Caney Initiates Term for Teachers
Caney Junior College, of Pippa, Knott county, is adding this year a new feature to its spring calendar.
In addition to the regular semester, beginning Jan. 27, this forty accredited college is offering a special term of nine weeks for the benefit of teachers whose schools do not close in time for the regular opening.
This new term, beginning March 31 and ending with the regular semester, May 31, will offer courses especially for teachers who wish to secure a legal certificate that is standard.
The expense is nothing except $10 as a goodwill offering. Books, room, board and tuition are free.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear loving daughter and sister, Mary Novelle Martin, who died of a ruptured appendix in Martin General hospital Jan. 27, 1947.

That long-ago month is here again. It is the month of January in which our loved one departed from us—the one we will always long remember. Now the home is so sad and lonely since you have gone away. But I pray to God in heaven that we will meet again some day.

With tears in my eyes I'm always looking at your picture that sits on the stand, those dimples and that sweet smile. With kindly deeds you filled the years, then, smilingly, you slipped away. Oh, how empty did our lives become four years ago—that is when you went away, what happy days we once enjoyed when we were all together. But, oh, how changed it is all to now since you have gone forever. Some day I'm going to meet you, just how long I cannot tell. Though we travel slow I too will claim eternity and find my way to you. Taken so quickly, why should it be? But God doeth all things well.

Sadly missed by one and all family. Father and Mother, MR. AND MRS. LEO MARTIN (1).

Funerals in Bracken county have constructed 65,000 feet of trenches and diversion ditches since August 1.

PRESTONSBURG NATIVE LISTED IN DISTINGUISHED FAMILIES

A native Prestonsburg woman is listed in a new volume called "Burke's Distinguished Families of America" which, according to an Associated Press dispatch, made its first appearance in London, England, recently, "minus the names of most families as the Trumans, Roosevelts and Kennedys."

The book listed Mrs. John Randolph Clarke of St. Albans, W. Va., and said "she is definitely of the same family" as the Earl of Beauchamp (pronounced Beechup), whose family name is Lygon.

Mrs. Clarke, daughter of Mrs. Osa Fitzpatrick Lygon, Prestonsburg, and the late O. Y. Lygon, said that her family had adopted the American spelling of Lygon, and that she is eighth in the descent from Lt. Col. Thomas Lygon, a younger son of the family, who settled in Virginia sometime between 1620 and 1640 and was a member of the House of Burgesses in 1655 while a resident of Henrico county in which the city of Richmond is situated.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Sealed bids will be received by the Floyd Fiscal Court until Jan. 28 at 2 p. m., on rebuilding the swinging bridge located at the mouth of Sewing Camp, two miles east of McDowell on Left Beaver Creek. Plans and specifications may be procured at the office of the County Judge. The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

The line of descent is through his son Richard, also of Henrico, Mathe, who married a girl from Gloucester county, Va.; Richard of Chesterfield county, Va.; Joseph of Louisa county, Va.; Dr. Listerberry Lygon, who moved to Nelson county, Va.; Dr. John Lygon, born at Lexington, Nelson county, and moved to Pocahontas county, W. Va., and Charles Yanket Lygon, born at Lexington, Nelson county, and moved to Pocahontas county, W. Va., and Charles Yanket Lygon, who has fought in the battle of Point Pleasant.

Mrs. Clarke said the first international reunion of the Lygon-Lygon family was held in 1917 in the Jefferson hotel, Richmond, Va. The reunion was attended by the seventh Earl of Beauchamp, Knight of the Order of the Garter, who has received various decorations and honors.

CARD OF THANKS

We cannot fully express our gratitude to our friends and neighbors for their kindnesses which gave to us in time of need a measure of consolation upon the tragic death of our only son, Hans Rasmussen, Jr. To those who ministered, the Arnold Funeral Home and all others who assisted in any way we are forever grateful.—Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rasmussen, Sr.

To America's Producers, America's Thanks!

As this new year begins, America's ranchers and farmers are busy with their winter work, feeding and caring for their livestock. And all America is again properly grateful to you who produce the food to keep us the world's best fed people.

