THURSDAY

This Town— That World

We turn to Oliver Wendell Holmes for the thought of the week. With greater wisdom than a lot of us will ever appreciate he wrote, many years ago:

"Don't flatter yourself, that friendship authorizes you to say disagreeable things to your intimates. The nearer you come into relation with a person, the more necessary do tact and courtesy become."

HOT CAMPAIGN

Earle Clements and Joe Bates think they're in a campaign. The Pecco Foremen's Club at David is putting on one for the two opposing tickets for club officers that, for my money, has these two gentlemen bested by a furlong. The Possum Light and Davy Crockett parties are dishing out the dirt up there in copious amounts.

I think a good newspaper yarn could be hatched up if we could get some stranger to these parts to read statements from the rival campaign managers. "Gumshoe" Crace and "Happy" Hill, then take the stranger to David and walk him into a faded "political" argument, with threats and all the trimmings. Of course, we might then have to run the visitor down in order to get a picture, but it ought to be good.

Best thing about this campaign is, it's all in fun, and everybody concerned is having fun.

HOW MANY?

Read this sentence:
FINE CRAFTSMANSHIP IS THE RESULT OF YEARS OF SCIENTIFIC STUDY COMBINED WITH THE EXPERIENCE OF YEARS.

Now count the F's in that sentence. Only once, don't go back and count 'em again. Don't glance at the bottom of this column where the answer is, either.

SHE DIDN'T WANT TO SEE A FIGHT

The following which relates to the "beginning" of what appeared to be the makings of a fairly good ruckus comes via Allan M. Trout's GREEN-INGOS reprint of an undated clipping from The Richmond Register:

Up in Clay county, Kentucky, once upon a time, a Christmas frolic ended in a tragedy, says The Richmond Register, in an issue of 20 years ago. Old Mrs. Philpott was a witness at the trial that resulted. "Tell us about the fight," said the lawyer.

FLOYD COUNTY MAN ESCAPEE

Report from LaGrange
Identifying Pen Fugitive
As Moore Is Doubted

A former Lackey man was reported to have walked away from a work detail of the LaGrange state reformatory last Wednesday, but Sheriff Gorman Collins said no man of the name reported to state police had ever resided at Lackey.

The fugitive was listed as Virgil Moore, 21.

He and Jesse Riley, 23, of Breathitt county, escaped together, later were reported to have stolen a car in Harlan county and to have abandoned it in Letcher county. The man listed as Moore also was reported as having been arrested in Virginia on an attempted robbery charge.

State police said the two fugitives were seen in the Poor Fork section of Harlan county last Friday and were seen in Perry county that night.

The Sheriff's office here said the only Virgil Moore known to officers as being from the Right Beaver Creek section of the county has not been a prisoner.

RIVER SURVEY, BUCKHORN JOB FUND SHORTED

Cannon Reverses Stand
On Reservoir; Clements
Tells of Disappointment

After the House Appropriations committee had earlier approved an appropriation of only $30,000 for completion of the Big Sandy river survey in a study of canalization prospects, the committee's chairman, Congressman Cannon, of Missouri, by a startling change Tuesday in his attitude toward another project hit Eastern Kentucky another hard blow.

Cannon reversed what Congressman Perkins and other members of the Kentucky delegation believed was a firm promise to support approval of $1,000,000 for the beginning of work on the Buckhorn reservoir in Perry county. As a result of his change of mind, the House refused by a vote of 116 to 84 to add the Buckhorn reservoir to the $791,748,000 appropriations bill.

Commenting on the sudden turn of events, U. S. Senator Earle C. Clements wired The Times, Wednesday:

"Failure by the House to appropriate funds to start construction of the Buckhorn dam and enough money to complete the survey of the Big Sandy in one year was a great disappointment to me. I will exert every effort to persuade the Senate to provide funds for these projects. At least a million dollars should be provided for Buckhorn, and $77,500 is needed for Big Sandy to finish the survey."

Here earlier in the week, Senator Clements in predicting that the federal budget pending in Congress will include enough for the Big Sandy project said, "I did not be-

NEW BUS LINE GIVEN PERMIT

Ison to Offer Service
To Beaver Creeks; Bus
Line Here Is Still Idle

The Department of Motor Transportation, Frankfort, has granted Delbert Ison, of Martin, a 90-day permit to operate a suburban bus line from Martin to other Beaver Creek towns. The order becomes effective May 21. Paul E. Hayes, attorney, said.

The order, signed by Delmer Ison, acting commissioner, specifies a route that will alternate on the two Beavers in this fashion: Martin to Allen, back to Martin, up Right Beaver to Wayland, over the Wayland-Sizemore mountain road to Minnie, thence to the McDowell Memorial hospital site, down Left Beaver to Martin, and Allen again; returning to Martin, proceeding up Left Beaver to McDowell, to Minnie, over the Sizemore-Wayland and back down Right Beaver again.

Service is to be between the hours of 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. and will meet the Greyhound system line at Allen.

Inauguration of service by Ison followed several weeks during which the Beaver Creeks have been without bus service since the Sparks Bros. Bus Company suspended operation.

Seventeen Are Convicted On Drunkenness Charges

Seventeen persons were convicted and fined in quarterly court here between last Wednesday and Monday afternoon on charges of drunkenness, with all but two—Ernest Conley and Robbie Miller—entering pleas of guilty. Those who stood trial and were convicted were fined $15 each and $12.50 costs. Fines of $10 each and $17.50 costs were assessed of those who pleaded guilty.

GUILTY pleas to drunk charges were entered by Ralph Stanley, Aaron Adams, Jack Snively, Hershel Johnson (two cases), Homer Caudill, Charlie Prater, T. A. Patton, Francis Conley, Claude Blackburn, Medley Pinson, Harold Howard, B. C. Harold, Lona Stone, Austin Hall, Melvin J. Salyers.

Joe Green was fined $100 and costs on a drunk driving conviction. James E. Kendrick executed bond on three cold check counts, waiving the cases to the grand jury.

FOUR SCHOOL LIST SENIORS

Prestonsburg Hi Leads
High Schools With 99;
Last Exercise, June 4

When the last of nine Floyd high school commencements is held June 4 with the graduation of Prestonsburg high school's seniors, 500 high school diplomas will have been issued to Floyd county youths.

Prestonsburg high school with 99 seniors heads the county's schools in the number of students who will be graduated. Names of seniors from this school and from Betsy Layne, Garrett and Auxier were available this week, but the list of graduates of other schools had not been made available either to The Times or the County Superintendent's office as of Wednesday afternoon.

Those receiving diplomas from these four schools:

Prestonsburg High School

RURAL ROADS GET $66,007

List 38 Floyd Projects
For State Aid; Squires
Split on More for Road

The Rural Highway Department has under an agreement reached with the Floyd fiscal court allocated $66,007.26 for the maintenance of 38 rural highway projects in this county.

Some of the routes were listed for limited maintenance only, which means the rural highway fund will pay only for application of surface aggregates, with the county responsible for all ditching and drainage. Others were listed for routine maintenance, which means that no work on these other than the type of maintenance heretofore done will be undertaken. Any change in the type of work, it was explained, would automatically classify the projects for construction.

The fiscal court split on the adoption of a resolution calling for Rural Highway Commissioner J. B. Wells to set up as a rural highway project the road up Bill Hall Branch from a point on Ky. 122, one mile east of McDowell, to extend across the hill and go down the Will Hamilton Branch to connect with the Harold-Hi Hat-Ligon road on Mud Creek. The distance to be covered by the proposed route is approximately four miles.

Magistrates John May and Edgar Howell and County Judge Henry Stumbo voted for the resolution. Magistrate Ellis Martin and Grover Holbrook opposed it.

Magistrate May's motion to ask the same action for the road up Frasure's Creek died for want of a second.

On all other matters before the court the vote was unanimously favorable.

QUESTION IS, WHO GOT HIT?

Two Men Are Accused
Of Shooting, Wounding
But Victims Not Found

Two men were booked at the county jail Saturday on shooting and wounding counts, but County Judge Henry Stumbo said Wednesday he has been unable to learn whom they shot if anybody.

Carlos Hamilton, one of the two, was said to have fired one or more shots into the home of Cora Hamilton on Mud Creek, but if anybody was shot his or her identity had not been learned Wednesday morning. The other, Robert Adkins, has not been formally charged with shooting and wounding because nobody has appeared to make an affidavit as authority for a warrant of arrest, the judge added.

Others arrested on major offenses within the week:

Robert Donald Shepherd, drunk driving and improper registration.

Area Berry Shipments Monday Exceed Total Shipped Last Year

More strawberries were shipped from this area Monday to an out-of-state market than were consigned in all the season of last year, according to County Agent O. E. Boggs. One hundred fifty-two crates were shipped from Pike and Floyd counties of the five-county association area to Gallipolis, Ohio, and the number 1 grade brought $7.75 per crate.

Floyd county's contribution to Monday's shipment was 62 crates, with 20 being shipped Tuesday. Plans are being made to ship every day except Saturdays, Boggs said that a day to day program on the radio will keep the farmers informed of market conditions.

A federal grader began work here Wednesday and will continue through the season, it was said. Federal grading is uniform all over the country and is accepted without question anywhere. It will expedite berry sales, it was pointed out.

MIBS TITLIST IS FLOYD BOY

VFW-Sponsored Youth,
Winner at Louisville,
To Compete in National

Floyd county last week provided another state champion as 13-year-old Kenneth Mollette, of Weeksbury, annexed the Kentucky marble championship.

Kenneth won over 19 other district champs competing last Saturday at Louisville for the state title. Now he is all set to go for the big prize, the national championship. The national shoot will be held at Tallahassee, Fla., June 21-23.

The Floyd youngster went to Louisville after winning the Floyd county marble tournament here, a month ago. The county tournament was sponsored by Walter K. Bowling Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the VFW sponsors the state and national tournaments. Boys under 15 are eligible to compete.

At Louisville young Mollette outshot Jefferson county's Ronnie Combs, who was competing in his first state meet. The closest the Floyd boy got to the state tournament before last week was third place in the Floyd county tournament in 1954. Last year he lost in his own school finals, a sore thumb making him vulnerable.

Floyd county may lose the new marble champ soon, however, since

UMWA PICKS ALLEN SITE

Labor Day Celebration
To Be Held This Year
At Racetrack at Allen

The 1956 Labor Day celebration of the United Mine Workers District 30 will be held at Allen this year, it was announced here last week.

Selection of the Floyd county site was made recently in a meeting at Pikeville of a 47-man U.M.W.A. committee representing 153 locals in District 30. The celebration at Allen will be the second of its kind ever staged in Floyd county. The mammoth Labor Day rally last year was held at Hazard.

The Labor Day program will be held on the grounds of the Sandy Valley racetrack in New Allen.

The celebration, an annual District 30 function, consistently attracts thousands of mineworkers, relatives and friends from a wide Eastern Kentucky area. Speakers for the 1956 celebration have not yet been selected, but an outstanding public figure will be sought to deliver the principal address. The program will include, as in the past, top-ranking performers in the entertainment world.

PRUITT QUILTS AS CANDIDATE

Pike Countian Withdraws
From Race for Congress;
To Aid Bates Campaign

Pike County Judge Ervin S. Pruitt, Pikeville, withdrew Monday as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the lower house of Congress seat from the seventh district.

The withdrawal was not in time for his name to be taken off the ballot, however.

Pruitt said the move was in the interest of party harmony and would give him an opportunity to assist in the campaign of Joe B. Bates for the Democratic nomination for United States senator.

He added that the county could "take advantage better of the present Administration's services" if he remained as County Judge.

Pruitt, Pike county campaign chairman for Governor Chandler last year and County Judge 10 years, said he will vote for George Glenn Hatcher for the Congress seat but does not plan to campaign for him.

Dust-Laying Work Done On Second Floyd Road; Sidewalk Here Is Near

The second Floyd road to be taken out of the dust within the last two weeks was the Bosco-Salt Lick route which links sections of Floyd, Knott and Magoffin counties.

Oil was applied to two and a half miles of the road last Saturday. The work, done by state highway employees, extended from Bosco to the road junction at the mouth of the Raccoon Fork of Salt Lick. The road was built by WPA labor, and heavy travel creates a dust problem in dry weather. Chip-and-oil surfacing was applied a week earlier to the Prestonsburg-Auxier road.

Engineering work has been completed and all easements except two have been procured for the construction here of a five-foot sidewalk on one side of U. S. 23 leading to the new high school building.

STUMBO ASKS CHANGE DELAY

Suggests That Squires
Continue Trials Until
Court Mandate Issued

County Judge Henry Stumbo said this week he has asked Floyd county Magistrates to continue their work as trial judges, as usual, in criminal cases until the Court of Appeals mandate prohibiting such procedure is issued.

The mandate may not be issued till September, since the Court of Appeals has granted time for an appeal till August 1, and that deadline date will find the Appellate Court in summer recess. It will not reconvene till late September.

Don Sturgill, state police legal counsel, at first advised state troopers not to take traffic offenders and other criminal case defendants before magistrates. Later he rescinded that order, notifying the officers they could take them before magistrates if they want to do so.

Judge Stumbo looks with no great relish toward the day when all criminal cases that ordinarily would go into magistrate courts will be brought before him. "If I have all these cases, plus the usual quarterly court docket and matters of business such as road work and routine county court business, I'll need help. It will simply be more than one man can do," he said.

