Avenger Kills Slayer Of Brother On City Streets Here Friday

HOWARD RIDDLED WITH SIX BULLETS AT CLOSE RANGE

Shooting Scene On Court Street, Front of Clark's Drug Store

GIVEN PRISON SENTENCE, HOWARD OUT ON BAIL

Herbert Spradlin, 23, Brother Of Man Howard Had Slain, Surrenders

A puddle of blood on Prestonsburg streets Friday morning marked the spot where Green Howard, 50, convicted of the slaying of Earl Spradlin, fell beneath a hail of bullets allegedly fired by Herbert Spradlin, 23, brother of Earl.

Shot six times in the chest and right arm Howard died within a minute after he fell to the pavement without speaking, witnesses reported. It was said that Howard and the youthful Spradlin met in front of Clark's Rexall Store and that they had not spoken more than a word or two before Spradlin drew a .38-caliber revolver from beneath his overalls, stepped from Howard about five feet and began firing.

S. C. Ferguson, eyewitness, said that Howard screamed twice as bullets whizzed about his head.

This Town-- That World

(By JAMES B. GOBLE)

PUL-LEASE

Will somebody please tell us if Fighting Fox and Bul Lea have yet completed the Kentucky Derby "route"?

A SAILOR WITHOUT A SHIP

Some time ago the W. P. A. recreation department hired a tennis instructor for Prestonsburg, whose duties also included other sports. It seems the height of something or other that the city has no public tennis court on which a person might play, or on which the tennis instructor might strut his stuff. With so many men desiring W. P. A. employment, why can't the relief office set up a two or three-day project for the construction of four or five courts. It has been reported that land has already been purchased for such a project near Frank Layne's Club Rustique. If such an idea is carried out, drop around at THE TIMES office and we will gladly part with our donation for equipment.

DID EVERYTHING BUT "BEK"

When a large and ferocious bull-frog from the wilds of Abbott Creek broke loose from his keeper, Friday night, and attacked Sam Isbell while the latter was occupying the rear seat of an automobile with the frog and two other varmints, the county agent, who has no qualms when it comes to bulldozing a powerful bull, let out a screech that made the others think a mouse and a woman had boarded the car.

MEOW!

State newspapers last week announced that the University of Kentucky athletic representatives touring the state to organize U. of K. Booster Clubs will stop in Paintsville and Pikeville. Will somebody please donate us a red lantern? This town should at least be a flag station, or has the University yet learned of the unusually immense number of Floyd students attending that institution?

AGED WOMAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Allen Stone, 84, Dies Dies Of Dropsy At Blue River Home

Mrs. Allen Stone, 84 years old, respected citizen of Blue River, succumbed to heart dropsy and attendant infirmities of old age at her home Sunday. She was the wife of Allen Stone, one of Floyd county's oldest citizens.

Funeral services for the deceased woman, a devout member of the Baptist Church, were held from the home Tuesday night by the Rev. James Owens officiating. Burial was made nearby under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

In addition to her husband, Allen Stone, she is survived by two sons and two daughters: Harrison Stone and Charles Stone, both of Blue River; Mrs. Daisy Howard, West Prestonsburg, and Cynthia Renee. One brother and one sister, the Bradleys, Stone, Coal, and Amanda Stone, Blue River, also survive.

Floyd County Schools Send Representatives To Music Festival

Taking a prominent part in the Eastern Kentucky Music Festival, held Saturday at Pikeville under the auspices of Pikeville College, were students from Prestonsburg, Martin and Betsy Layne high schools.

The Prestonsburg group, accompanied by Mrs. Chalmers Frazier, music instructor, Ishmael H. Triplett, superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, Misses Virginia Murrill and Pauline Hereford, was highly commended by Miss Alice Lomborg, head of the Pikeville College music department for impressive renditions of the various numbers and was invited to return for a chapel program later.

Those from Prestonsburg who sang in the chorus composed of selected singers from the several schools of Floyd, Pike and Letcher counties are: Myra Hill, Mildred Tackett, Mary Alice Bayless, Billie Hagans, Jane Hamilton Clarke, Lenna Garrett Hunt, Jack Blackburn, Billy Callahan, Junior Mayo, Dickie Dickerson.

Other members of the glee club program: Madeline Boyd, Alice Gray Burke, Ann Allen, Vivian Caudill, Alta Hopson, Betty Jean May, Patty Rimmer, Gwendolyn Sturgill, Lucille Goble, Sue Martha Randall, Garrett Fay Banks, Juanita Patrick.

Following the local glee club's rendition, Alice Gray Burke sang a solo, and Vivian Caudill, Ann Allen and Alice Gray Burke formed the school's vocal trio.

"Breaks," Economic Hope Of Future--Dr. Thompson

Sketching the depletion of natural resources in Eastern Kentucky from the time of its first settlement until the present, Dr. O. W. Thompson, Pikeville, member of the State Game and Fish Commission, told a group of citizens at the courthouse here Monday night that this depletion would be corrected, bringing economic security, once the Jefferson National Forest area in the Breaks had been completely taken over by the national government.

He stressed the importance to neighboring counties after the Jefferson National Forest in Pike county was stocked with game and had become a mecca for tourists and sportsmen, saying that Floyd and surrounding counties would reap a golden harvest as tourists passed through, and that game would be loosed in the neighboring counties wherever protection would be promised for it.

