Your Vote for Cordell H. Martin Will Be Appreciated

To the Voters Of Floyd County:

I have known Cordell H. Martin for many years. I was in high school and college with him. A few years ago, he married my sister, Mattie Moore. Of course, most of us think well of members of our own family, and that alone would be sufficient cause for me to support Cordell, but aside from all that, I would be for him in this race.

He comes from one of the best families of this district. He is the son of the late Bob Martin, native of Drift, Floyd County, Kentucky. He has received a good education, and is well qualified to go to Frankfort to represent our district in the State Senate. He attended Gentry Junior College, Morehead and the University of Kentucky School of Law. He has just finished taking the bar examination. His education was interrupted by three years' army service in World War II.

Throughout all of the years that I have known him, he has always applied himself well to whatever task he undertook to perform, and has been a good, hard worker. He has the courage, the ability and the sincerity to stand up and fight for what he thinks is right. I have always known him to be honest, sober, trustworthy and of good moral character. I feel sure that, if we give him a chance to represent us in the State Senate at Frankfort, he will do a good job, and that we will never see cause to regret having helped to put him there. He will tell you about the things for which he stands.

Go to the polls on August 2 and vote to keep our great American system of government first in the hearts and minds of the people of the world. We can only do this by voting and voting for those persons whom we feel are better qualified and are able and willing to put the welfare of the people above everything else.

I will appreciate your voting for Cordell H. Martin for State Senator, but regardless for whom you vote, please vote.

Your friend,
JOHN CHRIS CORNETT

ownership of the company and then write letters to people saying he owed it. Smith said, "He spoke of it as his company the way a queer's clerk might say 'come down to my store' or a freight agent ship by his railroad." If the Garsons had bought him, you don't think they'd have done it by checks and corporations—easy to trace?"

"His eyes are dim from age and use," Smith said with fervor. "His body is tired and he is approaching the time when a man comes apart from teeth to toenails."

"But he is an honest, upright and honorable man. On the law and the evidence I'm confident you'll decide that and that J. May has suffered the greatest injustice ever done in this courthouse—it can never be righted, unless his family has been made to suffer."

TUESDAY—Charles J. Margotti, former attorney general of Pennsylvania, called the case the "biggest little case I ever heard of."

"Little because there is no evidence, because of all the fuss that has been made over it," he said.

Addressing the jury, Margotti charged that the ambition of former Senator James M. Mead to become Governor of New York prompted the original probe of the Garson-May connection by his Senate War Investigating Committee.

Turning from indignation to irony, he observed: "After the Mead committee, the Department of Justice, and the F. B. I. worked for years on this case, we find the mountain has been brought forth a mouse."

After tracing the history of the Cumberland Lumber Company in Letcher county, he ridiculed the government contention that the Garsons bought the company for May as a "pay-off" for favors. "It just doesn't make sense. It just doesn't stand up," he said. "The way things are done, if the Garsons set out to buy Congressman May and did it with checks that can be traced and corporations that keep records they not only should be found guilty, but they should also have their heads examined. We all have heard of those things. It flows are paid in cash that can't be traced."

He cited the evidence that Murray Garson paid off a $5,000 note of May. "That transaction resulted from a legitimate business deal that occurred a full year before the events charged in the indictment and the government knew it," Margotti thundered. "But they put it in anyway. They didn't even put it in the indictment. It was an afterthought."

Turning to the long list of requests May transmitted to high War Department officials for the Garsons, Margotti repeated the defense assertion that these were legitimate requests for fair treatment instead of discrimination the Garsons companies received from lower echelons of the army.

Not a single contract was obtained by May for these companies and the government has failed to prove that he accomplished a single thing for them," Margotti said.

Then stating it is the full charge of a powerful chest: "A lot of these contracts were for us to save our democracy, to save our institutions. These men labored to produce to save those very things. Those are the men—Congressman May, Henry Garson, Murray Garson—that this government of ours want you to put in jail. Why, you'd think the war trials had been moved from Nuremberg, from Tokyo to this courtroom. Not Hitler, not Mussolini, not Hirohito, ever put on a worse performance."

