CURLIN NAMED BY WETHERBY

To Head Highway Dept.
When Keck Resignation
Is Effective, Feb. 15

Governor Lawrence Wetherby has appointed William M. Curlin, commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Highways.

"I'm giving him full and complete authority to administer the affairs of the department," Wetherby said.

"I have asked him to make a complete and thorough investigation of all the operations of the department, and if any practices or operations are not as they should be, I have instructed him to remedy such practices or operations. He has a free hand."

"If any contractor or vendor who has dealings with the Highway Department in the past has any information of wrongdoing, I will want him to give such information to Mr. Curlin on me."

"The Highway Department must be administered in such a manner as to give the people complete confidence in its operations. I am confident that under Mr. Curlin it will be so conducted."

Curlin, 45, is a native of Hickman, Fulton county. He joined the Highway Department as a roadman in 1925 and is a registered professional engineer. He has been deputy highway commissioner under Commissioner John A. Keck, who resigned last Thursday, effective February 15, the day Curlin will take over.

Wetherby's statement made no direct reference to four suits in which Keck and certain highway contractors are accused of bribery, conspiracy and bid-rigging in the award of contracts. The Franklin county grand jury recently cleared Keck and the department of the charges, saying it was unable to turn up any evidence of mispractices warranting indictment.

Keck resigned soon after that. He said he did so because he feared his continuing in office might embarrass the Governor and the Administration.

For the third successive year, the Happy-Go-Lucky 4-H Club of Altoon school was named the outstanding club in Anderson county.

An Old Patient With a New Doctor

SOME mild criticism has been heaped locally on Governor Lawrence Wetherby's choice of a new Highway Commissioner to succeed John A. Keck who retired from the field of battle while under heavy fire.

There was no criticism of William M. Curlin, the new Commissioner, as a man. The objection was to his being a resident of Western Kentucky, and at that the views expressed were not so much in the form of criticism as the expression of political "fear."

"Afraid the Governor's made a mistake appointing a western Kentucky man - too many appointments already from that section . . . should have named somebody from this part of the state," etc.

All of which is purely political, and so inconsequential, yak-yak insofar as the state of Kentucky, the soundness of its institutions and the integrity of its officials are concerned.

If Governor Wetherby has appointed a man who will make an honest effort to probe into whatever relationship which may be infecting the Highway Department and to follow up with a major operation, if necessary, to rid the Department of these suspected sores, he has made the right appointment. Otherwise, he has failed. The Governor has indicated he expects an honest effort of Mr. Curlin. Time will tell.

The resignation from the post of Eastern Kentucky's John A. Keck did not cure the Department's ills. They are ills, we suspect, which are chronic, which date back into state history. Both Republicans and Democrats have permitted the sores to fester, close temporarily and then again to poison the system of the road politics. We all have seen the patient suffer. We all have suffered.

How much Judge Charles L. Dawson will be able to prove of the charges that, specifically, the ills of the State Highway Department consist of bribery, conspiracy and bid-rigging, we do not know. It may be that Dr. Dawson's diagnosis is incorrect.

But he should be given every help in learning the truth. And the new commissioner of the State Highway Department and the Governor of Kentucky should sit in on the probe, as coldly, methodically and interestedly as would any doctor striving for a cure for his patient.

Membership Growth Plans To Be Discussed by Scout Leaders at Wampum Meet

A long-range plan for membership growth is being formulated by Scout leaders of Lanesboro Pine Council, according to information received from E. R. Price, Wheelwright, a past president of the Council and at present the National Council representative.

Mr. Price reported that a planning meeting will be held at the Wampum Conference at Pikeville Junior College, Feb. 17, to explore the possibilities of long-range growth. Representatives from the following districts have been invited to attend the meeting: Pike district, Floyd district, Leitcher district, Kentucky River district including Knott, Perry, Leslie and Breathitt counties, Johnson district including Johnson, Mazoni, and Martin counties; Buchanan district including Dickerson county in Virginia, Wise district, Lee and Russell districts.

