GAS OVERCOMES LOCAL PHYSICIAN

Dr. O. T. Stephens, prominent Prestonsburg physician, was found early Sunday evening in his office here, unconscious and near death as a result of having inhaled gas which poured into the room from an unheated stove while he slept. Dr. Stephens had fallen asleep on a couch in his office and while asleep the gas had been cut off by the employees of the Federal Public Utilities Company, which supplies Prestonsburg with gas. The valve at the stove remained open and, some time later, the gas was re-connected. He was found by Mrs. Stephens, who summoned aid, and artificial respiration saved his life. He remained unconscious through the night and regained consciousness at 11 o'clock the following day. His condition now is reported as being improved.

If a Cat Has Nine Lives and Possession Is Nine Points in the Law—Well, Then, Just What Is The Status of This Case?

This one is the Cat! A yellow and white cat, replete Tom, was valued in court documents from a bullhead $5 to a beaver, 25 cents, furnishes the cause celebre, and two West Prestonsburg women are at sword's point in county court here over the possession of said cat. The case, styled "Beatrice Rogers, plaintiff, vs. Anna Hale, defendant," originated in Magistrate Jim Clark's court here January 19 when Mrs. Rogers testified that the defendant, Anna Hale, had wrongfully and illegally possession of the cat, which, she claims, rightfully belongs to her. In court of delivery was granted Mrs. Rogers and the cat was restored to her. Whereat, the defendant, Anna Hale, filed a writ of habeas corpus, claiming possession of the cat, and the case was set for trial here Tuesday afternoon, the county judge and county attorney's offices were jammed by a crowd curious to hear the ramifications of the case, which had been set for trial in county court that day. But they left disappointed. The plaintiff, defendant, Tom, seven witnesses and attorneys were notified to return for trial February 27. And will the folks then foregather?

5,000 AT FUNERAL OF STRIKE VICTIM

Hundreds of Floyd Mine Workers Attend Rites at Henry Clay

Approximately 5,000 miners, members of the United Mine Workers, gathered at Henry Clay, Pike county, Saturday for the funeral services of Perry Atkins, 45 years old, who was slain January 29 in a clash between striking miners and Pike county officers at Henry Clay. Atkins was attending the funeral were several hundred from Floyd county. Burial of Atkins had been delayed in order to enable miners from distant points to attend.

As the miners gathered during the day, trouble was predicted by many, but no demonstrations occurred. On the following day, however, 16 members of the Pikeville national guard unit were deputized to patrol the Pikeville coal company mine property at Henry Clay. A precaution against further disturbances. Twenty-one miners, face charges resulting from demonstrations and disorders caused by the strike last week.

CHEVROLET

FOR 1934

So radically different in the way it runs, rides and responds we say—

Drive it only 5 miles and you'll never be satisfied with any other low-priced car.

It's here now, for the first time: the car that all America has been standing by to see and drive—Chevrolet for 1934! And if you aren't among the first to attend the gala introductory showing, you're going to miss one of the biggest, most exciting events of the whole motor car year. There's never been a new Chevrolet model with so many basic and sweeping advances as this one. It's different—totally unlike anything you've seen or anything you will see in motor cars for 1934!