NOTICE

Mrs. Whaley's musical recital, planned for early June, has had to be postponed until late in the season on account of moving and settling in her new home, known as McGuire House No. 1 on Third, next door north of her residence for the past three years, which was McGuire House No. 2.

Mrs. Whaley has purchased the property from J. H. Summers. She is delighted to be off the market for rising rental values and on the market for more whole-hearted Christian service to her music students and better citizenship and loyalty to the community. Thinking many friends for little touches here and there that made the "get over" easier, and for special mention of gratitude to the young men who successfully landed the Trojan Horse—the old-fashioned, heavy piano—many turns of kindness fall to them in recompense.

Captain of Industry

Butch wants a bicycle. Lots of lawn and lemonade and baby-sitting lie between Butch and that bike, but we're betting on the boy. He has energy, vision, and our national habit of working hard for what he wants. He's American business—in miniature.

There are many names for Butch's philosophy. You can call it Free Enterprise, Opportunity, Democracy, or Capitalism, if you want.

But, whatever the name, America owes it much. For our most valuable natural resource lies in the ambition and initiative of Americans like Butch.

As great publications have grown from the dreams of young men with old hand-presses—the electric industry had small beginnings, too. A few men with vision strung the first short lines. People with faith risked their savings. Better and better service, at lower and lower cost, created more and more jobs—and carried the benefits of electric living to more and more people.

Free enterprise—and hard work—will bring Butch and his bike together. They are what built America and the American way of life. No nation on earth has found a satisfactory substitute for that combination.

FREE STUFF—AND SO INFORMATIVE

Getting out a newspaper is more a job of calling than it is that of filling up the printing columns. Every week, enough "free stuff" cleverly concealed advertising, reaches this desk to fill two ordinary newspapers. This free publicity dodge various and sundry individuals and firms over the country as a personal saw arm as I often forget to warm up properly before throwing such matter into, or at, the nearest waste basket with considerable speed. To gain a wee bit of compensation for my time, trouble and pain without getting my name in the box score, I am calling these bits from such a piece of publicity as a matter of policy, carefully cutting the advertising, all "editorial services," "news services," "foundations," etc., etc., are hereby notified.

Case did not name the House members who had criticized the project but said they had told him the project has "no great flood control value and is bitterly opposed by people in the basin."

Here, the reaction was immediate and caustic against Congressman W. Hovey Meade, of Paintsville, and THE TIMES advised him of this reaction in the following telegram Saturday:

"Citizens here have read report that two Congressmen protested dam completion and that these Congressmen had received protests from Johns Creek residents. They believe these people's protest would protect to you and, therefore, that you fought the appropriation. Will appreciate and give full publicity to your side of matter."

Tuesday afternoon, this week, Congressman Meade wired THE TIMES:

"Effort is being made to get funds appropriated for completion of Dewey dam. This is rank discrimination against the people of Kentucky. I am today on the floor of the House attacking this action and offering an amendment to include funds sufficient for completion."

Although the fiscal year ended June 30 without the needed appropriation, work continued at Dewey this week with funds from the previous appropriation that had not been expended.

How long work will continue or what will be the ultimate fate of the project, H. W. White, resident engineer at the dam, said he could not say. "I am getting my information from the newspaper, and, naturally, have no comment to make," he said.

This week, with $1,645,000 hitherto allotted for construction of the dam, the Dewey project was slightly more than 20 per cent completed. The scheduled completion date is June 18, 1948, but the Ryan Construction Company is approximately seven months behind its original schedule as a result of last winter's suspension of work.

As of this week, driving of the tunnel in the left abutment was being completed. Virtually completed was all excavation in the outlet works and being prepared were foundations for concreteing the tunnel and the upper end of the outlet works. Contractors have recently been pressing spillway excavation and have extended the upper channel area of the spillway angle to an elevation of 600.