He added that the appointment of a trial commissioner would be a solution to the problem, but said he does not know if such an appointment is provided for by law.

EARLY-SEASON PRIMARY MAY REDUCE VOTE

Practically All Election
Interest in Democratic
Senate, Congress Races

Kentucky will experience another first, next Tuesday. The day will see the first May primary election held in the state.

What effect on the voting the early primary date will have remains to be seen. If a strong drive to get out the vote is not made, the total number of ballots cast may be light, political veterans believe.

A light vote, it is held, would favor Joe B. Bates, of Greenup, administration-supported candidate for the nomination for U. S. Senator, who is opposing Senator Earle C. Clements.

In Floyd county interest has steadily mounted in the elections, but practically all the interest is centered on the Democratic races for the House and Senate seats.

One of the major developments of the week was the withdrawal of Ervin S. Pruitt, of Pikeville, in the race for the Democratic nomination for the Seventh district Congressional post. That left George Glenn Hatcher, of Prestonsburg, the strongest opponent of Congressman Carl D. Perkins, of Hindman, in a four-man race. Judge Pruitt's name, however, will remain on the ballot, since he withdrew after the ballots had been printed. The other two Democratic candidates are Ralph H. Sherman, Jeff. Ky., and Ralph Nickell, Walter, West Liberty.

Besides Clements and Bates, James L. Delk, of Frankfort, is a Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate.

On the Republican ballot, the Senatorial candidates are John H. Golden, Pineville, Thurston B. Morton, Glenview, and Granville Thomas, Evans. Scott Craft, of Paintsville, is unopposed for the Republican nomination for Congress.

Appellate Judge Astor Hogg, of Harlan, is unopposed in the Democratic primary for the Court of Appeals, and he is also seeking the Republican nomination. He is opposed by S. M. Ward, Hazard, Robert B. Bird, London, A. E. Cornett, Hyden, and Elmer C. Roberts, Campton. Results of the primary voting will probably be known by Wednesday night.

AS NEW MUSIC FESTIVAL QUEEN WAS CHOSEN

Coronation of the Festival queen was preceded by a parade of school bands and flashy convertibles bearing the eight pretty girls. Concert performances by the bands were held at the Prestonsburg grade school during the afternoon.

Eight Cited for Special Honors As Floyd Hall of Fame Opens

One hundred eighteen persons were named to permanent membership in the Floyd County Hall of Fame in an hour-long program at the Prestonsburg grade school auditorium Sunday afternoon, and of those nominated eight were cited for special honors.

Green Hackworth, member of the World Court, was listed as the outstanding Floyd county man; Mrs. Alice S. G. Lloyd, of Pippa Passes, founder of the Caney Creek Community Center, the outstanding woman; Kelly Coleman, Wayland's great basketball star, the outstanding young man, and Miss Ordell Ray, of Wheelwright, honor medical student at the University of Louisville, as the outstanding young woman. Mountain V. Clark and Robert Wallace shared Citizen of the Year honors. Rev. Robert Martin was named Pastor of the Year, and Mrs. A. C. Harlowe was cited as Clubwoman of the Year (Prestonsburg club).

The premier Hall of Fame program was broadcast over WPRF. In the big gathering were persons from Florida, Tennessee, Georgia, West Virginia and from various towns and cities of Kentucky.

Chalmer H. Frazier, principal of Prestonsburg schools, acted as master of ceremonies. Certificates to those honored were presented by County Superintendent Virgil O. Turner. A music program was presented by a vocal quartet.

Those honored, and reasons given by the committee for their selection:

Missionaries — Misses Anna Woods, Myrtle Pugsley, Sarah Helmsantler, Ruth Sippel, Barbara Wynsma, Lois Holmsquist, Eleanor Akers, Eileen Kiernan, Lois Allen, Mary Lou Rhodes, Mrs. Lillian Bogurt.

Ministers — Rev. Fred McGinnis; Rev. C. H. Furman; Rev. Robert Martin; Rev. Isaac Stratton, best-loved pastor and oldest now active, Rev. Ira McMullen, Jr., for mission work, Deacon Terry as promoter of good racial relations.

Educators — Mrs. Alice S. G. Lloyd, only honorary member, being neither a native or resident of Floyd county; Elizabeth Elliott Mayo, professor of chemistry, University of Louisville; Mrs. Betty Stephens, teacher who has taught greatest number of years and still teaching; Dr. Josef Nordenhaug, president of Southern Baptist Seminary, Zurich, Switzerland; Dr. Jack Allen, professor of history, George Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. L. H. Mayo, professor of law, George Washington University; Dr. Palmer L. Hall, dean of West Virginia Institute of Technology, Montgomery, W. Va.; Dr. Carl Woods, professor of history, University of South Carolina; Dr. Scott Osborne, professor of English, Mississippi State College; Dr. Henry Martin, professor at Eastern Kentucky State College, Richmond; Prof. Monroe Wicker, of Morehead State College; Robert Wallace, librarian, Floyd county Bookmobile.

come a member of the Senate Appropriations committee for nothing." The Appropriations bill now goes to the Senate.

Because of some revised figures presented by the engineers on the Buckhorn dam, the House Appropriations committee omitted it from the bill it brought out Monday.

Tuesday, fortified by what he considered a promise from Chairman Cannon to support him, Congressman Carl Perkins, in whose district the project is located, made a motion to add $1,000,000 to the measure, to be allocated to Buckhorn.

It seemed only a routine procedure. In fact, after four hours of work, the House had got to the point where it was allowing only 10 minutes to such matters.

In the five minutes allotted him, Perkins touched briefly on the merits of the proposed reservoir. Then, to clinch his argument, he told the chamber:

"There is no objection to this project locally. The $1,000,000 in the budget is to be used to start construction. It was inadvertently omitted from the bill by the subcommittee."

"The chairman of the Appropriations Committee has told me he would accept this motion to restore the $1,000,000. The Army engineers told my office only today that if we vote the money now, they can start construction in July."

At that point, Perkins paused for Cannon to take his cue and offer his support to Buckhorn Reservoir. But the 77-year-old Missourian, slumped in his chair at the committee table, appeared to be unaware the next line was his.

So Perkins called on him to corroborate the statement that he was for Buckhorn.

Instead of joining the colloquy on Perkins' time, Cannon insisted in getting recognition in his own right. Then, in mumbled words that barely were audible to the gallery, but which were unmistakably negative, Cannon turned thumbs down.

In the first place, said Cannon, the ratio between cost and benefit was too low to justify the project. In the second place, he said, the estimate of cost has jumped from $7,202,000 to $9,990,000.

"I don't think we should do it," said the chairman.

Perkins standing in the well of the House before approximately 200 fellow representatives, looked as though some one had slapped him across the face with a wet towel. Other Kentucky members, who had been assured Cannon was with them, gasped.

"I was misled," said Perkins to Cannon. "I would not have offered this amendment had you not assured me personally that you would accept it."

"I'm sorry if I was misunderstood," said Cannon stiffly.

Gleefully, the Republican leaders of the committee, John Taber, New York, and Glenn Davis, Wisconsin, called for a vote. The Perkins motion was shouted down in a voice vote. But the Hindman representative exercised his right to call for a standing vote.

When the question was put, Perkins strode up the aisle lifting his arms in a gesture to encourage Democrats to stand with him. Most of them did. In fact, the only Democrats who voted against him were Chairman Cannon and about four others.

But on the Republican side of the aisle, the only member who could be seen from the gallery giving support to Perkins was his fellow mountain member, Eugene Siler, Williamsburg, Ky.

PATSY TEEN-AGERS TO APPEAR ON TV

The Patsy Teen-Agers will make their fourth consecutive spring appearance on Farmer Bill Click's DOWN ON THE FARM program over WSAZ-TV Saturday, from 12:30 to 1:00 p.m.

The Teen-Agers, sponsored by the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company with mines at David, this county, and general offices in Huntington, have gained wide recognition since their organization some six years ago. They have appeared in Columbus, O., White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Blowing Rock, N. C., Detroit, Mich., French Lick, Ind., Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Niagara Falls, Ontario. They have been heard over radio stations in Huntington, W. Va., Ashland and Paintsville, Ky., and Worthington, Ohio, and television stations in Huntington, Louisville, and Cincinnati. Only last week they returned from an engagement at the Silver Anniversary Convention of the Ohio Coal Conference in Columbus.

The Teen-Agers group, named for the coal which their fathers mine at David, is comprised of 20 boys and girls of high school age. Directress and accompanist of the group is Mrs. Kathryn Frazier, of Prestonsburg. The choral group is a part of a rather extensive youth program sponsored by the coal company.

SPORTS AFIELD
By TED KESTING

The popularity of black bass as a game fish is due to three things: the invention of the multiplying reel, the arrival of the railroad engine on the American scene, and a Cincinnati doctor named James A. Henshall.

The reel helped lift bass fishing into the realm of sport (as distinguished from meat fishing) and gave rise to an entirely new, truly American form of angling which we call bait casting. The railroad locomotive enabled sportsmen who wanted to stock bass in new waters to carry them long distances in the water tender of the engine. And Dr. Henshall wrote a volume in 1881 simply titled Book of the Black Bass which practically clubbed the angling world into accepting bass as one of the world's greatest sporting fish.

The development of the multiplying reel is a fascinating story of American ingenuity. Most of the early sport fishing for bass was done with bait, and bait couldn't be cast like a fly because it would tear off the hook; it had to be swung out. In an article in Sports Afield magazine Bill Wolf explains that only short casts were possible because the single-action reels used on fly rods didn't turn with the cast. So the multiplying reel was invented—not to enable the angler to reel in the fish rapidly, as so many imagine, but to permit long casts with a free-running spool and handle. And long casts were necessary in the big rivers and lakes of the Midwest and South.

Who exactly invented the multiplying reel isn't known. Some claim it originated in England; some say it was invented in this country. Certainly, Mr. Meek, of Frankfort, Ky., didn't invent it; but certainly, Mr. Meek (his first name is not known) constructed approximately 100 years ago the most perfect multiplying reel ever built up to that date, and one that would hold its own very well with the best made today. In fact, today's bait-casting reels generally are only copies of Mr. Meek's marvelous reel with a few modern refinements like the level-wind and antibacklash devices.

Meek was a watchmaker, and he built a reel much as he would have constructed a fine watch. It multiplied four times; that is, one turn of the handle caused four turns of the spool. It had a click if desired, or an "alarm," and a drag. And it was just what was needed to make bass the All-American fish.

The temperature on the surface of the planet Mercury is about 700 degree Fahrenheit.

BIBLE QUIZ

EARLIEST ACCOUNT OF THE DIFFERENT LANGUAGES
(Genesis 11:1-11)

Q. What is the earliest account of the different languages of the earth?

A. At the building of the Tower Babel about 2247 B. C. "Because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth; and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth."

Q. What reference do we have until this time that all the people spoke one language?

A. "And the earth was of one language and one speech."

Q. Who were the ancestors of this generation of people?

A. "Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth; and unto them there were sons born after the flood."

Q. "And as they journeyed from east they settled in what place?"

A. "They found a place in the land of Shinar, and there they dwelt."

Q. What giant building operations did they propose to carry out in order to make a name for themselves?

A. They said "Let us make brick and burn them thoroughly. Let us build a city and a tower whose top may reach into heaven. And let us make a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."

Q. To what extremes did the Lord say they would go if they were allowed to continue?

A. "And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they all have one language; and this they begin to do; and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do."

Q. What visitor came down to look over the situation?

A. "And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower which the children of men build."

Q. In what unusual way did the Lord bring the building of the city and the tower to an end?

A. Confused their speech so that they could no longer understand one another. "So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth; and they left off to build the city."

Although upwards of 33,000,000,000 tons of coal have been mined in the United States since 1800, this is less than three per cent of the country's known, recoverable reserves.

Mrs. Ben Larry Dies In Lexington Hospital

Friends here have learned this week of the death of Mrs. Ben Larry, May 18, in a Lexington hospital after having suffered a heart attack. Mrs. Larry is survived by her husband, Colonel Ben H. Larry, a son, Ben Larry, Jr., of Lexington, and a daughter, Mrs. Iley B. Browning, Jr., of Evansville, Indiana.

JOHN M. DOSS, JR. . . . spots "trouble" on telephone lines with the "Wheatstone bridge"—a highly sensitive measuring instrument that tells him how far the trouble is from the central office. Off the job, John's active in church and fraternal work. His hobby is boating.

Meet the man who beats "trouble" to the punch

Many telephone "troubles" never happen, thanks to John M. Doss, Jr. John's a test deskman for Southern Bell. With the help of intricate electronic equipment in the central office which can spot trouble miles away, he tests telephone lines to make sure they stay in good working order. Often he finds causes for trouble on a line and has them corrected, even before your service is affected. Keep 'em talking, is John's motto.

And John's not by himself. He and some 65,000 other trained Southern Bell people in all kinds of jobs — linemen, cable spicers, operators — are working to give you good telephone service, 24 hours a day.

DAMRON CELL ESCAPE ROUTE

One Flees Pike-Co. Jail; 'Catfish' Damron Claims He Did Not Attempt Break

One of two men, making an escape attempt from the Pike county jail, Thursday of last week, succeeded. Escaping was Luther Rutherford, Spriggs, W. Va., but meeting with failure was Willard (Catfish) Damron, of Boldman.