At present, the Council has a membership of approximately 2,000 boys. About one boy out of 15 of Scout age in the area is a Scout. The long-range objective is to increase the program of Scouting to the national average of one boy out of every four.

Mr. Price said that a big expansion membership for Cub Scouts is anticipated during 1961. Cub Scouting is a program for boys between the ages of eight to eleven.

With the development of new opportunities for the camping and out-of-doors program, the growth of Explorer Scouting is also expected. The development of Dewey Lake with opportunities in boating, swimming, fishing and camping is expected to give strong impetus to the Senior Scout program.

Congressman Perkins contacted the RPO when officials there were told that agency would advance funds for an essential project against the grant to be made by another federal agency. This had been done in the case of the city of Huntington, W. Va., where a similar hospital project is sought. With a shortage of materials looming, it was considered that prompt action must be taken to procure funds with which to get the Floyd county hospital under way.

But Congressman Perkins reported on his investigation of what happened at Huntington: "I also discussed with the RPO authorities in what manner the city of Huntington, received a loan for the construction of a hospital. They advised me that they have no record of either a loan application form, or a loan commitment to the city of Huntington for hospital construction purposes. I also talked to Congressman Burnside who represents the Huntington area, and he informed me that he knew nothing about any RPO loan or that one had been asked for. He did tell me that the city of Huntington possessed a B classification under Hill-Burton funds, but as no funds were available, the hospital could not be constructed at this time."

RPO officials told Congressman Perkins they have the authority to aid in financing the construction of municipal projects such as hospitals but that the financing has always been accomplished through the purchase of bonds which the municipality has authority to issue and sell; that their assistance could only be extended if the desired funds are not otherwise available on reasonable terms. This would mean the money would have to be repaid dollar for dollar in the event a loan was received from the RPO. Perkins suggested that county officials discuss this method and decide if they would like to have an RPO loan and that the financing be assisted by him in obtaining the loan," he added.

"Ten cents," The sheriff ignored him, for the occasion was one that could not be so leavened by wit or humor.

A mill-owner advanced and said: "I bid fifty cents a day for the services of this man." There being no further bids, the sheriff cried: "Sold." A few flourishes of a quill pen on official papers and the event for which the crowd had gathered was over.

The man sold into servitude went home with his master and for 12 months, as the law decreed, he worked in the mill or on the farm and to his family sent the monthly sum of fifty cents a day his services brought.

The two barefooted urchins who had striven from the scene lived to be very old. The one that retired rattlely from the field died in 1904. The other lived over a decade longer, dying in the late 30's, after a long service in the ministry. In the evening of their lives they recalled more vividly than any other scene, the sale of the white man on the oaken stump.

To All Policyholders, Wade Hall Ins. Agency

Very recently, I was offered a wonderful promotion in the insurance business, which takes me to Lexington, Ky., March 1, 1951. This offer for me, plus added opportunities for my family, was just too good not to accept. So after my acceptance of the offer, I was faced with the problem of finding proper persons to purchase my insurance agency here. This was finally worked out and the following men purchased my agency:

A. B. Combs, banker and attorney.
C. Kilmer Combs, attorney.
Gardner K. Combs, agency manager.
Glenn C. Spradlin, banker, First Guaranty Bank.
Thus the Wade Hall Insurance Agency will be owned and operated by the above-named persons in the trade name of COMBS-SPRADLIN INSURANCE AGENCY. They have the agency dating from Jan. 1, 1951. Let me impress upon you that all of these men are capable business men and the agency will be managed by Gardner K. Combs, who has been with me for nearly a year now. The others will serve in an advisory capacity. Also, the agency policyholders will have, at all times, the benefit of the vast business experience of these men. The offices will be kept where they are now and the only changes will be in the ownership of the business. You will receive the same courteous as you have in the past and the office personnel will be there to always serve you. Of course, any time my services are needed, I will be available and just as near as the telephone.

