost $16,000,000, the net cost probably less if Federal funds were available. An alternative would be to underwrite major plant expansion at the Louisville School of Medicine barring the constitutionality of state aid to a private medical institution.

Another alternate possibility would be, the Commission says, state participation in the educational program of the Southern Regional Compact whereby students may attend other state medical schools at a cost of $6,000 for each physician graduated. Final possibility to improve medical services, especially in rural areas, would be several scholarship plans to encourage graduating physicians to discharge their obligations by practicing in assigned rural areas for a definite period of time.

Val Peterson, Civil Defense Administrator: "It is taking a long time for the significance of living in the nuclear age to seep into the minds of the people."

Baptist Woman's Group To Hold Ashland Meet

Ashland, Ky., March 26 (Spl.)—Some 2,000 women are expected to attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Baptist Woman's Missionary Union at First Baptist Church here April 3-5.

Theme will be "The Living Word for a Lost World." The meeting will convene at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday and continue until noon Thursday. Annual election of officers will take place Thursday.

Principal speakers will be Dr. Elmer S. West, Jr., Baptist Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va. Miss Blanche Synder White representing southern W.M.U., Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Tucker Callaway, Louisville, Baptist missionary to Japan; Mrs. Ewell Payne, Cherokee, N. C., missionary to Indians; and Dr. W. C. Boone, Louisville, general secretary of the Kentucky Baptist Executive Board.

Other Kentuckians on the program will be the Rev. M. D. Morton, Ashland, host pastor; Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Ashland; Mrs. E. L. Howerton, Pikeville; Mrs. Ira McMillen, Jr., Prestonsburg; Mrs. O. B. Mylum, Berea; Mrs. H. D. McBrayer, Lawrenceburg; and Mrs. Encl Deen, Lexington.

This week Scott O. Craft, of Paintsville, a native of Water Gap, this county, filed for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district. He is also unopposed. His declaration was signed by Dr. M. D. Flannery, Pikeville, Seventh district Republican chairman; Henry J. Scott, Pikeville; Gordon R. Lewis, Whitesburg, and V. P. Horne, Paintsville. A former Floyd teacher, he was educated at Eastern State College, Richmond, saw service in the Pacific area during World War II, and has been associated with his father-in-law, F. S. Vanhoose, Paintsville, in the building supplies business for several years.

In his formal announcement this week Mr. Craft said: "We are blessed with natural resources and industrious people, but our Seventh district is far behind the rest of the country in prosperity because our Seventh district representation has lagged behind in the big job of representing the people."

Congressman Perkins' campaign in Floyd county will be managed by State Representative David Martin, of Hi Hat, it was said here last week. Support of the state administration in this race is expected to be behind Judge Pruitt.

William A. Young, three-time County Attorney of Franklin county, and a native of Rowan county, has been named state campaign chairman for Senator Clements. Charles M. Blackburn, of Versailles, who took a prominent part as a veterans organization leader in last year's primary and final election, will manage the Bates campaign.

It was announced Wednesday that Senator Clements' Floyd chairman and chairwoman will be announced next week.

In his formal announcement Congressman Perkins said last week:

"As a member of the House Committee on Education and Labor, I have been an active supporter of Federal aid for school construction. Our educational system faces a crisis, the solution of which, in my opinion, is beyond the resources of the state and local districts. Lack of classrooms is just as serious as teachers as classes cannot be held without classrooms. This is a major issue such as the better highways, an up-to-date farm program and the problems faced by the coal industry will continue to receive my interest and active support."

"The general welfare of all people is the first interest of the Democratic party and I heartily endorse the program of that party."

Tax Commissioner Clive Akers will manage the Floyd county campaign of Joe Bates, of Greenup, who is seeking to unseat United States Senator Earle Clements, it was announced here Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of Bates' supporters at the courthouse. The meeting was attended by Bates and the announcement came from him. Akers, in accepting the campaign chairmanship, said:

"We need a man in the office of United States Senator who is willing to sacrifice personal ambition for the good of the people he represents, and a man who is sensitive to the problems of the schoolchildren, teachers, aged, needy blind, dependent children and the unemployed. Joe Bates is such a man."

Bates, who is supported by the Chandler administration against Clements, is a native of Dry Creek, Knott county, but left there in 1916, moving to Greenup county. He spent Tuesday in Prestonsburg, Martin and Allen.

Floyd-co. Native Killed In Automobile Accident; Burial Made at Detroit

J. B. Tackett, 34, a native of the Big Mud section of this county, was killed instantly in an automobile accident at Detroit at 4 a.m. Saturday. Details of the tragedy are not known, but it was learned that he was returning from work when the accident occurred.

His death was the second resulting from an automobile accident in the family of Ben Tackett, of Mare Creek, and the late Angie Tackett. Ervin Tackett, 22, was killed at Elk Creek, W. Va., when he fell from a vehicle in 1939.

Surviving Mr. Tackett, besides his father, is his wife, Dorothy, two sons, Gary and Ritchie, and a stepson, Glenn, all at home. Surviving brothers and sisters are Lee, Oscar and Palmer Tackett, all of Detroit. Mrs. Josephine Prater, Clinton, O., Mrs. Luvenia Frasure, of Amba, and Miss Jerry Tackett, of Ashland. Burial was made Tuesday in Detroit.

assistant county superintendent and that all five members of the City Board become members of the Floyd County Board of Education until the end of their terms.

Dr. Martin was quoted as saying the State Board order directed the County Board to assume all valid contracts made by the City Board. It also directed that taxes be levied to pay the bond issue made for construction of the auditorium-gymnasium at the new high school building here. The County Board as comprised after merger will assume the separate assets and legal liabilities of the county and independent district.