Even though Senate committee approval of the appropriation is made, subsequent House concurrence is necessary to see the project through.

Mr. Johnson wrote out of the Indianapolis branch of the Maytag Company and his territory covers 27 counties. In the course of his work he makes frequent visits to the Work Furniture Company, Maytag dealer in Prestonsburg.

Attention, Truck and Car Owners and Policy-Holders of the Keystone Mutual Casualty Co.
OF PITTSBURGH

Following is statement from Insurance Commissioner concerning the solvency of this company, as appeared in The Courier-Journal, on June 26:

Frankfort, Ky., June 26.—State Insurance Director Harry B. Wilson announced late today he had revoked the Kentucky license of the Keystone Mutual Casualty Company of Pittsburgh, and also the license of its 109 agents in Kentucky.

Wilson said the company admitted insolvency and signed a consent decree for its dissolution in Pittsburgh today. The revocation of the licenses became effective in the state today, he added.

The company sold insurance policies covering traffic accidents and specialized in taxicab and long-haul trucks, Wilson said.

Those who have policies issued by this company should for their own protection see the agent who wrote the policy.

WHAT GIVES?

AS FAR as the House Appropriations Committee is concerned, the John C. Dewey dam is as the dole. It has flatly refused to approve the appropriation necessary to carry on the work at Dewey.

Naturally, the people of this section want to know what their Congressman, W. Hovee Meade, was doing all the time the committee was studying the project. Particularly so, after a committee member had been reported as saying two members of the House had spoken against the appropriation and had said the dam "is bitterly opposed by the people in the basin."

They wonder what Congressman Meade would know of opposition to the project.

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. W. Claude Gansell, of Lexington, formerly of Prestonsburg, announce the arrival on June 22 at Lexington of their first child, a six-pound daughter, Catherine Elizabeth.

except Congressman Meade. They, quite naturally, surmise that residents of the reservoir area would protest to their own Congressman, not to some other, and, consequently, that he must have been one of the two who, actively or passively, saw the appropriation to defeat.

This, despite the fact that the chief of the army corps of engineers had testified to the flood control value of the barrier; despite the fact that the dam would cut the flood crest in Congressman Meade's home town of Paintsville three feet. This, after more than a million and a half dollars had been appropriated and, presumably, spent on the dam.

If, indeed, Mr. Meade did fight against, or did not fight for, the reservoir project, none other in Congress can be blamed for failure of the appropriation, inasmuch as the work is in that district, not in that of any other legislator.

But, woe Congressman Meade on July 1, four days after the committee's action: "... This is rank discrimination against the people of Kentucky. I am today on the floor of the House attacking this action and offering an amendment to include funds sufficient for completion."

Has the Congressman had a change of heart or was he for the project, all along, and his attitude misconstrued by the people? Or is he staging a modern meller-drammer, rushing to the rescue of the fair maiden, arriving in the nick of time to snatch her from the foul clutches of that dirty villain?

Are dam politics more of the dammed than Old Kentucky's?

Congressman Meade—what gives?

MEDICAL MIRACLE

Today Your Pharmacist Drops A Few Facts About...

ASPIRIN

Acetylsalicylic Acid, first produced in 1853, appeared to be a worthless drug until 1893. It was just "another" chemical. Everybody ignored it, except Felix Hoffman, a chemist. Tests proved its value as a pain killer in Neuralgia and Rheumatism, but the name was too long. So Hoffman shortened it to Aspirin. The drug which everybody knows is a means to ease pain.

Pikeville, Ky., June 23—A coroner's jury decided today that George W. Adkins, 50-year-old East Jenkins merchant, whose body was found near Elkhorn City yesterday, came to his death by "being struck with some deadly weapon."

Sheriff D. C. Moore said that Fred Overstreet, 24, of Pike, Pike county, was being detained for questioning in the case.

The body of Adkins, who had left his home on a buying trip, was discovered by Fred Overstreet's brother, Ray, on the highway between Elkhorn City and Jenkins.