Dr. Thompson said that Eastern Kentucky was now near the low average annual income of families living in the Tennessee valley where the T. V. A. is now located, and that if deforestation, soil erosion and floods were allowed to continue, a bare existence could be all the farmer of this section might expect in the future.

In his sketch of the depletion of

HIT-RUN AUTOIST KILLS 1, HURTS 3

Myrtle Edna Layne, 22, Killed Near Tram As She Returns From Church

Struck by a hit-and-run driver while returning from church at 11:30 p. m. Saturday night, one girl is dead and three of her companions are injured. The autoist was unidentified.

The dead: Myrtle Edna Layne, 22 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Layne, of near level.

The injured: Darin Layne, broken leg, neck and head injuries, taken to the Golden Rule hospital, Paintsville.

Mr. Mrs. John Campbell Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary at Mousie, Ky.

Celebrating their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, of Mousie, served a delicious dinner Sunday, May 1, for their many friends and relatives.

The parents of nine sons and daughters, they are also the grandparents of 45, and the great-grandparents of two. Mrs. Campbell is 71 years of age. Mrs. Campbell is 66. Both are in good health.

Their sons and daughters, among those present at the dinner, were: Mr. C. Campbell, Sam Campbell, Mrs. Pearl Sturgill, all of Mousie; J. E. Campbell, Mrs. Hubert Owsley, Mrs. O. K. Wallace, Mrs. Reese Conley, all of Garrett; and Mrs. Grover Lowe, of Prestonsburg.

SPORT LOVERS TO MEET AT PIKE RESERVATION

Sport lovers of all Eastern Kentucky will converge at the thirteen-acre fish-rearing reservations of the Pike County association and visitors will be given the opportunity to view ponds which have been stocked with bass fry to replenish the streams in this section of the state. Thousands of fish are now being grown in ponds while thousands of others have been developed to legal size and released in Eastern Kentucky waters.

Mrs. Clarence Williams, left last week, to spend a vacation with friends in Chicago.

INJURED 9 YEARS AGO. AUTO VICTIM PASSES

Suffering nine years from an automobile accident, Ray Wolf, 35 years old, of Wayland, succumbed at his home here last Wednesday.

The body was taken to Ashland by the Arnold Funeral Home where a brief ceremony was held before burial at Rush, Ky., his homeplace.

He is survived by his father, George Wolf, mine foreman at Wayland, who was former mine superintendent at Stephens Branch, and a brother, Frank, of Wayland. Names of other relatives are unavailable.

Consolidated Teachers Named For County By Floyd Education Board

FLOYD COUNTIAN ROBBED OF $195 IN LOUISVILLE HOTEL WHILE ATTENDING DERBY

A prominent Floyd countian, G. D. Ryan, Martin, and a famous star of Hollywood, Joan Bennett, this week had something in common--both were the victims of thieves while in Louisville last week for the Kentucky Derby.

According to the Louisville TIMES, Ryan was robbed of $195 in currency, stolen from the Watterson hotel. It has not yet been recovered.

Besides Miss Bennett, who reported jewelry valued at $27,500 stolen from the Kentucky hotel, six other victims of theft on Derby day were reported by the Louisville newspaper.

TRUCE EFFECTED IN SCHOOL STRIKE

Auxiliary Students Walk Out When Board Fails to Re-hire Stewart

Temporary settlement of Auxiliary school strike was effected by Attendance Officer Leonard Martin Wednesday morning when approximately 100 Auxiliary junior and senior high school pupils, many of them wearing placards, "We Want Stewart," called at his office, saying that they would not return to school unless the County Board of Education rehired John Stewart as teacher.

Lottie Harmon, senior, speaker for the students, said that the settlement was only an "armistice" but that the students would return to school and a committee of students and Auxiliary citizens would be named to attempt to smooth out the difficulty with school officials here. Harmon and other students said that Stewart played no part in causing the strike, but had asked them to return to school.

MOVIES SHOWN

Coopering with the local health department, L. E. Smith, secretary of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association, exhibited two movies to pupils at the grade and high schools here last Thursday.

RECOVERS FROM WOUND

Melvin Pitts is recovering at the Gearheart hospital, Martin, of a bullet wound, said to have been inflicted at his home on Middle Creek. The bullet was reported to have entered the side of his face.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Alex Francis, 49, Letcher, and George Banks, 22, Douglas county, were married by the Rev. L. A. Sullivan, Rev. Randolph, 20, and Audrey Hobbs, 22, both of Salyersville, ceremony performed by Police Judge Alex Starnhill, Clyde Allen, 20, Goffa, Ky., and Alex George, 14, Prestonsburg, ceremony here by the Rev. Henry Musie, Grayson Stanley and Hilco Ratliff, George Cole and Lula Smith.

THE TIMES REGRETS

The Times learned this week of its error, made in a news story of the trial of Green Howard in Circuit Court here recently, in the statement that Howard was released after his conviction pending a hearing on his motion for a new trial.

Circuit Judge John W. Caudill said that he overruled this motion and sentenced Howard to five years in prison, following which, Howard executed a bond pending an appeal, which superseded Judge Caudill's first ruling.

SUFFERERS BROKEN FOOT

Treated for a broken foot, Jean Thomas, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniels, of Boldman, is recovering at the Gearheart hospital, Martin.