Damron, charged with the slaying of a man thought to be Clyde Jack Clements whose headless body was found on Caney Fork of Johns Creek early last year, is in jail without bond. He is also charged with armed robbery in connection with the hold-up of an aged man on Town mountain, near Pikeville several weeks ago.

Rutherford, who is 5 feet 8 inches and weighs about 120 pounds, gained freedom after sawing through iron bars and their steel mesh coverings. He had just about served his six months sentence meted out for a similar jail break about six months ago. He faced a habitual criminal charge in Mingo county, W. Va.

He sawed a 14-inch square in the bottom of the door of his own cell which has no window, and then entered through a hole sawed in the cell occupied by Damron.

After getting into Damron's cell Rutherford sawed a hole in the bars and mesh covering Damron's window and then descended to the ground using jail window casements as a ladder.

Jailer Frank Coleman said Damron weighing over 200 pounds, apparently was unable to get through the window opening. Coleman said hack saw blades were brought into the jail through Damron's window with a string fastened to a Prince Albert tobacco can. The string was fashioned from a pair of shorts. Coleman said two persons, whom he did not identify, had seen a tobacco box being pulled in through the window on the third floor.

Telling of Rutherford's escape, he said a car pulled away from the jail after Rutherford reached the ground.

Damron asserted he could have gone with Rutherford but didn't want to. He said scratches on his back were suffered when he looked out the opening in the window to watch Rutherford go down the side of the building.

Damron said Rutherford after entering his cell, asked him "not to holler" and alert the jail. "It was nothing to me," said Damron. "I told him I wouldn't holler. He was holding an iron bar in his hand."

Damron said he did give an alarm by shouting as soon as Rutherford reached the ground.

Coleman however, said none of the prisoners began shouting until he entered the cell section about 7 a.m. He also says he can hear shouting in the jail at any time.

A deputy jailer said he doubted that Damron, who is on the pudgy side, could have made it through the small opening in the window. Damron said he could have if he wanted to.

Rutherford and a companion escaped from the jail about six months ago. The companion was recaptured at Williamson and Rutherford was taken into custody at Cincinnati.

Construction Steps Taken On Buildings at Breaks

Pikeville, Ky., May 22 — Steps were taken today by the Breaks Interstate Parks Commission for construction totaling $175,000 at the park on the Virginia-Kentucky line.

The commission asked its architect, Scruggs & Hammond of Lexington, to prepare plans and blueprints for permanent structures. Included are a concession building, shelter house, superintendent's quarters, pump house, and a water tank with a capacity of 20,000 gallons.

Plans also are to be drawn by the architect for 40 outdoor fireplaces, 50 picnic tables, and stone guard fences around all overlooks.

Construction on some of the projects is to start within two weeks.

Commission chairman M. M. Long, of St. Paul, Va., was instructed to negotiate for five tracts of land totaling 250 acres adjacent to the park.

STUDENTS GET SCHOLARSHIPS

Princess Elkhorn Tells Recipients of Its 12th Annual Award of Grants

The Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, of David, this week announced the recipients of its twelfth annual scholarship awards. The four awards this year bring to 50 the number of grants made to outstanding graduating seniors in Floyd and Johnson counties.

Currently there are 13 young people attending college under the scholarship program. Five are attending Pikeville College, seven are enrolled at the University of Kentucky, and one is studying at St. Mary's School of Nursing, Huntington, W. Va.

The scholarship awards this year were made to:

Randall Honeycutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hansford Honeycutt, of Cliff; four-year grant for the study of engineering at the University of Kentucky.

Toby Ann Bussey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Bussey, of David; two-year grant for study at Pikeville College.

Robert Emery Bowling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ory L. Bowling, of Garrett; four-year grant for the study of engineering at the University of Kentucky.

Mr. Bowling will receive a certificate of award at the Garrett high school Commencement exercises, Friday. The others will receive their awards at the Floyd County high school Commencement exercises in Prestonsburg, June 4. Presentation of awards will be made by John W. Straton, scholarship chairman for Princess Elkhorn.

All of the recipients of the scholarships awards are sons or daughters of employees of Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, at David, except Mr. Bowling whose father is an employee of the Collins Mining Company at Garrett.

Complete Team Roster Announced by Scouts; Coleman Heads List

The Pikeville Senior Explorer Scouts, sponsors of the annual East-West high school all-star basketball series, has announced the complete roster of each team.

Named to the select squad are Kentucky's finest graduating seniors, eight of whom played in the '56 Kentucky high school state basketball tournament. Sixteen more were named to either the first or second all-state team.

For the second successive year, the Scouts will promote the games in three Eastern Kentucky cities—Tuesday, June 5, in Whitesburg; Thursday, June 7, in Paintsville; Saturday, June 9 in Pikeville.

An addition to the series of this year, a combined team from the East and West squad will meet a similar group from West Virginia in Memorial Fieldhouse in Williamson, West Virginia, June 8.

Heading the list for the East team will be Wayland's "King Kelly" Coleman, Kentucky's greatest scoring champion of all time, and Prestonsburg's Lowell Hughes, who averaged 41 points a game during the past season, although he had no home gym in which to play.

The West will have the height with such standout stars as Central City's all-American center Corky Withrow and Heath's great six-foot seven-inch center, Martin Holland.

The complete squads:

EAST TEAM

Kelly Coleman, 6-3, Wayland.
Lowell Hughes, 6-1, Prestonsburg.
Bob Shepherd, 6-4, Carr Creek.
Ralph Davis, 6-4, Vanceburg.
E. A. Couch, 6-0, Carr Creek.
Charles Hall, 5-10, Paintsville.
Kenny Cornelius, 6-0, Mt. Vernon.
Don Mills, 6-7, Bera.
Rex Polley, 6-3, Whitesburg.
George Carroll, 5-11, Ashland.
Kenny Myers, 6-2, Ashland.
Everett Varney, 5-7, Belfry.

WEST TEAM

Louis Crigler, 6-0, Florence.
Pascal Benson, 5-10, Henderson.
Byron Pinson, 6-3, Henderson.
Barry Cager, 6-2, Holy Name.
Roger Newman, 6-4, Greenville.
Corky Withrow, 6-4, Central City.
Dave Denton, 6-0, Bowling Green.
Rex Story, 6-2, Mayfield.
Martin Holland, 6-7, Heath.
Jimmy Mitchell, 6-2, Valley Sta.
Herbie Kay, 6-0, Shelbyville.
Fred Luigs, 6-3, Tilgham.
John Bill Trivette, Pikeville high school mentor, will tutor the East squad and T. L. Plian, Henderson coach, will lead the West squad. Both will direct the combined team against the West Virginia all-stars.

Frank Dawahare, Jr., Pikeville, is director of the overall series.

In its original decision on a Pike county case, holding that judges who are paid by fees collected on convictions may not preside at trials of criminal cases, the Court of Appeals asserted:

"It is our opinion that no justification exists for perpetuating a system that is designed and calculated to deprive accused persons of due process of law.

"To say . . . that the right to trial by a judge free from prejudicial influences may be waived is unrealistic for . . . the ordinary person is not aware of his right to object to the jurisdiction; he assumes that the court before which he has been taken is a lawfully constituted one."

Assistant Attorney General Walter C. Herdman, in his opinion to Sturgill, said of the Appeals Court decision:

"Since the decision has not become effective, we are advising that the magistrates may, within their discretion, continue to try criminal cases until the mandate is finally issued.

"Since the opinion of the Court of Appeals in the Robert case does not become effective until the mandate is issued, it appears that the acts of the magistrates up until such time, with respect to trying criminal cases, would be valid and they would, in effect, be de facto officers.

"Therefore, your troopers in exercising the duties imposed upon them by law during the period in question would not, in our opinion, be liable for damages for false arrest and imprisonment."

May 21, 1956

Dear fellow member of the UMWA of Floyd County:

May 29th, the Primary Election Day, is rapidly approaching. It is important that we vote right to protect our interests.

Our International Union, knowing best the men in the Congress and Senate who can best serve labor's cause, has requested all members to make a joint fight for Carl Perkins for Congress and Earle C. Clements for U. S. Senator.

Carl Perkins' record for labor is 100%. I hope ours will be 100% after we vote May 29th.

Earle C. Clements championed our cause and fought a bitter struggle against the enemies of labor when they forced the passage of the despicable Taft Hartley Law.

Labor owes a debt of gratitude to both Earle C. Clements and Carl Perkins for the recent amendment in the Surplus-Commodity Act so that wheat could be processed into flour and flour could be given to those in need.

I urge everyone of you to join in this fight to defeat our enemies and to give your unqualified support to both our friends Clements and Perkins on May 29th.

Our enemies will try to separate these two men. Don't let them do this. Make this a joint fight!

Burial was made in the Drift cemetery under the direction of Turner-Ryan funeral home.

Loan Association Planned By Floyd-co. Businessmen

A hearing has been set for June 20 in Washington on an application for permission to organize here a Federal Savings and Loan Association.

If no notice of protest to formation of the association is received at least 10 days before that date, the hearing will be dispensed with, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board said.

Applicants for the Association are Bert T. Combs, G. C. Spradlin and Byron Nunery, all of Prestonsburg; B. F. Reed, of Drift; J. M. Turner, of Wayland; B. A. Reed, of Drift; Ray Fraley and M. E. Dearing, both of Wayland.

Purpose of the association is primarily to encourage home-building, it was said. A Federal Savings & Loan Association may make loans for more than five years but not a shorter period.

A non-profit organization, such an agency has as stockholders all its depositors.

Miss Neeley, Mr. Ritter Wed at Angola, Indiana

Miss Anna Lou Neeley, daughter of Mrs. Grace Neeley and the late Lee Neeley, formerly of Prestonsburg, and Mr. Zellon Ritter, son of Clifford Ritter, of Cary, O., were united in marriage April 28 at Angola, Indiana. Justice of the Peace Kenneth Hubbard officiated at the double-ring service.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Daring, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, were the couple's attendants. The bride wore a light blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom served three years with the U. S. Air Force and the same term of enlistment with the U. S. Army, with 57 months' overseas service. Mr. and Mrs. Ritter will reside at Cary, where he is employed.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 422 E. Sandusky, Findlay, Ohio.

Kentucky bituminous coal mines produced 72,300,000 tons in 1955, a gain of nearly 21 percent, ranking the state third among coal producing states.

America's 50 largest bituminous coal mines produced more than 88,900,000 tons in 1955, or more than 19 percent of the total 470,000,000-ton production for the year.

HATCHER SAYS:

We Need a Congressman!

"Sink, Swim, Live or Die, I'll Give Mind, Hand and Heart to the Cause of our People."

The Seventh Congressional District needs industry and jobs. Our present representative has signally failed his people at Washington. Nothing has been accomplished after eight years. George Glenn Hatcher offers enterprise, initiative and leadership.

The chronic economic distress of Eastern Kentucky has been the subject of more verbiage, oral and written, than anything else in the section's long history. Not a campaign for the Congress of the United States has been fought in 20 years but the issue of canalization hasn't been brought out and kicked about. There have been surveys and studies and more surveys and studies around election time, most of them designed to get appropriations and make headlines in order to win elections. The only survey, to my knowledge made or being made, with an honest effort to assist this section, is the one being conducted right now by the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board and associated groups.

The election over, all surveys are relegated to the limbo of unwanted statistics and the matter is forgotten until the next election. We need leadership and action, we need work for our people, we need the creation of a healthy economic condition that will retain our youth here, the progressive and intelligent young men and women who are emigrating north. This continual drain of our fine young men and women will eventually leave us stripped of future leaders and confine us to the condition of a society feeding only upon the backwash of a prosperous nation, surviving by the grace of more fortunate sections sending us remittances of relief and governmental doles.

That of course is a dreary, dark picture, the only one that can logically ensue from the present trend under the leadership of men like Carl D. Perkins. The misery and the want of people, the lack of industry, the emigration of our young and the human erosion caused by inadequate schools, and too low a standard of living are being placed by history squarely on the door steps of these futile leaders of ours.

Any man may cry for a change but seldom do all people unite to do so. The Good Book says, "Except a people have vision they perish." Our people have vision, our people cry now for a change. With change in leadership, with the dumping of the old ballast, the decks can be cleared to begin the long fight back to recovery. Carl D. Perkins has introduced nearly a hundred bills and resolutions in the U.S. House of Representatives but he never had the ability to even get one to a vote. With this record behind him he is incapable of going to the people with his accomplishments in the newspapers and on the radio. He can only scurry from courthouse to courthouse, hunting out the ward-heelers and the precinct workers, reminding sundry persons, "I scratched your back, now scratch mine." That technique has been the last resort of every failure in public life since democracy became an ideal of the American people.

