LIBERTY GAINED IN JAILBREAK BY FIVE OF BRIEF DURATION

Prisoners Recaptured After Slugging Deputy Jailor in Dash Tuesday for Freedom

COLEMAN, LEADER

Four hours after they had made a daring daylight break for freedom from the county jail here, five prisoners were back Tuesday afternoon just where they started.

They escaped Tuesday morning, shortly after nine o'clock. They knocked a deputy jailer aside with a blow on his head with a milk bottle, dashed from the jail and took to the hills back of Prestonsburg before any organized attempt to halt them could be made.

The fugitives were seen on the ridge turning in the direction of Auxier. And they never scattered. So, when Deputy Sheriff Mitchell Thomas and Policeman Claude Flanery drove to a point near the home of H. Shepherd, on the Auxier road, they came upon all five. Their arrest was easy.

Those "enjoying" this brief respite from confinement

Buster Coleman, charged with storehousebreaking (and now with two jail breaks against him).

Harold Hall, 16, alleged to have stolen money from his mother at Garrett.

Henderson Salyers, Garrett, storehousebreaking.

Willie Clifton, stealing.

Sam Smith, robbery of a fellow prisoner in the Garrett jail.

Though two or three prisoners in the jail face murder.

PARDONED SLAYER IS JAILED HERE, CHARGED WITH HOUSEBREAKING

Bob George was jailed here Monday by G. L. Gray, C. and O. special agent, who had arrested him on a charge of housebreaking in connection with the alleged robbery several months ago of the railway depot at Weeksbury.

George claimed he and another man were drunk and that they broke a window to the depot but did not enter the building. Railway officials contend, however, that merchandise was taken from the depot.

George was pardoned, about a year ago by Gov. Ruby Laffoon from a life sentence imposed on him in Floyd circuit court for the murder of B. M. Prater on Little Paint Creek.

COLE WOUNDED IN FIGHT AT MELVIN

Altercation Over Possession of Auto Parts Results in Shooting

Willie Cole is in a serious condition as the result of a bullet wound in his abdomen which was sustained Sunday at Melvin when, it is alleged, Rod Baker fired on him following an argument over parts to an automobile.

Both Rod Baker and Jim Baker, his brother, are in jail here. They were arrested and brought here Monday by Deputy Sheriff Frank Hatfield. Jim Baker is alleged to have had in his possession a piece of a car belonging to Harry Thacker, of Melvin.

When this report was received, here Cole had not been taken to a hospital. He was involved in the slaying last year at Melvin of Willard Johnson.

BURNED BABE'S FEET, CHARGE

Jenkins Man Disciplined Child
by Baking Feet in Fire,
Claim

Jenkins, Ky., Dec. 9.—Accused of disciplining his 9-month-old son by poking his feet in the fire, Robert Mahan, 25, was held in jail here tonight. His wife was reported staying with her people, and the baby was receiving daily treatment at the Jenkins hospital.

Dr. J. E. Stanfield, assistant surgeon at the hospital, said he first treated the child yesterday. It was brought here by the mother, Mrs. Mahan, whom Dr. Stanfield said, was about 18, and came of a family of high standing in the hills. Dr. Stanfield said the baby, Thomas, had two teeth missing from its lower jaw, ulcers on its lower feet, back, head and left hand, and cuts at the corners of its mouth.

H. M. Dotson, deputy town marshal, said Mrs. Mahan swore to the warrant on which Mahan was arrested, and that she told him her husband had given the child all its hurts. The warrant charged cruel and inhuman treatment of an infant. Mahan, who is a coal loader, denied the charges, said. No bond had been set tonight for Mahan. Dotson said he expected preliminary hearing would be set in a day or so, probably before County Judge Sandy Adams at Whitesburg.

Dotson denied reports that mob violence was feared.

Dr. Stanfield said the blue-eyed, white-haired, fair-skinned baby probably would recover. He dressed its injuries again today.