BOARD APPROVES HALL'S PLAN FOR MARTIN SCHOOL

Prestonsburg High Teachers Named By County, Not O.K.'d By City Board

RURAL TEACHERS WIN CONSOLIDATED JOBS

Thirteen More Rural Teachers Named In Addition To Those Of Last Week

Teachers for consolidated schools, additional rural teachers, special instructors and supervisors, were named Saturday by the Floyd County Board of Education, which, in the same meeting, upheld Superintendent Town Hall's views for the location of the proposed high school near Martin and authorized him to accept bids for its construction, an advertisement for which appears in other columns of THE TIMES.

The board also approved budgets for the next year under which business of all the schools will be conducted and approved the payment of sixth and seventh month's salaries to consolidated school teachers to conform with one lump check.

INSTRUCTORS NAMED:

FAMOUS NAMES ON OKLAHOMA BALLOT

Oklahoma City, May 11—Ma West—no cinema blonde but a brunette mother of eight children—fled yesterday for commissioner of charities and corrections in a primary riot resulting with famous names.
The candidate will have her name on the Democratic primary ballot along with those of Will Rogers, J. Edgar Hoover, E. B. Brown, Robert Burns, Brigham Young, J. P. Morgan, Daniel Boone, all living Oklahomans seeking other state offices.
"I hope," said Mrs. West, slender and hesperated, as she filed for office, "that all the voters will come up and see me some time."

"I note that according to your news story in this week's issue of THE TIMES, Mrs. A. L. Hill has had accepted for publication a poem in two of the ANTHOLOGICAL publications of the nation. Kindly remember, in your next story dealing with this subject, that anthology is a collection of anagrams or short writings (taken

LEXINGTON TOUR INCLUDES P'BURG

Good Will Tour Expected To Feature Parade By Visitors

One hundred business men of Lexington, accompanied by 30 men of the Man O' War Post, American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, will visit Prestonsburg about May 26, it has been learned here.

The special train carrying the Lexingtonians on their good will tour, sponsored by the Lexington Board of Commerce, will come here from Ashland, Catlettsburg and Louisa. Winston L. Clark, of Lexington's radio station, WLAP, is chairman of the visiting delegation.

The visitors will stage a parade here and a few brief speeches at its conclusion. It is expected that they will be welcomed by local representatives.

After leaving here the good will tourists will proceed to Pikeville, Middlesboro and Pineville, concluding the tour there at the Mountain Laurel festival.

RESOLUTIONS

Hall of Adah Chapter
Prestonsburg, Ky.
May 9, 1938

Whereas: Our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, decreed on March 30, 1938, to call from our chapter here on earth to that chapter beyond the skies, our dearly beloved sister and past matron, Anna Jones Stumbo;

Be it resolved: That in her departure to that "mysterious realm," Adah Chapter has lost, not only a beloved sister, but a bright link from that golden chain of fraternal love which binds us so closely together.

For some time before her death, Sister Stumbo was not physically able to be present to gather with us around the altar which she loved, yet many pages of our chapter's records bear eloquent testimony of her love and loyalty to our order.

"They never leave us, these friends who have passed

Through the shadow of death to the sunlight above.
A thousand memories holding them fast

To the place they blessed with their presence and love.

Resolved: That we extend to her family and loved ones, our sympathy and commend them in their sorrow to Him who doeth all things well.

Be it further resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this chapter, a copy sent to the bereaved family, and a copy be sent to The Floyd County Times for publication.

Mother Finds Lost Tot

Bill Miller, member of the Ashland police force, was standing on the corner of Sixteenth street and Winchester avenue when he felt a tug at his trouser leg. Looking down, he was confronted by a small lad who said, "I want my muvver."

By questioning the tot, Miller learned that he was lost. The officer looked around for about an hour but no mother was to be found. The lad said his name was Albert but Miller was unable to understand the last name.

He hurried the tot to local police headquarters and his description was broadcast over police station WSAZ. Soon the frantic mother arrived, stated that she took the boy to the theater and while she was interested in the picture, he wandered out. Both mother and son who, police discovered was Albert Kirk, went cheerfully on their way—Ashland Daily.

from the Greek, "collection of flowers" and that mythology is writings of which the source is forgotten, or cannot be proven.

"A FRIEND."
And boy, is our face red? We not only got told, but we certainly deserved it! These "just ain't" no excuses for a bonehead error like that and Mrs. Hill gets our fullest apologies. And as for the dear friend, who is only one of those who have corrected us, will you "kindly remember" that ANTHOLOGICAL is spelled ANTHO-LOGICAL in the best of families?

HOW DO WE KNOW?

The letter mentioned in the previous item now is pasted to the wall in our back end alongside of other such items, including rejection slips from magazines, feature services and letters from city slicker newspaper editors telling us that our application for a job "has been filed." We're real proud of the rejection slip from the S. E. P. It's printed in red and black ink with a miniature embossed portrait of Benjamin Franklin. The whole point of our wall-side collection lies in the caption we've clipped from a magazine and pasted at the top, "HOW DO YOU KNOW YOU CAN'T WRITE?"

NOMINATION

Personal nomination for the cleverest newspaper name in America: TIME AND TIED, Virginia prison publication.

KIBITZER

Our favorite kibitzer dropped in last week to ask us, "What is a metaphor?" While I was still scratching my head, Norman spoke up to tell him that anybody ought to know what a meadow was for.

PAGING WINCHELL

If Winchell hasn't already used it, we're thinking about sending him the following typographical error, our linotyper made last week while setting a personal: "Mrs. _____ is a convalescent at the _____ hospital."

NEVER BEFORE

Never before, we believe, has there been such widespread public opinion throughout the county that Floyd Injurers, where the evidence so justifies, should mete the death penalty to wanton murderers. Floyd continues for years have seen the result of light penalties meted by lenient juries in more and more murders.