GEORGE GLENN HATCHER
DEMOCRAT FOR CONGRESS

1. The man for the job—qualified, experienced.
2. Born and reared in Floyd County. Worked on the farm, in the mines. Armo Steel worker 7 years at Ashland, where he resided for over 25 years.
3. Educated in Floyd County public schools, worked way at Berea College, attended Eastern State College.
4. Former teacher, elected Clerk of Ashland for 4 year term. Assistant Clerk Kentucky Court of Appeals. Twice elected Secretary of State, and served 2 four year terms.
5. His 12 years service at the State level under 5 Governors give him an insight into the problems of our people.
6. He is engaged in private business, and not on a pupil expense account or payroll.
7. He has a wife, the former Lorraine Jarrell, daughter of the late Joe Jarrell and Fanny Stephens Jarrell of Floyd County, and twins 2½ years of age, and has lived in Floyd and Boyd Counties all his life and served you at Frankfort many years.
8. He is not controlled by any man or group of men, and will give all a fair and square deal and equal representation.

HE FAVORS: (a) A revision of the Social Security laws to include more liberal disability benefits and the lowering of the qualifying age to 60 or under, thereby giving more jobs to 18 year olds and the lower age groups.

(b) Lowering age limits under Railroad Retirement Act to 60 or under.

(c) Federal aid to education and increased veterans benefits. FULL PARITY FOR FARMERS.

(d) Lowering of individual Federal income taxes or grant refund back to local, county and state governments to reduce the tax burden.

(e) "Results" his "Watchword." He says Eastern Kentucky suffers from the "Do Nothing Policy" of incumbents.

(f) Hatcher is experienced—the man who will give equal representation.

Please... More Good Citizens

The Kentucky Junior Chamber of Commerce and perhaps other civic groups are waging a campaign to get out the vote at next Tuesday's primary election. All who undertake such thankless tasks have our best wishes. We need more like them.

The Jaycees advise: "Listen—Read—Look—Talk—Argue—Think—Then Vote."

As a rule, Kentuckians listen and read some but not enough to strain either the ears or eyes, think when it's too late, talk a lot, argue a lot more—and then wind up by staying away from the polls.

If all would vote who have in recent weeks praised or berated the principals in this campaign, there would be no need for drives to get out the vote. For there is no such thing as a neutral Kentuckian during a political campaign. He waits till election day to become worse than neutral by staying away from the polls, caring not enough what happens in government to mark his ballot for or against those very things and people he has argued for or against so loudly and so long.

Please... less arguing, less hating; more voting, more good citizens.

More Stoplights Needed

The Times does not criticize the Prestonsburg City Council for its action in removing traffic lights between Court street and Cliff, for it did so on the recommendation of State Highway Department traffic planners who had made a study of the situation here. But we think the Council now, after an unsatisfactory trial of the state plan, should go back to the traffic lights.

The state promised a patrol of the "speedway" created by removal of the traffic signals. But it is obvious that no effective patrol will be maintained. A state police cruiser merely driving over the highway, past the new high school, and then going on to Pikeville or Paintsville or some other destination does not constitute a patrol.

Youngsters and some not so young are strongly tempted to "hit it up" on this straight stretch of highway. Few resist the temptation. We have been lucky, thus far, but we have pushed our luck to the breaking point. Tragedy is past due.

It is unfortunate, perhaps, that safety cannot be practised with the use of traffic stoplights without slowing up "through" traffic. But we would say that safety is more important than getting folks through town, anyhow.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR, THE TIMES:

The mentally ill need your help. Better than ten million persons in the U. S. now have some type of mental illness.

Every one as a citizen can help join your local chapter for mental health.

If no local chapter, join the state organization which will help you to organize a local one. Begin by contributing; if not in money, do offer a helping hand. Every minister and every Christian, it is their duty, and every good citizen. People have funds for every other kind of illness but no funds for the mentally ill. Just rush them to the state where they get only about one-fourth of the care and treatment they ought to have.

It is time that people are getting aroused and aware of their Christian duties.

Editor, The Times:

The Russians are noted for their barbarism in using slave laborers. This is one of the most outrageous sins against humanity. I do not know whether they are thieves or not, but it is a thousand times more honorable to be thieves than to employ labor and not pay the laborers.

ABOUT A ROAD

Editor, The Times:

Sometime ago I wrote a letter to the editor about the condition of the road on Turkey Creek. Strangely enough that same evening it started getting worked on. And two or three days later, it was in fairly good condition. But now it's getting run down. Several people have asked that I write another letter.

But I seriously don't believe the letter I wrote had anything at all to do with the results. My letter could have been a reminder—but, surely, it couldn't have been because of my letter.

So many people say that the only time the roads get fixed is close to election time. Well, I don't agree with them. Because I'm sure, if people notice, when those roads get in such a rut that it's impossible to drive a car over them after it rains to soften the mire, the roads are attended to as soon as possible.

I'm sure that whoever is responsible for the fixing of those roads don't fix them up to buy votes. Because they get paid to fix the roads. And that's why we vote.

So this is to whoever responsible—I see your side of this now.

WRITER ASKS CLOTHING FOR CHILDREN

Editor, The Times:

Many of us have felt a pang of regret when we found ourselves unable to spare funds to help a worthy cause.

Yet there is one cause—the cause of needy children and their families—to which we can give real assistance without having to go any farther than our clothes closets. Thousands of youngsters in our own United States and overseas are desperately in need of good, used clothing. Possessing little more than a few tattered garments, many boys and girls are unable even to attend school.

The Save the Children Federation, of which I have the honor to be a National Sponsor and a Board Member, is appealing for clean, wearable clothing to help needy children and adults. Your readers can render a wonderful service by sending such clothing to:

Save the Children Federation,
Dept. N
Ault Road and Rutledge Pike
Knoxville, Tennessee

The cool autumn and bitter winter months may seem a long way off. But by sending clothing now, your readers can be sure that coats, shoes, jackets and dresses will be available to provide warm protection for needy boys and girls when bad weather sets in.

Sincerely yours,

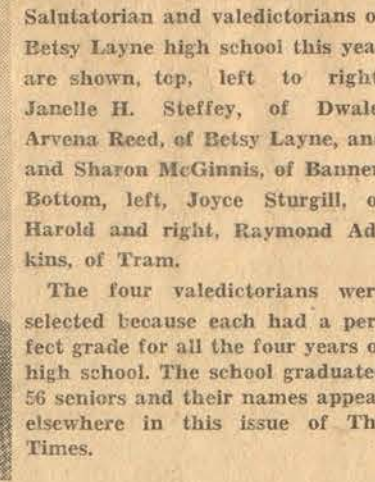

FAITH BALDWIN

Survivors are a son, Henry Boyd, Harold; three daughters, Mrs. Kelle Hamilton and Mrs. Della Kidd, both of Harold, and Mrs. Laura Hamilton, New London; two brothers, Sol Robinson, McDowell, and Carl Robinson, Banner; two sisters, Mrs. Rhoda Crisp, Martin, and another sister, whose name was not available.

Census Bureau Lists Enumeration Divisions

In a joint program with the State of Kentucky and each of its counties, the Bureau of the Census is establishing areas, known as "Census County Divisions," for use in statistical reporting. Similar areas were established in the State of Washington prior to the 1950 Census and since 1950 have been put into effect in six other States, Oregon, Idaho, Georgia, Colorado, Tennessee, and South Carolina.

Mr. Vincent M. Throop, a member of the census staff, is here from Washington to consult with county officials and solicit their advice in regard to the proposed areas for Floyd county.

For census purposes Floyd county has been divided into 12 Census divisions, as follows:

Allen-Johns Creek, Bull Creek, Mare Creek, Martin, Maytown, McDowell, Mud Creek, Prestonsburg, Wayland, West Prestonsburg, Weeksbury, and Wheelwright.

The grand jury charged the railroad with operating trains of excessive length through the city.

U.S. Workers Have Same Reemployment Rights as Employees in Private Jobs

Employees of the United States government who enlist in the Ready Reserve and perform 3 to 6 months active training have substantially the same re-employment rights as employees of private employers. This was made known by John W. Rogers, Regional Representative of Bureau of Veterans' Reemployment Rights.

Seniority accrues for a reservist who is on duty for training under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 to the same extent that seniority would have accrued if he had remained continuously employed instead of performing active duty for training. Also, he has rights to any promotion missed or delayed because of his military training to the same extent as a person who has been inducted into the armed forces.

"Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell explains in his field letter that an active duty for training reservist has the same rights to vacation and other benefits following restoration to a former job as any other employee who has been absent from employment due to induction under the Universal Military Training and Service Act," said Mr. Rogers.

A copy of Secretary Mitchell's field letter, with questions and answers, can be obtained by writing to Mr. John W. Rogers, Regional Representative, U. S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Veterans' Reemployment Rights, 533 Federal Building, Louisville 2, Kentucky.

FARM NOTES

By O. E. BOGGS
County Agent

The strawberry season is upon us, and every housewife who plans to freeze some of this delicious fruit should check supplies, says Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the University of Kentucky. Strawberries are one of the most successfully frozen foods, but they do not can well, she points out.

Glass jars, tin cans with lacquered lining and plastic boxes are recommended for freezing whole berries. For berries that are sliced or pureed, plastic bags may be used.

Strawberries, as well as raspberries and blackberries, may be frozen without sugar if the berries are sweet. If sugar is used, add 3/4 cup to each quart of strawberries that have been washed and had stems removed. Mix sugar with berries, then fill containers to within 1/2 inch of top for pints or 1 inch for quarts. Seal and freeze.

In preparing the berries, see that they are ripe, firm and free of white or hollow centers or green tips, the foods authority advises.

Crushed or pureed berries, ready for use over ice cream, may be frozen. Crush or press berries through a coarse sieve, add 2/3 cup sugar for each quart, then mix well. Fill containers, leaving head space as given above.

WEED CONTROL

Strawberry growers in the state now can start their chemical control of annual weeds in strawberry fields, says Dr. James Herron, Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station botanist.

Herron said Crag herbicide, used as a spray at the rate of three pounds of the material in not less than 40 gallons of water per acre (actual area treated), would give good control on plants set this spring.

Crag knocks out most annuals such as pigweed, lambs-quarters, crabgrasses, foxtail and others. The same program should be followed on second year plants after harvest.

Crag sprays should be continued at four- to six-week intervals throughout the growing season, Herron says. The residual effect of Crag varies, depending on rainfall. The area to be treated should be weeded thoroughly before spraying so the material can get on germinating seeds and seedlings less than 1 1/4 inches high, where it is most effective.

Using the herbicide does not eliminate cultivation of strawberry beds but does reduce the number of such cultivations and the total labor required, Herron said.

State Film Premiered At Milwaukee, Mar. 25

Kentucky's new film, "The Lure Of Fishing In Kentucky" was premiered recently in Milwaukee. "The people up there were amazed by what the film showed on fishing possibilities in Kentucky," Bob Beasley, Division of Publicity employee, said.

The film was shown at the Milwaukee Sentinel Sport and Travel Show. After the show closed March 25, the film was sent to Northwest Sports and Travel Show which opened in Minneapolis.

Beasley said the film was shown twice daily in Milwaukee. "We stressed that only people interested in coming to Kentucky to fish should see the film. Our theatre would seat only 400 people and it was jammed for every showing," he said.

25 EXPECTED FOR ROAD-E-O

Youngsters Will Compete Here Saturday in Jaycee Safe Driving Competition

At least 25 entrants are expected in the Junior Chamber of Commerce Road-e-o Saturday, said Byron M. Thompson, chairman of the Jaycee's Safety Committee.

The contest is open to any Floyd county youth who may wish to participate, said Bob Wallace, chairman of the Eligibility, Screening, and Certifying committee, adding that last-minute contestants can procure applications from the Fountain Korner.

The top three entrants will win a total of $100 in Savings Bonds, with the winner copping a $50 U. S. Savings Bond, and the second and third place contestants $25 bonds each.

Applicants are directed to report to the Prestonsburg grade school for the written test to be given from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m., Saturday. At 1:00 p.m. the applicants must report back to the Playground for the driving tests which resemble the tests given for actual driving licenses.

The girl or boy who completes the best mark on the written examination and executes the four elementary driving maneuvers most skillfully will go to Murray, June 9, accompanied by a Jaycee, to compete for state honors.

The local Road-e-o driving contest is the first step for a Floyd county youth who may possibly win the top national prize, a $1,500 scholarship to a college of his or her choice. The youth will have an expense-free trip in store if his knowledge of the safety rules of driving and skill of car handling warrants it.

If the Floyd county youth should survive the state Road-e-o he will have an all-expense trip to Washington, D. C., where contestants will gather from the 48 states, Hawaii and the District of Columbia for four days.

To be eligible the contestants must be under 20 years of age on August 10, the last day of the national finals in Washington, D. C. must have a driver's license or permit and a clean record of no moving traffic violations in the past six months.

Adrine Leon Collins, formerly of Martin, now an employee of Delco Products at Dayton, Ohio, hit the "jack-pot" on a suggestion made to his company recently. The prize-winning idea brought him $2,500.

The award, collected in U. S. Savings bonds and in cash, was for an idea advanced to improve the mechanization of an assembly operation. This was his 91st suggestion and the 29th upon which he had received prizes. He is a welder.

Collins' suggestion will improve an automatic piston rod assembly operation which heretofore had been done rather laboriously, mostly by hand. It was the first maximum suggestion award paid this year by Delco Products.

Collins, a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Collins, of Martin, has been with the company nine years.

Auxier Students Get Reader's Digest Award; Cline Twice Honored

Mrs. Maureen Caudill and James E. Cline co-valedictorians of the graduating class at Auxier high school, have been given the annual award of The Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community. It was announced this week by John C. Wells, principal.

