In Appreciation

This is Teacher Appreciation Week, and it is one of the few "Weeks" in which we find no fault. We subscribe without reservation to the doctrine that the women and men who are next to parents themselves, loaded with the responsibility of shaping young lives, deserve our fullest appreciation.

These are the people, these teachers, on whose program of education must necessarily depend. All the fine buildings and educational facilities, all the well-planned curricula—none of these, not even full treasuries to pay higher salaries, can take the place of those individuals on whom the child must depend for love, care, guidance, proper discipline and instruction.

The quality of the school depends, above all, on its teachers. Let boards of education and all others interested in the education of children remember that. Higher teacher salaries, deserved and desirable as they are, will not suffice. The women and men who get those salaries must be the best that are available if the parent's tax monies are not to be wasted and the children themselves are not to be cheated.

It is a grand calling, that of the teacher—an ill-paid calling, true—an exacting one, with its cares, frustrations and disappointments, but a calling in which the rewards can be, and often are, great.

The teacher who is aware of her responsibility and sensitive to her duty deserves our deepest appreciation at this or any other season.

Elder John H. Caldwell,
Baldman Minister, Dies

1956 Teacher Appreciation Week Observed Here and at Maytown

Teacher Appreciation Week was observed at both the Floyd County and Maytown schools last week. The teachers in both communities, and in both the observation took interesting turns.

At Maytown for the first time in this county, the teachers went on vacation Monday as the parents of their pupils moved in to do their teaching chores for the day.

Here, a meeting at the new county high school was attended by approximately 200 persons who heard Dr. D. S. Spurlock, principal, discuss modern hopes and aims of the school and who later toured the extensive structure and art galleries.

Mr. Spurlock told the parents that the greatest concern at the school here is caused by pupils driving to school. Asking parents to consider full implications of the problem, he said that about 35 cars are driven by pupils, that most of these cars are parked at the school but some are left elsewhere. Unless they are detained, boys and girls load into the autos at noon and drive away and one or two areas have occurred.

Working to exercise control over the situation, the principal said he had considered calling parents of pupils together to discuss the problem, adding that he does not want to put into use a "key board" such as is used at some schools where the youthful drivers are required to put their car keys on a board and leave them there.

Although parents are welcome at any time to visit us, we have set aside Wednesday of each week for them to call, Spurlock said.

Music was provided by two high school groups, an instrumental band and a vocal trio, also by Cousin Zeb and his Rhythm-Makers, a quartet.

FORD WINS IN ECONOMY TOO!

V-8 WINS CLASS A

In this year's Economy Run a new Ford V-8, with Fordomatic, was the official victor over every car in its field, with a winning average of 27.643 miles per gallon. This means that the sturdier, heavier Ford carried most weight, with greater gas economy per pound than any car in its field.

This latest Ford victory was secured over a rough and rugged 1408-mile route running from Los Angeles to Colorado Springs. Through the heat of Death Valley and over chilling mountainous heights, through congested city traffic and over the straight-line open road... Ford proved anew its national reputation for economical performance.

The winning Ford was a regular production model taken straight from the assembly line. It was no different than thousands of '56 Fords you see on the road and in city streets.

This proves that Ford the Performance Stock and Safety leader, looks no further, too! That adds up to four big reasons why the '56 Ford is so outstanding when you buy it, when you drive it, and when you sell it, too!

The "Economy Formula" is used by most officials to measure equal classes of all cars in each class, regardless of size or weight. (Economy per gallon equals the test weight, including passengers, in miles, multiplied by the number of miles traveled, and by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.)

take salary cuts. Clark summarized.

In his address, Mr. Dixon said that the county's fiscal condition, which are the chief appropriating agencies, are not to be blamed for the lack of public health funds as the cause of death. She had been ill 10 years.