The City Board of Education last May 18 re-employed Mr. Frazier as City Superintendent for a four-year term at an annual salary of $5,400. Teachers at the grade school also were re-employed. Mr. Frazier said he was told Wednesday by Dr. Martin that his is a valid contract.

At the same time the merger here was ordered, the State Board directed the merger of the Sebree independent district with the Webster county district. Sebree also had asked that its five members of the independent board of education be retained on the merged board, but only two members were retained there, as was done in the Prestonsburg case.

Merger proposals of both independent districts had been rejected by the Floyd and Webster County Boards of Education, necessitating State Board action.

The Floyd case was argued before the State Board two weeks ago.

The State Board also established an advisory council on public-school education in Kentucky, to consist of superintendents of county and independent school districts.

Dr. Martin said meetings of the superintendents had proved "the value of such assemblies to education."

By forming the council and giving superintendents "duties co-extensive with the Commonwealth," Martin said, school boards could legally raise superintendents' salaries to the $12,000-a-year maximum limit prescribed for such duties by the state constitution.

Martin said the maximum salary of officials with local duties is $7,200 a year.

OUT-PATIENT CARE RESTRICTED, APRIL 2

In commemoration of the beginning of the eight-hour working day in the coal industry, the out-patient facilities of the McDowell Memorial hospital will be open only for emergency care on Monday, April 2, it was announced this week.

world, and we are told that no lovelier sight beheld by mortal eye exists than that presented by the Taj Mahal bathed in moonlight. But what land can compete with Kentucky moonshine?

We're begging the issue in spots, lady—we admit. But don't let anybody take your Kentucky rifle away from you.

Which reminds us that somebody said, "The Reds may, one day, take New York and San Francisco, and sweep the whole country, but God help them when they hit Eastern Kentucky!"

THERE'S ALWAYS TEXAS

Only Texas can lay Kentucky in the shade in matters such as this. The story is told of the Kentuckian and the Texan who indulged in a lyin' and braggin' contest about the merits of their respective states.

The Kentuckian started off with the traditional boast about his state's fastest horses, most beautiful women, etcetera, etcetera.

The westerner countered with the boast that his state produced the tallest men, the toughest fighters, the biggest oil wells, the largest area, and so on.

"Shucks," retorted the Kentuckian. "At one spot in Kentucky, in Ft. Knox, we've got enough gold to build a wall around Texas."

"That so?" quipped the Texan. "Name us a price and we'll buy it!"

THE COLD FACTS

Forgive us if we seem to be plugging for newspapers with the following, for we are. But it's a factual report supplied by the Associated Press:

The Bureau of Business Research at Michigan State University reported that Detroit stores lost 35 million dollars in sales in December because of the city-wide newspaper strike there.

The bureau said its conclusions were based on state sales tax returns from Detroit as compared with the previous December and with sales tax returns from Detroit suburbs.

Apparel stores were affected most, the bureau said, with general merchandise stores next, food stores third and furniture stores fourth. Car sales apparently were not affected, the bureau said.

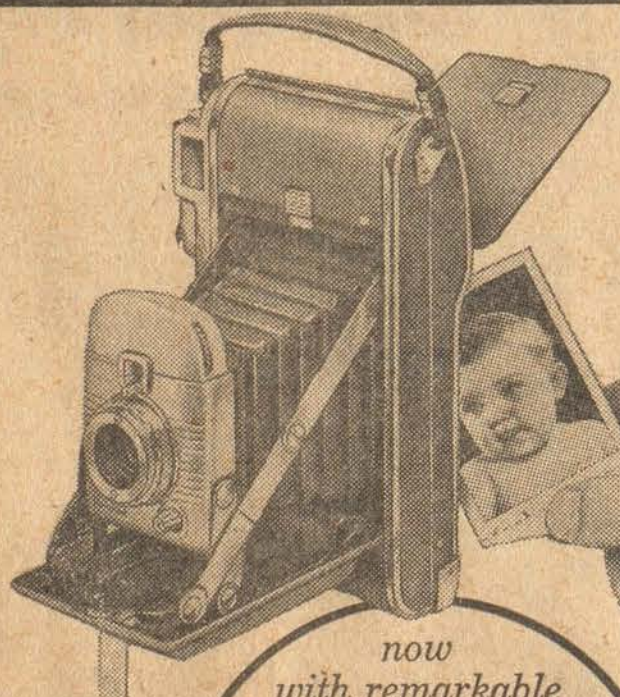

Adjoining Wayne county communities reaped sales gains during the newspaper strike, the report said.

"This period provided a rare opportunity to learn what happens to retail sales—in the short run—without newspaper advertising," the report said.

Coal moved by barge will be the chief fuel used by electric utility companies now locating along the upper Mississippi River.

of defense counsel, said.

Rice was given a 21-year term for the shotgun slaying of Reedy after the latter had left the courthouse here and made his way about three blocks north on U. S.
23. The officer claimed Whicker was advancing on him when the shot was fired and that he fired in defense of himself and other officers who had sought to restrain the Martin man. Whicker had been adjudged insane, shortly before the shooting.

The court's opinion noted that Rice testified he did not know Whicker had been adjudged insane, adding, "although there is evidence to the contrary in the record."

"The jury evidently believed the officer used unnecessary force—and so do we," was the Appellate Court's conclusion.

Rice was returned to the county jail here Tuesday from La-Grange to be present for the hearing in circuit court of a $25,- 000 damage suit filed against him.
Sheriff Gorman Collins and his bondsmen by Whicker's widow.
Trial of the case was slated to begin today (Thursday).