Each will receive an honorary subscription to the Reader's Digest for one year and an engraved certificate from the editors, "in recognition of past accomplishment and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

The Reader's Digest Association has presented these awards yearly in senior high schools throughout the United States and Canada to the highest honor student of the graduating class.

The award to Mrs. Caudill, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Hall, of Auxier, and to Mr. Cline, who is the son of Mrs. Lakie Cline, also of Auxier, was made possible through the cooperation of Mr. Wells and his teaching staff.

James E. Cline, a member of the senior class of Auxier high school, is the 1956 winner of the Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award Medal for achieving the highest scholastic record in science subjects during his high school career.

Only winners of this Award, presented annually in 5,800 secondary schools throughout the country, are eligible to compete for the Science scholarships sponsored by the Bausch & Lomb Optical Company at the University of Rochester.

One of these was a resolution calling for the establishing of a rural highway project on the route starting at U. S. 23, approximately four miles south of Paintsville, extending up Big Lick fork of Jenny's Creek, crossing the hill and going down Conley Fork of Abbott Creek to connect with the Abbott Creek road at Bonanza. The resolution pointed out that the route will serve about 500 persons.

County Judge Stumbo said the Bill Hall Branch to Mud Creek road would serve even more than the Jenny's Creek-Conley Fork route.

The court voted a resolution asking a rural road project up Buck's Branch from Martin and down Spurlock Fork of Middle Creek. It also voted to discontinue the old road at the mouth of the Sie Frasure Branch of Big Mud and exchange the old right-of-way for new.

Pay of election officers under the new state law was set at $6 a day for the May 29 primary instead of the former $5.

A total of $3,000 in appropriations was voted. This included $2,000 for the Floyd county Bookmobile, $500 to the Jenny Wiley district, Boy Scouts of America, and $500 to the Betsy Layne fire department.

The contract with the Department of Rural Highways provides that if at any time the fiscal court appears not to be meeting its responsibility of ditching and draining roads and otherwise performing its road duties the Rural Highway Department may take charge of the work.

For limited maintenance only the following projects were listed:

Little Mud, 3 miles; Little Abbott Creek, 3 miles; Toler Creek, 2.6 mi.; Cow Creek-Buffalo, 2.5 mi.; Frazier's Creek, 2.4 mi.; Turkey Creek, 2 mi.; Brannham's Creek, 4.5 mi.; Upper Bull Creek, 2.8 mi.; Brandy Keg, 2.6 mi.; Spurlock Creek, 3.7 mi.; Buck's Branch, 1.8 mi.; Whitaker, 2.2 mi.; Doty Branch, 1 mi.; Tinker Fork, 1.2 mi.; Estill, 3 mi.; Cracker, 1.2 mi.; Hite, 1 mile.

Scheduled for regular routine maintenance are these roads:

East Point-Auxier-Cliff, 7.4 mi.; Weeksbury-Left Fork, 1.8 mi.; Salt Lick, 4.1 mi.; Frazier's Creek, 1 mi.; Brush Creek, 2.4 mi.; Rough and Tough Branch, 1.2 mi.; Rough Layne streets, 3 mi.; Arkansas Creek, 2 mi.; Stephens Branch, 1.5 mi.; two projects leading to Y at Allen, .6 mi.; streets in Garretts, 8 mi.; Pike-Floyd Hollow, 3 mi.; streets in Maytown, 3 mi.; bridge at Banner, patching only, the county to hold the state harmless for damages, past, present and future on that span.

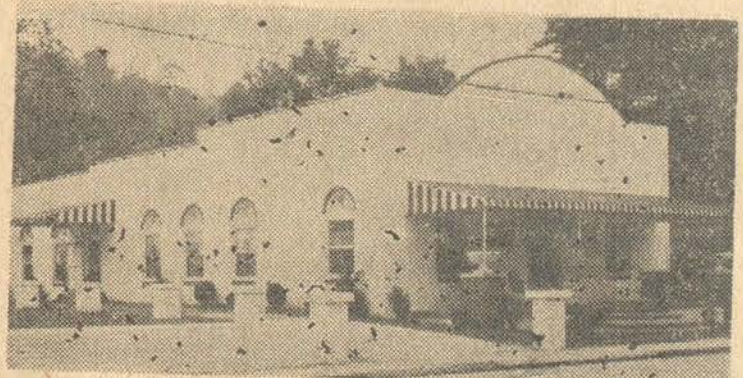

The county, the agreement stated, is responsible for all roads not listed, except those already on state maintenance.

Teachers' Club Slates Martin Meet, Monday

The annual meet of the Twenty-Year Teachers' Club will be held at the Sea Cafe, Martin, at 6:30 p.m., Monday, Mrs. Betty Stephens, secretary, announced this week. Officers will be elected at the meeting.

V. O. Turner, county superintendent of schools, will speak on "Getting the Minimum Foundation Program Under Way." Several new teachers became eligible this year and are being welcomed by Wayne Ratliff, club president.

"New work at Dewey Lake makes it impractical for a picnic meeting this year such as we had last year," Mrs. Stephens pointed out. "We think Martin is a good location which will not cause too many to travel too far."

TEACHERS Have Long Memories

Earle Clements said they had such short memories they would forget. But they haven't. Clements knows it, too, and that's why he hasn't asked for their votes. He doesn't have the brass after calling them ignorant, saying they couldn't spell or write figures.

Here's Where, When and What Clements Said:

It was January 1950, when the Legislature had several bills on education tied up in the Rules Committee and Gov. Earle Clements was asked by a delegation of teachers from the K. E. A. to use his influence to get "just one bill reported out." He said he didn't have the influence. He went on to say that "teachers didn't know the difference anyway between $34,500,000 and $3,500." Later, told by his advisors he had made a mistake in saying that he replied that "teachers have short memories. They'll forget."

Think of it! Calling the teachers of Kentucky ignorant when they have slaved in sub-standard and overcrowded schoolrooms, penny pinched meager salaries in order to save money to work off college hours to complete their education. No where else can you find teachers better qualified and more abreast of the rapidly changing techniques in modern educational psychology. Yet Earle Clements call them ignorant. Try thinking about it again if you're not too angry. Clements ridiculed your education and competence while other states like Ohio, Florida, Indiana and Michigan were begging for your services at higher salaries. They don't take ignorant teachers in those states. They want the cream of the crop and they come to Kentucky to get them.

Today the fat Clements, running against Joe Bates, the native Big Sandian, for the United States Senate, scurries from courthouse to courthouse over the state, trying to pick up and put together again the remnants of his political machine. He is preceded everywhere by the cynical Doc Beauchamp who used to laugh and brag how smart it was to steal

Teachers have memories about a lot of things. But it takes only a short memory to recall how they worked out a Minimum Foundation Program for Education in Kentucky and offered it to the state two years ago. The Clements-Wetherby Administration at Frankfort two years ago passed a law. Passed a law, yes, but gave them no money to implement it. The Chandler Administration gave them the money—$20,000,000.00 of it two short months ago. Just two months after A. B. Chandler came into office he provided the money. Clements and Wetherby had been in power at Frankfort for years and had done nothing for the teachers.

votes in Logan county. Doc was in Prestonsburg last week, sweated around town, talked to a few courthouse buddies and hurried away. They are desperate, and fearful of what the parents and teachers of this state will do at the polls, May 29. The Clements crowd knows that time is running out.

WE, THE PARENTS AND TEACHERS FOR JOE BATES THINK HE SHOULD HAVE OUR SUPPORT FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE UPON THE SCHOOL RECORD OF THE CHANDLER ADMINISTRATION.

Chandler's Record

- (1) The common schools appropriation was increased by $20,000,000 for 1956-57, and by $23,000,000 for 1957-58.
- (2) An appropriation fully implementing our new Teachers' Retirement Laws.
 - $600,000 for Prior Service.
 - $4,000,000 for 1956-57.
 - $4,300,000 for 1957-58.

These last two figures to match in full the teachers' contributions.

- (3) Increased appropriation to:
 - State Department of Education.
 - University of Kentucky and State Colleges.
 - Vocational Rehabilitation.
 - University of Louisville and University of Kentucky Medical Schools.

Clements' Record

- (1) The Clements-Wetherby administration appropriated only a meager and insufficient amount of aid to schools and that only after repeated demands and insistence from the teachers. An example of Clements' cynical attitude toward education and the teachers of Kentucky was his ridicule of them at Frankfort in 1950.
- (2) In the Senate of the United States, Clements fought for and voted for the "Tidelands Oil Bill" which took away from Kentucky enough money to finance a complete school program for years to come without any taxes whatsoever.
- (3) Tried to dictate policy at the University of Kentucky and to remove President Donovan.

No wonder that Robert R. Martin, Superintendent of Public Instruction, on April 12, this year, said in an address before the K. E. A.

"Friday, April 6, 1956, will forever be a banner day for education. Last Friday at 3:35 Marvin Dodson, members of the staff of the Department of Education and I witnessed perhaps the greatest single event in the history of public education in this state when Governor Chandler signed the Biennial Budget just enacted by the General Assembly!"

Joe Bates is a native of Beaver Creek, seventh child of a family of 11 and raised in a log cabin. As a young man he walked from Dry Creek, Knott county, to Greenup to enter school. Succeeded Hon. Fred M. Vinson in Congress, served 15 years.

Vote for a friend to education so that two years from now we can go back to Bates and Chandler for more help for our schools.

Pikeville To Begin Its Summer Classes On Monday, June 4th

Pikeville, Ky., May 21 (Spl.) — Summer classes at Pikeville College will open Monday, June 4.

A variety of courses, most of them needed in the preparation of a schoolteacher but fitting into many other fields of study also, will be offered. Classes on the freshman, sophomore and junior levels will be given.

A full four-year curriculum will be opened in September for the first time at Pikeville, which has been a fully accredited junior college since 1931, and since last fall has been the state's only three-year school.

Class to be offered in the two five-week summer terms are in the Bible, education, English, history, mathematics and music fields. Those giving three or more semester hours of credit, with a few exceptions, will meet mornings or afternoons, Monday through Friday, and Saturday mornings. Two-hour courses will meet Monday through Thursday.

The first term of summer school at Pikeville will close July 7, and the second term will extend from July 9 to August 11.

Courses totaling six semester hours of credit each term make up a normal load, it was said.

4-H Club Heads Will Convene Here, May 25, For Leader's Convention

A 4-H Club conservation leader meeting will be held at the B & W Cafe here Friday, May 25, at 7: 30 p.m. Twenty club leaders have been invited to participate in the program.

The conservation project has three main objectives to meet, it was said by the Extension Service office here. Chief of these is "to encourage 4-H boys and girls to encourage the importance of the conservation of our natural resources and to preserve and improve our great out-doors." Each club member working on the project is to enroll in one phase of conservation, and to orient the thinking of the younger generation on preservation of our resources.

The dinner guests will be introduced by Robert M. Jones, assistant county agent. First speaker billed is E. E. Fish, Extension specialist in 4-H Club work, who will discuss functions of 4-H Club leaders. Lyle B. Leonard, soil conservation specialist, will talk on "Soil Conservation Projects for 4-H Club Members." Other speakers are James A. Newman, forestry worker, and Bob Eversole, state biologist of the Fish and Game Commission. A question and answer period will close the meeting.

Assistant County Agent Jones said this week that one phase of conservation, in connection with providing cover for wild-life, is already being carried out by club members. It is the planting of bi-color and multi-flora rose, the latter sometimes called a "living fence," as it makes a barrier to stock as well as providing a refuge for quail and game. Ten club members have one-eighth of an acre each of bi-color supplied by the Floyd County Fish and Game Club. The club pays $25 on the cost of each one-eighth acre plot to cover seed, land preparation and fertilizer. Two members have planted multi-flora around their bi-color plots. A trophy will be given to the member demonstrating the best plot.

Future Homemakers Have Annual Spring Meeting; 3 Floyd Girls Elected

Ashland district Future Homemakers of America assembled at the Ashland Senior High School, Ashland, Kentucky, Saturday, May 12 for their annual spring meeting. Three hundred fifty of the District's 1,372 members attended.

An FHA parade was staged with 20 chapters participating. The presentation revealed a clearer understanding of the goals of the organization.

The recently divided district elected officers for the forthcoming year. Officers for District B are: President, Peggy Prater, Prestonsburg high school; first vice-president, Pat Clark, Salyersville; second vice-president, Terry Lee Dicks, Phelps; secretary, Connie Potter, Elkhorn City; treasurer, Joan Faulkner, McDowell.

Historian, Freeda Roberts, Virginia; parliamentarian, Loretta Smith, Phelps; reporter, Billie Parker, McDowell; recreation leader, Barbara Obenshine, Elkhorn City; song leader, Verline Cochran, Salyersville.

Janet L. Green was nominated for state president and Peggy Prater for state second vice-president.

Following luncheon, served in the school cafeteria, the girls were entertained by Cissy Gregg, home economist for The Courier Journal.

Sandy Hook received the attendance award with 50 members present. McDowell was second with 44.

Buick SUPER 6-Door Riviera

When it purrs, you reign

YOU CAN hardly hear its whispered might — but man, you sure can feel it.

It's power almost without limit—power that humbles the hills, melts the miles, makes you monarch of all you survey.