To you who ride the range from Montana to Texas... whose teams and tractors till the nation's fertile acres... who have labored hard, long hours... who, with soil and seed, sunshine and rain, grass and grain, have achieved miracle after miracle of food production to you America gives thanks! Thanks for the part you have had in all-time record crops of wheat and corn... for bumper yields of small grains... for livestock numbers at high levels... for increasing dairy and poultry production. This abundance of food which you have produced means better nutrition for millions of families.

because good nutrition is just good food that's good for you.

Vital as it is, production is only part of the nutritional job. Food must be processed. It has to be transported from surplus-producing areas to the markets where there are great numbers of people to eat it. Here is where Swift & Company comes into the picture. It's our job to provide many of the services required in bringing the foods which you produce to the dinner tables of the nation. Together we are in a vitally important industry. Because nutrition is our business and yours, together we can help build a stronger, healthier America.

Things are NOT always as they seem

But this big country consumes about 50,000,000 pounds of meat every day. So when you figure it out, this reserve supply in commercial storage is only enough to last 12 days.

Yes, some meat is frozen during months of peak production and stored until months of low production. But practically all of the beef, veal and lamb that is in storage is the kind preferred for meat loaves, sausage, prepared meats not the kind that goes over the butcher's block as steaks, roasts, chops, etc. Also, the amount frozen is relatively small, as it has never exceeded 1.9% of the annual beef production, 9.10 of 1% of the lamb, less than 6% of the pork.

Meat Packers' Risks

Meat is perishable. It cannot be held for prices to go up. Like all meat packers, Swift & Company must sell, within a few days, this perishable product for which it will bring—no matter what price we paid for it.

We take risks in both buying and selling. In buying livestock the meat packer must pay the price established by competitive bidding of over 26,000 slaughterers. If the meat packer overestimates the quality of an animal, or the amount of meat the animal will produce, or the market demand for the meat, he will lose money. Hidden bruises, wounds, or other defects can create losses on any animal.

In selling, the meat packer must also follow the market trends established by those who buy the meats. He stands the risk that meat demand will fall off and prices decline between the day he buys the livestock and the day he sells the meat—also the risk of accidents and delays in transit which can wash out his profit.

An average profit of less than 2% on sales is a small return for taking these substantial business risks.

Martha Logan's Recipe for Navy Bean Soup

- 1 pint dried navy beans
- 2 quarts water
- 1 cup sliced onion
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 tablespoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 4 frankfurters

Soak beans in water for several hours or overnight. Drain, add water. Fry onion and celery in butter. Add to beans, simmer 3 to 4 hours or until beans are soft, adding more water as water cooks away. When tender, save 1 cup beans. Rub other beans through sieve. Reheat to boiling point. Add seasonings and flour mixed with 1/4 cup water. Garnish with hot sliced frankfurters and whole beans. Yield 4 servings.

Announcement

In order to avoid any misunderstanding in the next election for county officials, I hereby announce my intention to enter the race for Magistrate, District No. 1, Floyd county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. This may seem unusual as the race does not occur until the fall of 1948, but I do this with full respect to the would-be candidates for the same office and in fairness to the voters.

In the eyes of professional politicians this office may be considered small but I feel that the office of the Magistrate and the duties of said office are of the very gravest importance and highly worthy of the voters' consideration.

Your consideration, your influence and your votes will be deeply appreciated by one who will endeavor to have utmost to serve your best interests. I remain,

Your servant,

John Jarrell Dies Following Stroke

John Jarrell, 78 years old, died Saturday at the home near Allen of his daughter, Mrs. Edna Jarrell, following a paralytic stroke.

A son of the late Anell and Elizabeth Jarrell, he was born and reared near here. He was married 34 years ago to Miss Annie Jarrell, who died in 1945. To this union were born 12 children. Mr. Jarrell had been a member of the Methodist Church about 50 years and was one of the county's best men.

Surviving are six daughters and two sons: Mrs. Edna Jarrell, Mrs. Virginia Jarrell, Mrs. Sarah Robinson and Sam Jarrell, all of Allen; Mrs. Jessie Jarrell, of Water Gap, Mrs. Edith Jarrell, of California; Henry Jarrell, of Drake, and Miss Ada Osborne, of Ashland. Two brothers and two sisters, "Shug" Jarrell, of West Virginia; Mrs. Edna Jarrell, of Martinsburg; and Mrs. Betty Hughes, of Martinsburg, are also deceased.