ASC Chairman Says Wool Growers To Get Million in Payments

Roy C. Gray, chairman of the tucky State ASC Committee told reporters recently that as a result of the difference between the national wool incentive price of 62c and the national average price which producers received for the wool which was sold on the open market, eligible producers who sold lambs and yearlings and shorn wool during the 1955 marketing year, which runs from April 1, 1955, to March 31, 1956, will receive approximately $1,- 000,000 from the Department of Agriculture in the form of incentive payments.

Gray urged that all farmers who sold lambs and yearlings or shorn wool during the 1955 marketing year to file an application for an incentive payment with their local ASC office as soon as possible. All applications should be filed not later than April 30, 1956, to be eligible for an incentive payment.

Regional Music Festival To Have Added Sessions

Pikeville, Ky., March 26 (Sp.)—The Pikeville Regional Music Festival will be expanded to 14 sessions this year, opening Wednesday evening, April 4, on the campus of Pikeville College.

The added sessions will be necessary in order to give all the 350 entries a chance to be heard by the judges. Dr. A. A. Page, college president and festival manager, said. Heaviest item on the festival program now is 60 piano entries, including 56 solos. Some 35 vocal solos, 15 choruses of up to 80 voices each, and 12 bands averaging more than 50 members each are to be heard.

From 1,200 to 1,400 students from the 21 participating high schools and junior high schools are expected to attend various sessions of the Pikeville festival. They will come from Floyd, Harlan, Johnson, Mingo, Martin, Perry and Pike counties.

17,913 Jobless File Claims For Insurance

Frankfort, March 28 (Sp).—Kentucky's rate of insured unemployment stood at eight per cent of those covered by the jobless insurance program—nearly twice the national average of 4.2 per cent in February, Commissioner of Economic Security Vego E. Barnes reported today.

The state's rate was highest for any State in the eastern section of the country, but was surpassed by five western states.

The Department paid out $2,622,- 088 in benefits to unemployed workers last month, including $247,132 under the veterans' program and $72,954 under the federal employes' program (these being wholly federally financed, but administered by the state agency, and $2,302,000 in benefits paid from the Kentucky unemployment insurance fund. Benefit payments averaged $21.27 a week.

Other data revealed by the Department was 17,913 new claims for unemployment insurance were filed during the month, which included 877 Korean veterans and 239 former federal employes. Among initial claimants who filed for benefits were 2,732 released from jobs located in other states, principally from Ohio and Michigan automotive plants.

Heavy layoffs were noted in the highly seasonal tobacco processing plants and other industries affected by weather conditions.

Benefit payments were heaviest in construction, manufacturing and trade establishments. The mining industry accounted for 9.7 per cent of the benefits paid, but a year ago it accounted for 16.5 per cent. Among manufacturing industries, benefit payments were proportionately heaviest in food and beverages (including distilling) apparel and lumber.

The Employment Service division made 3,570 non-agricultural placements for the month, 13 per cent below January and 18 per cent
under February, 1955.

Funeral Rites Conducted At Pikeville For Fraley Who Died Last Thursday

Funeral services for Jay Fraley, 30, of Pikeville, were held at 2 p.m.
last Thursday at the First Baptist Church of Pikeville with the Rev.
Harold Wainwright officiating. Burial was in the City cemetery under the direction of the J. W. Call and Son Funeral Home.

Mr. Fraley, a native of Martin county, died at 11 p.m. Monday while enroute to the Pikeville Methodist hospital. He had been ill for two years.

He had made his home in Pikeville for 40 years. He was a Pikeville merchant, having operated the Jay Fraley dry goods store on Divison street.

Mr. Fraley was a city councilman for several years and was purchasing agent for the city in 1952. He was principal of Inez school for several years. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs.
Hattie Wheeler Fraley; a sister, four nephews, John Morrison, Detroit, Mich., James and Roger Morrison, all of Thomas, and a niece, Miss Lizzie Morrison, of Thomas.

Postal Rate Increases Would Cost Residents Of Prestonsburg $1,500

Special to The Times

NEW YORK, Mar. 16 — To what extent will be the proposed bill to increase postal rates, now before Congress, affect people in Prestons-burg, if approved?

In round figures, local residents and business concerns would have to spend an additional $5,100 a year.

The measure, proposed by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield and presented to Congress by President Eisenhower, seeks to cope to some extent with the continuing annual deficit of the Post Office Department by upping mail rates more than $406 million a year. About $311 million of this would be increases in first class mail charges.

First class rates would rise to four cents an ounce from the present three cents. Air mail would also go up one cent, to seven cents.
There would be an increase of 30 per cent, divided over two years, in rates for books, magazines, newspapers and other second class mail.
Third class rates would go up 29 per cent. The overall average rise would be 17 per cent.

In Prestonsburg, in the past fiscal year, $29,900 was spent for stamps and other postal services, according to the Post Office Department's official figures.

This would increase to $35,000, a boost of $5,100, assuming that the average conditions apply locally.

The Postmaster General bases his request for the rate rise on the mounting scale of postal deficits.
Although the business he heads is one of the largest in the world, it is in financial trouble. It loses about $500 million a year. The only profitable segments of its operations are the first class mail, post office box rentals and the postal savings system.

Opposition to the boost in mail rates comes from those who argue that the postal service is for the benefit of the public and is therefore a legitimate charge to general revenues.

The proponents hold that it is a purely business operation and should, as such, stand on its own financial feet.

Germans To Train With U. S. Units

Heidelberg, Germany, March 26—
More than 400 officers and enlisted men of the new West German Bundeswehr will attend United States Army schools for training with American units during the four months through August, the Army has announced.

Ten officers are already observing training, artillery, airborne, signal and engineer units, the announcement said.