Now, let me take this opportunity to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the continued confidence you have shown in me and for the business you have entrusted to me, which business was mainly responsible for the now new promotion I am going to receive.

Sincerely yours,
WADE HALL

While Special Officer Sumbo and others were at the hospital here with the wounded mine foreman, a telephone call came telling of a rifle shot having been fired at another man-trip after the other two at taskmaster fled into the darkness. Rowe readily talked when questioned by County Judge Henry Sumbo and other officials at the jail at 3 a.m. today. He signed a statement which gave this version of the trouble:

He met Wright and Owsley at John Owsley's store on Caney about noon Wednesday, and the three men left the store together, going to Wright's home. They left Wright's residence about 10:30 p.m., to go to the Princess Elkhorn mines.

"We all had shotguns," the statement read. "We went up to the mines for the purpose to shoot some Johnson county men, and I fired three shots into the mine and minding cars. There were some five or six men in these cars." He added that his companions fired several shots.

Apparently, the attack developed from resentment of the three, who were unemployed, against Johnson county workmen.

Mine officials said some of the three had been working for the company. The company's mines had reopened only last night after having been flooded by last week's rain-fall and thaw.

Two weeks ago, a man-trip was fired on, but officials of the coal company had disregarded the incident, hoping, they said, there would be no further trouble and hesitating to start an investigation which might result in the imprisonment of some resident of that section.

Willie Owsley, who became 18 only recently, was given a job some time ago, a mine official said, but did not return to produce the necessary birth certificate. It was learned he was only 17 at the time and so could not be employed in the mines, it was said. Later, another man was hired for the job and Owsley did not return until after the place had been filled and there were no job openings.

Rome was slated to be taken to the Prestonburg General hospital this morning for an operation.

Arrest of Owsley and Wright is expected to be made today. Authorities here said Circuit Judge E. P. Hill may be asked to convene a special grand jury to investigate the attack on the mineworkers.

Kentuckians Got THOUSANDS MORE TELEPHONES IN 1950

1950 was another big telephone year in Kentucky. Southern Bell installed 54,701 telephones... enough to serve another city four times the size of Paducah.

The big job, however, was making new telephones possible by constructing and enlarging buildings, installing central office equipment, building lines and stringing wire and cable. In all we spent more than $9,400,000 last year to expand and improve Kentucky's telephone service.

Today Kentucky has almost twice as many telephones as were in service at the end of World War II... twice as many long distance calls... three times as many rural telephones. That's mighty important right now as the nation mobilizes for defense.

In the days ahead, Southern Bell can be counted on to do its full part in defense—in Kentucky and throughout the South.

C. HUNTER GREEN, Kentucky Manager

Where Money to Expand and Improve Service Comes From

It doesn't come from the money you pay for telephone service... that money goes to pay wages, taxes and other operating costs. The money to build new facilities must come from people with money to invest. That's why the future of telephone service depends on the Company's ability to pay for the use of money invested in telephone facilities.

Two Floyd Men Receive Awards for Long Service With Highway Department

Floyd county men were listed among those receiving awards for long service with the Kentucky Department of Highways at a ceremony at Frankfort, February 1.

Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby, Commissioner of Highways John A. Keck, Commissioner of Rural Highways Emerson Beauchamp, and State Highway Engineer Dwight E. Bray officiated at the ceremony and Governor Wetherby presented the certificate and service pins recognizing each man for his period of service.

In their remarks congratulating the award recipients, the Governor, Commissioners Keck and Beauchamp, and Mr. Bray all stressed the value to the Highway Department of the efficiency and knowledge gained by each man in long experience with his job. The policy of the department in retaining men for a long period of service was pointed out as an "important factor" in developing the overall ability of the Highway Department to do an effective job of highway building and maintenance in the state and in carrying out the record-breaking road program of the department in recent years.