SALISBURY AND WARIX WAIVE EXAMINATION BEFORE COMMISSIONER

Tobe Salisbury, of this county, and Dayton Warix, of Handshee, Knott county, waived preliminary hearing here recently before the United States Commissioner after they had been arrested on Alum Cave Creek, Magoffin county, as alleged moonshiners. Their cases are being considered this week by the federal grand jury in Catlettsburg.

Five stills were destroyed on Alum Cave during the raid, which was led by Dorcie Keeton, federal agent.

DECEMBER TERM OF U. S. COURT CONVENES

The December term of United States district court convened at Catlettsburg Monday morning for the hearing of 156 criminal cases and 72 civil causes. The criminal docket is one of the smallest in the history of the Catlettsburg court.

The federal grand jury was empaneled Monday. Included in the 65 men called for jury service were five Floyd county men: W. M. Terry, Orville Sturgill, Joe Reynolds, Dock Reynolds, Noah Martin.

OLLIE MARSHALL FATALLY INJURED

Well-Known Bull Creek Man
Dies Thursday of Auto
Wreck Hurts

Ollie Marshall, 35 years old, of Water Gap, was fatally injured Thursday morning, last week, when his auto left the road on the hill approaching Maytown and plunged approximately 75 feet over the declivity into Beaver Creek. He died as the result of a skull fracture less than an hour after being injured and while he was being taken to the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin.

Mr. Marshall had left the hospital at Martin, where he had submitted to an operation two weeks earlier, at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning, driving up Beaver. Because of the operation he was obliged to drive with one hand, and it is believed this handicap caused him to lose control of the car.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, of Bull Creek, the victim was well-known here and elsewhere in this section. He had for several years been an employee of the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company here, and held the highest esteem of all who knew him. Mr. Marshall was married about two years ago to Miss Amy Kelly, a daughter of Smith Kelly, well-known drilling contractor.

Besides his parents and his widow, Mr. Marshall is survived by two brothers, Marvin and Ralph Marshall, of Bull Creek, and by one sister, Mrs. Luther Osborne, of Van Lear. Funeral rites were conducted Saturday from the Baptist Church on Bull Creek, Revs. B. W. Craft, W. M. Dingus and Isaac Stratton officiating. Burial was made in the Willis cemetery under the direction of E. P. Arnold.

GUESTS AT FT. KNOX

Congressman and Mrs. A. J. May left Monday to attend the inauguration at Frankfort, Tuesday of Governor A. B. Chandler, after which they went to Ft. Knox as guests of Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Guy W. Chaipman. At Ft. Knox a review and demonstration of mechanized cavalry was given in honor of Mr. May, who is a member of the Military Affairs in Congress. They were accompanied by Mrs. Joe Spradlin.

MARTIN MAN, VICTIM AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Abe Goble, a man of about 40 years, died at Martin Wednesday, last week, after a long illness with tuberculosis. He is survived by his wife and several children. Mr. Goble had resided at Martin for several years and had many friends in that community. Funeral rites were conducted Saturday and burial was made at Martin under the direction of G. D.

BRANHAM'S PASSES NET TOUCHDOWNS

Estill "Eck" Branham, former Prestonsburg high school football star, figured prominently Saturday in the 13 to 6 victory of the Hilltoppers of Western State Normal over the Centre College Colonels. Eck was a Hilltopper quarterback in this game, and here's the record of his performances:

Branham passed to Garner on the Centre one-yard line, and from that point Prewitt hit the line for a touchdown. Branham, on an end-around play, gained 11 yards, then passed to Baker for Western's second marker.

Eck is a junior at Western, and his work this season gives him an inside track to the regular quarterback post next year.

PIKE ACCIDENT VICTIM EXPIRES

G. R. Blackburn, county attorney of Pike county, last week issued a warrant charging Ollie Burga with manslaughter in the death at Williamson, W. Va., Tuesday, of Tobe W. Blackburn, in an automobile collision.

Blackburn, a Pikeville Williamson mail carrier, was injured when his automobile and a truck driven by Burga were in a collision October 31. Burga has been at liberty under $2,500 bond since the accident.

Funeral services for Blackburn were held at Meta this afternoon.

Burga, a painting contractor, is a son of Tom Burga, of Lancer, this county.