Adkins' head had been severed. He was a veteran of the first World War, and a member of the American Legion and of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He is survived by his widow, two daughters and a son.

Actions Speak Louder than Words

There are those who would like to mislead the teacher, the farmer and the laborer. They would like for you to believe that Waterfield is your friend but he has not showed in the past the friendship which he is preaching today.

He promises the teacher great increases in appropriation so that they may draw higher pay. In 1944 a budget bill which contained the largest appropriation for schools up to that time was passed by the Senate where Earle Clements was majority leader. The bill was voted down by the House where Harry Lee Waterfield was Speaker.

A special session of the Legislature was called and the Senate passed a budget bill without a dissenting vote. In the House, where Mr. Waterfield was Speaker, again there was trouble and according to a report of The Courier-Journal of June 24, 1944, "J. Lee Moore, caucus chairman, had to go to his for the bill because Harry Lee Waterfield, Speaker of the House, failed to see eye to eye with the Senate."

Mr. Waterfield promises a $10,000,000 appropriation for rural highways. Only last year a bill to provide additional funds for the rural roads in Kentucky came before the General Assembly. The Senate passed the bill but Waterfield refused to let the House consider it. It was necessary for the House to unseat him in order to pass a bill which more than doubled rural road funds.

He says that he is a friend of labor and has helped the miners. It is true that the miners have a safety law passed by the General Assembly, but ask members of the committee who were in Frankfort lobbying for the bill if Waterfield is the friend of labor who would let the circuit court before entering a mine for an inspection.

Earle C. Clements as a State Senator and a Congressman, has left a record which proves his interest in the common people. He has always worked for the best interests of the farmer, the teacher and the laborer.

How well do the miners know how Congressman Clements voted and worked on the TAFT-HARTLEY BILL. Yes, he voted against it. He was also there and voted to uphold the President's veto.

If we had more men in Washington like Clements the miners would not have lost. They know their friend and will show this on August 2.

Kentucky Methodists

Toward $500,000

Methodists of the Kentucky Conference have dedicated themselves this year to raise a fund of $500,000 the interest from which will be used perpetually to help in providing better living conditions for retired ministers.

As of last week, $261,367.64 had been raised. Dr. J. E. Savage, executive director, Winchester, stated that there is every prospect that the goal will be reached. Some outstanding examples of success in the drive are the First Methodist Church, Paintsville, which has raised its entire pledge in cash; Rev. C. G. Deering, Walton, who was first to start the campaign and who, had his quota oversubscribed even before pledge cards were distributed; the North Main Street Church at Winchester which reached the highest percentage of its quota, pledging 75 per cent.

First Church, Dr. E. M. Fossett, pastor, with M. C. Redwine, Conference lay leader, William of the campaign, which exceeded its quota by $2,000, and the Paris Methodist Church by more than $2,000. Many smaller churches have also exceeded their quota.

A conference honor roll has been established, and includes not only the churches mentioned but many others, in the one, two or three-star class. The church paying its quota is its quota is a "One-Star Church," one exceeding its quota is a "Two-Star Church," one pledging its quota is a "One-Star Church."

Paintsville—First Church at present is the only one.

Two-Star Churches
Walton, Winchester—First Church, Winchester—North Main; Paris, Catlettsburg, Paintsville—May Memorial; Prestonsburg, Race Road, Wheelwright, Washington, Burnside, Junction City, Marksville and Antioch, Mitchellburg, Moreland, Paducah Circuit, Shakertown, New Castle, Simpsonville, Conroy, Rudies Mill and Hutchinson, whose pastor, Rev. W. F. Coleman, has led his church to victory, and died at his post a few days ago; Centenary Church, Lexington; Mt. Sterling, Oxford.

