This Town-- That World

Think I shall copyright contents of The Times, so that these type and printed misapprehensions will be stymied when they appear in the news. When I think of my own experience with various vowels I break out in a cold sweat. So it is with considerable indignation that I mention the sports yarn in a nearby daily Monday morning telling of a marvelous round of golf Babe Dixon played with her husband, George Zaharias, an admiring on-looker. But, said the story, George "stood by and watched his wife miss the putt."

Which side are you on?
To that question, any Democrat will immediately give answer, and so will any Republican.

But the fact of the matter is, many of both parties are on neither side. Simply because they fail to vote.

One of the dangers of this, the greatest of all democracies, lies in the fact that millions fail to exercise one of the greatest privileges granted under a democratic government—the right to vote as they please.

Put up or shut up. Vote or quit talking. To quit talking would be fatal to most of us. It would be easier, and a lot more important to you and your country, to take the time and exercise the peculiar rights of a free American citizen.

A BEGINNER
This is the story of how Wm. Dineen began smoking at the age of 51.

Just Thursday, he observed his 51st birthday at his first Avenue home, with friends and relatives called during the day to pay their respects. Among these callers was Den Webb, an old friend from Lexington.

Forty-seven years ago when Mr. Webb was mustered out of the army after service in the Philippines, he brought home with him a box of cigars. One of these he gave to Mr. Dineen.

The cigar went into a trunk and there it remained till last Thursday. Mr. Webb decided it was about time it was smoked.

On one of those present: Age had mellowed the smoker more than it had the smoke.

AMONG OTHER THINGS...
You candidates may think it from The Times—don't count the returns till they're in.

Last week, we thought we had a pretty good, little feature about the election. But we hadn't heard from the outline precincts and when we did hear we thought we had been hit by a Rough and Tumble. We were at this state of the campaign it would appear that all that was

ERROR NOTED IN BALLOTS

Funk Says Failure To Bracket Names
Is Law Violation

Some Kentucky counties have violated the law in printing the November 2 ballots, according to Attorney General A. E. Funk.

He based his view on information from Edward P. Suller, county clerk and state campaign chairman. The latter advised the Attorney General that some counties—non-identified—failed to include in brackets the names of the presidential and vice-presidential candidates of the same political party.

Citing Kentucky election law, Funk said failure to use brackets, which assures both candidates being voted for as one, "in my opinion is a violation of the law." Then he added:

"It is my opinion that if the ballots are sent to a precinct on election day, and the candidates for President and Vice-President are not in the same bracket, that the election officers of the county should be notified of the error, and the President or Vice-President as a vote for both, and that they should be so notified as to give the voters of that political party or organization a complete vote for said electors."

Under Kentucky law, a ballot must be void if a voter stamped "X" for the presidential candidate of one party and the vice-presidential candidate of another. But that point was not covered specifically in the opinion.

At least two counties in the Seventh Congressional district have reported last week as having printed their ballots without the bracket. Floyd county was not one of these.

STITH LOSES GAME FIGHT

C. & O. Brakeman Dies
10 Days after Injury
In Martin Rail Yards.

James O. Stith, 25-year-old railway brakeman, lost his valiant battle for life after a severe injury sustained when he was struck by a train at Martin, Ky., last Thursday.

The former Ashland high school athlete and member of Martin died at the Beaver Valley hospital. His condition had been critical since his injury, which had been crushed, was amputated in an effort to save his life. From this second operation he rallied, but pneumonia developed Sunday night.

His death occurred at 15 when he either missed the step on the water tank of a moving train or slipped from the step. Before other trainmen learned what had happened, he had been dragged a distance of approximately 40 feet. One leg was severed, the other crushed, and a sand pile had penetrated his abdomen. Forty-five minutes were required, it was said, for workmen to extricate him.

He was a veteran of World War II.

Outmoded Building
In Rochester N. Y.,
Blamed for Tragedy

At the Carter & Callahan Funeral Home here today, "Thursday," the body of 10-year-old Rocky Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Carter, who was crushed and asphyxiated Sunday night when the walls of a building in Rochester, N. Y., building collapsed on him and his parents.

Craft sustained a dislocated shoulder and a broken chest and his wife, Barbara, 18, stepmother of the boy, sustained head injuries.

The couple and the boy had gone to the home of Anders Nelson, a former Prestonsburg man, for a Sunday evening visit and were leaving, walking down a street. Nelson home and a story-and-a-half concrete and the wall of a ruined home when the wall suddenly collapsed, trapping all three. The tragedy occurred in the well known Cannery Row, structures erected for temporary use in World War I, and now rented to various small business by the Webster Canning & Preserving Company at a rental of $1 a week.

In the Crafts, the Nelsons and the Morgan Rose family are among those from this county who have been employed there by the cannery industry. And since their arrival in Rochester, it was said, misfortune has followed them.

"We've had bad luck but had luck since we got here," said Jefferson Nelson, brother of Anders. First son, Nelson, two daughters, aged 3 and 4, were killed severely when a ledge of cold water topped and killed them. After that, another child in the neighborhood fell from a water hole. Then Sunday night's tragedy.