REVERSE 'EM

Wouldn't it be fine if all printers would agree to give public utilities a dose of their own medicine by putting on their bills for printing: "This bill must be paid within the next 10 days or a penalty will be assessed?"

Each week, until September 1, ROYAL CROWN Cola is giving $2,000 in cash prizes. A first weekly prize of $1,000—10 second prizes of $50 each and 50 third prizes of $10 each—61 weekly cash prizes. A new contest opens and closes each week and you can send in as many entries as you wish. To enter the contest simply add twenty-five words or less to this sentence: "I like ROYAL CROWN Cola best because..." Enclose your statement in an envelope with a metal crown from a ROYAL CROWN Cola bottle—or a facsimile—and mail it to new contest, ROYAL CROWN Cola, Columbus, Georgia. A simple statement like "I like ROYAL CROWN Cola $1,000" is like ROYAL CROWN Cola best because—the two full glasses in each 36 bottle mean added refreshment and added economy. All entries become eligible for the contest and in case of ties, duplicate awards will be made. Write your statement clearly on a plain sheet of paper and mail it now. If you don't win the first time, try again.

Hello Mother

Just a pleasant greeting, and I'm so glad to hear from you after the warm tones of your voice.

In these days of loneliness, when you are far from home, it is comforting to the four winds of emotion, at such a time, and in such a way, to receive a message when you are longed for by those who love you.

Keep those ties of friendship alive with the love and strong. On holidays, birth days or any day when you wish to express your greetings to those who are far from home.

Anytime in the day or night, you can call on the long distance operator and have her deliver your message. Ask her for information about the call you want to make.

THE TIMES ENDORSES

1. Floyd county for Floyd county.
2. Immediate completion of the Left River and John Creek roads.
3. Completion of all Farm-to-Market roads, by W. P. A. label, if possible, maintenance of these routes by the state rural road fund.
4. A trade-at-home policy followed by merchants and customers alike.
5. Full cooperation with all county and city officials, insisting that lawmakers and enforcement officers themselves obey the law to the letter.
6. Continuance of the Floyd county health department and county agricultural agent work.

MOTHER'S DAY—POSTPONED

Sunday was Mother's Day.

But, a few hours before the hallowed day began, a Floyd county mother—who with all other mothers should have been paid a tribute of love by her children—was robbed of a young daughter.

The girl was killed while she, her parents, kinfolk and friends were returning from church. Death was far from her thoughts as they walked along a highway. Tomorrow she would wear a red rose for the mother who lived and who had devoted almost a quarter of a century of life to her.

But out of the night a man-made monster, man-driven, bore down upon her. She who would have paid dutiful homage on the morning to her mother—she who lived and who had devoted almost a quarter of a century of life to her.

The auto roared on—and so a cowardly assassin walks among decent folks today, unknown, unbranded.

Will he be captured?
 And, if he be apprehended, will he receive the full punishment that is his due?

His like have not suffered commensurately with their crimes in the past.

His kind should suffer as murderers, full-blown. If a fiend were to sweep down upon a peaceful group, shove a shotgun toward them, murderously blast away the life of a girl and seriously wound three others, then sink away into the darkness—if this were the case, all of us would be up in arms, and this is as it should be, as long as we are to preserve the sometimes doubtful status of being human and humane, protecting the helpless and hating those who viciously violate them.

We should all likewise be up in arms because

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

FOLK TYPES—MAMMY

Mammy as an institution is rapidly passing, especially in the border states, though she is still fairly well known in the Far South. Probably few of this generation know her as she used to be. The modern colored man, sometimes takes her place in some ways, but she is not Mammy. Mammy felt herself a part of the family, after the Civil War as well as before. Her young charges were reared on the traditions of the Big House and also according to Mammy's own rigid ideas of what is right and wrong. She never thought that white and black children should be reared alike; black was black and white was white to Mammy. The only compromise between the two was "pure white trash." Somehow Mammy seems to have always been plumed with beaming face and white teeth. Her voice was one of her most valuable characteristics; she could be heard, and she knew it. Her frankness and freedom of speech resembled those of an ancient courtesan. Many a time her remarks must have cut pretty deeply, but it would have violated a tradition to condemn her for frankness. She knew quality when she saw it, and tried to force an appreciation of quality on her charges. Mammy herself was known among her own people for the quality of the people she served rather than for any personal goodness. No real Mammy ever forgot the famous people she raised and "nursed." Regardless of the actual value of her white folks, she could prove to all comers that her people were the best. Otherwise she would not have been their servant. No, huh!

Just how much authority Mammy had I do not know; it was probably considerably less than she pretended it was. Her big voice and her husky frame enforced more authority than she had. She was a creature of dignity, especially in the presence of

of this latest outrage. An engine of death is no less lethal when mounted on wheels and engine than when it is operator no less murderous because he spins a wheel instead of the cylinder of a revolver. Murder is and it cannot be excused.

Cowardly murder such as that committed by the autolator who recklessly hit and deliberately was wanton, heartless, wholesale. It kills the innocent, picks out of its victims, the defenseless, those who walk humbly, unarmed.

Sunday—Mother's Day—was a beautiful, a happy day for many mothers. But not to this Floyd county mother. For her Mother's Day will be observed, and we shall join her in its sacred observance, only when we bring to justice the slayer of her daughter.