One-Star Churches
Allen Circuit, Ashland-Centenary; Ashland Circuit, Russell, First Church, and Made Memorial; Catlettsburg—West, Stone, Wurtland, Baxter, Combs, Harlan, Hazard, Jackson, Mary Helen, Kimminick Circuit, Moorehead, Cold Spring (Ashby), Pineville, Cornington—First Church, Florence, Warsaw, Bethlehem, Brocton, Bryanville, Preachersville, Ellensburg, Burgin, East Bernstadt, Ferguson, Gravel Switch, Helton, Lamber's Chapel, King's Mountain, Madras Circuit, McKendree, Perryville, Science Hill Circuit, Whitley City, West Irvine, Berry and Boyd, Hazel Green, Grass Lick and Camargo, Lair and Midway, and Shelby Circuit.

Many other churches are nearing their goals, and some others are just now beginning the campaign. All reports must be returned to headquarters by August 20 which is the deadline.

The central committee, through which the campaign is being conducted, has the following officers: Bishop William T. Watkins, Louisville, honorary chairman; Rev. W. B. Garriot acting chairman, Prestonsburg; Rev. John L. Tilton, Lancaster, secretary; W. W. Ball, Mayville, treasurer, and Dr. J. E. Savage, Winchester, executive director, who receives all funds, checks being made payable to the Methodist Brotherhood Retirement Fund.

Hear Earle C. Clements speak over Radio Station WHAS, Louisville, at 8 p.m. (EST) Saturday.

CLEMENTS PLEDGES ALL-OUT SUPPORT FOR R.E.A. GROWTH

IDLE words never brought electric service to any farm. While some critics have merely talked about R.E.A., Earle Clements has got out and worked for R.E.A. The Congressional Record shows:

1. Congressman Clements has pleaded the cause of the R.E.A. in challenging speeches before the House of Representatives. He has insisted at all times that adequate money should be voted for Rural Electrification.

2. Congressman Clements has voted for the restoration of cuts made by the Republican majority in the House in R.E.A. funds.

No Congressman could do—or has done—more to get electricity for Kentucky's farms.

For Governor

VOTE FOR CLEMENTS IN THE AUGUST DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY

Earle Clements' speech to the House on May 28, 1947, emphasized the progress R.E.A. has made in Kentucky: 76,650 farms electrified in the 12 years the agency has been operating. Clements pointed out that the program is incomplete—that 162,157 Kentucky farms still await R.E.A. service.

He gave this clear-cut pledge in his speech at Glasgow on June 28:

"As Governor of Kentucky I shall fight for every measure which will make R.E.A. service easier and cheaper, so that every farm and rural home in Kentucky may have electric lights and power at fair and reasonable rates."

Ticket-Qualls' Vows Said on June 2nd

The marriage of Miss Jacqueline Tickett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Tickett, of Catwaba, and Mr. Qualls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Qualls, of Mechanicville, O., formerly of Floyd county, was solemnized Sunday morning, June 2, at 9 o'clock at the First Liberty Methodist Church. The Rev. Harold Springer, pastor of the church, read the double ring ceremony. The church was attractively decorated with garden flowers. Miss Springer furnished appropriate nuptial music. The bride, an attractive brunette, and a junior of the Catwaba high school, chose for her wedding a dark blue suit with black and white accessories. A white picture hat with black veil, and a shoulder corsage of orchids, completed her attractive outfit. The groom, a graduate of Catwaba high school with the class of '46, wore a blue business suit with a white carnation in the coat lapel. The young couple were attended by Miss Anna Tickett, sister of the bride, who wore a blue street length dress with white accessories; her shoulder corsage was yellow roses. Edward Deiny, best man, wore a brown business suit with a white carnation in the coat lapel. Misses Emilie and Maxine Qualls, sisters of the bridegroom, Jean Murphy, and Mr. Donald Hayes attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Qualls left immediately on a motor trip to Washington, D.C., and other eastern points of interest. They will reside on West North street, Springfield. The groom is associated with the Bonded Oil Company, of Springfield.

To the Voters of Floyd County

Recently I announced my candidacy for the office of Republican State Senator of the 25th District, comprising Floyd, Knott and Martin counties.