Surviving the victim, besides the parents, is a brother, Loren, 5.

COURT CURBS GAS, OTHER PURCHASES

Holds Road Machinery
Expenses Exorbitant; Bridge Bid Accepted

The Floyd fiscal court gaped almost in chorus Monday when it received, at its special meeting here, a bill of more than $10,000 from oil service station supplying gasoline, oil and accessories for road machinery. Immediately steps were taken. The big step:

An order, unanimously voted, forbidding purchases from filling stations by the county's cars, unless such purchases are by one of the county's four judges or one of the county's four magistrates.

This one statement, covering a period of less than three months, is by no means all the fuel costs incurred over the county at service stations by the county's cars. It was pointed out by officials.

The itemized statement showed, authorities said, that one truck operator signed purchase slips for approximately 900 gallons of gasoline at the LaGrange filling station, last month. As much as 27 gallons of gasoline was bought in one day, and 30 gallons were purchased in two days, August 30 and 31, for an air compressor.

The county has two dump trucks and an air compressor operated by gasoline. Its graders and bulldozers operate on diesel oil.

What further investigation will be made of the purchases was not indicated.

Contract for construction of the bridge was awarded to Roy Hughes on his bid of $1,500. This was the original bid received at an earlier court meeting. Further bids were asked and the two additional bids exceeded the original.

The court authorized County Attorney W. W. Burchett to advertise for bids to be received till November 8 at the courthouse, Lexington, for the construction of a low-water bridge across Right Beaver Creek at the mouth of Steele's Creek.

Middle Creek Store
Burns, Plant Here
Damaged by Blaze

The store and living quarters of T. J. Fitzpatrick at the junction of the Middle Creek and the Dan River, near here, with all contents of the building, were destroyed by fire at 9:30 Sunday night.

The loss, which was only partially insured, was estimated at $8,000. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick, sleeping in an upstairs room, were roused before in time to escape. Cause of the fire was not determined, though it was suspected to be a fire from a furnace.

Here Wednesday afternoon, the frozen foods storage plant being installed by Mico to Peco was a hot spot for a few minutes as a smoldering fire consumed damage.

Competing at this meeting for state championship awards were the winning and runner-up white first-class and second-class teams. After the showing of the film of previous district meetings held previously in the Big Sandy, Tus River, and other sections.

Forty-eight boys and adult leaders in the Central Area Boy Scout council represented the Scouts of David Belay Lake, Prestonsburg, Martin and Wayne Monday evening at a "book-out" conducted by the Allen golf course by George Bingham, golf executive.

After the showing of a film of planning Scout activities, the meeting broke up into groups, with each planning a Scout program for the next six months.

Despite persistent rumors to the contrary, a petition asking a local option election in Prestonsburg has not been filed with the Floyd County Court. Nor has there been, as far as could be ascertained, any such petition circulated.

Talk on street-corners and at various gathering-places indicates that not particularly a dry sentiment but a strong belief that, were an election held now, Prestonsburg would vote dry.

For a statistical picture of the current wet-dry fight, the following is printed from Joe Cresson's recent article in The Courier-Journal.

Based on the data of the Kentucky liquor front between the wets and the drys for control of certain cities of the first four classes is over and the session has ended in a draw.

Voting has been held in the first and, to date, only six cities to elect petitions to hold local-option elections independent of the counties in which they are located. This arrangement—that is, the legality of bringing the matter of local liquor sale to vote in cities of the first four classes—was provided for in House Bill 197, passed in January by the state legislature.

The voting in the six cities that have held elections has been closer than your next breath. Three—Caldwell, Shelbyville and Richmond—have voted wet, meaning that the legal liquor can be sold in them 60 days after the election. The other three—Central City, Mt. Sterling and Glasgow—voted to remain dry. All of the largest turnouts in recent years gave the wets a 44-56 vote in Shelby. The totals were 1,062 to 616. Caldwell turned wet 1,661 for the drys.

BOTH PARTIES VIE FOR VOTE NEXT TUESDAY

School Board Races
May Get Out Voters
In Greater Numbers

Democratic and Republican forces, from the heads of the national ticket down to precinct workers, worked this week in preparation for the showdown at the voting places of the county next Tuesday.

At Pikeville Saturday, Kentucky's veteran Senator Allen W. Barkley, Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency, addressed a crowd estimated at 2,000, with many Floyd county Democrats in the crowd. Appearing for a straight Democratic vote, he assailed the Republican leadership of the Tift-Hartley Act.

He said, "I would like to repeat it here, I would like to repeat it tomorrow, if I had the opportunity."

U. S. Senator John Sherman Cooper addressed the voters in Paintsville in behalf of the Republican ticket Wednesday.

A scheduled appearance here Monday of Congressman Rivers for the election was cancelled because of the weather.

Meanwhile, local Democratic speakers continued to address gatherings in various communities of the county.

School board races in Prestonsburg and in three educational divisions of the county were expected to draw a better-than-average vote to the polls Tuesday.