Germans observing unit training will spend from one to two weeks with the outfits, while those attending schools will stay a little longer, the Army said.

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

By GORDON WILSON, Ph.D.
Western Kentucky Teachers' College Bowling Green, Ky.

MEMORIZING POETRY

Our country teachers at Fidelity and Podunk used to make us memorize lines upon lines of verse; some of the poems were classics, but others were merely rhymes. And some of us learned to memorize quickly and rejoiced when we were asked to "say our pieces." Most of our memory work came from our McGuffey Readers, which were used so long, that, if we had forgotten, almost anyone present could have prompted us. To call the roll of those pieces would be to review almost the whole of literary training for millions of people: "Casablanca" ("The boy stood on the burning deck"), "Mary's Lamb," "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," "Harry and the Guide Post," "Little Gustava," "Sweet and Low"—take up from there and go as long as you like. Even though the little fellows who said some of the simple ones I have mentioned did not know how to read the longer, more difficult pieces, they had heard them recited over and over and later came to know them as old friends when they found these poems in the Fifth or Sixth Reader. Occasionally we or our parents found a piece in the newspapers or the pulp magazines and felt that here would be another chance to show off the young hopeful reader. As we took, sometimes, THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, I ran into Frank L. Stanton, with his rhymes in Negro dialect, many of which have been set to music. In HOME AND FARM I got acquainted with our own Kentucky version of Stephen Collins Foster and by some regarded as the greater, Colonel Will S. Hays. Hays wrote an innumerable lot of sentimental songs, "Mollie Darling" still being popular as sung by Eddie Arnold. In fact, it could almost be said that that one old song as revived by Arnold brought him more money than Hays was ever able to make by writing songs or running steamboats. Hays also wrote under the pen-name of Old Hayseed; it was these poems, very much after the style of James Whitcomb Riley of a later date than Hays's early work; a picture of an idyllic country life by rural philosopher.

Not much has been made of the enormous array of religious songs that we all memorized. Hymnbooks were scarce; lining the hymn was at first a real service to the congregation, but later it was purely ornamental, for all of us knew the words and music to dozens, almost hundreds, of songs. The odd thing about all this is that, right in the midst of some program, with no slant towards old times, there will pop into my memory some phase right out of those classic hymns. Isaac Watts, William Cowper, John Newton, John and Charles Wesley, of the older writers, and Fanny J. Crosby, John Greenleaf Whittier, John Hughes of the later ones, found us in our remote little corner of creation and interpreted for us some of the noblest truths that man has ever discovered. Of course, we mixed these nobler things with some pretty trifling stuff from the popular song books of the time and spent as much good time in memorizing trash as in learning lasting poetry.

Nobody told us when we were learning good or bad stuff. By some strange freak one of our twice-a-week papers ran in the Thursday issue each week a whole double column of famous poems. The very appearance of this column intrigued me. I cut out dozens of poems, practically memorized whole pages of them, and saved them for a scrapbook that I still have. I thus met "Oft, in the Stilly Night," extracts from "Childe Harold's Pilgrimage," famous soliloquies from Shakespeare (Portia's "quality-of-mercy" speech, Hamlet's "To be or not to be," Jacques's "All the world's stage"), and shorter poems without number. Tell me that living away off on the edge of things puts one beyond cultural and worth-while things! If shut up in a prison or confined to my bed and without a chance to read a line, I could still rattle off good poetry for hours or days. Those rural teachers did a good job of this with many of us.

Robbers Ask Leniency
For Youthful Assistant
In Three Member Gang

Hammond, Ind., March 23 — Two bank robbers were given long terms today in Federal Court after pleading for leniency for the youngest of their three-member gang.

Judge Luther M. Swygert sentenced the leader, Carl George Smith, 31, Ontario, Cal., to 25 years in prison and fined him $10,000 for his part in the $21,747 robbery of a branch of the Mercantile National Bank of Hammond last December 6.

John Walter Marcum, 25, Viola, Tenn., who admitted he helped Smith plan the robbery, was sentenced to 20 years and fined $10,000.

Thomas Ray Patrick, 20, Salyersville, Ky., was given a 10-year term, with no fine. The three robbers, wearing stocking masks, held three tellers, three customers, and the bank manager at gun point while they ransacked cash drawers. They fled in a stolen car. Marcum and Patrick were caught two days later at Tracy City, Tenn. Smith was arrested the next day at McMinnville, Tenn. Authorities recovered $19,800 of the loot.

Mother of 19 To Return
To Her Job Very Soon

Chicago, March 24 — Mrs. August Hoffman gave birth to her 19th child today in St. James Hospital at suburban Chicago Heights, a 9-pound, 5½-ounce boy.

The 39-year-old mother said she planned to return to her job as a nursery aide in the hospital early next month. The family—her husband and the 13 other children living at home—will get along just fine, she said.

Their six-room home is large enough to accommodate the newest arrival, Paul, she said. Folding beds and the conversion of one room into a dormitory does the trick.

Modern William Tells Use Cans for Apples

Charleston, W. Va. — Reports to the State Conservation Department from officers in the field include one which has been filed as the "William Tell Case".

In his February report Conservation Officer Claude E. Rice of Keyser told of investigating rifle shots he first thought might have been fired by out-of-season hunters.

Rice said he found three boys taking turns shooting tin cans from each other's heads with a .22-caliber rifle.

CONTINUOUS MINERS

Continuous miners, first introduced commercially into bituminous mines in 1948, have rapidly won a place in America's highly mechanized mining industry. Where only 8.2 million tons were mined with continuous miners in 1952, the 1955 total was 25 million tons.

WHICH IS Bigger?