For this is a new Buick — a '56 Buick — sparked by the most potent engine in Buick annals—a 322-cubic-inch V8 with a record high compression of 9.5 to 1.

But what makes you feel even more like bossman of the highway is the great new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

First time you tickle the gas pedal you'll know what we mean.

Now—smack in the top inch of gas pedal travel—right where you save gas every turn of the wheels — you get a swift, sure and supremely positive new getaway response.

For smooth and nimble performance — for sheer mastery in traffic — nothing like it ever was.

And that's just part of it. When you need a still greater flow of get-up-and-go for safety's sake, you merely switch the pitch and you zoom out of tight spots.

So come rule the roost in this '56 Buick. Come drive a car with 127 gorgeous inches of wheelbase to give it regal room and a ride that's fit for a king.

Try out Buick's new steering—new center-grooved brakes — new direct-acting shock absorbers with triple the former volume of jounce-cushioning oil.

Learn how it feels to boss a car that looks like royalty and acts the part to perfection.

We promise—you'll practically purr with delight at the wheel of this dazzler—especially when you discover how easily you can make it your own.

What do you say — shall we expect you today?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Republican Primary

May 29, 1956

I was your Republican nominee for this office in 1955. I made hard campaigns in both primary and general elections when there was little more than a year left in the term, and when the going was extremely rough and difficult.

I made a hard fight for the Republican ticket both in and out of my district. I would now greatly appreciate being selected by my party to run for a full term when circumstances are much more favorable.

No other Republican seemed interested last year when there was only a few months left in the term, and when the political pathways were perilous. Not so now. The field is full. All are willing to wade in clover with Ike.

Ike and the Republican ticket will have my active support regardless of the outcome of the Primary election.

I am humbly grateful for your support in the past and I respectfully ask your further aid.

Sincerely,
ROBERT B. BIRD

Production of taconite pellets for steel industry use appears to offer a new and rich market for bituminous coal for electric power. Where only 36,000 tons of bituminous coal were used for this purpose in 1955, it is estimated that 1,260 tons will be needed in 1975.

Enough Polio Vaccine For 80 Million Is Seen

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Enough Salk vaccine for at least two doses for over 80,000,000 American children and expectant mothers will be produced this year by the five manufacturers licensed to make the vaccine under strict federal controls, it was announced by the Health News Institute of New York after a spot survey of the polio situation. The five drug manufacturers who make the vaccine and their schedules for production are:

Ell Lilly & Co., Indianapolis, which expects to produce 55,000,000 cubic centimeters (doses) of the vaccine by July 1 and 1,000,000,000 by December 31, 1956.

Parke, Davis & Company, Detroit, reports that it hopes to "get release of 10,000,000 cc. by the end of June and an additional 20,000,000 cc. between July 1 and December 31."

Wyeth Laboratories, Philadelphia, expects to produce 5,800,000 cc. by June 30, 14,800,000 by September 30, and 25,900,000 by the end of the year.

Sharp & Dohme, Division of Merck & Co., Inc., Philadelphia, is in production, but is not ready to release information as to its expected production this year.

Thus far, from figures available, the manufacturers expect to produce nearly 80,000,000 doses of the vaccine by July 1, and by December 31 almost 174,000,000 doses.

Medical authorities recommend that two doses of one cc. each of the vaccine be given four to six weeks apart to be followed by a "booster" shot of one cc. at least seven to ten months later. It has been determined that one dose of vaccine is not expected to give full protection against paralytic polio, but a single injection in some instances has given a considerable degree of protection.

(A plan announced this week and concurred in by Dr. Salk, is to reduce the third, or "booster" shot possibly to one-tenth of a cc. It is held that this will provide immunity and at the same time hoard the vaccine supply and reach more persons who needed inoculation.)

Reliance on a single dose is not recommended. Three injections should be undertaken for the best protection, or "full immunization."

Although there will be enough vaccine produced for 80 million individuals to receive the first two shots of one cc. each, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis estimates that there are only 65,000,000 in the most susceptible group of children under 19 and expectant mothers, of whom only 52,000,000 are considered immediately available for vaccination.

The U. S. Public Health Service, through the Bureau of State Services, allocates the vaccine based on population within priority groups to states and territories. Less than half of the vaccine allotted under the voluntary immunization program has been distributed through doctors and pharmacies. Public health agencies have received the remainder. However, policy on this distribution differs from state to state.

On the state level the vaccine is usually allocated proportionately according to the number of eligible persons in each county or city served by a full-time health department.

When federal grant vaccine is distributed to private physicians, they must not charge for the vaccine, although they are permitted their usual professional fee for administering it. When physicians purchase the vaccine from pharmacists they may charge the patient for the vaccine as well as for its injection.

The pharmaceutical firms that manufactured the vaccine for the 1954 field trials agreed to manufacture, without profit, enough supplies for the trials. Since then, the drug manufacturers have stepped up production and have still met the rigid standards of production and safety regulations agreed upon with the Federal Government.

So well developed are the current safety factors that Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, Surgeon General of the U. S. Public Health Service, says that the Salk vaccine "is as safe as we can humanly guarantee."

Dr. Hart Van Riper, medical director of The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis says the vaccine is "as safe as any biological product can possibly be."

Dr. Leona Baumgartner, Commissioner of Health, city of New York, has pointed out that of the 701,000 children vaccinated in New York between April 12, 1955, and April 12, 1956, "There were no instances of polio or polio symptoms resulting from the vaccine program." She said that of the alarmed parents of 400 children who called city health officers "only slight fever" could be found in 22 children and that "these fevers could not be traced to polio shots."

The process for manufacturing the Salk vaccine is still a lengthy one, including the extensive testing to insure that the vaccine is safe and contains no live organisms which may cause the disease. However, the drug manufacturers have spent vast sums of money on improvement of processing and on the accelerated production program to furnish enough vaccine. Barring unforeseen mishaps or snags in the testing and release structure, they will produce more than enough vaccine this year for everyone in the top priority groups to have been vaccinated by the end of the season.

The Carl Perkins Record for Experience and Prestige

Carl D. Perkins has gained leadership in the National Congress by standing for a program of progressive legislation, prestige by being a 4th. term, and respect of the over 400 other members of the House of Representatives by hard work and unexcelled attendance at Congressional sessions.

The Carl Perkins Record on Federal Aid to Education

Carl Perkins is a member of the House Committee on Labor and Education. By his seniority he will soon be Chairman of this committee. Perkins has led the fight for Federal aid to Education which must move through this committee. Carl's wife has been a schoolteacher. Federal aid to Education is near, let's not lose.

The Carl Perkins Record on Public Welfare

Carl Perkins has always been interested in Social Security. He has supported payment increases and lowering of the retirement age. Perkins was directly responsible for freezing the disabled workmen's benefits at the level at time of injury. Under this bill the worker does not lose wage credits on Social Security while unable to work.

The Carl Perkins Record on Unemployment

Mr. Perkins was directly responsible for having this area declared Labor Surplus. Such action allows tax and other advantages to new industries locating here. In addition he has supported increased Federal Aid to Unemployment benefits.

The Carl Perkins Record on Veterans Legislation

Congressman Perkins, having served as a Private in the Army during World War II, overseas, has recognized the problems of the veterans. He has helped to push through every raise benefit veterans of World War I and II have received while he has been in Congress.

The Carl Perkins Record on Labor

Carl Perkins has a 100% voting record for labor and is endorsed by every Labor Union in Kentucky. He led the fight for enactment of Federal Mine Safety Laws.

Carl Perkins has been on the floor of Congress at every opportunity seeking remedial action for Eastern Kentucky's Problems. Already he has helped the Coal Miner, the Wage Earner, the Old Aged, the Needy Blind, the School Teacher, the Unemployed, and the Needy Children.

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING RATES OR CHARGES FOR THE USE AND SERVICES OF THE MUNICIPAL WATERWORKS AND SEWER SYSTEMS OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, AND PROVIDING FOR THE COLLECTION THEREOF.

WHEREAS, the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, intends and desires in the year 1956 to provide for combining and consolidating the ownership, control, operation and maintenance of the municipal waterworks and sewer systems supplying water and sewer services in and to said City and intends and desires to provide for the construction of extensions and improvements to said combined and consolidated waterworks and sewer systems and to provide for the issuance of Water and Sewer Revenue Bonds of said City to pay the cost of said extensions and improvements, and of refunding certain bonds constituting encumbrances against said systems, all in the manner as provided by Chapter 58 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes; and

WHEREAS, in and by said Chapter 58 it is required that rates or charges for the use and services of the combined and consolidated waterworks and sewer systems be prescribed and maintained so as to pay the interest upon and principal of said bonds as the same become due, and also pay operating and maintenance costs, as well as create a depreciation fund; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary at this time that the schedule of rates or charges be prescribed and provision be made for the collection thereof:

NOW, THEREFORE, the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. That there shall be and there are hereby established from and after the effective date of this ordinance monthly rates or charges for the use and services of the combined and consolidated municipal waterworks and sewer systems of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, as follows:

A. MONTHLY WATER RATES
Quantity (Gallons)	Used Per Month
First 2,000 gallons or less per month—$2.25 (Minimum Bill).
Next 3,000 gallons or less per month—Additional $1.20 per 1,000 gallons.
Next 5,000 gallons or less per month—Additional $1.05 per 1,000 gallons.
Next 5,000 gallons or less per month—Additional $1.00 per 1,000 gallons.
Next 5,000 gallons or less per month—Additional .95 per 1,000 gallons.
Next 20,000 gallons or less per month—Additional .85 per 1,000 gallons.
Next 20,000 gallons or less per month—Additional .75 per 1,000 gallons.
Next 40,000 gallons or less per month—Additional .65 per 1,000 gallons.
Amounts in excess of 100,000 gallons per month—Additional .50 per 1,000 gallons.

B. MONTHLY SEWER RATES

There shall be charged to the owner of all houses, buildings or properties used for human occupancy, employment, recreation or other purposes, situated within the city and abutting on any street, alley or right-of-way in which there is located a public sanitary sewer of the city, the sum of $.25 per month, and such charge shall be made regardless of whether or not such owner has connected such property to said sewer line.

SECTION 2. The rates or charges as aforesaid shall apply to all residential, commercial and industrial establishments in any manner directly or indirectly connected with the combined and consolidated municipal waterworks and sewer system of said City, and any person, firm or corporation charged with the foregoing rates being dissatisfied therewith by reason of peculiar or unusual uses or occupancy of any premises and consequently alleging peculiar or unusual uses of said combined and consolidated waterworks and sewer system may file application with the City Council for reclassification and in like manner said City Council may at any time upon notice published at least once not less than ten days preceding a specified meeting consider a revision or readjustment of said rates or charges by reason of peculiar or unusual use and occupancy of premises as a class and revise the rates or charges accordingly.

SECTION 3. That all rates and charges shall be billed on a monthly basis, but not necessarily on the basis of a calendar month, and each bill shall provide for a due date ten (10) days after the date of rendition of the bill. As to any bill or bills not paid by the due date of the bill, there shall be added an automatic additional charge of ten per cent (10%) of the face amount of the bill, and the City shall then have the right immediately and at any time thereafter, and after 48 hours' written notice to disconnect the water service of the delinquent user and the City shall be required to disconnect such service if such bill together with penalty is not paid within a period of forty-five (45) days after the date of rendition of such bill. In the event any such water service is disconnected for the nonpayment of a water and sewer bill on its due date, such service shall not be reconnected until the user pays a reconnection charge of $3.00, and in such event, such user shall also be required to make a deposit to the City of ten dollars ($10.00) which the City shall hold without interest as security for the payment of future bills of such user, and to be repaid to such user, upon discontinuance of service to that user, less any sum due from such user.

SECTION 4. In addition to the penalties prescribed in Section 3, the City Attorney is hereby authorized and directed to enforce and collect any such charges which have not been paid within forty-five (45) days after the date of rendition of the bill therefor. The City Clerk or the Board or body of said City in charge of the control and operation of said combined and consolidated municipal waterworks and sewer systems shall render the bills for waterworks and sewer services as aforesaid and same shall be collected and accounted for in the manner as prescribed by law and as may be prescribed in the proceedings pursuant to which the proposed Water and Sewer Revenue Bonds of said City are to be issued.

SECTION 5. That the charges aforesaid shall be billed to the owners of the premises, provided that upon application by the tenant of any premises who is not the owner filed with the City Clerk or the Board or body of said City in charge of the control and operation of said combined and consolidated municipal waterworks and sewer systems accompanied by appropriate security or indemnity in an amount and of a kind approved by the City Clerk or by such body or Board aforesaid, such bills may be rendered to the tenant.

SECTION 6. That the foregoing rates or charges shall be revised from time to time as may be necessary in order that the City may comply with the covenants and undertakings securing said proposed Water and Sewer Revenue Bonds of said City.

SECTION 7. That all ordinances, resolutions and orders and parts thereof and particularly any ordinance heretofore adopted prescribing water and sewer rates or charges in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict and this ordinance become effective June 5, 1956 after publication or posting as provided by law.

Passed and approved May 21, 1956.