Next in point of local interest is the race between Carl D. Perkins, Democrat, and W. D. Perkins, Republican, for the seat of the county's representative in the U. S. House of Representatives.

SCHOOL NEWS

Mrs. Leona Hager, fifth and sixth grade teacher, continues ill at her home near Cliff. Her daughter is meeting her classes.

The Halloween carnival was a success and our thanks go out to patrons who cheerfully helped accomplish so much. Our next social affair will be the Thanksgiving activities.

The regular meeting of the P.-T.A. was held Wednesday with new officers taking part. These officers are: Mrs. Geneva Harmon, president; Mrs. Mary Thompson, vice-president; Mrs. Desmond Warrick, secretary; Mrs. Leona Hager, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Stephens, chaplain.

The new blackout curtains have arrived and the class room Audio-Visual instruction is under way, adding much interest to the textbook assignment.

Mrs. Betty Stephens attended the singing convention in Inez last Sunday. It is hoped we will be able to have some of this singing talent visit our school. Prof. W. B. Ward is the promoter of these "sings" and has some very fine group singers.

CARD OF THANKS

To all those who offered assistance during the last illness of our husband and father, Roe Hyden, and those who tendered the consolation of comforting words and deeds upon his death, we are deeply grateful. We especially thank Dr. A. J. Davidson for his services, the Revs. Harold Black and S. C. Honeycutt for their comforting words, and the Carter & Callahan Funeral Home for their efficient services—The Family.

Hi-Ho, Mister!

The Missus and me went square dancing last night. We aashayed round a few times, me acting like I was still in knee britches, and today I don't feel so good. Guess I'm losing my ambition. Already lost my hair and my teeth and most everything else, except my appetite. Set a Silver Mist cake in front of me and I'll prove I got plenty of that left. That's because I know how good a cake baked out of Silver Mist Flour can taste. Got flavor. Real honest-to-goodness flavor. The kind of flavor that would have made Romeo leave Juliet to elope with the cook. Yep. That's the kind of cakes Ma bakes when she bakes with Silver Mist. Have you tried it in your house? You don't take no chances, because Silver Mist Flour is guaranteed. Your money back if you don't like it. Get some today. Silver Mist Flour, with honest-to-goodness flavor.

(That's short for Silver, Mister)

To All the People of Big Sandy Valley

Our mines have been down for three months. The reason is: HIGH FREIGHT RATES. The remedy: CANALIZE BIG SANDY RIVER.

Look at the Kanawha Valley with millions of tons of coal moving out, while our mines are down. Kanawha has been canalized. They not only sell their coal, but have industries to the tune of millions that came to their valley-after canalization. Let "Hard Times" come, the wheels of industry in Kanawha hum on, while the mines of Big Sandy are silent, men out of work and children hungry. We, the people of Big Sandy, cannot sit idly by and let this situation continue when canalization of our river is now in sight.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey will be our next President. He needs Senator John S. Cooper and Hon. Howes Meade to work with him. Senator Cooper and Representative Meade already have the canalization of Big Sandy in the making. They, along with Senator Malone, Chairman of the Flood Control, Rivers and Harbors, Dams, etc., promise us definitely to do everything possible to make the canalization of Big Sandy a reality. This one thing realized, will mean more to the Big Sandy people than the election of Congressmen for the next 100 years.

See WHAT SENATOR MALONE SAYS IN THE FOLLOWING TELEGRAM:

TO THE PEOPLE OF SANDY VALLEY:

"Want to emphasize the importance to the State of Kentucky and the U.S. Congress of returning John Sherman Cooper to the U.S. Senate and Howes Meade to the U.S. House of Representatives. As you know, Senator Cooper is on the Senate Subcommittee on Flood Control, Rivers and Harbors Dams and Electric Power. Congressman Meade is on the House Public Lands Committee where all matters on Flood Control, Rivers and Harbors, Dams and Electric Power are handled and where policy is made. You understand also that any Democrat that might be elected would not be in a position to assist in fixing policy the next four years, since, of course, everyone realizes if Governor Dewey lives until November 2nd he will be elected. Therefore, to be properly represented for the next four or eight years any state must have at least one Republican Senator and for the particular area must have a Republican Congressman. I cannot emphasize the importance of it too much, as I previously stated in an address in your state. As Chairman of the Flood Control, Rivers and Harbors, Dams and Electric Power Senate Subcommittee of the Public Works Committee, I want to cooperate fully with your people in hearings on any project in which they may be interested, and we can assure them of fair and adequate hearings in cooperation with your Senator and Representatives. Will look forward to seeing you after January first. Best regards.