WHY BOTHER

The TIMES sees little further need to publicize the move to establish a state game farm in the "Breaks" area, despite the fact that the program embraces soil conservation, re-stocking of this entire section to fish and game and a new economic future for Eastern Kentucky.

This newspaper holds that publicity will do the move no good in this county, simply because any county that can afford no more than this persons for a mass meeting discussion of the program is not interested enough to read about it.

Dr. O. W. Thompson outlined the program here Monday night for the second time, before a group of 30 persons, many of them children. At his previous appearance here, the same number was present.

Only 30 persons present each time to hear of the most important program ever outlined for the benefit of Pike and Floyd counties. Economic security, for the farmer, business man, gasoline operator, everybody—yet only 30 persons were present. Shame!

ANYONE BELIEVE MINTON?

Senator Minton of Indiana believed, apparently, that he would be applauded for introducing a bill in Congress making it a felony for a newspaper publisher to print anything untrue.

He now says his object in introducing the bill has been accomplished.

The TIMES does not believe the Senator is telling the truth in that statement.

It is the honest, earnest, opinion of this newspaper that Mr. Minton has done exactly what he proposed in his foolish bill should be a felony if a newspaper should do it; that his sin is that which he proposed should send a newspaper publisher to the penitentiary.

Of course The Times does not think Mr. Minton should be sent to the penitentiary.

It is rather unfortunate, of course, if a man's lack of gumption got him into such a hole that he could not find it wise to tell a falsehood in the hope that the public would not continue to think he hadn't enough gumption to know better than to believe his bill would be taken seriously.

That would be something to worry about, but it wouldn't serve any good purpose to put him in the penitentiary—Louisville Times.

have known by contrast what a void there is in the beautification of urban areas without trees.

Many American cities and towns, now harsh with architectural bluntness and sunken heat, wish that their original plans had included plenty of shade and the beauty of tree foliage, diffusing the song of bird. Without this touch of nature, they lack a splendid future.

Even as these words are written, we give our ear to a scattered chorus of chanting and melody, from the leafy recesses of a dozen tree-tops—trees of Princeton.

May be there is something of health also, in our wealth of sky-line verdure. In the visual effect of green in summer is said to be soothing to the nerves, and thereby to lessen in some degree the rigors of hot weather.

Fortunate is the city that nestles in a forest, combining wholesome nature with the practical business of modern life. Fortunate is Princeton.—Caldwell County Times.

LOOKING ON THE BRIGHT SIDE

There is a dark cloud hanging over us which may wind up with another World War. Even some of the married men here are talking of joining the army and training so they will be ready should there come another war and the women are uneasy and getting restless, and claim the married men could do more training and get better practice for a pitched battle around home any morning before breakfast. But it is always a mystery to us why women make such a fuss about their husbands going to war. At home most of them are like a bump on a log, neither useful nor ornamental (we are judging them by ourselves), and if they go to war and are pushed up to the front and get perforated with a steel or copper bullet, the widow is sure of a pension. Why can't people look on the bright side of things?—(North East Correspondent, Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

SOUVENIR OF CONFLICT

Of J. S. Campbell, prominent farmer of Route 1, Calvert City, brought to the Courier-Office Wednesday what is thought to be the only grape shot in Marshall county and presented it to the Courier office.

The grape shot was used during the War Between the States, and is thought that perhaps this one was fired from some gunboat on the Tennessee river. It was found about 20 years ago by Mr. Campbell, and he has kept it all these years as a souvenir.

Mr. Campbell lives about one and one-half miles from the river—and as there is no record of any skirmish or battle near this place—this fact adds to the probability that it was fired from a boat. The large ball is made of iron, in an almost round ball, and is about three inches in diameter. Mr. Campbell said he had lived on the farm for about 30 years, but had not found any similar objects on or near his farm.

The grape shot is now on display in the windows of the Courier office—Marshall Courier.

MARRIED SIXTY-FOUR YEARS

In commenting on the 61st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harper recently, we said that we doubted if there was a couple in this section who had been married longer, but it seems that we made a bad guess. Our attention has been called by Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Glass, who were married March 4, 1874, which makes them married 64 years. Mr. Glass was 87 years old on March 9, and Mrs. Glass will be 84 on April 6.—Glasgow Republican.

JOE'S HOOKS

Joe Harper went to one of Falmouth's business houses Friday to purchase some fishing hooks. The proprietor told him he had to keep a certain kind of hook in the safe to keep from getting fish on them. So Joe bought a supply and went fishing Saturday and landed several big ones. If you have fishing in mind, ask Joe who the merchant is who has the hooks.—Havilandville Correspondent, Falmouth Outlook.

EDITOR

A GENIUS

The genius of a certain Arkansas editor showed itself recently when he printed the following news item in the columns of his paper:

"Miss Beulah Blank, a Batesville belle of twenty summers, is visiting her twin brother, aged 32, O. Cook, in Tri-City News, Cumberland."

NEWS OF BIG SANDY

"TUFFY" WINS

Paintsville—"Tuffy" Griffith, Paintsville motorcycle rider, who participated in the rodeo at Huntington Sunday, won first place in a contest of parking events he entered, namely, spinning contest, masquerade race, trick and stunt riding and the broad jump.

CYRUS KILLED

Louisia—R. C. "Dick" Cyrus, 51, of near Louisia, WPA superintendent on the Cat-Webbville road project, was fatally shot about 8:30 p.m. last Friday afternoon, and Henderson Thompson, 36, at whose home, near Brammer Gap, Cyrus boarded, is in custody charged with the slaying.