Funeral rites were conducted from the McGuire home Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. S. B. Rucker, Isaac Stratton and Floyd Lafferty officiating. Burial, directed by the Arnold Funeral Home, was made in the Williams cemetery at Water Gap.

The babe of Mr. and Mrs. James Woods, of Burton, was buried at Cal Creek, former residence of the parents, Sunday under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Miss Lewelling, Mr. Smith Wed at Bowling Green

Miss Anna Lewelling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewelling of Huntington, Tenn., was married December 21 at 10 a. m. in the First Presbyterian Church, Bowling Green, Ky., to Mr. Paul Gentry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith, of Glo, Ky.

The Rev. Fred Turner performed the simple but impressive double ring ceremony before a group of relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a street length dress of winter white wool with matching accessories and a carriage of orchids. Mr. Raymond Phillips, cousin of the bride, was her best attendant. Mr. W. A. Smith, brother of the groom, served as best man. They left immediately after the ceremony for a motor trip to Louisville and Chalmers where they spent a short honeymoon.

The bride attended Bowling Green Business University and is now employed as bookkeeper for a Bowling Green firm. Mr. Smith, a former Prestonsburg high school teacher, is a graduate of Marietta College and was for four years a navy officer during World War II. He is now attending Bowling Green Business University where he will receive the Bachelor of Science degree in accounting next August.

Floyd-co. Red Cross Chapter Delegates Attend Berea Meet

Delegates from Floyd County Chapter, American Red Cross, returned Thursday from the all-day round-table discussion held at Berea, where organization procedures for the March Red Cross Fund drive were discussed with representatives of 25 other chapters from Eastern and Central Kentucky.

Centered around the 1947 Fund-raising theme, "The Red Cross Fund-raising Drive," the conference had as its primary objective an exchange of ideas pertaining to the planning and operational phases of fund-raising, so that every adult would be approached and asked to share the responsibilities for the maintenance of Red Cross services to their communities and to members of the armed forces, wherever they are.

Emphasis was placed upon soliciting information for volunteer workers, campaign reporting, and publicity.

Representing the Floyd County Chapter were Mrs. P. L. Heine, chairman, and Miss Ella Noel, C. White, executive secretary.

Says Business Is Not Roadhouse or Beer Joint

Editor of The Times:

On the night of January 11, 1947, at about 12:15 o'clock, Deputy Sheriff Harold Conn and a bunch of other law came to my store and restaurant at Boldman, Ky., and forcibly entered without my consent and arrested Frank Hall, a neighbor boy, who was behaving himself perfectly. In just a few moments Arthur Hall, a brother of Frank Hall, ran in at the store door and Deputy Conn charged in after him without my consent, which could have happened in my home of place of business. Arthur Hall hadn't been seen in my place for an hour and a half or more before he came in at my store door. A man dodging the law and running into the officers in front of any man's place or even a man's home would have run in at the first open door he came to.

I want the citizens of Floyd County to know I am not running a roadhouse. My license from this county seat calls for a grocery store and the signs on the windows are plain—"Toler's General Merchandise." That's where the event happened. We have a piccolo machine in the store and restaurant which is all in the same room. I have a 21-room house which is rented for the purpose of living quarters. My renters are all of good character and are named as follows: Jim Ham, Ceely Robinson and her father, Whitel Blair, Albert Tibbo, A. Womack and Milroy Damron.

I want the law to call on all of my renters and question them under oath as to what goes on around my place of business. Also the law is requested by me to question every citizen and all drunks if they ever bought or heard of any one buying liquor or beer from me or any one in my premises. Furthermore, if any of my renters are running a game of any kind in my premises, it is beyond my knowledge. I am between two liquor and two beer joints. Their brand comes to my place for eats. They have always been nice for drunk men. I do not approve of liquor or beer in any way. And while a drunk man comes around me I have it well understood that they respect me and my business.