"GEORGE W. MALONE, United States Senator"

"Petticoat Politics." Presented by Mrs. T. J. Frayley, assisted by Mrs.
Carl Wooten and Mrs. Willard

tory of a number of the outstanding

a careful study of issues and candi-

At the business meeting, the presported that to date approximately $75 had been realized on the lunch program at Wayland school. She expressed the belief that if school is coming week, the goal of $100 will be reached. This $100 is to be used for a student loan fund to be made available to an eligible local graduate. She also reported that 15 ta-bulets had been purchased for the home economics department at Wayland school. The Community

TO THE PARENTS OF TOBY JO SPRADLIN, RONNIE CLAY RICE, CARL BINGHAM, BETSY SPUR-LOCK, JIMMY DICK SPURLOCK, BILLY RAY COLLINS, MARYBELLE LAYNE, NEAL HALL, NORMA
JEAN HANSHAW, NANCY HUGHES, DAVID HEREFORD, MORRIS ISABEL, BILLY WEBB, CAROLINE
BRANHAM, MARY SUE PORTER AND OTHER PRESTONSBURG YOUNGSTERS AWAY FROM HOME:

We are sorry your boys and girls are not in school, here at home. We regret that their away-from-home days have begun even before college. But this situation is not of your making, nor of theirs, and none of you are to be blamed.

You naturally want your children at home and we feel certain you would like for them in later years to think of Prestonsburg schools as their alma mater.

But you did what you thought was best. You felt that your home school wasn't giving your children the training they need and deserve. And so everybody understands why your boys and girls are in other schools.
Whose fault, then, is it that this situation exists? We all have, to some degree, been at fault. We have been taking the easy way, letting things drift along, permitting our school system to deteriorate and our children to suffer the consequences.

Directly, the fault lies with this system wherein family ties tie the hands of those who should be selecting teachers from women and men who are not only highly qualified for the work but deeply devoted to the high calling of a teacher.

We all know the whole pitiful story.

NOW, THE QUESTION IS—WHAT ARE WE GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

Are we going to make a change or are we going to endorse the failures of the past? Our opponents are our neighbors as well as yours. We are not opposing them as individuals or on any personal grounds whatsoever. WE OPPOSE THEM BECAUSE WE FEEL THEY HAVE FAILED TO DO THE JOB RIGHT AND BE-CAUSE WE OWE TO YOU, YOUR CHILDREN AND ALL OTHERS OF THIS COMMUNITY DEFINITE IMPROVEMENTS IN OUR SCHOOLS.

We ask you and every parent and voter to consider the welfare of the boys and girls. Your schools and the youngsters, not us or our opponents, are what counts.

If elected members of the City Board of Education, our main purpose will be to eliminate these conditions which have harmed our schools; to make Prestonsburg's schools as good as any in the Big Sandy valley.

It might be the easier, more pleasant thing to do to shirk our duty and let matters simply ride. But we have decided that, in the interest of the children of Prestonsburg, THE DEAD WOOD IN THE SCHOOLS HERE MUST GO—and that this must be done without fear or favor, at the risk of incurring the enmity of some in order to create something good for all.

Your friends,

Ray Stephens
Harry Ranier

To the Voters of the Prestonsburg School District:
Because of the death of my wife's mother and my necessary absence from my work, I will be unable to visit and talk with you before the election next Tuesday.
I had planned to see you all, or as many of you as one man could see; but circumstances beyond my control have prevented me.
I trust that you will understand the difficulties under which I am working, these few days before the election, and that you will join me in the honest belief that the things I am working for as a candidate for the City Board of Education are worthy of your support. Regardless of how you vote —VOTE!
Sincerely,

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I have been urged by many people to make the race for Sheriff of Floyd County, and if I do, I promise, here and now, and pledge myself 100 per cent to the best enforcement of the law and to make only such charges as are allowed by the Kentucky statutes.

I further pledge myself to see that no one is appointed deputy sheriff, except those who will only enforce the law as it is in this county. I also pledge that I would have or suggest the appointment of the best qualified men who can be found in Floyd county. No deputy will be permitted to charge a greater sum for services rendered than is legally allowed. The fees will all go to the office and the deputies will be paid a good salary and wear clothing suitable to their position, thereby assuring the people the best service available; and any excess fees or funds beyond the Constitutional limit will be paid to the Treasurer of Floyd county.

If this method of handling public funds was followed by all the officials of Floyd county, you would have good bridges and roads all over the county. It is my notion that the people will get a chance to show whether they approve or disapprove of the system herein set out or to paying charges from $5 to $50 instead of 25 or 50 cents.

There will be no hijacking, and if this is attempted—out goes the outfit. I know if the system here outlined is followed, your taxes will be reduced 30 per cent or more in one year.

I have the intestinal fortitude. Give me a trial—I will do the job. Do it well and you will be satisfied. I am, Yours, as ever, HENRY STEPHENS, JR. (Pol. adv.)

DON'T BE FOOLED!

John Sherman Cooper two years ago voted for Robert A. Taft as Senate Leader, also making Taft chairman of the powerful Labor Committee.

COOPER ALSO VOTED FOR THE TAFT-HARTLEY ACT.

If elected, he will vote to keep Taft as leader of the Senate.

President Truman vetoed the Taft-Hartley Act. A Republican Senate passed it over the President's veto. Candidate Dewey said in a speech a few days ago that he thought "the Taft-Hartley law was a good law, but might need a few changes."

A vote for Dewey and Cooper is a vote for the Taft-Hartley law and against your faithful friend, Senator Barkley.

