Hi-Ho, Mister! Counting our blessings is like eating a Silver Mist cake. We can't overdo it, and it sure does make us feel good all over. If you haven't stopped lately to figure out how blessed you are, right now's the best time to do it. And if the Missus hasn't baked a cake in a long time, there's no sense in putting that off any longer, either. Just make sure she uses Silver Mist Flour. That GOOD Silver Mist, that is! Sure it's good, because Silver Mist's got flavor. Home-to-goodness flavor. The kind of flavor that makes company eat eleven biscuits and wish they had nerve enough to ask for more. You think I'm kidding? No, sir. I'd swear to it on a stack of Montgomery-Roback catalogs... and so will you, first time you sit down at a table loaded with Silver Mist rolls or cakes or pies or cookies or biscuits or bread or anything else you make with flour. You just ask your grocer for some Silver Mist Flour. He's got it, because he KNOWS it's good.

Si! (That's short for Silver, Mister)

Martin Flash Downs Strong Knott Team By 29 to 23 Score

The Martin Purple Flash established itself as a major Eastern Kentucky basketball power Saturday night through its defeat of Pearl Combs' always-strong Hindman five, 29 to 23, at Martin.

The game, which featured brilliant defensive basketball, was not decided until the last two and a half minutes of play. At the half the visitors held a 15 to 10 lead over Coach Dennis Halbert's boys, but Martin drew up soon after the resumption of play in the third quarter. The score was knotted three times before Martin's game-winning spurt in the closing minutes. McCarthy, Martin guard, was high point-maker of the evening with 13 Combs and Bailey shared honors for Hindman with eight points each.

Martin lost D. Laferly on foul and Hindman was deprived of the services of Dobson and Ringer in the same manner.

P'Burg To Share Gridiron Title For 1948 Season With Fleming

Prestonsburg high school's Black Cats, defending Big Sandy Conference football champions during the season recently ended, now share the top title with the Fleming high school eleven. It was voted at a meeting of Conference representatives Sunday in Pikeville.

Each team lost one Conference game. Each likewise was undefeated in Big Sandy competition until late in the season.

Prestonsburg took a large share of honors on the mythical all-Conference team, placing three boys, "Set" Branham, Charles Neeser and Mike Horn, in the select circle. Branham, who was disqualified by his age, early in the season, is said to be the first high school player from this conference to attain all-Conference honors with a record of only three games to his credit.

Both Branham and Mike Horn last week were ranking high in the polling for all-state berths.

The all-Conference teams:

First Team

Second Team

Bendley, Fleming, end; Harmon, Prestonsburg, tackle; Tackett, Fleming, guard; Mimms, Whitesburg, center; Sawyer, Jenkins, guard; Spradlin, Prestonsburg, tackle; Adis, Beltry, end; Skinner, Beltry, quarterback; Huffman, Pikeville, and Lewis, Fleming, halfbacks; Boyd, Prestonsburg, fullback.

Third Team

Ridner, Pikeville, end; McWilliams, Jenkins, tackle; Mickey, Beltry, guard; Cox, Fleming, center; Varney, Beltry, guard; Blackburn, Beltry, tackle; Durham, Prestonsburg, end; Scott, Jenkins, quarterback; Stanley, Prestonsburg, and Harrington, Jenkins, halfbacks, and May, Pikeville, fullback.

Russell Boyd, principal of Flat Gap high school, was elected president of the conference for the coming year, with Coach Gregory, of Fleming high, vice-president. D. W. Howard, principal of Belay Layne high school, was elected conference secretary-treasurer for the 1949 conference year.

Plans for the Big Sandy Conference tournament will be discussed at the next meeting of the group at Pikeville high school at 2 p.m., December 5.

Play-Off Is Necessary
To Decide Winner
Of Vets' Net Contest

The Veterans of Foreign Wars at "bull sessions" come up with many the strange story. Now, the veterans of Prestonsburg and Garrett turn up with, of all things, a basketball game.

The game of the VFW between the two towns played at Garrett last Sunday went into the record books at 69-41. An extra period wasn't played because the players had dressed and some had left the gym when the deadlock was discovered.

As the story was told here, the scoreboard showed Garrett the winner, 70 to 66. The teams had left the door and dressed when Jack Hyden, Prestonsburg manager, decided to check the score books.

There was a general mixup, with nobody agreeing. Finally, the teams decided to settle the affair with a play-off later.

Adrian Blackburn, of Prestonsburg, led the free-scoring contest with 23 points, with Hughes, of Garrett, and Tommy Blackburn, of Prestonsburg, close behind with 20 points each—if the scoreboard at hand is right.