The slaying, it is said, took place at Thompson's home about a mile this side of Brammer Gap. Cyrus, mortally wounded, was found lying in the road about a quarter of a mile this side of the Thompson home and expired in a few minutes.

MALE IS OFFENSIVE

Paintsville—The 1938 football schedule for the Paintsville high school Tigers has been announced by C. E. Shanklin, coach. The schedule contains nine games and two open dates to be filled. The opening game is against Male, of Louisville.

"THOSE WOMEN"

Louisia—Ordinances prohibiting dogs running loose in the city, prohibiting parking of trucks on Main Cross street and prohibiting the display of liquor in show windows were enacted by the city council of Louisia at its monthly meeting Tuesday night.

NO GAME

Paintsville's regular baseball team was scheduled to open the season last Sunday against Wheelwright, but due to a mix-up Wheelwright was ready at Wheelwright and Paintsville was ready at Paintsville. The mistake was discovered too late for either team to make the trip.

ATTORNEY DROPS DEAD

Louisia—Hon. R. C. McClure, 81, widely known Louisia attorney and member of a pioneer family, died suddenly of a heart attack Tuesday morning at 10:30 while delivering an address to a jury in Lawrence court here.

Death came as he had expressed a desire that it should—"while in the harness." He had spoken about five minutes, ending a sentence forcefully, then hesitated before commencing again and slumped into the floor inside the bar. He died within three or four minutes, before a physician could reach him.

MINE REOPENS

Fayetteville—Residents of the Virgie section are jubilant Thursday as a large number of workers, idle for almost three months, returned to their work in the Virgie mine of the Utility Elkton Coal Company. It was announced by J. E. Bowman, assistant treasurer of the company.

TRAFFIC VICTIM IS FOUND

Pikeville—The death of Wesley Griffith, 33 years old, of Pound, Va., whose lifeless body was picked up on the Pikeville-Williamson road at Bent Branch about 1 o'clock Saturday morning is attributed by officials to an automobile mishap and brings the total number of motor fatalities for the year 1938 to seven as compared to eight for the corresponding period last year.

THE HEIGHT OF SOMETHING

A culprit escaping the law is enough to tick any officer but when the offender uses the officer's home as a hideout for his illegal tools—that is too much. And you can quote Thomas Coleman, deputy game warden, of High, on that. Coleman is in possession of a trammel net which he "captured" under his own home Saturday morning. It had been hidden there shortly after it had been used and was still wet when found.

Going into his yard Saturday morning, Coleman noticed water trickling from under the house. On investigation he discovered a net which he confiscated and cut up. He believes he knows who placed it there, information from High says.—Pike County News.

Breaks, Economic Hope Of Future

Dr. Thompson told Joe Ward, president of the Floyd County Fish and Game club, that the name of his club should be changed to embrace the word, "Conservation," so that citizens uninterested in hunting or fishing would be included in the organization, striving for benefits to be derived from the National Forest in the Breaks. He said that as long as meetings such as he was conducting, was advertised as a sportsman's gathering, many prominent citizens would stay away, not knowing of its importance.

For the program will effect every one, every citizen in eastern Kentucky, he repeated, once the Breaks region is taken over and is reforested, reseeded with game, forest fires are halted and sportsmen throughout the eastern United States make of it a mecca.

It is eastern Kentucky's economic hope of the future, he said, bringing dollars to the lawyer, farmer, gasoline station attendant, to all who would benefit by the stream of wealth that would be forthcoming as tourists buy gas, oil, necessities, as hunters buy ammunition, licenses, guns; as sawmills are again established; as soil erosion is halted, making more profitable farming.

And, he said, it's up to everyone, public officials and all, to help launch such a program by doing their bit toward securing government control.

Shooting and Fishing

By J. C. (Of Nimrod) WARD

It is amazing how we poor unfortunate with soft hearts and even softer brains, if any, can acquire livestock of either furred or feathered variety. My own destiny seems to be wrapped up in feathers. A red bird has a nest in a honeysuckle bush under our living room window, a jenny wren is homesteading among some empty jars on the back porch. Some variety is afforded by the presence of a badly-sped Boston bull who has been boarding with us for a matter of 12 years, but I reared up in defense of my constitutional rights last week when my "image" came in logging two very young, very immature ducklings.

I told her in no uncertain terms that those ducks could not stay in my house, that every time I took a step it was in expectation of hearing a squawk, cackle or snarl; or of stepping on—or in—something.

Her "yes, Daddy," was the essence of meek obedience, and although I suspected the presence of a nigger in the woodpile, I didn't see the ducks for two or three days. However, the ducks are still here. An alliance between an image and her mother is too much of a hurdle for an ordinary man. As I write, the mother wren is busily engaged bringing worms to an already over-crowded nest of rapidly growing young wrens. When one steps out on the back porch for a home-made shoe shine, the nest is suddenly blown out by a towering array of open mouths. This is the second generation of wrens to emigrate from the back-porch shed. The ducks, in a few long, are busy pulling in a pot-pail full of water and sand, and the dog is standing guard over them.