By 83 votes, 1,005 to 967. On the other hand, the city voted to stay dry by 252 votes and Jackson by 21.

Thus the wetts not the upper hand in total balloting in the six cities by a margin of 644 votes, having received 6,069 votes to 5,415 for the drys.

Right now both sides are in their corner, having their wounds patched up and marking time for the start of the second round of the war. The wetts are out to regain through the cities some of the territory that has been taken away from them in county-wide elections for the past 10 years, the drys are content to hold the 32 counties that by now have voted out the sale of alcoholic beverages. They also are determined to hold as many of the fourth-class cities as possible.

No further elections are impending; at least not for the next 90 days. For that time must elapse between the filing of the petition calling for an election and the actual voting on the question. A like period must pass before the sale of liquors can be made in a city that votes wet. In other words, Shelbyville and Richmond, which voted wet on September 25, can wet their civic whistles November 25.

The drys don't know where the next petition for an election will be filed. And the wetts, if they know, aren't talking. Some of the dry leaders think the rush of cities to vote under the new law will die down now.

"The wetts naturally called for elections in a hurry in the towns where they were strongest," said Dr. W. W. Stout, an officer of the Anti-Saloon League of Kentucky, the organization that sparks the dry forces. "We feel encouraged with the results so far, having won three of the six elections, and I expect the rush to hold elections will kind of slump now."

However, it may or may not be significant that Walter J. Hoghal, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League and the man most responsible for the dry progress in Kentucky in Madisonville and will remain there until the middle of November. The significance of that is that Madisonville, Lexington and Dawson Springs are in Hopkins county and there has been talk of elections being called for in all three cities.

As a matter of fact, Dawson Springs was re-classified a fourth-class city by the Legislature only this year and some claim the main reason was so that an election on the liquor question could be held there. Madisonville and Lexington already were fourth-class cities. In order to be fourth class, a city must have at least 4,000 population.

Other cities where rumors of elections have been heard include Nicholasville, Prestonsburg, Providence, Jenkins, Corbin, Irvine and Harlan. As stated previously, petitions have been filed in none of these places.

A county-wide local-option election hasn't been held in Kentucky since early in July. The wetts gained ground at that time when previously-dry Perry county changed its mind. At the same time, Grant county chose to remain dry. The wetts showed an amazing gain of strength in Perry county in that election, carrying it by a 249 margin as compared to losing it by 566 votes.

The Floyd County Czar

Remember the Czar and his associates? They're again active in the Floyd County school system. They are asking you again to re-elect them to office so they can continue their so-called good school program.

Let us examine the various educational programs and instructional aids that are coming to the schools from the office at Prestonsburg this week.

Mr. Henry Martin is visiting the schools as supervisor for the county and soliciting money from the teachers in our school system to carry on their political campaign. Is this what we are paying him for? Martin is trying to collect large contributions through the aid of secret teachers in the different consolidated schools. The Wayland coach has shown his hand in approaching teachers for contributions.

There will be three vacancies on the Floyd County Board of Education this election. We need men in our educational system who will not be asking for contributions from our teachers. The school system is not to be used as a political racket. We need men interested in the education of our children, men interested in making our high schools better and finer institutions of learning.

We are no longer interested in making gambling institutions out of our county high schools.

The good citizens in Floyd county are asking that you visit the different schools in Floyd county this week and observe the lax administration of our school system.

The author of this article is challenging the administration on any issue that is brought forth in this article.

Now, Thompson said, farmers use power to control lighting for tobacco stripping, to dry hay, control germs, and increase egg production in the henhouse, operate home milk pasteurizers, milk cows, and shear sheep more economically.

At Franklin, Ky., a homeowner is getting power from the Warren co-op to run a heat-pump system which will make his home warm in winter and cool in summer, Thompson said.

In an experiment near Bardonia, about 30 farm families are tapping R.E.A. lines and using them for telephone communication.

Rural power has brought a large turkey freezer plant to the Winchester area. About 100,000 pounds of meat are processed there by the farmer-owner in a year.

Co-op power is operating an apple grading shed for a 140-acre orchard near Somerset. It has made possible a sausage plant near Cynthiana.

Club Adopts Slogan, 'Thanks to Banks'

"Thanks to the Banks" is the variation from the wartime radio program adopted by the Future Farmers of America chapter in Prestonburg high school as the pig club made possible last year by the pig club National Bank and the Bank Josephine is beginning to pay off.

From one pig given to Glenn Woods, chapter member, pig ownership has branched out to all seven boys now have pigs. When Woods' sow farrowed, Frank Lemaster and John T. Merrill each received a pig. From Lemaster, Delmer Baldridge and Ben Green have received pigs, and pigs have been given Ervin Stone and Ben Conley by Merrill.

Club starter pigs given Glenn Stambaugh and Olie Shepherd have not yet produced litters.

The pig club plan provides that the first pig owner gives away two from the first litter, then retains for himself all others. The two boys thus getting pigs later do likewise, and so on. R. L. Shepherd, Agriculture teacher here, explains.