RABBITS CAN BE DANGEROUS ANIMALS

As the hunting season opened Saturday, the State Department of Health warned hunters and their families they may be exposed to the very real danger of tularemia. "The danger of acquiring the disease of the state with the seriousness of this disease, and of providing them with information about methods of preventing it cannot be overemphasized," said Dr. Bruce Underwood, State Health Commissioner.

Dr. Underwood pointed out that tularemia, also known as "rabbit fever," appears most often in Kentucky during the hunting season. This, together with the fact that domestic rabbits have not been known to be a source of infection, would seem to indicate that the person most frequently exposed is the hunter or the member of his family who cleans the rabbits he kills. Since more cases are reported among women than among men, we may infer that infection most often occurs in the cleaning and dressing of the carcass in preparation for cooking. The blood of the diseased animal contains germs which enter the human body through small scratches or cuts on or about the hands. Less frequently, the germs may gain entry to the bloodstream by way of the mouth when poorly cooked meat of infected rabbits is eaten. For this reason it is absolutely necessary that the meat be cooked slowly and thoroughly, so that no trace of blood or red meat remains. Proper cooking and sufficient heat will destroy any germs present.

Statistics furnished by the division of Epidemiology, State Department of Health, plainly show that tularemia should be cause for genuine concern, and should be carefully guarded against at all times. Over a 10-year period, the average number reported cases per year in Kentucky was found to be 72. Three of the cases reported for 1947 resulted in death.

The only way to combat this disease is to prevent it. If everyone who handles wild rabbits is thorough and conscientious in following a few simple rules for avoidance of infection, we may see a substantial drop in the number of cases this year. If, however, there is cause for the slightest suspicion that the disease may have been contracted, the family physician should be called at once. He will be able to confirm his diagnosis by means of blood tests, and there is more chance of successful treatment of tularemia if it is reached by the doctor in its early stages.

In an effort to call this problem to the attention of as many people as possible, the State Department of Health has, this year, prepared cards of warning of the danger of tularemia, and has requested county clerks to distribute them with all hunting licenses purchased. The cards give five simple precautions to observe in the hunting and handling of wild rabbits. They are:

1. Shoot your rabbits on the run.

2. Never handle a rabbit found dead, or brought in by a dog or cat.

3. Always wear rubber gloves when dressing a rabbit.

4. If the internal organs of the rabbit show small white spots, throw it away. It may be infected.

5. Cook rabbits thoroughly so that no red meat or blood remains. Cooking destroys germs.

DINING ROOM SUITES!

Choice selection of eight and nine-piece Dining Room Suites to be sacrificed.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF PRESTONSBURG, FLOYD COUNTY and adjacent trade territory: Having anticipated a big fall and holiday business and owing to the unsettled condition in the furniture market, same being a steady advance in furniture prices, and in order to protect our customers from the advance in prices and to save you money, we bought tremendous stocks of furniture, rugs, etc., amounting to thousands of dollars. We confess to an error in judgment. We over-bought. The anticipated big business in furniture, due to local conditions, failed to materialize. Our store and warehouse are overloaded, not an inch of space for merchandise that is arriving daily. We have no alternative, we must unload and unload quickly. Our auctioneer is instructed to sell. No reasonable offer will be refused. So, if you are in need of furniture, come! Buy now for years to come. We therefore extend to you and your friends a royal invitation to come and attend the auction. Participate in this great bargain event.

Look Elsewhere, Mr. Ferguson!

While the Ferguson committee's sleuths were giving the boys in Floyd and Knott counties the jaundiced stare during the recent election, high-jinks were happening around at unsuspected and unguarded points.

So flagrant were the election law violations in Bourbon county, down in the Bluegrass, while Ferguson's minions were eyeing the political game here in the mountains that now the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the federal courts and numerous others are interested.

While all this was going on, Senator Ferguson himself was being re-elected from the state of Michigan under circumstances which may result in a Congressional investigation.

The Times proudly reports that in the meantime the Ferguson investigators were racking up to a disappointment hereabouts. They found Floyd and Knott counties engaged in the good, old American business of conducting an election such as Bourbon county and the state of Michigan should have conducted.

Time was when Floyd county needed, at election-time, a small army of investigators, followed by a regiment of iron prosecutors. Those days—now gone forever, we hope—saw ballot boxes stuffed, stolen, looted, "precincts" were "set up"; the individual voter and his wishes counted for little.

Now, however, Floyd county compares favorably with any in Kentucky in the matter of elections. Violence must be practised—we have not reached that political millennium yet when either one party or one individual can be trusted with the political fortunes of others but the days when skulduggery at the polls was the rule rather than the exception are, happily, no more.