FLOYD CIRCUIT COURT

First National Bank Plaintiff

Vs.: NOTICE OF SALE

Everett Crisp and Geneva Crisp Defendants

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Floyd Circuit Court rendered and entered at the April term, 1956, in the above styled cause I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Courthouse door in Prestonsburg, Kentucky, to the highest and best bidder, at public auction, on the 28th day of May 1956, at 10 o'clock, a.m., same being the first day of the regular term of the Floyd County Court, upon a credit of six months, the following described property, to-wit:

Lying and being on the Big Sandy River near the mouth of the Harris Branch, in Floyd county, Kentucky. Beginning on a point in line between the C. & O. Railway Company and T. J. Leslie, a straight line with the division line fence to an elm tree on the South bank of the Big Sandy River; thence up the river; thence with the meanders of said river to the mouth of the Harris Branch; thence with the meanders of said branch to a stake on the edge of the C. & O. Railroad Company right of way; thence with the line of said right of way to the beginning.

Said property will be sold to satisfy a judgment in favor of plaintiff against the defendants for the sum of $400.00 with interest from June 17, 1955, and the cost of this action.

For the purchase price the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety or sureties, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment with a lien retained upon said property as a further security. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

Given under my hand, this 7th day of May, 1956.

J. B. CLARKE,
Master Commissioner
Floyd Circuit Court
5-10-56.

Kentucky bituminous coal mines produced 72,300,000 tons in 1955, a gain of nearly 21 percent, ranking the state third among coal producing states.

Miss Jarrell Receives Morehead Scholarship

Glina C. Jarrell, a member of the Prestonsburg high school graduating class, has been awarded an academic scholarship to Morehead State College, it was announced by Morehead president Dr. Adron Doran.

The scholarship, granted on the recommendation of the high school, is for $100 a year, and is renewable each semester upon achievement of a satisfactory scholastic standing.

Miss Jarrell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jarrell, of Prestonsburg.

America's 50 largest bituminous coal mines produced more than 88,900,000 tons in 1955, or more than 19 per cent of the total 470,000,000-ton production for the year.

LET'S CONTINUE KENTUCKY'S LEADERSHIP IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE

Earle C. Clements is a man who is—and always has been—deeply interested in and responsive to all Kentuckians. His life is dedicated to you, the people.

Today Earle C. Clements is applying to all Kentuckians for high position—that of being re-elected as U.S. Senator. He knows the problems ahead. He realizes that constant, untiring effort is needed to serve the interests of Kentuckians. He is fully aware of his grave responsibilities.

Now it is up to YOU, the people, to decide if this man has the experience, the appreciation of Kentucky's needs, the character and the national standing to best serve you.

Selection of men for position of high responsibility should be left only to the PEOPLE for decision. Therefore, the qualifications of Earle C. Clements are briefly presented here so that you may study the record.

The Qualifications of EARLE C. CLEMENTS • APPLICANT

Years of broad experience—Earle Clements has served the people of Kentucky on every government level. LOCAL... as sheriff, county clerk and county judge of Union County. STATE... as State Senator and Governor. FEDERAL... as U.S. Representative and U.S. Senator.

HE UNDERSTANDS AGRICULTURAL PROBLEMS

Earle Clements has been close to the farmer and his problems all his life. The farmer does not have a truer or more helpful friend. Earle Clements is the leading spokesman for the tobacco grower in the U.S. Senate. It was he who led the successful fight to restore the 15 per cent tobacco acreage cut ordered by Secretary Benson.

HE WORKS FOR EDUCATION

During his term as Governor, the Common School Fund was increased 56.6 per cent, and the Equalization Fund was raised 119.9 per cent. As U.S. Senator, he is the sponsor of bills to provide federal funds for school construction and to raise teachers' salaries.

HE FIGHTS FOR GOOD ROADS

Earle Clements started his fight for good roads as county judge, and continued it as Governor and Senator. He started Kentucky's expanded rural roads program. As Senator, he is pushing increased federal aid for state roads and city projects as well as for the interstate system of highways.

HE LOOKS OUT FOR LABOR

Men and women who work for a living have a real friend in Earle Clements. Both in Congress and as Governor, he has opposed punitive legislation against labor. His record has won official endorsement.

HE KNOWS THE IMPORTANCE OF WELFARE AND SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

These programs have a strong supporter in Earle Clements. While he was Governor, vast improvements were made for child welfare, mental health, state institutions. Old age pensions were raised 59 per cent.

HE CONSTANTLY PROMOTES KENTUCKY'S DEVELOPMENT

He has provided important leadership for the economic development of our state. The Agriculture and Industrial Development Board was created and the state's tourist promotion and Park Development program were started while he was Governor. Kentucky needs him in the Senate to help advance its economic welfare.

HE'S A LEADER IN CONSERVATION AND FLOOD CONTROL

Kentucky made great advances in soil conservation, flood control, forestry, pollution abatement and wildlife conservation under Earle Clements as Governor. As U.S. Senator, he has been effective in getting flood control and water development projects for our state, and was, with the late Senator Barkley, the sponsor of new legislation to develop the small watersheds.

HE HAS HELPED DEVELOP ELECTRICAL POWER FOR KENTUCKY

Earle Clements believes Kentucky needs more electric power to promote industry and serve rural and city people. As Governor, he developed friendly working relationships between public and private power groups. In Congress and as Governor, he has always been a consistent supporter of REA.

THERE IS THE RECORD. YOU DECIDE IF YOU WANT AS YOUR SENATOR A MAN WHO GETS THINGS DONE—AGGRESSIVELY, QUIETLY, SUCCESSFULLY AND WITHOUT BROKEN PROMISES. CONSIDER SERIOUSLY A MAN WHO IS FOR THE PEOPLE.

155 New State Laws Now in Full Effect

Frankfort, Ky., May 17 — One hundred fifty-five laws enacted by the regular session of the 1956 General Assembly became effective at midnight tonight.

One new law is a model probation and parole act that revamps the present parole system.

The law sets up a new class of persons to be supervised by probation and parole officers—"conditional releases." They are prisoners released with an accumulation of "good time."

The bill also creates a full-time, three-member probation and parole board instead of the present seven-member, part-time board. It will have wider authority than the present law allows.

The law also sets up an advisory council to advise the Governor and the Legislature on probation and parole. It permits probation in police courts, as well as circuit courts, provided there is adequate supervision.

The "whisky-tax" law doubling production and import taxes on whisky also was effective at midnight. The tax goes from 5 to 10 cents a gallon.

The tax was opposed by distilling interests in the state. Attempts to repeal it at the special session on revenue and taxation were unsuccessful.

Also effective tonight was the bill that repeals the liens against real estate of recipients of old-age assistance and aid to the needy blind.

Repeal of the so-called lien law was a campaign promise of Governor Chandler.

The education-foundation law, while effective at midnight, actually will not be put in operation until July 1, the beginning of the next fiscal year.

The law guarantees to each public-school district in Kentucky at least $80 for each pupil in average daily attendance.

It provides for a single, foundation-program fund, to take the place of the per capita account and the equalization account now in operation.

The special session on the budget appropriated $54,785,500 for public elementary and high schools for the school year beginning July 1.

Money will be distributed to school districts in accordance with the minimum-foundation program.

A measure that will affect many consumers is the new so-called Fair Trade Act that sets a minimum retail price on cigarettes of 22 cents a pack.

Many drug and food stores have been selling cigarettes at $1.95 a carton. The new minimum per carton will be $2.20.

The bill also prevents merchants from giving trading stamps with the purchase of cigarettes.

Filter-tip and king-size cigarettes will not be affected by the minimum-price law, since they already cost more.

These new laws were among hundreds passed during the abbreviated regular session that was followed by special sessions on governmental reorganization, the budget, and taxes.

At least 10 bills affecting circuit courts and juries were passed including one providing for payment to the court reporter in Jefferson County for fees for transcripts in case of paupers.

Several other new laws involve civil- and criminal-law practice.

At least 11 bills involving Louisville are among the new laws. One provides for reorganization of governmental services and extension of the city limits, the so-called Mallon plan.

Another group of bills applies to second-, third-, and fourth-class cities. They cover such subjects as police and firemen's pensions and selection of Police Court jurors.

Six bills were passed raising the classification of the cities of Murray, Dry Ridge, Benton, Loyall, Brandenburg, and Frankfort. Still another demoted Corydon, where Governor Chandler was born and where his father, Joe Chandler, still lives, from fifth to sixth class.

Twelve new laws affect agriculture, livestock and the State Fair. One prevents fiscal courts from examining records of County Farm Bureaus.

A law permitting the State police to inspect motor vehicles and require repair of unsafe vehicles is among five affecting motor vehicles.

Twelve others affect banking, insurance, and credit unions. One prohibits certain loan and investment companies from using the word "bank" in their names and restricts length and accounts of their loans.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the applicants listed below have applied to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board for permission to organize a Federal savings and loan association to be located in Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

A hearing will be held on the application at ten o'clock in the forenoon on Wednesday, the twentieth day of June, 1956, in Room 827, Federal Home Loan Bank Board Building, Washington, D. C., if written notice of intention to appear in person or by attorney to protest the application is received by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board from one or more persons at least 10 days before that date. If no such notice has been received by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board at least 10 days before said date, the hearing pertinent to the question to the questions at issue, or in lieu of such appearance, evidence may be submitted in writing.

Diskin Urges Local Officials To Plan Heliports

Frankfort, May 21 (Spl.) — Kentucky's Commissioner of Aeronautics, John A. Diskin, advised the mayors and the airports executives throughout the State to plan now for the rapid growth of helicopter traffic expected in the future.

"Most informed observers believe the helicopter will induce, within 10 years, a radical change in short-haul intercity transportation," Diskin said in a special letter to mayors of cities exceeding 2,500 population, airport executives and Carl Wachs, Lexington, executive secretary of the Kentucky Municipal League.

Diskin urged these officials to consider locations for heliport developments in their master plans and said the Department of Aeronautics at Frankfort will give Technical assistance in selecting sites.

"Because of the time involved in proper planning and in the acquisition of down-town or in-town property, plus the importance of providing speedy, short-haul transportation to your community, it is not too early to consider designating a centrally-located area to accommodate this new, useful vehicle of the air," he added.

Diskin also pointed out that air transportation in the nation, and in Kentucky, has developed remarkably fast in recent years. Louisville, for example, now handles more aircraft movements annually than London, England, he said.

NO TAXES in KENTUCKY For At Least 50 Years

KENTUCKY'S SHARE OF TIDELAND OIL REVENUE IS TEN BILLION DOLLARS

This is the headline that could have been written—but won't. Why won't it be written? Because, a short time ago Senator Earle Clements sold out the people of Kentucky by voting for the Tideland's Oil Bill. That bill took away from Kentucky taxpayers their share in the oil and minerals underneath the oceans and gave it to the states bordering the ocean. Texas was the largest beneficiary of the bill. What did Kentucky receive? Nothing—not one thing. What did Earle Clements receive? An appointment as assistant to the Texas Senator ! ! !

The supporters of Earle Clements would have the people believe that our taxes were brought about by our administration. The truth is the people of Kentucky could have been tax free for fifty years—that's right—FIFTY YEARS AT LEAST—if Senator Clements and his friends had not sold out Kentucky and other inland states by voting to give away our national resources to the states bordering the oceans.

Ten billion (not million, but billion), dollars would have been Kentucky's share of these resources, if the bill had not passed. That amount would have been enough to pay for every single cost of government, including schools, roads and every other item, if Clementine, the assistant to the Texas Senator, had voted for the people of Kentucky.

At the very time when the schools needed a helping hand so very much, Earle Clements stabbed them in the back. He broke his promise to teachers after he was elected governor by refusing to support the program of the KEA, although a few months previously he specifically pledged his support. He violently and physically attempted to intimidate the president of our great University of Kentucky. He sold the children of Kentucky, their teachers and parents down the road when he voted for the Tideland's Oil Bill. His vote on this bill has been described by Texans as the greatest bargain since the Indians bought Manhattan for $24.00 worth of dime store jewelry. They bought Clements vote by agreeing to appoint him assistant to the Texas Senator. Do the people want a man who is willing to be the footstool of some other state? If you have any pride in Kentucky it will be impossible for you to vote for Senator Clements. Vote for and support a Kentuckian, from the Big Sandy Valley, Joe B. Bates.

Restore honest, sane representation of the people. Elect
Joe B. Bates, U. S. Senator.

Miss Hayes To Receive Degree at Carver School

Miss Ella Faye Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hurshell Hayes, of Allen, will receive the Master of Religious Education degree at Carver School of Missions and Social Work, Louisville, in the annual commencement Friday evening, May 25. Miss Hayes is a graduate of Georgetown College. She worked for four summers in mission work in Kentucky, and last summer, was employed by the Kentucky Woman's Missionary Union to assist in young people's camps. Upon her graduation, Miss Hayes will be employed by the Kentucky Woman's Missionary Union as a field worker in south central, southeastern and northeastern Kentucky.

Miss Parker Is Elected To Student Council Post

Danville, Ky., April 13 (Spl.) — Miss Ann Parker, former Wheelwright resident, has been elected treasurer of the Women's Student Council for the coming year at 137-year-old Centre College here.

Miss Parker, daughter of Mrs. John T. Parker and the late Mr. Parker, is a sophomore at Centre. She is a member of the Centre A Cappella choir which has been on tour in Washington, D. C., this past week. Last year she received the John T. Redd English Prize and was on the Dean's List for making a B average in all subjects.