New Auxier Coach Looking to Sophs For Cage Season

Herschel Martin, former Prestonsburg net star, hopes this year to lead Auxier high school from the basketball slough of despond with a squad of sophomores on hand for the season's grind.

Martin succeeds Wilbur Schu as coach. Schu resigned after having been named successor to Donald Music, who transferred to Betsy this year as net mentor.

The Hornets have a big center in six-foot-three Ernest Honeguy who is a sophomore, as are the other six members of the first squad. Jimmy Hall, kid brother of Jack Hall, former Prestonsburg and Auxier star, stands an even six feet and will be at a forward position. Others counted on by Martin are Unsell, Wilcox, Wilbur Hager, Bobby Cur-nutte, Alfred Wilson and Paul Wayne Hager.

The team last year's five. Its schedule is incomplete.

Thrice-Defeated Black Cats Still Contenders for Title

The Prestonsburg Black Cats stood higher and bolder here Friday night before the jury of Louisa's undefeated Bulldogs, with the Lawrence countyans proving to the satisfaction of the last Bookline Thomas their superiority in the field of Big Sandy football.

Sparked by the superlative performance of David Preston, the Bulldogs atoned by a 44-0 score last year's 7 to 6 defeat by the Black Cats at a time when Louisa entertained high hopes of going through the season, undefeated.

Except for the running of Hill, smallest regular on either team, and Willis, Prestonsburg was not in the game. Gene Boyd, fastest Cat backfield man, was lost for most of the game, and possibly for the remainder of the season, as the result of a severe foot injury.

For greater part of the game, Neely and Dekins substituted. Preston's picture in the Prestonsburg backfield.

Louisa scored early in the first quarter when Preston fumbled the ball across the Cat goal, then recovered for the touchdown without any interference to speak of from his opponents.

After that, the Cats staged a strong running offensive of their own, piling up five consecutive first downs. But the attack stalled on the Louisa eight. On the next play Louisa's Linchows swept around end to gallop, behind perfect blocking; 92 yards for a touchdown.

Preston's scoring jaunts were for 95, 30 and 20 yards. His long run was a burst through tackle after a Prestonsburg punt had thrown Louisa back on their five. Blankenship and Blackburn chalked up the sixth and seventh Louisa markers.

An encouraging feature for the losers was the performance in the backfield of Dekins, substitute for the injured Boyd. "He's a regular now in our backfield," Coach Ted Benedet said this week.

Louisa had a weight advantage in the backfield. Prestonsburg had it in the line, but the invaders made up for size with the ferocity and accuracy of blocking and tackling fundamentals.

"Louisa has the best team we've played this year," said Coach Benedet. "And," he added, "I'm not forgetting Evans and St. X."

A tower of strength in the Prestonsburg backfield was Melton, a former Prestonsburg boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Melton.

For the next two weeks the Cats are away from home—at Betsy Friday night of this week, at Wayland the following Friday night. They close their season here Friday night, Nov. 5, in the role of hosts to their ancient athletic rivals, the Paintsville Tigers.

With the Louisa defeat behind them, the Cats still have a splendid chance to win the Big Sandy Conference championship, since they are still undefeated in the conference. Betsy and Paintsville are their last conference foes.

Although Hazard, a conference member, is undefeated in the loop the team plays only four other conference teams and under this Dickinson rating system will not win the title if Prestonsburg escapes further defeat.

Few Caught But This One'll Do

A 10-inch smallmouth caught by John R. Baldrige, of Warren, in the Big Sandy, near Whitesburg, is the largest fish reported from those who wet a line over the week-end.

By and large, the fish were not striking so readily Saturday and Sunday, reports indicate.

Fishermen returning early this week from Dale Hollow reported that good catches were being made on minnows but that the take on artificial lures was not consistent.

GARRETT FIVE WINS NO. 1

Defeats Maytown Team In Thriller Reminiscent Of Tourney Tilt Here

Last year in the district basketball tournament here, Maytown's Wildcats lost to Garrett's Black Devils in two overtime periods by a scant two-point margin, and last Friday night when the two teams renewed their athletic rivalry the result was almost as close.

The Devils won the game at Maytown, the first Floyd county high school encounter of the season, 33 to 30.

Both teams are expected to be around the top in the Floyd county net picture this year. Maytown has only one man, Gordon Clark, a guard, from last year's team and has four first-string players who better the six-foot mark, with five-foot-nine Tommy Jones, a guard, the smallest member of the team.

Wm. O. Allen is Maytown's new coach. Ed Stewart, 1947-48 coach of the team, is in school at Morehead this year. Maytown's next game is with Betsy Layne Nov. 5 at Betsy Layne.

The Wildcats' first team is composed of Gene Frazier, Bud Cooley, Vinson Patton, Wendell Jones, Jess Boyd, Tommy Jones, Miles Gibson, Jr., Clarence Martin, Ray Halbert and Charles Patton.