LOU CASTS

John Stephens, of Martin, has a Walker bitch who out-Dionned the Dionnes. She even doubled the bill and emerged triumphantly with 10 perfectly marked Walker papers, which are the prize of the day. Johnny R. John Will Coleman, of Natch, removed a 16-pound catfish from his trotline last week, when proves the old adage that "you have to live right." It's going to be a great thing when we can go over on John Creek, up Middle Creek, or Abbott, or up in Pike county and kill ourselves a leezel buck-deer, a turkey, or have a real coon-chow. It will be a grand feeling. "Go out and in half a day take your unit of bass, crappie, blue-gill or pike—any of them hitting. Now is a good time to try the old 22 on a crow or hawk. Remember the new hi-speed ammunition steps the muzzle velocity up to around 1340 feet per second, and that is not a speed to be careless with; you may puncture a pal half a mile away. Police Judge Kine, of Wayland, and Police Chief Rich Hall have plenty of time for all hunting and fishing stories, all served in the house. If it's too good, you're sentenced to 30 seconds, and there is no appeal. I'll never be caught in a Wayland. I don't like to smell pettinias.—ADIOS.

APPEAL IS FILED BY INLAND STEEL

Chicago, May 5.—The Inland Steel Company today appealed to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals from the National Labor Relations Board's decision ordering a written contract with the C. I. O., asserting that the hearing last year was "manifestly unfair" and the trial examiner "arrogant, hostile and abusive." Counsel for the company charged that the board's decision exceeded the Wagner Act and deprived Inland of its "freedom of contract and of liberty and property without due process of law" in violation of the Constitution.

The petition bitterly attacked conduct of hearings by Trial Examiner Charles Wood, asserting he refused to call upon the petitioner's motions, exposed company witnesses to "hostile" influences, displayed "animosity and hostility" toward the company and was "arrogant, hostile, abusive and contemptuous" to company witnesses.

Large numbers of C. I. O. steel workers wearing their buttons signifying membership in the Amalgamated Iron Steel and Tin Workers of North America were allowed to congregate in the hearing-room in large numbers.

numbers, "intimidating" company witnesses, the petition asserted. Reasons cited in the appeal included:

The board erred in finding no judicial errors were committed by the trial examiner.

Sheriff Relates Story Of Three Thousand Mile Trip For Colley

Greenup: Apprehension of Raymond Colley of Ashland, in Glendale, Calif., who was wanted in this city on a charge of armed robbery, climaxed a three-thousand mile chase, it was revealed by Sheriff W. Burchett in an interview Tuesday.

Details of Colley's arrest in California and his return here by Deputy Sheriff Hays Stallard, of Russell, were given Tuesday.

The chase across the continent for Colley provided Sheriff Burchett with many thrills and disappointments. It's really a story of bulldogish perseverance, in which a group of officers refused to quit in the pursuit of a wanted man.

Here's the yarn as related by Sheriff Burchett and his deputies:

The day after Christmas, last year, which fell on a Sunday, three armed men entered the Darnell restaurant on Perry street and ordered all to "reach for the ceiling."

In the restaurant at the time were Mr. and Mrs. Darnell, the proprietors, W. H. Burgess, a member of the city council at Russell and well-known dairy owner, and a C. & O. detective.

All obeyed the commands of the armed trio, and they were relieved of cash, checks and whatnot. The alarm of the robbery was sounded and splendid work by the Ashland Police Department resulted in the capture of two men, who not only confessed but allegedly implicated Colley. The two men were subsequently convicted here and given life sentences in the state penitentiary.

Colley, named as the third man in the robbery, according to Sheriff Burchett, escaped and the hunt was on. Receiving a tip that the third man was in hiding in a certain Greenup county home, Burchett and his deputies made a raid, but found nothing. Believing that Colley was still in the neighborhood, Sheriff Burchett placed the raided home under the watchful eyes of trusted officers.

Despite the vigil, each minute out of every twenty-four hours, there was no apparent signs nor appearances of the fugitive. After days and nights of weary and monotonous watching, Burchett recalled his deputies. Disappointed and disgruntled by his failure to catch up with the wanted man, the next day after the recall of his deputies, he received a second tip.

The man most wanted by Burchett since he had assumed the duties of Sheriff—was in Albuquerque, N. M. The Sheriff's informant assured him that this information was one hundred per cent correct. With the belief that Colley was heading toward the West coast, the Sheriff secured finger prints and all other Bertillon measurements and hurriedly sent them throughout the Southwest and all cities in California.

Deputy Sheriff Stallard, who returned Colley here, picked up the story at this point.

Quoting Police Captain Frank Hague, Stallard stated that the prisoner now held in the Greenup county jail, was living the life of a "Riley" in the town of Glendale. In the California town (still quoting the officers) Colley had met an attractive girl and this meeting, which had developed into a romance, finally led to his arrest.

Stallard quoted Capt. Hague as saying that one night Colley, who was going under the name of "Pat Corbett," went to a night club in Glendale with his girl friend. There was the usual drinks and food, but during the evening he became conversant with a pretty Mexican girl and the fireworks started. His pretty girl friend objected to his attentions to the Spanish beauty. This, the officer of Glendale said, recalled in a row, with Colley, alias Corbett, telling his original girl that he was "tough and not to be fooled with."

An informant, Capt. Hague told Stallard, was at an adjoining table and overheard remarks made by Colley. Glendale police were called and raided the night club.

Colley, Stallard said, was rushed to police headquarters. He was put through the "blinding line-up" but was not identified as being known to anyone. Later he was questioned at length, the deputy said, but denied any crime or anything, except that he was "Pat Corbett."

Later, the deputy sheriff said, fingerprint experts were summoned by Chief of Police D. V. Brown and Capt. Hague from Los Angeles.