Floyd county men who received awards included:

Ten or fifteen years' service: J. D. Fitzpatrick, Prestonsburg; Melvin D. Lafferty, Sloan.

Johnson Probes Death
Of 'Ned' Daniels, 59;
Poison Found in Auto

Paintsville, Ky., Feb. 6.—Three companions of Edgar "Ned" Daniels on the night he died testified before a court of inquiry here today.

County Attorney Don Vanhook said the testimony would be studied, along with a chemical analysis of stomach fluids from Daniels' body, before any legal action is taken.

The FBI is making the analysis and is expected to report about Friday.

Daniels' body was found Sunday in the home of a friend on Tom's Creek, two miles from Sitka, a 7-year-old son of Daniels was found near an abandoned car in which Daniels and the three other men had been riding shortly before the 39-year-old coal miner died.

GI Policyholders To Get Dividend Worth $685,000

Payment of a second special dividend totaling $685,000 to the holders of some 8,000,000 National Service (GI) Life Insurance policies has been announced by Carl R. Gray, Jr., administrator of Veterans' Affairs.

Dividends will be calculated through the anniversary date of the policy in 1951 and payment will be distributed over a period of one year. First checks will be ready in April.

VA urged veterans not to write regarding this second dividend, since correspondence would cause removal of the veteran's file from the production lines and delay payment.

The payments will cover a three-year period, from 1948 to 1951 and policies held in force for three months or more during this period will be eligible for dividends. "This includes both term and permanent plan policies, including those which have lapsed or were terminated by death of the insured veteran."

The amount of the dividend earned by each policy will vary according to the number of months it was in force, the plan of insurance, face value of the policy and the age of the insured at the time it became effective. VA said studies on rates to be paid are still being made.

VA explained that the first special dividend of $2.8 billion, payment of which has almost been completed, covered the period each policy was in force up to its anniversary date in 1948. The second dividend will be for the number of months from that date to the corresponding date in 1951. Policies issued in 1948, 1949 and 1950 will earn dividends up to their anniversaries in 1951.

Unlike the first dividend, no application will be required for the second dividend.

Adult county gardeners who last year used phosphate to aid in pollination of lima beans, reported large yields.

Cats' Losing Streak Continues, Tho Wasps Extended To Win Here

Although throwing a scare into Wayland, one of the state's top-rated teams, and leading the Wasps through most of the game here Saturday night, the Prestonsburg high school Black Cats continued their losing streak by losing in the last quarter, 50-45, then dropping their third straight game at Elkhorn City, 65-54. Earlier last week, they lost at Paintsville, 67-53.

Coach "Scale" Martin sent his charges into the Wayland game with instructions to play possession-type ball, and so they did. They almost got away with it. At the end of the first half, the score was: Prestonsburg 17, Wayland 10. The game gathered speed, however, in the last half, and, though Hopper and Pringle fouled out, the Wasps' sub came through.

At Elkhorn City Hunsley, Hughes and Lafferty were sidelined in the second half via the foul route.

CONSOL COAL LEASES LAND

Cassidy Says Co. Plans To Build River Tipple And Coal Storage Yard

The urgency of his family's needs is believed to have motivated the death this week of a young miner.

The victim, 28-year-old John Charles Cassidy, an overseas veteran of World War II, told fellow employees at the Martin Mining Company, Drift, Monday morning that he was sick but that his wife and children at their Emma home needed the food his work would buy.

Not long afterward, he was dead of what a physician diagnosed as a heart attack.

The victim was a son of George and Sally Hubbard Goble, and was a native of the Emma vicinity. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jane Goble, and seven children, Eddie, Donald, Delmar, Avo, Bertrill, all of Emma, Mrs. Aris Shaw and Mrs. Clara Iren, both of Drift. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Loy Goble, Wheelwright, H. Everett and Albert Goble, all of Emma, Sammy Goble, Nashville, O., Mrs. Susan Shears and Mrs. Mary Bell Hall, both of Emma, Mrs. Eric Laferney, West Prestonsburg, Mrs. Elizabeth Shepherd and Mrs. Ruth Brannan, of Drift.