Members of the Women's Student Council are chosen by the women's student body. Men students at Centre have their own government and the Student-Faculty Congress is a united group of all students and faculty members.

1956 State Employment Higher Than in 1955

Frankfort, May 21 (Spl.) — The State Department of Economic Security today reported that 1956 manufacturing employment shows an improvement over 1955 for most industries.

The mid-March estimate of 167,000 manufacturing workers was 8,100 above March of 1955. Most industry groups participated in the employment upturn. Machinery and equipment industry continued to lead the field with a 5,200 worker increase. Primary metals recorded a gain of 1,100 workers.

Selected non-manufacturing employment was 405,800 in March, or 2,100 above the February total and 7,900 above March 1955. Among increases in this field, were 2,100 employees in retail trades—largely seasonal; 1,300 increase in trade; 2,200 gain in government and transportation, communication and utilities add up 2,900 workers.

REFUNDS MADE TO OVER 2,000

Insurance Overcharges Result in Many Getting Refunds Averaging $40

Frankfort, Ky., May 18 (Spl.) — More than 2,000 Kentuckians who were over-charged by finance companies on automobile collision insurance coverage have received refunds of about $40 each, Insurance Commissioner C. P. Thurman said here today.

"Based on figures submitted by two companies," Commissioner Thurman said, "it is astounding to find that two out of every three persons who filled out and returned the questionnaire sent them by these two companies, were entitled to refunds."

"Last March," he continued, "the Insurance Department sent a regulation to all companies writing automobile collision insurance directing them to mail a questionnaire to each individual insured who was paying a Class II rate that is the higher rate that applies when there is an operator in the household under 25 years of age."

"If you received such a questionnaire," Thurman said, "it is imperative that you fill out and return it promptly. Two companies together mailed more than eleven thousand questionnaires, had about three thousand replies and made refunds to more than two thousand persons."

"You can easily see," he said, "that only a few persons are sending back the questionnaires, but of those who do, about two-thirds of them are receiving refunds. I can't imagine why a person wouldn't take a few minutes to fill out and mail a form if the chances were two out of three that he would receive about forty dollars. Personally, I would say it was time well spent."

"So far," the Commissioner added, "about 100 thousand dollars in over-charges have been refunded, and, based on present figures, there should be about 200 thousand dollars more in refunds."

CLAIM ON TIME EMPLOYED

Frankfort, Ky., May 21 (Spl.) — Requirement in the Workmen's Compensation Law that to establish a silicosis claim one must have worked two years, does not mean the workmen must have labored all of 730 working days, but merely covers the period of time employed, the Court of Appeals held in upholding a judgment of Harlan circuit court.

There, Kelly Parrott had been employed for three and a half years as an employee of Mary Helen Coal Corporation, during which time he had worked 618 days. The company resisted his claim on the ground that he must have worked 730 days. The Court rejected the contention.

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through.

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the satisfaction this emblem pledges. For only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."

THE PROPOSED BANK
AT MARTIN, KENTUCKY

At this time I will endeavor to advise the subscribers to stock in the proposed bank what has taken place since I last saw the people who are interested in this bank, consisting of 107 members, from every section of Floyd county whose financial statements reveal a net worth in money and real estate of approximately five million dollars, which proves beyond a doubt that this new bank would be a success and a paying proposition.

Our organization was the strongest ever brought together in Eastern Kentucky $300,000.00 for banking purposes and that was the reason it met such strong opposition.

Upon the completion of the subscriptions, I prepared the Articles of Incorporation of The Peoples Security Bank of Martin, Kentucky and together with James D. Weddington and my son, James D. Stephens, we visited by appointment, Governor A. B. Chandler, in his office and presented the Articles of Incorporation of the new bank and his statement to us was, "You seem to have the money ready to be raised and that is about all that is necessary," and we departed from that Happy Smile and a Gold Mine in The Sky promise, in high spirit, of course, but meaning nothing. I then later went to the office of Smith and Leary in the McClure building on the seventh floor and Mr. Leary, having been Chandler's campaign manager but he was absent and I talked to Mr. Smith, his partner, and he advised me then and there that they had been already retained by the people who opposed the establishment of our proposed bank. I saw then with Chandler's campaign manager being employed we could not expect anything from them and that they would not accept employment. I also presented the Articles of Incorporation to Mr. S. Albert Phillips, Chandler's Banking Commissioner whose office is in the State Office Building in the presence of Robert S. Wellman and my son, and discussed the matter with him, and I readily observed that he was opposed to this organization, but he would have two of his bank examiners to make the necessary examination. A few weeks later a Mr. Soaper and a Mr. Ridgway, came to Prestonsburg, Kentucky, took rooms at the States Motel, across the street from The First National Bank here in Prestonsburg. About the first step taken, these men visited the three banks in this County no doubt to find out their attitude toward the establishment of a new bank, and you know as well as I do, that we did not receive any favorable recommendation from either of them. As a matter of fact, you know you can never win a case if the views of your opposition are accepted and your side of the case lightly considered. These two men who were sent here, left Prestonsburg on a Saturday, between eleven and twelve o'clock. Every obstacle that could be brought about as you can readily see was brought to bear against our proposition and as I see it, it was not impartial investigation, but a partial one.

After these examiners made their report to Mr. Phillips, I received a letter from him, which I now have, and in which he stated, and gave four different reasons for declining the approval of the Articles, and I then immediately wrote him, advising him of the case of Speer, Banking Commissioner Vs. Dossey and 21 others which was tried in the Court of Appeals and upheld and the only case ever tried in Kentucky on this question and upon receipt of this letter the Commissioner again wrote me and in which he stated that I was correct and recanted most of what he said, but stated that it was his opinion he was wrong in three of his reasons but that under the Act of 1946 it was his opinion that he was right on one. So he thereby eliminated three out of four reasons in declining to approve. The reasons for refusing the approval on No. 4 is very flimsy and can be disproved in a suit at law. So under this state of the case, it will be necessary to file a suit in The Franklin Circuit Court by way of a Mandamus proceeding against the Banking Commissioner to compel him to do what he ought to do, what ought to be done without a law suit. Everything we proposed favorable was opposed, although about forty of our stockholders were Chandler supporters last year. I visited Frankfort twice and if you all could have seen the mess I saw, you could not expect much, if anything from such a conglomeration. I am not disappointed in the least at the ruling of the commissioners and the way our case was handled. If you people are interested, as incorporators, I will have a suit prepared and we can win it.

Yours as ever

The nation's 15 leading producers of bituminous coal mined 153,436,509 tons in 1955, a gain from 1954 of almost 23 per cent. Leading producer was Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal, with 28,001,044 tons.

Operating in New York Harbor's coal trade are 200 barges and scows that carry 10,000,000 tons of bituminous coal a year, half of which is used by power companies and local industries.

Workshop-Type Course
For Teachers Planned
At Pikeville College

Pikeville, Ky., May 21 (Spl.) — A workshop-type course for supervisors of student teaching, directed by a University of Kentucky faculty member, will open Monday, May 28, at Pikeville College.

The course, open only to teachers who are college graduates, will begin with a week's intensive workshop at Pikeville from May 26 to June 2. Dr. A. A. Page, college president, announced today. It will be completed with five Saturday sessions at Pikeville in September and October, and will carry three semester hours of graduate credit in education at the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Heien Reed, coordinator of off-campus student teaching in the University of Kentucky, will teach the course, which was arranged by Dean Frank D. Dickey, of the College of Education of the University. Any teacher with credit in this course will be qualified to take into his classrooms college students who are ready to do practice teaching, and direct their required work.

"Both Superintendent C. H. Fralley of Pike County schools and Floyd county school superintendent V. O. Turner are very much interested in the projected workshop, and have indicated that they are urging their eligible teachers to attend," Dr. Page said.

"The workshop will of course assist the teacher-training work of Pikeville College. When the 30 to 50 teachers we are expecting to enroll for this course have qualified for the supervision of practice teaching, they will be able to care for Pikeville's student teachers on both elementary and high-school levels."

Eligible teachers wishing to enroll in the workshop may do so at Pikeville College Monday morning, Dr. Page said.

Mechanical cleaning of coal spread further throughout the bituminous industry in 1955 when 60 per cent of the year's output was cleaned before delivery. In 1954 coal cleaned was around 57 per cent, and in 1953 it was 53 per cent.

CIRCUIT COURT ACTION FINAL

Frankfort, May 21 (Spl.) — Action of a circuit court in sustaining or setting aside divisions established for school districts is final and not subject to further review, the Court of Appeals held in dismissing an appeal from the Owsley circuit court. In March 1955, the Owsley county board of education alerted the school divisions there. An appeal was taken to circuit court and the action of the school board was upheld. Taxpayers of the county who protested, attempted to bring the appeal to the Court of Appeals.

TVA USES MOST COAL

The Tennessee Valley Authority, the largest single customer of bituminous coal, is expected to use around 17,500,000 tons in 1956, at a rate of about 1,500,000 tons a month. In 1955, the rate approximated 1,250,000 tons, or 15,000,000 tons for the year.

Earle C. Clements
Represents TexasHis Vote To Give Texas Off-Shore Oil
Set Education Back Decades In Kentucky

As one of the 48 states Kentucky is entitled to have two United States Senators represent its citizens in the U. S. Senate in Washington. We have had only one United States Senator representing us during the last few years, and part of that time it was a Republican Senator. The other Senator, Earle C. Clements, although a citizen, resident and United States Senator from Kentucky, has been representing Texas and other Off-Shore Oil States to such an extent that most anyone would believe he is the Senator from Texas.

In a recent issue of The Floyd County Times, Mr. Clements had an article listing all of the great and wonderful things he claims he has done for Kentucky. Included in this list is the following: "Is vigorously supporting federal aid to education."

Is Mr. Clements doing this? Is he representing the citizens of our great State? Or is he working for the interests of the Millionaire Oil Men, and others in the same category? The answer is simple enough. He is, and has been representing those with the money and those in power in high places.

Many of you voters may have not heard of the Tideland Oil Bill which was enacted into law a few months after President Eisenhower took office as President. The Tideland Oil is located off the coast line of the United States, under the ocean, and it was hoped that the estimated income from these oil deposits, in the sum of 300 billion dollars, would be used as federal aid for education in ALL of our 48 states. This would have benefited all States and would have raised the standard of education in the United States to a level never before dreamed of.

Immediately after President Eisenhower was inaugurated the Republican members of the U. S. Senate and the House of Representatives began making plans to give this 300 billion dollars to their millionaire friends living in the Off-Shore Oil States. And LO AND BEHOLD, our United States Senator, Earle C. Clements, joined with them and voted for the bill which gave this 300 billion dollars in Off-Shore Oil to the money-mad millionaires of the Off-Shore States, one of which is Texas, the State which Earle C. Clements seems to have fallen in love with.

As a result of Earle C. Clements vote and influence, coupled with the votes and influence of the Republican members of Congress, this great give-away was perpetrated upon the people of the United States who were not fortunate to be living in one of the Off-Shore States.

The loss to Kentucky was so great that our present State Assembly had to raise our taxes recently so as to provide adequate money to finance the Minimum Foundation Program. All these new taxes were necessary because Clements voted for the interests of Texas and the Off-Shore Oil States in preference to voting for the interests of Kentucky School Children.

Now Clements has the gall to again to ask us to send him back to Washington. In view of his vote on the Tideland Oil Bill will you cast your vote to send him back to Washington? Surely we aren't the fools he thinks we are. Lets all vote together, against Earle C. Clements, and de-rail his train to Washington, and put him on a detour on a ONE WAY TRIP TO TEXAS, since he seems to prefer the interest of Texas to those of Kentucky.

Yes, he "is vigorously supporting federal aid to education" but his vote shows that he wants all such support concentrated in the Off-Shore Oil States, and that surely doesn't include Kentucky, and he knew it didn't when he voted for the Bill.

He is DEFINITELY NOT A FRIEND TO THE SCHOOL CHILDREN OF KENTUCKY. Let's try Joe Bates for a while and let Texas have Earle Clements. It's high time we had BOTH our U.S. Senators working for instead of against us.

Only The Year-Ahead CHRYSLER brings you the
FIRST FULL-SIZE 4-DOOR HARDTOP!

MORE HEAD ROOM, HIP ROOM, LEG ROOM THAN ANY OTHER 4-DOOR HARDTOP

Dotted line shows the short roof typical of other 4-door hardtops. This means cramped head and leg room. Solid outline shows Chrysler's longer roof.

Other 4-door hardtops have short rear windows indicated by broken line above. Chrysler's windows extend all the way to the back of the rear seat.

Chrysler's longer roof, greater room, and better visibility are the result of two-part roll-away window. Rear segment rolls forward. Forward segment down.

All the airy openness of a racy convertible . . . and the full size and comfort of a big sedan. That's the Chrysler 4-door hardtop.

You can get in and out as easily as in a sedan because the entrance area is full width. And you get full vision because the rear window comes all the way to the back of the rear seat.

Chrysler's ingenious new roll-away action rear window is the secret. It permits a full-size roof, and the rear seat is back where it belongs.

Best of all, this 4-door hardtop has all the Year-Ahead features that make the "PowerStyle" Chrysler the success car of 1956! See it now!