Mrs. Tot Mann is spending several days in Lexington with friends.

CONTEST ACTIONS FILED IN SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION

Cooley and Branham Allege Opponents Benefited From Illegal Practices

HALL MENTIONED

Separate suits were filed last week in the office of Troy B. Sturgill, clerk of the Floyd circuit court, by W. W. Cooley and Jack Branham against Guy Childers and Harold Bailey as members of the Floyd county board of education.

Their petitions allege that—
The defendants, Childers and Branham, violated the Corrupt Practices Act.

That Town Hall was campaign manager for both candidates and was, in effect, a candidate for Superintendent of Floyd County Schools.

That in 44 of the county's 47 precincts, approximately 2,500 votes were bribed for the defendants, and that about 400 votes cast for the defendants in these precincts were those of non-residents.

That in Tickety, Clear Creek, John Ant precincts gross fraud, intimidation and bribery were practiced.

That in Lee Alley precinct, which gave 175 votes for Childers, 173 for Bailey and only one for Cooley and Branham, "great bundles of ballots were deposited in the ballot box," and that 25 or more votes were cast in that precinct for the plaintiffs.

Because of alleged irregularities, the plaintiffs ask that 42 votes be deducted from the defendants' vote in Middle Creek precinct; 189 for Childers and 175 for Bailey be deducted in Mouth.

Woman, Victim of Son's Bullet, Native of Floyd

Mrs. Lorena May Spears, 35 years old, who was accidentally shot and killed Wednesday, last week, by her five-year-old son, Ralph, at the Spears home five miles west of Greenup, Ky., was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burke, and was born and reared at East Point. Her husband, Arnold Spears, is also a native of Floyd, it is said.

The bullet, a .22-calibre rifle penetrated Mrs. Spears' temple and she died en route to an Ashland hospital.

Following the shooting which was described as accidental, the little boy, badly frightened, fled from the home. An all-night search failed to locate the youth who was found on the following day after he is said to have spent the night in a rock cliff.

Mrs. Spears was preparing the evening meal when she was shot. Two older boys had returned from a hunting trip near the Spears home, and placed the .22-calibre rifle in a corner of the kitchen.

Busy at her duties, Mrs. Spears apparently failed to notice the boy playing with the gun. A short time after the older boys of the family returned, they heard a sharp report and rushed to the kitchen where they found their mother lying on the floor, bleeding from a bullet wound in her right temple.

The excitement of the children apparently frightened the little boy and unnoticed he fled from the home into the woods.

In addition to her grief-stricken husband, she is survived by the following children: Carmel, student at Pikeville College; Lars, Quentin, Kermit, Rose, Ralph, Bonita and Thorfin, all at home; her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Stella Wells, Argillite, Ky. Mrs. Oja Hall, Auxier, Ky.; Roy, of Catlettsburg; Bertie, of Williamson; Frank, of Auxier; William, of Argillite; Sherman and Mrs. Helen Price, of Williamson, W. Va.

Story of County's First Sleeping Sickness Victim

Floyd county's first recorded case of sleeping sickness dates back to the winter of 1888-89, writes Mrs. J. C. Auxier, of Prestonsburg, who tells the following interesting story:

During the winter of 1888 and 1889 this country had an epidemic of la grippe. My aunt, Miss Susan Friend, a maiden lady aged about 58 years, contracted the disease. She had never been strong but was seldom past going around. She went to bed with la grippe but I do not think she took medicine of any kind. She wanted to sleep late in the mornings and get up and eat something and go back to bed. She slept later and later and finally could not be awakened.

Her family sent for a doctor and he tried to awaken her, but all in vain. Many doctors were called but no one was able to suggest a way to awaken her. She slept three years, six months and 20 days. She awoke and raved for water. Her mind was as good as ever and she talked of many things that had happened before she went to sleep but did not seem to remember anything about her long sleep. She was perfectly quiet and when placed in a certain position would be in the same position next day.