Most folks will say that "B" is larger than "A". Actually, these two geometric figures are exactly the same size. This old but simple optical illusion is proof that things are not always what they seem.

When you get your electric service bill, it may seem that you're paying more for electricity than you did 10 years ago. Actually, you're paying less.

Your bill, covering a two-months period, is higher because you're using more electricity. Our average customer today uses more than twice as much electricity as he did 10 years ago.* Why? Because most people have added a number of wonderful new electric appliances, and enjoy living better electrically.

Since the average householder uses more than twice as much electricity, you'd think he'd pay more than twice as much for it. But not at all. Use has more than doubled, but bills have increased only two-thirds. This is mainly because of two things: First — We are constantly striving for and have found more efficient ways to bring you service. Secondly — Electricity costs you less when you use it in larger quantities.

What else can you buy today that costs less than it did in 1946?

How many electric appliances have you added during the past ten years, to better your living? Make a list of all those in your home — then cross off all those you did not own ten years ago. You may be surprised to see how much more you've put electricity to work for you — to better your living!

*Our typical customer used an average of 72 kilowatt hours of electricity per month ten years ago. Today this same customer uses a monthly average of 161 kilowatt hours — actually more than twice the use of ten years ago.

WANTED! WANTED! WANTED!
1,350 in Sunday School on Easter

Delmas Saunders, superintendent of the Sunday School of the Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church, and the Rev. Ira McMillen, Jr., pastor, look over a map of Floyd County showing the local church and the ten mission Sunday Schools sponsored by the church.

Last year the total Sunday School attendance on Easter was 1,106. We invite you to be with us on this Easter Sunday to study God's Word and to worship. If you live in the vicinity of Prestonsburg come to our church at 9:45 a.m. for Sunday School. Three nurseries will be provided for the little folks through three years of age, with other graded classes for all ages through the Adults.

The individual Sunday Schools with time of meeting and attendance goal are as follows:

|----------------------------|--|
| Prestonsburg 9:45 a.m.—500 | Buckeye 2:00 p.m.—30. |
| Lancer 9:30 a.m.—75. | Benedict Baptist Chapel 2:15 p.m.—135. |
| David 10:00 a.m.—165. | Spurlock 2:00 p.m.—50. |
| Holbrook 11:15 a.m.—65 | Blue River 2:00 p.m.—80. |
| Home Branch 1:30 a.m.—100 | Cow Creek 2:00 p.m.—100. |
| Ivy Creek 2:00 p.m.—50 | |

BUS SERVICE TO CHURCH

A large yellow school bus will run Sunday morning to carry those who would like a ride to the church for Sunday School. The route to be followed is: Begin at Auxier Road at 9:10 and then proceed up the Trail and to West Prestonsburg where passengers may board the bus by being in front of their homes. From this point across Dingus Street to Highland Avenue and across Highland to Lake Drive and turn at Eagle's Club. Back to town by way of Riverside Drive and across Davis Street and on to the church. All passengers will be returned after the morning service.

Kennedy Wants Cabbies To Know He Was Joking

Washington, March 24 — Senator Kennedy would like all cabbies to know that story he told was only a joke.

Opening a recent Providence, R. I. speech, the Massachusetts Democrat quipped that, instead of giving his taxi driver a big tip and urging that he vote Democratic, he had tried a reverse psychology trick suggested by Senator Green (D. R. I.): giving no tip and requesting the cabby to vote Republican.

A newspaper item carrying the joke along let loose a barrage of critical mail. It came not only from cabbies, who fear the idea might catch on, but from others who protested it is a "cheap political trick."

Asked whether Kennedy actually did or didn't tip the cabby, an aide said:

"He didn't take a cab to the meeting. He was driven in a private auto."

Bituminous mines owned and operated by America's four largest steel companies are expected by one leading authority to produce more than 52 million tons of coal in 1956, which would be more than 4.5 million tons above 1955 production.

Red Heads To Play At Wheelwright Gym

Billed as America's most attractive basketball team the Olson Red Heads, conquerors of 134 male basketball teams last year, will play the Wheelwright All Stars (all men) Sunday afternoon at 2:30, in a benefit for the Wheelwright senior class at the Wheelwright gymnasium.

Hailed as the team that can make basketball truly beautiful, the red-headed outfit is the only copyrighted girls' team in America.

The Red Heads will stage a special show at half-time when they will present trick shooting, fancy ball handling, ball spinning routines, basketball juggling, ball balancing, comedy routines, and a foul-shooting exhibition.

Governor Asks Public Observe Education Week

Frankfort, March 26 (Spl.) — Gov. A. B. Chandler called on Kentuckians to appropriately observe the week of April 19-24 as "Youth Temperance Education Week" in the state and commended its purposes to all citizens of the State as a "worthy program."

"Temperance is a virtue which, properly applied, would resolve many of the difficulties which we confront," said the Governor.

"Temperance is a matter of such grave importance as to merit serious attention and consideration by all those whose association, action or leadership might be calculated to influence the lives and habits of younger people."

Mother Is One Child Away from Goal of 13

Poteau, Okla., March 26 — A 44-year-old Catesville farmer's wife is nearing her goal of 13 children—the number her mother had. Mrs. Otis Self gave birth to her twelfth child, Sharon Kay, this week. She was 15 when her first child was born. Her three other girls and eight boys range in age from 3 to 29 like the Bible says and replenishing the earth.

There Are Words— And Words and Words

Omaha, March 24 — The gray-haired foreign-born woman asked to be excused from District Court jury duty.

She said: "I have lived in the United States 50 years. I know the little words O. K., but not the big ones. And you know these lawyers."

"Excused," interrupted Judge Ross Newkirk.