Funeral rites were conducted Wednesday from the Emma Methodist Church. The Rev. Isaac Stratton officiating, and burial was made in the family cemetery at Emma under direction of the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

PARIS — Longer helmets and fashions with a Chinese twist to them were displayed when Dolesner's store here, Hemlines have been stabilized just above the midlevel.

Consolidation Coal Company (K.C.), Jenkins, announced Monday that the company had made a long-term lease of property along the Ohio river in Ashland for the future operation of a river tipple and coal storage yard. This property is known as the old Ashland airport.

Driftine plans for construction have not yet been made for facilities for unloading, storing and re-loading of coal for shipment by either rail or river. All of these facilities, including a tipple with suitable docks for river loading, will eventually be erected by Consolidation. It is expected that other coal companies will also use the plant.

Consolidation is the largest coal producer in Eastern Kentucky, operating five mines in Letcher, Pike and Harlan counties. Coal from these mines is processed through large, modern preparation plants containing complete coal washing and drying facilities.

Decision on Southern Bell Plea for Ky. Rate Increase To Be Reached by March 2

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 8.—The hearing on the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company's plea for a $2,691,000 rate increase in Kentucky ended today. It began last August.

Chairman Robert M. Coleman of the Public Service Commission said the decision on the application will be reached by March 2, the date when the company's refund bonds expire.

Southern Bell put the final touch to its case and related the qualifications of some of the witnesses who elaborated on testimony they had offered earlier.

Last week the company closely questioned James M. Housker, a special consultant for the commission in this case, as to his qualifications as a witness on telephone matters.

When R. R. Stubbs, a Southern Bell vice-president and always its leading witness in rate cases, took the stand today, Assistant Attorney General Gardner Ashcraft got these replies from him:

That Stubbs is not an attorney, is not a licensed accountant, his no formal education in accounting, had never built a telephone plant, "but I believe I can still climb a pole."

Stubbs said he obtained his telephone knowledge through experience.

The company put a rate schedule designed to raise $2,691,000 a year, into effect last July 8. It posted bond totaling $1,800,000, permitted by statute, to guarantee refund of increase if any or all of it is ruled excessive.

MAYTOWN

"Aunt" Nancy Martin passed away at the home of Mrs. Mary Osborne, Eastern, early Sunday morning. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family. She was a former resident of Maytown and had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Ellen Martin, of Wilson. Due to the flood, she had been moved to Eastern last week. She died from an illness stemming from the in-firmities of age. She was 84 years of age.

Mrs. George Badridge, of Warco is in the hospital at Prestonsburg. Mrs. G. B. Martin, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, of Drift visited Mrs. Rebecca May and family Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Amy Begley and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tingle attended the Maytag Ditch Oven Cooking School which was held in the Wayland grade school, Friday evening. Both Mrs. Begley and Mrs. Tingle won several nice prizes.

Mrs. Luther Harmon is in the hospital at Prestonsburg taking treatments for asthma. If the high waters had raised another two feet practically all homes in the area would have been flooded last week. As it was, the water rose into a lot of homes and many families left their homes as the waters raged high. Mrs. Jones Talbot and children, Mrs. Ed Stewart and Eddie, and Mrs. Bernice Patton spent Thursday night with Mrs. Viola Stewart; Mrs. V. O. Turner was the guest of the Stapletons; Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Howell and children went to his brother's home on Wilson; Mrs. Buddy Robinson and Larry stayed with Joe Bradley; Mrs. Catherine Patton and her son, Charlie Patton, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Welles and daughter spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Icen stayed with his mother; Mr. and Mrs. David Reed and son went to his parents' home at Drift; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Stewart stayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Begley. These are only a few of the families who had to leave their homes.