She was a good woman and had many friends who were always glad to do what they could to help in any way. There are many people living who can bear witness to what I write. Mrs. John Weddington, a niece who cared for her; Mrs. Jude Friend, another niece, who assisted in caring for her, also Mrs. Lizzie Goble, Mrs. Osa Ligon, Mrs. Alex Spradlin, Mr. and Mrs. Jo M. Davidson, B. P. Friend, Mrs. Mollie Herford, Mrs. Maggie Leete, Mrs. W. M. Dingus, Mr. Jim Jones, Mrs. Jeff Moles, Mrs. Auxier, Ky., Mrs. Daisy Harris, Mrs. Lou Buchett.

The winter of 1888-89 was the date of this section's first influenza epidemic, medical records show. At the time "flu" was an unknown term here.

DEAR EDITOR:

Congratulations on the information contained in your last issue, relative to the city school situation, and the cause of differences between city and county boards.

Under the existing conditions, you can perform no service which will be of more benefit to the community and its children.

While on the subject, is it just and fair to ask if records of our city board will show that the expense incurred by employing an attendance officer is justifiable?

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.

LACKEY

The Woman's Club of Lackey, and Garrett met here Friday, November 29, at the home of Mrs. T. J. Chandler, where one of the most interesting and helpful meetings the club has known since its beginning was held. Since Thursday was Thanksgiving Day and the week in which it came was Mark Twain Week, much of the meeting was devoted to a review of the great humorist's life and achievements.

The main purpose of the meeting, however, was to introduce to the club Miss Norcia Bailey, L. R., A. M., daughter of England and New York, who entertained the club in her own inimitable manner. This entertainment consisted of three impersonations by Miss Bailey—of a Frenchman, German and Englishman—and a delightful musical program, which drew much praise from the club members. Several of Miss Bailey's own compositions were also given.

A delicious salad course was served to the following persons: Mesdames Earl Caele, C. H. Hornsby, C. E. Cecil, W. T. Hatcher, C. J. Sercian, M. M. Collins, Morris Wicker, Dillard Reed and T. F. Hatcher.

The best "run" in many months is now in order at the Wells-Elkhorn Coal Company's two mines here, and the belief that this steady operation will continue through the winter and possibly the spring.

Magistrate Jim Cheek at Catlettsburg Tuesday.

LIBERTY GAINED IN JAILBREAK OF BRIEF DURATION

charges; none of the others made an attempt to escape, it was said.

Coleman and Salyers are believed to have engineered the break. While one prisoner was standing at the door opening upon the first floor of the jail proper, reaching his hand out the door to deliver a note to Bob King, deputy jailer, and a brother-in-law of Jailer B. L. Sturgill, another prisoner struck King with the milk bottle. Before King could regain his balance, the five had dashed into the living quarters of the jailer and into the kitchen. As Harold Hall ran toward the front of the building he struck Miss Allie Hamilton with his fist, Miss Hamilton said. The other prisoners fled thru the kitchen and out the back door but quickly reentered Hall in the dash across the street and to the hillside.

Joe Reynolds, a trusty at the jail, said he caught Coleman by his clothes as the latter dashed into the jailyard but was unable to hold him.

Tuesday was Coleman's second break from jail here. Three months ago, he and Curtis Bradley made a getaway, but Coleman was captured at Newport, Ky., late last month and was returned here by Sheriff M. T. Stumbo.

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the safest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

KILLS DEER

E. J. Singer returned Monday from a hunting trip in Pennsylvania, and he brought with him as a trophy of the hunt a deer which he killed. Mr. Singer found game in abundance, and his account of how the game laws of Pennsylvania are enforced points out the necessity this section has for such protection of wild life.

GOOD FISHIN'

A letter received by The Times from W. J. Newman, Fruitland Park, Fla., formerly of Fed, this county, says he recently hooked a large mouth black bass which weighed 12 pounds, four ounces. Proof that this is no mere fish story may be found,
Mr. Newman writes, in a forthcoming issue of Field and Stream, in which will be found a picture of the "whopper."
Mr. Newman for several years was engaged in the gas business, in this section. He was successful enough to be able now to indulge in his favorite sport of hunting and fishing.