RECORDS SET BY COLEMAN

Could Last For Years;
Hughes Breaks Records
For Prestonsburg High

By Gordon Moore

Record-smashing Wayland high school and its phenomenal Kelly Coleman together established eight new Kentucky state high school basketball tournament records, also rang up several other offensive marks that could last for many years to come.

In 41 games during the past season, Coach "Copper-John" Campbell's Wasps burned the nets for 3,709 points for an unbelievable 90.4 average per game, the highest ever reached by a Kentucky prep team.

Coleman, without question the greatest high school prepster of all time, finished an amazing career by gathering 4,263 markers in 127 games for a nifty 33.6 per game mark for each outing in his four year career at the Floyd county school.

During the past season the agile performer chalked up 1,919 counters, a 46.8 per game mark that could last forever.

As a junior, Coleman hit 1,174 points in 36 contests; in his sophomore year, he tallied 784 in 30 games, and as a 14-year-old freshman, he bucketed 386 points in 20 games.

Teammates Elmon Hall, Melvin Robinson, Bill Pultz and Billy Combs, also may have established some sort of record as all averaged in the double figures during the season. Hall had a 17-point per game mark, Robinson 12, Pultz and Combs 10 each.

Wayland also became the third team in the state's history to win 35 games in a single season. They lost six—four of these by margins of one to two points.

Two other uncanny 15th region cage stars, Lowell Hughes, of Prestonsburg, and Charles Osborne, of Flat Gap, staged dazzling scoring exhibitions during the season, only to have their fine feats overshadowed by the great Coleman.

Hughes, a two-time all-state football quarterback, played 23 games, all away from home during the season, and totaled 927 points for a mark of 40.2 per game. He broke every existing Prestonsburg high school record in rewriting six new ones.

"Cyclone-Charlie" Osborne, Flat Gap's six-foot, five-inch junior center, averaged above 30 points a game for the second consecutive season. He was second in the state with 1,227 tallies in 36 games for a 34-point per game performance.

The 1955 rise in coal exports emphasizes that 90 per cent of all coal shipped from tidewater ports for New England and overseas leaves from Hampton Roads, Va.

Adair Tourney Stories Not Critical of Coleman

Quentin Allen's article in last week's Floyd County Times erroneously ascribed to Bob Adair, assistant sports editor of The Lexington Herald, statements indicating that Adair was unjustly critical of Kelly Coleman, of Wayland, during the state high school basketball tournament. Mr. Adair, it is to be noted, was fair and objective in his reporting.

The Times is glad to make this explanation in fairness to Sports-writer Adair.

DIAMOND PLAY ON WAY BACK

To Prestonsburg, Plan Announced This Week; Emma Team in Plans

Negotiations are under way to bring back baseball to Prestonsburg, according to David B. Leslie, Prestonsburg traffic officer.

An excellent field can be developed on the site beside the Floyd County high school. The Times was told this week. If permission is granted for such an undertaking, the team has tentative plans to start play by the middle of April.

Pending availability of the field, Amon Childers has made application for membership in the Blue Grass League. Childers was in charge of the Emmas baseball team last year. Members of that team will transfer to Prestonsburg, it was said.

Leslie said that the project must be a community project if it is to succeed. It would round out the recreational plans of the city, he said, in mentioning the progress made in the Little League and Pony League teams.

There are plans to move the football bleachers from the playground here to the baseball site. "We are not in this for profit," Leslie said.

"However, we may need approximately $500. It is a shame that this community has not supported baseball as have smaller towns such as West Liberty and Jackson have done in past years."

SPORTS CHATTER

By GORDON MOORE

CAGE RULE CHANGES

The Rules committee of the National Basketball policy-making body has passed six changes that will not go into effect until the 1957-58 season.

Major change was the extension of the 12-foot free throw lane to high school. During the coming season, the lane will be the same as in previous years.

Players in the future will no longer be able to leap into the free throw lane until the ball hits the backboard or hoop. Previously a player could jump into the lane so long as his foot was not on the floor until the ball made contact.

Another revision makes the free throw line two inches instead of one, all court lines uniform and the boundaries of the three-second rule easier to distinguish.

The committee also placed a restriction on the jump ball, and no player may have his foot within the circle until the ball is tapped.

Another revision concerns activity under a team's basket. No offensive player in the future may reach above the hoop to guide an attempted shot by a teammate into the basket.

This rule is on the same order where a defensive player cannot reach up and knock a ball out of the basket.

ADMITTED TO BLUE GRASS LEAGUE

Emma's semi-pro baseball team has been admitted to the Blue Grass Baseball League and will play all of their home games on the new field adjoining the new Floyd County high school.

ALL-STATE TIME

The Louisville Courier-Journal's All-State basketball team will be announced Sunday, April 1. Watch for three 15th region cagers to be named to the select ten.

The Lexington Herald released its "dream team" Tuesday, with Kelly Coleman and Flat Gap's Charley Osborne on the first team and Lowell Hughes on the second ten. We are not familiar with the system of selection of the Lexington paper, but fail to see how Hughes, who averaged 40.2 per game during the season, was left off the first unit.

EX-WHEELWRIGHT ACE STOPS U. K.

Vondel Lee Hall, ex-Wheelwright high school pitching star, was the winning pitcher in Monday's encounter that saw Georgia State Teachers College spoil the University of Kentucky's 1956 baseball debut with an 8-5 setback.

Two Men Manning Roadblock Prove Object of Search

Coopersville, Mich. — A report that burglars were heading his way sent Deputy Sheriff Keith Averill speeding to the edge of town to block the escape route.

He stopped the first car he saw and asked the driver and passenger to help set up a roadblock.