The water also rose into the Methodist Church building. Thanks is extended to Rev. Kenzie, Tomas Patrick, Charles Patton and Willard Manuel, assisted by some of the Boy Scouts, who worked so hard together the mud cleaned out of the church Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Rader spent Saturday afternoon in Martin. Judy Carol Snoddy, of Bolman, is convalescing from the measles at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stinson. Judy was in the hospital at Pikeville last week suffering a severe case of droop throat.

Hats off to Mrs. A. B. Patrick, of Prestonsburg, for the making of cakes. We "got in" in a piece of Thomas Patrick's six-layer birthday cake, which she baked and it was better than any bakery product.

Frank Stewart has finished his studies at Morehead College. He will return in June to graduate with the rest of his classmates. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ramey and sons were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patrick. Mrs. Viola Stewart left Sunday afternoon for Archard where she joined Mrs. Albert Osborne, of Russell, Ky. They left there by train for Miami, Florida where they will visit for two weeks with Mrs. Stewart's daughter, Mrs. J. A. Dixon, Jr. and Mr. Dixon.

Mrs. M. G. O. Hager was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Moore of Left Beaver, who suffered a heart attack recently. Elizabeth Bouchon has been confined to her home for the past week by influenza.

The Ladies Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Patrick Tuesday, February 13. Each person is to bring a 25¢ gift to be exchanged. The husbands are invited to this meeting which will be a Valentine party instead of the usual sewing session.

Farmers in Letcher county are planning to set several thousand black walnut, locust and pine trees.

Pfc. James R. Layne, Jr., 19, former Hueysville miner, recently wrote his parents, James R. and Maude L. Layne, that he was the last U. S. "I'm not sorry I am in Korea," he wrote his mother, "because I might save others of my family from having to come to a hell-hole like this."

Pfc. Layne enlisted in the army in February, 1950, received his basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and has been in Korea four months.

Mrs. Shepherd's Brother Receives DFC Award

T/Sgt. George W. McGuire, of Berea, a brother of Mrs. Robert L. Shepherd, Prestonsburg, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for heroic conduct as an engineer of an unarmed transport plane in the Korean fighting.

The citation accompanying the medal sets out that McGuire "displayed outstanding ability and judgment and was outstandingly courageous in the performance of missions" which he flew between Nov. 21 and Dec. 6, during which period he and members of his crew flew repeatedly to the Chosin Reservoir area to deliver critical supplies to surrounded U.S. troops. His plane, operating in sub-zero weather from makeshift airstrips and under continual enemy fire, evacuated U.N. wounded from the front on its return to home base from these missions.

Forty-nine Henderson county homemakers reported having freezer lockers in which they stored 13,778 pounds of food last year.

State Police Report 24,559 Were Arrested For Traffic Violations

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 30.—State police today reported that 24,559 traffic arrests were made during 1950. Some 57,000 other people received the familiar red tickets warning them not to do it again.

Capt. Keith B. Jones, in charge of the Bureau of Traffic and Operations, said the 1950 arrests were 11,559 more than in 1949, and the number of warning tickets increased 55 per cent. He added: "We have a limited number of men and we are proud of the job they did last year. The average trooper has to work long hours, but the courts are upholding him in his decisions. That is evident in the 20,734 convictions out of 25,519 arrests made during 1950."

"Kentucky's traffic problem is growing every year with the ever increasing number of automobiles on the roads, and our accident rate, which was higher last year, demands even closer supervision. "Our men investigated over 8,000 accidents, which took a toll of over 600 lives. Our job is to help the motoring public, but they must help themselves by observing all of the safety rules and laws of the highway."

In addition to traffic, 4,328 criminal arrests were made by troopers on the road, the report added. This included such violations as drunkenness in a public place and breach of the peace.