A daughter of Kitty Brown, competition for the county tax collector and the late Frank Conn, who survives. Surviving besides her husband and mother are a son and three daughters: French Crisp, of Dana, Mrs. Cora Conn, for the entire state, have been over the past twenty years from $540,000 in 1934-35 to $1,300,000 in 1954-55, Kentucky's per capita income of 47 cents a day below the expenditures of most other states and is far short of our own, in comparison with other states, our greatest shortage is in funds appropriated by the counties for their local health departments. "This shortage," Mr. Dixon said, "will continue until counties assume a public health tax which seems to be the best solution to the financing problem." He pointed out that, since 1954, nine of the 11 counties that have tried for the tax have failed. This proves that people are willing to tax themselves when they are shown what an adequately financed health department can mean to them.

The convention was attended by Mr. Clark, the Floyd Health Department's three nurses, Catherine Weathers, Elizabeth Harris and Regina Mayo, Roberts, John M. Stumbo and Earl Gensert, sanitarian, Mrs. Lavie Gensert and Mrs. Pauline Sparks, clerks.

BOOKMOBILE AID FORMED

Friends of Libraries Organize Chapter Here To Further Book Move

Meeting in the Bookmobile headquarters in the old high school building here Tuesday, most of the Women's Clubs in the county sent representatives to organize a Floyd county chapter of Friends of Kentucky Libraries. A Friends chapter has functions similar to P-T-A groups. Its work in the several towns will be to promote library service there, and as P-T-A groups aid the schools.

Miss Margaret Willis, field worker of State Library Extension, spoke at the meeting in support of the Friends idea. She also stated that few counties in Kentucky have done as well as Floyd in its Bookmobile work. She pointed out to the members of the Library Board and representatives of the Women's Clubs that Floyd county is fortunate in having several court members who have vision enough to support the Bookmobile and that few activities are being as many benefits to the people of the county.

Present at the meeting were members of the Library Board: V. O. Turner, Mrs. Anna Stumblin, and Mrs. Avanelle Wells; also Robert J. Wallace, librarian.

Representing the Women's Clubs at the meeting were: Mrs. Russell Laven and Mrs. Josephine of the Allen-Hughes club; Mrs. Lon C. Hill, Mrs. Della Archer, Mrs. R. V. May and guest, Miss Florence Hill, of the Prestonsburg; Miss Alice Williams, Mrs. Edward Lykins, and Mrs. Beecher Hardwick, of the Lecky-Layne club; Mrs. Jean Reed and Mrs. Stumblin, of the Drift club; and Mrs. Wells and Mrs. N. D. Howard, of the Lockey-Garrett Wayland club.

Mrs. May, Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Reed were elected president, vice president and secretary, respectively. This group of officers will divide on the chapter's official name, its functions and membership.

Miss Conley Is Winner Of Speakers' Tourney At Williamson, W. Va.

Miss Rebecca Sue Conley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conley, of Prestonsburg, was the winner of the Better Speaker's tournament at the Northeastern Regional Baptist Training Union Convention held at the East Williamson Baptist Church, Williamson, W. Va., Monday night. Subject of her speech was "Nothing Less Than the Best." Three other speakers from the Ashland, Pikeville and Williamson churches were entered in the contest.

Miss Conley will represent the Northeastern Region at the Kentucky Baptist Training Union Convention in the statewide contest, April 12-14. Winner of this event will go on to Ridgecrest, N. C., or Glorieta, N. M., to represent Kentucky Baptists in the southern contest.

The local church was represented by a delegation of 15.

was discovered in the bathroom of the home. One of the R.V. Mages seven children was in the bathroom at the time and the family fought unsuccessfully to halt the flames. The fire department, which arrived later, was unable to reach the scene because of a weak bridge spanning Middle Creek, and a portable tank was put into use. The fire had spread such fast, however, that firefighters could only work on the nearby buildings.

Three homes on one West Prestonsburg street have burned within the last month, and work of a "firing" has been suspected in these losses. A representative of the State Fire Marshal's office made an investigation there last week but his findings, if any, have not been divulged.

new physicians is inadequate to maintain pace with the increasing population or to overcome the critical over-all shortage—the report goes on Kentucky, with only one medical school, has to depend heavily upon other states for the medical training of its citizens. Forty-three percent of Kentucky's physicians were trained in out-of-state medical schools, it says.