"Sure thing," they replied. Minutes later fellow Deputy Marvin Pratt came to a screeching halt at the barricade.

"Grab those men," Pratt yelled pointing at the pair manning the roadblock. "They're the guys we're looking for."

Police said a search of their car disclosed the burglary loot.

THIEVES' LOOT IS PEANUTS

Winipeg, Manitoba, March 24 — Thieves who broke into a college here got peanuts. The lot was two vending machines containing peanuts and pennies.

TENTH TEAM IS ADMITTED TO MOUNTAIN CONFERENCE

M. C. Napier high school, of Perry county, was admitted as the tenth member of the four-sport Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference at its Spring meeting in Pikeville Sunday afternoon.

The football and basketball mentor of all ten schools reconvened Wednesday morning at Pikeville to study proposals to divide the two sports into two divisions of five teams each, and then stage a play-off in each sport.

In other action in the four-hour session, Bernard Mims, Pikeville high school principal, was elected president of the loop for the coming year; H. M. Wesley, Hazard high principal vice-president, and Arthur Mullins, Elkhorn City high athletic director, was re-named secretary-treasurer.

The 1956 conference basketball championship was won by the Belfry Pirates under the Dickinson system of rating, and Pikeville and Elkhorn City shared the runner-up spot.

Named to the all-loop cage team were:

Lowell Hughes, Prestonsburg. Bryon Hall, Paintsville. Charles Hall, Paintsville. Everett Varney, Belfry. Howard Hatfield, Belfry. Tommy Adkins, Pikeville. Rex Polly, Whitesburg. Clifford Davis, Hazard. Marvin Bleivins, Jenkins. Delbert Justice, Elkhorn City.

The annual track meet was set for Elkhorn City during the week of May 11, with the exact date and time to be scheduled later. Baseball eliminations were once again divided into two divisions. In the west division will be Jenkins, M. C. Napier, Whitesburg, and Fleming, and in the East will be Prestonsburg, Pikeville, Elkhorn City, Belfry and Paintsville.

All division games must be played before May 4 and the two division winners will vie for the championship crown on May 5 at a site to be determined by the two participating schools.

The highly-successful annual preview football roundup, played here last season, was dropped and the previous motion requiring every school to meet at least once in basketball was dropped, thus reverting to the old amendment that requires school to play at least six cage games to be eligible for the basketball crown.

At the close of Wednesday's coaches session, their proposals will be submitted to the entire body for final decision.

CONFERENCE CHATTER

Belfry high school would like to schedule a 1956 football opponent for September 7 or 28. Walter Brugh, ex-Citidal back, will be the new football mentor at Paintsville high school. . . Paul Wright, former Western State College ace, will assist Jim Caudill at Hazard. . . Prestonsburg will open its 1956 schedule with Louisville Flaget. . . All E.K.M.C. schools have opened spring football practice. . . Defending champion Pikeville had the largest number at 55. . . Dave Hurst, resigned Fleming mentor, is conducting their spring drills. . . Jack Ketcham, two-year football tutor at Elkhorn City, has resigned, effective at the close of the current school year. . . Paul Phillip Hughes will be third quarterback in the Hughes family to play on a Prestonsburg eleven. . .

Construction Started By Hale On Third Ave.

Footer for a 40x50 foot concrete block building on Third avenue was poured this week by Johnny Hale on his lot formerly occupied by Hale's Motorcycle Shop.

The one-story structure will house his motorcycle shop and also serve as a garage, it was said. A frame building formerly occupied the lot.

The Portsmouth, O. coal-fired electric generating plant of the Atomic Energy Commission, generates more power than is used by the entire City of New York.

One leading expert has predicted that steel mills and electric utilities will use 272 million tons of coal in 1956, compared with only 205 million tons as recently as 1954.

WHEELWRIGHT

P.T.A. MAKES IMPROVEMENTS

The Wheelwright Parent-Teacher Association met March 22 in the grade school auditorium. At the brief business session it was reported the lights had been installed in the auditorium and the stage curtain for the high school is in but has not yet been installed. A committee for nominating officers for the coming year was selected. These were Elmer Ferguson, Reverend Bert Caldwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cook. Nominations will be submitted at the next meeting.

Announcement was made about the Ninth district Kentucky branch annual spring conference which will be held in Ashland April 17. It is hoped that several members from here will attend.

Charles Curry, chairman, presented a program on "Teacher Appreciation Week," in which students and parents took part. Students who dismissed the teachers from the pupils' viewpoint were Callie McCoy, Phoebe Caldwell and Dixie Dale. Parents participating were Mrs. Arthur Bradbury and the Rev. James Kirk.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. Reedy, Mrs. Conway, Mrs. Anderson, at the grade school with the same number of parents present, and Mr. Cook at the high school.

Barge shipment of coal in the ports of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Chicago totals around 25 million tons a year, according to recent statistics.

MAYTOWN

The Maytown Woman's Club invites the public to attend its annual spring fashion show which will be held in the Maytown high school gymnasium, Monday night, April 2, at 7:30. There will be the following sections in the show.

Section I will be little girls up to sub-teens. They will wear suits, coats, party dresses, dusters and school dresses.

Section II will feature suits, costume suits, dinner dresses, wedding gowns and mother and daughter outfits modeled by women of different ages.

Section III will be teenagers modeling coats, suits, date dresses and dusters, party dresses and bathing suits.

Section IV will be the beauty contest.

Mrs. Theodore Gibson, president-elect of the Club, will be commentator, and Miss Laura Virginia Roberts, soloist, of Prestonsburg, will entertain during the intermissions.