Property recovered by the State police amounted to $902,842.37, and fines levied by the courts totaled $167,621.53.

Transy Student Hits Agriculture Branch In Research Paper

A Transylvania College student, Onell Hester, of Irvine, Ky., has written a research paper in which he claims that the Department of Agriculture "has acquired for itself a kind of autonomy, a power to actually govern the people whom it is supposed to serve."

Describing Secretary of Agriculture, Charles F. Brannan, he writes, "Few men in a democracy have ever had a more powerful political instrument."

Onell Hester, senior student at Transylvania, and a veteran of the last war, was one of three men doing research on the subject of tobacco. His phase of the work was "Tobacco and Politics."

The Production and Marketing Agency, central bureau of the department, was originally formed with the intention of instituting the own meeting type of Democracy among farmers. He found, however, after three months of intensive research on the subject, that the farmer committees formed have been undermined by an unstoppable trend within the Department of Agriculture. Hester wrote, "The state committees are over the county committees, and these state committees are appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture. Men who do not conform with the beliefs of the Secretary of Agriculture can be removed from the field of politics as far as the field of politics is concerned. These appointed men are looked upon as spokes for the government by the farmer."

The student stated that he believes that "it now has become clear to most farmers that the farmer committees are no more than camouflage for the real power of the Department of Agriculture."

He found that, though the farmer has gained much in the way of benefits from the government, he has done so at the cost of a considerable amount of freedom. Hester believes that "eventually the farmers will overthrow the government rule and insist upon instituting their own farm program, managed by themselves in a more democratic way."

The government attempt to control the tobacco farmer is nothing new in this country. "The Virginia Assembly of 1629" wrote the "furnishes us with the earliest government control of tobacco production, reducing crops to 1,500,000 pounds by burning the remainder."

The modern and more thorough counterpart of the act of the Colonial Virginia Assembly has been the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1933. Though found to be unconstitutional in 1935, "many acts have been passed since to accomplish the same things by different methods."

The thesis was the first of three on tobacco to be released by the Department of Political Science of Transylvania College, the other two being completed within the next few weeks, said Dr. George E. Dadds, head of the department.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 29.—Governor Lawrence Wetherby today announced selection of a committee to help re-write Kentucky's much-criticized purgation and registration laws.

The committee is to work with the Legislative Research Commission in a study and rewriting of these statutes.

Named to the committee were: George J. Kaufman, Campbell County clerk; R. Cary Graham, Franklin county clerk; Harris Coleman, former county attorney of Jefferson county; S. R. Cheek, Boyle county judge, and Dr. Gladys Kammerer, professor of political science at the University of Kentucky.

Newest Car in the World Today

Take your pick! 4-door Sedan, 2-door Sedan, 6- and 3-passenger Coupes, Riveras, Convertibles

New in Style—New in Structure—New in Power—New in Thrift—
Potent in Price Appeal—It's the 1951 BUICK SPECIAL!

HERE is good news for folks with a shrewd eye for what their dollars will buy.

Here is a tidy traveler that defies the upward trend of costs—proudly wears a 1951 price tag like that which zoomed last year's SPECIAL into popularity so great that it put a crimp in "the low-priced three."

Take our word for it, this is every inch and ounce a Buick—Buick-featured, Buick-designed, Buick-built from the ground up—but literally the newest thing on wheels.

The sturdy and ample body is new. The high-strength frame is new. The power is new to the SPECIAL, which now has the thrifty I-263 engine that first made its name in the SUPER, and here delivers 120 horsepower with standard transmission—128 with Dynaflow Drive.

It's a Buick with less weight and more power—and that spells a pair of new thrills for you. There's a performance thrill such as you've never enjoyed in the SPECIAL—plus a handsome gas-saving into the bargain.

We'll make a prediction now as to what title folks will give it, once they get it out on the road.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

That title in three words, will be: "Thriftest Buick Yet!"