In seeking this office I think it only fair that I publish for your consideration my qualifications and personal background and those goals which I hope to achieve should you honor me by choosing me as your State Senator.

I am the son of Mr. J. D. McCoy of El Hat, Kentucky. My father was born and reared in Martin county and is the son of Asa McCoy of Mingo, Ky. My mother originated from Knott county and is the daughter of the late George Martin, of Mingo, Ky. I am 28 years of age, was born and reared in Floyd county. I am a graduate of Wheelwright high school and Merchants State Teachers College, having an industrial arts degree from that institution. I have taught both in the elementary and high schools of Floyd county. Recently I was discharged from the navy and at present am teaching in Barrett High School in Louisville. I am also employed by the Government under the rehabilitation program to teach veterans at the Altitude Trade School under the G.I. Bill of 1944. I am a member of the Louisville Federation of Teachers 672, A.P. of L., and have been working to raise teachers' salaries in the state. I am also a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion. I, therefore, feel that I am qualified to speak for the teachers and veterans of District 25, inasmuch as my activities have brought me into close contact with their problems.

I have been a member of the United Mine Workers for the past ten years, belonging to three different locals of Floyd county. Thus, I am thoroughly familiar with working conditions in the mines since I have worked both at the working face and on outside maintenance jobs. Therefore, I feel qualified to represent the United Mine Workers of America.

I also feel in representing my district that it will be my obligation to work for better health and welfare, increased aid to the underprivileged, increased college assistance, more and better security for the farmer, and better transportation facilities throughout the state.

Since I was born and reared in Floyd county, and have worked the coal pits with my fellow laborers, I can truly say by side with them, and I am confident that I have merited and earned the confidence and trust of my neighbors as possible to support me in the coming election.

Thank you.

VAUGHAN LEE MCCOY

The One Big Issue In This Campaign

IF HE GETS IT, IT WON'T RUN.
CLEMENTS

No issue in this campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor?

There is one Big Issue that overshadows all others.

It is this:
Shall the people of Kentucky permit the Old Gang who rode and drove and bullied the Democratic party to defeat in predominantly Democratic Kentucky get in the saddle again—or will the common voters assert their rights as free women and men and restore the party to the people?

This campaign is a test to decide which is the stronger—the old Machine Way for the Chosen Few, or the American Way in which all the people are considered. Can "Happy" Chandler from his swank office in Cincinnati and Dan Talbot and John Whitaker and the Tom Rhea crowd, aided and abetted by other remnants of the Old Machine, dictate who shall be the party's candidate for Governor, or will the people assert themselves and do their own choosing?

There is the big issue!
As for us, we think the people of Kentucky are capable of naming their officials without coaching by the Chandler-Talbot-Whitaker-Rhea combine. We do not believe they want to rebuild a machine that, in the past, dabbled in every political contest in the state, reaching down with the Big Stick all the way from Frankfort to herd the voters into line even in purely local elections.

If those boys represent good government, then Mr. Clements deserves your vote. If you think that crowd is supporting Mr. Clements from purely altruistic motives, with only the well-being of the people of Kentucky in mind, with no thought of themselves—if you believe the political Millennium is that near at hand, then your vote should be cast for Mr. Clements.

BUT, IF YOU ARE WISE TO THEM, IF YOU CAN REMEMBER A FEW YEARS BACK AND RECALL HOW LITTLE YOU AS A FARMER, A MINER OR PLAIN CITIZEN IN ANY OTHER WALK OF LIFE FIGURED IN THEIR PLANS EXCEPT AT ELECTION-TIME—THEN YOUR VOTE BELONGS ON THE SIDE OF THE INDIVIDUAL, THE ORDINARY TAXPAYER WHO MUST EARN A LIVING IN SOME WAY OTHER THAN PLAYING THE GAME OF POLITICS. YOUR VOTE SHOULD BE CAST FOR HARRY LEE WATERFIELD.