I am not in the bed with no political clique or any outlaw class. I am here as a business man, to make a legal and honest living. They are ask the law or whoever wrote the article in The Floyd County Times Thursday the 18th to correct that part of their statement, describing my place as a roadhouse, or I will proceed with such legal steps as necessary for any damage to me. This is not a roadhouse and is as decent as any man's home. For nearly two years I have scraped the country from state to state for food the people who have come from an area of 20 miles around to get scardities to feed their families on. I am still at the people's service. The public is cordially invited to keep calling on me. No changes—just the law forced in against my will. B. H. TOLER

Messer-Robbins Wedding Solemnized December 21 At Pikeville Church

The wedding of Miss Harriet Elizabeth Messer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rowan H. Messer of Gray, and John C. L. Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Robbins of Pikeville, Ind., was solemnized at 11 a. m. Saturday, Dec. 21, in the First Christian Church, Pikeville. The Rev. Mr. Haven officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin. Her double-voiled veil of illusion was held by a coronet of orange blossoms and extended the length of the train. She carried a colonial nosegay of white lilies and baby breath.

Miss Anna Mae Bailey was the maid of honor and wore a blue gown. The bridesmaids were Miss Joy Rasmick, Garrett, Ky., and Miss Margie Villevick, Louisville. Their gowns were red. They all carried colonial nosegays of white carnations.

Robert E. Saunders of Lexington, served as best man. The ushers were James N. Bailey, James B. Messer, Reginald S. Fowler, Jr., and Harold Carr. A reception followed the ceremony at the church.

After a wedding trip to Lake Lure, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins will make their home at 1111 South Second street, Louisville.

Additional Safeguards Suggested for Koppers

Several supplementary safeguards for life and property have been prescribed by a federal coal mine inspector for the 1,200-ton-a-day Weeksbury mine, near Weeksbury, the Bureau of Mines announced this week. Operated by the Koppers Coal Division of Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, the mine employs 328 men. The property was inspected in October by Matthew J. Duncan in accordance with the Kew-Lewis agreement of May 29, 1946.

Although commending the removal of the blower fan and tubine from the mine and the installation of doors on main entries in pairs to form air-locks, the inspector said a similar air-lock should be provided at the 7 left booster fan installation, more air should be circulated in certain specified entries, crosscuts should be driven promptly, and pre-shift firebox examinations should be instituted. Each section foreman carried a permissible flame safety lamp and tested for gas in places visited, the safety report disclosed.

Since a previous inspection, mining machines have been frame grounded, Duncan stated in suggesting this protection for pumps. He also recommended the elimination of risky business practices, provision for unobstructed clearance and clean stretch areas along main haulageways and at main line track switches, use of permissible blasting units and incombustible stemming with explosives, prompt attention to unsafe roof in several locations, control of coal dust in the upper and more extensive rock-dusting underground, additional guards for runby wires and improved installation of a positive personal-checking plan.

THIS is the story of a blighted romance. These Swiss Sweethearts have come to the parting of the ways. He keeps on climbing UP. She keeps on coming DOWN. Only a while ago they started out together, hand-in-hand.

This is also the story of your cost of living. It has been climbing steadily. Department of Labor statistics show that it has gone up 31% since 1939.

But wait a minute! National average figures show that the cost of electricity has actually been coming downward. Since 1939—through years of war and shortages, rising prices and higher taxes—the cost of electricity has decreased 14%!

Actually, the average American family is now getting twice as much electricity for its money as it did 20 years ago. Never has electricity done so much for so little.

Your friends and neighbors in this company—under sound business management—made this possible. Your own increased use helped.

IN MEMORIAM

of James E. McGlothlen, who was killed on Jan. 27, 1946 in the service of his country:

We think of you in silence,
No eye may see us weep,
But many silent tears are shed
While others are asleep.

We are and within our memory,
Lonely are our hearts today,
For the one we loved so dearly
Has been forever called away.

And we think of you in silence,
And your name we often recall,
There is nothing left to answer,
But your picture on the wall.

No one knows the many heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell,
Of our grief that I keep in silence,
Of one I love so well.

We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our time is dark without you,
We miss you everywhere.

We so lonely feel without you,
But it was God's blessed will,
While we loved you, oh, so dearly,
God loved you better still.

You did the task that was given you,
To make a better world,
You paid the supreme sacrifice,
The message told.

So your star of blue was turned to gold,
Your cheerful ways, your smiling
face,

Our pleasure to recall,
You had a kindly word for each,
And died for all.