Better hurry around to your Buick dealer's and look this marvel over. We'll give you another prediction—which is:

Once this one's discovered, the demand will be terrific.

No other car provides all this:

Floyd County Historical Notes

By HENRY F. SCALE

Frequently in the mail are letters from former Big Sandians who yet retain their love for the storied and historic valley. Ever there is that pride in being a native for the Sanny country—old people possessed, perhaps by no other people in such intensity.

A letter from Mrs. Addie Burgess, 222 Capitol Avenue, Frankfort, Kentucky, while it exhibits this pride of home and people, contributes as well certain generalities on the Vaughns and Youngs that are indeed interesting.

"Permit me to state by way of introduction that I am, every whit, a Big Sandian, and that my ancestors on my mother's side were those who migrated from Virginia to Floyd county in the days when the county comprised a great territory. For several years I have worked here in Frankfort. Although circumstances brought me here to work, my heart is still with my loved ones on Big Sandy, where my pioneer forefathers added materially to the cultured atmosphere which may not be found anywhere else in the world.

"My maiden name was Hester Addie Glickerson. I was named for my great-aunt, Hester Vaughan Spradlin. My mother was Annie Maerva Brown, daughter of James Young Brown and Martha Vaughan. "Martha Vaughan, my grandmother, was the daughter of Patrick Henry Vaughan and Susan Hatfield Vaughan whose families came from Virginia about 1800 and settled near the mouth of Stephens Branch, about one mile below Prestonsburg. I think there is now a school building on the same site. Their graves may be seen on the left of the road, near the bridge.

DAVID

Mrs. M. E. Thompson, who was ill in the Prestonsburg hospital last week, has returned to her home and is improving nicely.

Peter J. Capelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Capelli, has been seriously ill in a Louisville hospital for the past several days, his parents were there with him all of last week. He is reported to be slowly recovering at this writing.

Martha Vaughan married James Young Brown; Polly Vaughan married Samuel Preston; Hettie Vaughan married

"I might add that Elizabeth Vaughan Horn and Ned Horn were the grandparents of your present publisher, also that Horn Chapel was named for them as they contributed liberally to the building and support of that church and were instrumental in the long life of that little church which grew from a log cabin to the present block structure which was dedicated in 1947. I was happy to be present for this occasion and to bear one of the Spadlins of pioneer ancestry deliver the dedicatory sermon. In which he mentioned the fact that Uncle Ted and Aunt Liz Horn were instrumental in building this church.

"My grandfather's mother was Annie Young, daughter of James Young who once operated the Young's Salt Works on Middle Creek and owned large acreage in that vicinity. This Annie Young married Robert Brown. This was my great-great-grandfather, James Young Brown, a son, married Martha Vaughan, James Y. Brown with his wife and ten children moved to the town of Peach Orchard, in Lawrence county. However, he took part in the boat fight during the Civil War and was taken prisoner, marched on foot through the head of Big Sandy to Libby Prison where there confined until the end of the war.

In conclusion Mrs. Burgess says: "It's true that these beloved old pioneers have passed on to their reward but the threads of memory reach from each grave into the hearts of the remnants of their families who still abide in the shadows of the Big Sandy hills, who often recall the stories of romance, revivals, riches and rations of old time winters, which are now only history."

To Mrs. Burgess, thanks for a great letter.

Years ago rural people who toiled in the fields through the summer that they might have sufficient food when old man winter occurred the land would say, when the outlook for ample food was bleak, that "Old Man Swift" will get us." Sometimes when a reference was made to a shiftless, never-do-well someone would say: "Old Man Swift will get him." The expression as used was as synonym for starvation or extreme need. Does anyone know the origin of this reference to "Old Man Swift"? Somewhere back in our past there must have been an "Old Man Swift," a terror to those who did not want to work and who cast a shadow over those who, while they toiled, were afraid and insecure.