The line-up: Garrett: G. F. 4-10-0, M. Sloane 2-0-0-0, J. Duff 1-1-3-3, J. M. Hall 1-4-5-0, J. Sloane 4-0-3-8, C. Moore 1-0-5-2, C. Hoken 0-1-2-1

Totals: 33 7-20-33
Maytown: 30 6-12-30
W. Jones 1-1-3-7
Halbert 0-0-0-0
J. Boyd 4-4-5-12
J. Patton 1-1-2-3
B. Cooley 2-0-1-4
Frazier 2-0-1-4

Wayland Is Loser But Scores Twice On Hazard Elegen

Though losing to a heavier, more experienced Hazard team Saturday night, the Wayland Wags displayed a convincing show of scoring power as shown by the 24 to 14 score.

The Pikeville Panthers and Paintsville Tigers are still looking for victory No. 1. Friday night, West Liberty trounced Paintsville, 57 to 7, and Fleming edged Pikeville, 2 to 0. Showings in the Big Sandy Conference, Betsy showed under Elkhorn City, 36 to 0, and Whitesburg easily defeated Jenkins, 26 to 0.

Approximately 20,000 pounds of 15-31 fence have been bought by Casey county farmers this fall.

FATHER, SON ARE ACCUSED

In Riceville Slaying Of Huntington Man At Rural Church

Everett Pinson, 30 years old, of Huntington, W. Va., was shot to death October 18 at Riceville, 10 miles south of Paintsville, and Sheriff Wiley Hall said at Paintsville that a father and son are charged with a fatal murder in the case.

The Sheriff added that the son, 20-year-old Emanuel Gibson, of Riceville, was arrested by deputies Sunday morning, but that Nathan Gibson, a farmer, continued to elude arrest. The warrants were issued by Magistrate Earl Fitzpatrick.

Hall said that Pinson, who had been employed as a truck driver in the district, was both shot and killed. He added that the killing occurred in front of a church where services were being held, and that the attack was the outgrowth of a "brawl."

The Sheriff said that Pinson's coat had been "cut to shreds," but that the knife wounds were superficial, and that death apparently was caused by a single shot in the left chest.

Homenagers in Kenton county have made a total of 117 lampshades.

Members, Prestonsburg Board of Education

We pledge our continued co-operation with the County Board of Education toward the completion, as soon as possible, of an addition to our high school building which is sorely needed.

No extra funds will have to be borrowed for this work as we already have our proportional part.

We favor the construction of a new gymnasium at the earliest possible time.

We believe in hiring local teachers as far as qualifications and experience will permit.

We invite and urge all parents and patrons to visit our schools regularly. We believe you will discover that our schools compare favorably with the schools of similar communities.

Our high school is fully accredited Class-A with a full curriculum. It is unnecessary for any student to leave home to secure the best in high school education.

Martin County Man Makes Tomatoes Pay

Martin Cline, of Martin county, this season sold on the Williamson, W. Va., market $1,150 worth of tomatoes from 3,000 plants, he reported to County Agent William P. Connett, who is encouraging vegetable production. In addition, he sold many bushels directly from his farm and furnished his family with tomatoes.

Following a disastrous season in 1947, Cline sprayed his tomatoes heavily this year to control blight. All of the plants were of the Prichard variety, set April 27.

Boone county homemakers set out 2,500 bulbs of jonquills, narcissus, tulips, crocuses and hyacinths.

Bates' Home, Auto Blasted; Combs Held

Whitesburg, Ky., Oct. 27.—An automobile and a house owned by Sam Bates, operator of the Star Mine Coal Company, near here, were blasted with dynamite early today.

Leitch County Sheriff Herman Combs has arrested Ed Combs, 35, in connection with the explosion, and is looking for Combs' brother John, who also has been linked with the bombing.

Sheriff Combs said that dynamite was placed under a new Oldsmobile parked beside Bates' home. The car was demolished by the blast, and the Sheriff estimates damage to the house at about $2,000.

The Sheriff said the victim of the car was through the roof of the house and that a corner of the building was jarred off its foundation. Windows and doors were damaged, but no injuries were reported.

The officer said that Bates had refused to go bond for John Combs. He said that Bates previously had paid bond for John's brother, Ed, and that the latter had failed to appear for trial. Ed Combs had been arrested for possessing whiskey in dry Leitch County.

Ed Combs is being held on charges of bond forfeiture, and aiding and abetting in the dynamiting case.

To All VETERANS Of The SEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

My opponent, Howes Meade, with defeat staring him in the face, is making a desperate attempt to "hood-wink" the Veterans of this district into voting for him by a campaign of misrepresentation and half-truths. He is not willing to run on his record as a Congressman but is asking the Veterans to pull his chestnuts out of the fire merely because he served in the Navy in the last war. He has not seen fit to sign his name to these extravagant claims and innuendoes but has caused them to be advertised over the name of a so-called Campaign Committee.