Prints, he said, were matched with those of the Federal Bureau of Identification, which Sheriff Burchett had submitted to Washington and Colley finally admitted his identity.

The remainder of the story is worth telling. Stallard had purchased tickets for two on the transcontinental air line. Arriving with his prisoner at the airport, Colley, in shackles, officials turned thumbs down on the idea. The deputy sheriff stated that he was told, that if he wished to transport a prisoner by the airlines, it had to be done in a private chartered plane. The airline officials refused to allow other Stallard's of his prisoner to board one of their ships.

Here's another line worth mentioning. Stallard objected, as he wished to reach Greenup county before the opening of the circuit court. He mentioned that federal prisoners were rushed by air, but he was informed that these fugitives were on private chartered planes and not on any commercial line.

Colley must face a charge of armed robbery in this county. Sheriff Burchett made a terse statement. It was something like this:

"Boy, we've after them and we're going to get them."

Maybe those were not the exact words, but there could be no question as to the meaning.—Ashland Daily Independent.

Avenger Kills Slayer Of Brother Here

lets spun him around, not falling to the pavement until Spradlin had emptied his gun.

Witnesses also reported that Howard had both arms thrust upward attempting to knock down the gun while it was firing.

One bullet penetrated his heart, two entered his right chest, the other three entering his right arm, as it was flung upward.

Following the shooting, it was described, Spradlin left the scene, looking back at the fallen man as he crossed the street, then calmly walked down Court street to meet Roy Elliott, Bill Spradlin, to whom he gave his gun and surrendered.

Howard had been released on bond pending a hearing on his motion for a new trial following his sentence of five years last week for the slaying of Earl Spradlin here March 22.

At his trial here the jury which convicted him freed his two daughters and son-in-law, Jonah Hall, who was with Howard a few minutes before the shooting, leaving him to go to his work. Hall said that he saw the youthful Spradlin, gun in hand, as he came down the street before surrendering to the police lieutenant.

The officer said that he did not know whether Spradlin had reloaded the gun before he surrendered. A search of Howard's clothing at the Arnold Funeral Home, whither he was taken, revealed that he carried no weapon, other than an unopened pocket knife.

The only cause for the slaying given was that of revenge sought by Herbert Spradlin following the slaying of his brother for which Howard had been convicted, then released on Funeral rites for the slain man were held here Sunday with the Reverend Vanhise and Judge Conley, of Paintsville, officiating. Burial was made in the Adams graveyard under the direction of the Arnold Funeral home.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Green Howard, he is survived by one son and two daughters, Mrs. Letha Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Jonah Hall, and Alex Howard, all of Prestonsburg.

REWARDED

Seven of ten rural teachers, named Floyd's best last year, were rewarded with positions in larger schools for the coming term as Superintendent Town Hall announced last school year when the contest began. Three of the teachers were rewarded — not with positions which they were offered in larger schools, but by granting their requests that they retain the rural schools they had previously taught.

The rewarded teachers: Willie L. Howard, Prestonsburg high school; Alma Reffett Lowe, Estill consolidated school; Paris Conley, retained in district 4; Josephine Spradlin, retained in district 20; Hargis Hicks, principal of Glo consolidated school; Arthur Jones and Henry Moore, Betsy Layne consolidated school; Durcie Saunders, Maytown consolidated school; Otis Spurlock, Martin grades; Prova Bailey, retained in district 106. Superintendent Hall said that it is expected a similar arrangement would be made for rural teachers next year.

In addition to the rural teachers appointed last week, the Board appointed additional ones in its meeting Saturday. The teachers and their districts:

4. Dixie A. Neeley.
18. Thomas Miller.
43. Dorothy Osborne.
46. Joe W. Jarrell.
106. Prova Bailey.
111. Ollie Dorsett.
85. Estill Hall.
79. Herbert Prater.
96. Lucretia Osborne.
95. Fred Martin, Rebecca Burchett, Ruby Napier, Frank Hammonds.

Special instructors and supervisors appointed by the Board are: Jesse Elliott, music instructor for nine months, who will visit each high school, with the exception of Wayland, twice each week. Peter Akers, teacher of vocational agriculture at Martin and Maytown, and W. P. Caskey, who will teach vocational agriculture at Betsy Layne.

The superintendent said that the hiring of these instructors marked the beginning of the board's promise last year of broader curriculums.

Palmer Hall was rehired as rural supervisor and Golda Porter was named helping teacher.

Hit-Run Autoist Kills 1, Hurts 3

Injuries shortly after she was taken to the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin. It is expected the others will recover.

Reports state that approximately 20 persons were strung out along the highway, returning to their homes from the meeting held at Tram, when the auto appeared at a speed of approximately 50 miles an hour.

It smashed into the group of four young persons as others on the highway leaped to the ditch to avoid being hit. A puddle of blood in the ditch marked the spot where the victims were hurled.

Without slackening speed, it was claimed, the driver continued south toward Pikeville. Although approximately 20 persons were at the scene of the tragedy, an accurate description of the car has not been obtained.

One witness said that darkness and the quickness of the tragedy as many leaped to safety, caused the failure to identify the driver or describe the automobile he was driving.

Funeral rites for the slain girl were held Tuesday from the home with the Reverend Isaac Stratton, of Banner, in charge. Burial was made in the home graveyard nearby under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

The girl, a devoted Christian and member of the Baptist Church, is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Layne; seven brothers and sisters: Wilbur, Tina, Virginia, Geraldine, Ellis, Edward and Dollie Mae.