At the conclusions of the show, Miss Maytown of 1956 will be crowned. The ten contestants for this honor will model evening gowns or party dresses. The winners will be awarded an engraved loving cup, and the second place winner will be presented with a gift.

Door prizes, donated by stores in Maytown and Martin, will be given. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cassidy and Mrs. Henry L. May were shopping in Huntington, Saturday.

Members of the Woman's Club will be collecting for the Red Cross next week. Please have your contribution ready when they call on you, and help Maytown reach its quota.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Maynard and Mr. and Mrs. Shaples, of Detroit, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cassidy this week. They were en route home after spending two months in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Odgen Stewart and children of Prestonsburg, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Viola Stewart.

Mrs. Fannie Manuel is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Linkoff in Columbus. The Linkoffs are the parents of a daughter, born March 17. Mrs. Linkoff is the former Mildred Manuel.

ALPHORETTA

Paul Turner and Henry Layne, of Sandusky, Ohio, visited homefolks over the week-end.

Bobby Dean Ward visited Miss Earnestine Wright at Emma, Saturday and Sunday.

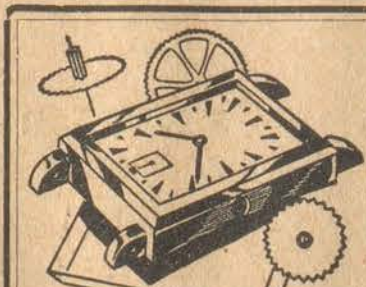

Mrs. Inez Ward and son James visited Mrs. Ward's mother, Mrs. George Everage over the week-end.

Mrs. Marcella Ward has been ill with pneumonia but is better.

The father of Paul Turner, Green Turner, of Hueysville, is seriously ill. We hope he gets better soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore and son, Garner, have returned home to Plymouth, Ohio after repairing an airplane their home on Salt Lick, making it ready to rent again.

A sign of the growth of barge movement of coal is found in the fact that 29 electric utilities operate 85 coal docks on America's inland waterways, the Great Lakes and in port areas.

Integration Scheduled At Pikeville High School, City Board Announces

Pikeville, Ky., March 23 — Integration of white and Negro pupils will begin at Pikeville High School next fall, the City Board of Education announced today.

There will be no change at the elementary level, a board statement said.

The Pikeville independent school system now includes two schools—Pikeville Elementary and High School for white students and Perry Cline School, a combination grade and high school for Negroes.

Integration in Grades 9 through 12 next fall will mean the transfer of about 20 students from Perry Cline to Pikeville High, a school official said.

The School Board made the integration decision Wednesday, but did not announce it until today.

It followed only in part recommendations of a citizens advisory committee that had been studying the problem since the first of the year. The committee and both the student and faculty proposed complete integration at levels.

No action has been taken to integrate schools in the Pike County system.

Medical Week Is Proclaimed By Governor

Frankfort, Ky., March 26 (SpL)—Governor Chandler designated the week of April 22-28 as "Medical Education Week" and asked that Kentuckians acknowledge its common debt to medical schools and to "foster their continuing foundation and security."

It was noted that medical schools throughout the country are endeavoring to raise $10,000,000 as "additional income to discharge their responsibilities to the nation."

Also proclaimed was April 25 as "Kentucky Social Hygiene Day."

YOU'LL GET A REAL BOOT OUT OF THIS BEAUTY

(Just switch the pitch and see)

WE'll grant that you'll get a kick from just looking at a new Buick—it's that kind of automobile.

But you'll have to take the wheel, turn the key and press that pedal before you get any idea what this sizzler on wheels can do to your spirits and well-being.

It will take you only a handful of happy minutes to get the idea.

Just nudge the pedal—no more than a gas-saving inch—and you'll feel the instant new getaway that's yours with the new Variable Pitch Dynaflo® even before you switch the pitch.

Just find a spot where you can safely and legally call out the reserves—then floor the pedal. That switches the pitch instantly—and in the same split-second you're at full-power acceleration and sweeping ahead like you never did before in any other earth-bound vehicle.

And all the while, just lend an attentive ear to the whispered might of that big 322-cubic-inch V8 that powers this spectacular performance. For that's the smoothest, the quietest and the highest-powered engine, Series for Series, in all Buick history.

There's more, of course, to make the thrills come thick and fast when you're bossing the best Buick yet.

There's the deep, soft comfort of big interiors—and the sweet and solid steadiness of that great Buick ride.

There's the grace of line you can see stretching before you—and the sure and nimble way this beauty handles and corners and tracks and targets to the road.

So come be our guest at the wheel of a spanking-new Buick—just for fun and kicks and a new excitement. And if you feel this is the car for you, we'll show you prices and a deal that say it's yours for sure. Drop in today or tomorrow, won't you?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

it's all-electric...

a heating-cooling system SO PERFECT you'll never want to go outdoors

The minute you know the full story about the amazing Heat Pump you'll say "That's what I've been waiting for." Imagine being able to have the temperature you want all year long without turning anything on or off—or even changing the thermostat.

heats in winter without burning fuel

The Heat Pump uses only electricity and filtered air to give you the cleanest, most comfortable heat you can imagine. You save on cleaning and redecorating costs because it's flameless. There's no soot or film. Walls, furniture, drapes stay cleaner. Flameless heating means that your rooms never have that baked, stuffy feeling—air is always fresh and clean.

cools in summer—or when cooling is needed

Maintain comfortable temperature all summer, spring and fall. Nothing to shut down or start up, so you're set even for those "in-between" days when mornings are chilly and afternoons warm. The Heat Pump thinks for itself to give you the temperature you want always. For the heating-cooling system that will always be modern, see your Heat Pump dealer or call us for more information.