Sadly missed by his mother,
(17) MRS. KATE MCGLOTHEN

All FORD Car Prices Reduced

As Much As $50 On Some Models

Ford Dealers hail the recent announcement of the Ford Motor Company, "We are reducing prices of all Ford cars—as much as $50 on some models," as the most important postwar step taken by the automobile industry.

In making this precedent-shattering move—another "Ford First"—the Company, with which we are proudly associated, is making a "down payment" toward a continued high level of production and employment in the months ahead.

We are proud too, that the Ford Motor Company was the only automobile manufacturer which did not increase prices of cars after decontrol last Fall.

Like the Ford Motor Company we have decided that now is the time for us to make an investment in the future.

As Ford Dealers we pledge ourselves to co-operate with Ford and with our customers to do everything within our power to hasten the return of the economic pattern which has helped to make America great.

Since war's end we have delivered many new Fords to waiting customers. We hope it will not be too long until all who have Fords on order will have their new cars.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the practice of open betting or remarks pertaining thereto, and the display of money therefor is becoming very prevalent at all of our sports events and at our high school basketball games in particular, and

Whereas, such a practice, in our candid judgment, seems subversive to the real objectives of competitive school sports and contrary to the principles that our public schools are expected to teach, and

Whereas, to attempt to do nothing to correct this growing practice would in no small measure be a mark of discredit to our schools.

Be it therefore resolved: (1) That all the schools of the county through their principals and coaches and other important officials hereby express disapproval of such continued practice; (2) That we appeal to the public for its co-operation in this important matter; (3) That the public shall not misconstrue our real intentions as intruding upon its private liberties if we do appreciate the patronage and the splendid co-operation the entire public gives our athletic program and we do respect the private rights of individuals; (4) That the text of this resolution be caused to be published through The Floyd County Times and a copy of same be posted at all times in each place where our sports events are conducted; and finally (5) If there should be continued, pronounced disregard of this appeal, legal resort shall be used to eliminate such practice.

Willie Goes to School at 23

Everybody's looking Willie Wells about going back to school. They remember when Willie would hide out in the woods—scared to bring his report card home to Pa. But under the G.I. Bill of Rights, Willie (who has a wife and baby) is getting a free education at the Agricultural College. And Uncle Sam is giving him a fine report: "Department, excellent; Progress, above average."

That goes for all those under-age veterans. Like Willie, they appreciate an education more than ever now. They're industrious and well-behaved—their favorite beverage is milk, or a temperate glass of beer. For them the "three R's" seem to mean: Responsibility, Resourcefulness, Restraint.

From where I sit, cynical folks who thought veterans wouldn't want to return to school—wouldn't stick to steady habits of work and moderation—have their answer in "undergraduates" like Willie.

That goes for all those under-age veterans. Like Willie, they appreciate an education more than ever now.

Ford Cuts Prices On Cars $15 to $50

The Ford Motor Company, Jan. 15, in a move to halt the spiral of mounting costs and prices, reduced the price of every Ford car from $15 to $50.

In making the announcement Henry Ford II, president, said, "Although more than one million of our customers are waiting for delivery of their cars at present prices, we are immediately reducing the price of every Ford car—some models as much as $50. This is a down payment toward a continued high level of production and employment in the months ahead. We believe that the shock treatment of prompt action is needed to halt the insane spiral of mounting costs and rising prices and to restore a sound base for the hopeful period of post-war production we are now entering."

The price reduction was disclosed in a press conference at Dearborn in which the entire policy committee of the Ford Motor Company participated. The new price scale was wired simultaneously to Ford dealers throughout the nation.

Mr. Ford said the company had made a modest profit for the last three months of 1946 and intended to continue to operate in the black. He said that the millions of dollars lost since V-day had been accepted as "an item of the cost of a great and victorious war."

"Because they must build up depleted cash reserves or because they are still losing money, many businesses may not be able to follow suit," he said, "but we hope that our suppliers, our employees and our other economic partners will buck each to his own ability, our attempt to return to the economic pattern which has helped to make America great, the principle that high wages and a higher standard of living for all depend upon lower costs and lower prices through increasingly efficient large scale production."

Don't worry! Come in, or call tire headquarters. If you're in tire trouble, we'll keep you rolling one of three ways. 1. Make repairs if necessary. 2. If your tires are worn smooth we'll save you money with safety with re-capping. 3. If you must have a new Goodyear, we have your size or will get it for you.