The Times mentions this improvement with the thought of commending the men and women of this county who at a sacrifice serve as election officers and perform a very real service to their county, state and country by so conducting elections that the people's wishes in the matter are regarded more than those of one or more politicians.

BETSY LAYNE

Mrs. Mary Elliott visited relatives at Martin for a few days last week. The Youth Fellowship group, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hays at the Methodist Church, attended a district youth rally at the Pikeville church last Saturday. Luncheon was served to approximately 75 young people and several visiting adults and a fine program was presented.

Out-of-town visitors with relatives last week-end included Mr. and Mrs. James Merrill and daughter, of Bend, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. Gordon George and children, Puritan, W. Va., and Mrs. S. R. Haney, of Louisville.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Isaac Stratton for Orbis Ray Boyd, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Orbis Boyd, from the Freewill Baptist Church Saturday evening.

Many friends attended the wedding of Emily Roop to Morris King at the Baptist Church in Pikeville last Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Blackburn returned from Lexington to visit their relatives last week-end.

Friends are glad to learn of the improvement of Robert Fletcher Anderson, son of the Rev. Robert Anderson. He suffered a concussion.

Jack Mullins, of Berna, visited his mother, Mrs. Bertha Mullins, last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Mullins was ill at the time of her son's visit but is able to be out again.

The annual union Thanksgiving service was held Thursday evening at the Freewill Baptist Church with many attending and different churches participating in the program. This service has been conducted for nine years, being held in a different church each time. It is a service displaying a fine spirit of thanksgiving and fellowship among the people in the community.

In Scott county, 107 rural home-owners had their drinking water tested the past year.

with a convenient Extension Telephone within arm's reach

Sleep is sounder and nights are safer when an extension telephone is on guard.

This is one of the many advantages an extension telephone provides for the home and family. An extension saves time and steps. It improves your service and makes your telephone more valuable by increasing its usefulness. Extension telephones can now be installed in homes at small cost. You don't need to write us or come to the office. Just call our Business Office.

Orders for main telephone service are sometimes delayed because of shortages of central office and other equipment, which are not involved in the installation of extension telephones. ## Thanks to many people for many things

THIS IS THE SEASON OF THANKSGIVING . . .

And there is much for which we can all be thankful in this great country of ours.

Certainly we are thankful for a bountiful harvest of grain and corn, for a high level of production and employment, for a standard of living that is the envy of the world.

Most of all, perhaps, we are grateful for our American heritage . . . freedom of opportunity, freedom of choice, freedom to think and worship according to our own beliefs.

We feel as a Chevrolet dealer it is an appropriate time to convey our sincere appreciation to the people of this community for their loyalty, patience and understanding.

For Despite Chevrolet's production of more cars and trucks during 1948 than any other manufacturer there is still a long "waiting list" for America's most-wanted cars and trucks.

Chevrolet is doing everything within its power to maintain and increase production. Meantime, we would like to express our thanks . . .

Thanks to Buyers and Prospective Buyers of New Chevrolets for your generous recognition of the honest value built into this first-choice car in the low-priced field. More people have bought Chevrolet cars and trucks, during the eighteen-year period from 1931 to date, than have bought the cars and trucks of any other manufacturer.

Thanks to Those Who Are Waiting for Orders to be filled for your patience and understanding. You can be sure we are doing our best to treat all customers fairly . . . doing our best to speed the day when we can give you the good news, "Your waiting days are over!"

Thanks to Service Customers for the opportunity to keep your present cars in safe driving condition. We have tried to serve you well, and appreciate your patronage.

Thanks to all whose friendship and favor have helped maintain Chevrolet's leadership . . .

Thanks for your patronage which has made

In Thanksgiving

Lord God, we give Thee thanks this day,
Humbly, in our faltering way,
Not with the graceful words of art,
But simply, deeply, with our hearts—
As little children mindful of
A Father's broad and boundless love.

We thank Thee, Lord, for everything—
The shining miracle of Spring,
Green grass, and cool and kindly rains,
Stars, and soft clouds in silken skeins,
For tall trees, patient and precise
That point the way to Paradise.

We give Thee thanks for life's rich years,
For courage, and for cleansing tears,
For faith that builds us tall and strong,
For laughter, and the gift of song—
And most of all—that we are free
To bring our grateful hearts to Thee.

Dear Lord, we give Thee thanks for youth,
For trust and tenderness and truth,
For brotherhood—that we may tread
A peaceful earth, and break the bread
Of friendship with our fellow men;
We give Thee thanks for love. AMEN.