I am not afraid to sign my name to a statement of the actual facts in this campaign and I do, so here and now, over my own signature. Here are the facts:

- (1) Howes Meade is a Veteran of World War II and so am I.
- (2) Mr. Meade served as a Commissioned Officer in the Navy and I served as an Enlisted Man Overseas in the Infantry.
- (3) Mr. Meade, on the 18th day of June, 1948 deserted the Veterans for the moneyed interests and the Real Estate Lobby, in connection with the low cost Federal Housing Program. He did this by voting for the Woolcott Bill which the real estate lobby had caused to be substituted for the Ellender-Wagner Bill. The Ellender-Wagner Bill contained substantial benefits for Veterans and other low income groups and was supported by the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars—but Mr. Meade and his colleagues in Congress defeated it by passing the substitute Woolcott Bill—thereby committing a farce and a fraud upon all the Veterans whom he now claims to love so much. On the day after Congressman Meade voted for the Woolcott Bill, a member of his own party, Senator Tohey of New Hampshire had this to say about it:

"Millionaires are behind this monstrosity sent over from the House — The Veterans have been flim flammed by this Legislation."

(4) When the Bill to permit Veterans of World War II to cash their terminal leave bonds was before Congress for Passage, MR. MEADE FAILED TO VOTE. (See Congressional Record July 7, 1947, page 8549, Roll Call 99)

(5) When the Bill to increase pensions for Civil War and Spanish American War Veterans and their dependents was up for passage, MR. MEADE AGAIN FAILED TO VOTE. (See Congressional Record June 30, 1947, page 8071, Roll Call 95).

(6) When the Bill to increase compensation to the children of deceased Veterans who died from service connected disability was up for passage, MR. MEADE AGAIN FAILED TO VOTE. (See Congressional Record, June 14, 1948, page 8249, Roll Call 103).

MR. MEADE STATES THAT THOSE OPPOSING HIM NEVER HAVE BEEN IN A FOX HOLE—MY THREE YEARS WITH GENERAL PATTON IS PROOF ENOUGH THAT I UNDERSTAND WHAT A FOX HOLE IS — WHERE DID MR. MEADE "DIG" HIS FOX HOLE? LET MR. MEADE ANSWER THIS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE DISTRICT.

Are these the votes of a friend to the Veterans? I say NO. I further say to you that the Congress-sional Record which shows how Mr. Meade voted on all legislation reveals that his claim to being the Veteran's best friend is a lot of "hog-wash."

As an overseas Veteran of World War II myself, I promise all of you Veterans that when I am your Congressman I WILL PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS AND VOTE FOR YOUR INTERESTS. I WILL NOT WAIT UNTIL JUST BEFORE AN ELECTION TO GET INTERESTED IN YOU.

I will work and vote for legislation that will enable VETERANS and people with moderate incomes to buy and build their own homes and pay for them over a long range payment period.

I will work and vote for legislation to pay adequate pensions to Veterans of World War I.

I will work and vote for legislation to pay pensions to all Veterans of all Wars who contract tuberculosis after their discharge.

I will work and vote for all other legislation beneficial to Veterans.

Let Congressman Meade run on his record. THE RECORD SHOWS HE HAS TAKEN NO STEPS TO GET A BONUS FOR ANY VETERAN DURING THE TWO YEARS HE HAS BEEN IN CONGRESS.

Be not deceived. No man has a monopoly on the spirit of patriotism or loyalty for his Comrades. As a former Enlisted Man who knows from actual experience the hardships you suffered and the sacrifices you made you may rest assured that YOU WILL HAVE A LOYAL FRIEND IN CONGRESS when I am elected your Congressman from this district.

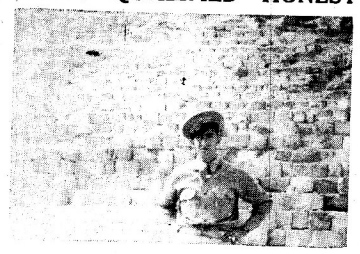

Sincerely your friend,

CARL D. PERKINS

Invents Body-Change Rig for His Ford Truck!

John J. Schaefer, livestock hauler out of Cedar Lake, designed this mechanism which permits him to change bodies on his new Ford Bonus Built Truck, in double-quick time, and all by himself.

"Something new in convertibles" is the way one of John J. Schaefer's neighbors describes the new body-change rig that John recently built for his Ford Truck. "It's as simple to operate as a one-man top on a car." When John is hauling livestock, he uses the stock rack body shown above. When he wants to convert his Ford into a platform-job to haul other kinds of material, he removes the heavy stake racks with the aid of his unique body-change rig. Body-changing is a time-saving, one-man operation that can be accomplished in minutes. What John J. Schaefer does with his new Bonus Built Ford F-6 is another example of the all-round workability of Ford Trucks. Ford Trucks are versatile! Ford Trucks cost less! Ford Trucks save money! Ford Trucks last longer! Choose from over 139 Ford Bonus Built Trucks. Take your pick of 3 new engines. Only Ford offers a choice of L-head or V-8 engine design. Only Ford offers a Gyro-Grip clutch. Only Ford has demountable brake drums. Only Ford has a Level Action suspension of a big new cab. Only Ford lasts so long. Fact is, Ford's the "only-est" truck on the road. Come in soon and try on a haul of these, and many other features available on Ford Trucks only!