It is in rural Kentucky where the greatest medical service exists. There the picture drawn from a statistical standpoint, is probably worse in actual practice because of the lower incomes which preclude alleviation by visits to large medical centers in the cities. Rural Kentuckians get less than half the medical attention of city dwellers.

The physician-population ratio of the state's rural counties is one to 1,976 persons. Urban areas have an average of one physician to 816 persons.

One Kentucky county, the report shows, doesn't even have a doctor and another with 19,767 population has no doctor. Forty-five counties have a doctor for every 2,000 people or more. Over 1,000 births occurred in Kentucky in 1948 with no physician in attendance, contributing to the three largest infant mortality rates in the nation.

Floyd county doesn't fare as badly in medical services as many Eastern Kentucky counties but here the physician-population ratio is one to 1,756 persons. The county has a total of 31 physicians, 27 of whom are general practitioners and four specialists. Lawrence is in the same physician-population ratio category with one to each 1,800 persons but with only a total of eight physicians. Kentucky has a ratio of one to 2,188 and Pike 2,418.

The Legislative Research Commission thinks one of the solutions to the problems that beset the state in the way of inadequate medical services would be the establishment of a medical school at the University of Kentucky. This would cost $10,000,000, the net cost probably less if Federal funds were available. An alternative would be to undertake a major plan expansion at the Louisville School of Medicine, turning over the school to the University of Kentucky. This would cost $10,000,000, the net cost probably less if Federal funds were available.

The workshop, with Mrs. H. L. Lay, chairman, held a series of arts and crafts courses during the current club year. These were planned to teach women the arts and crafts which afford great personal satisfaction and pleasure in doing, and at the same time contribute greatly to the beauty of their home. It also served to teach these skills to potential leaders in Scouting and other character-building groups.

A class in rug-making was taught by Mrs. Grover Lowe. Mrs. John Hale and Mrs. Victor Hale. Mrs. James Camaca instructed the metalcraft group, and linocut block printing was taught by Mrs. Lay.

Mrs. Lon Hill, president of the Senior Women's club, announced that the club hopes to sponsor another workshop next year when new arts and crafts will be taught.

The following were enrolled in the classes: Madames Lon Hill, Victor Hale, J. H. Keonon, W. W. Wallen, J. H. Runney, Harold Doney, William Crawford, Walter Crace, Herbert Salisbury, Jr., James Camaca, John Hardin, James Denahoe, Woodrow Allen, E. D. Roberts, William Hunt, Greenville Spradlin, W. W. Cook, Virgil Goble, Ed May, Robert Regan, Gwynne Ford, Chalmers Frazier, W. C. Rimmer, J. H. This week Scott C. Craft, of Paintsville, a native of Water Gap, this county, filed for the Republican nomination for Congress from this district. He is also unopposed. His declaration was signed by 127 M. D. Planners, Pikeville, Seventh district Republican chairman, Henry J. Scott, Pikeville, Gordon R. Lewis, Whitesburg, and Y. P. Horne, Paintsville. A former Floyd teacher, he was educated at Eastern State College, Richmond, saw service in the Pacific area during World War II and has been associated with his father-in-law, Dr. J. B. Thompson, Paintsville, in the building supplies business for several years.

In his formal announcement this week Mr. Craft said: "We are blessed with natural resources and industries people, but our Seventh district is far behind the rest of the country in prosperity because our Seventh district representation has lagged behind in the big job of representing the people."

Congressman Perkins' campaign in Floyd county will be managed by the State Representative David Martin of Hi Hat. It was said here last week support of the state administration in this race is expected to be aligned behind Judge Pruitt.

William A. Young, three-time County Attorney of Franklin county, and a native of Rowan county, has been named state campaign chairman for Senator Clements. Charles M. Blackburn, of Versailles, who took a prominent part as a veteran organization leader in last year's Governor Chandler in last year's man for Senator Clements.

Charles M. Blackburn, of Versailles, who took a prominent part as a veteran organization leader in last year's primary and final election, will manage the Bates campaign. It was announced Wednesday that Senator Clements' Floyd chairman and chairwoman will be announced next week.

In his formal announcement Congressman Perkins said last week:

"As a member of the House Committee on Education and Labor, I have been an active supporter of Federal aid for school construction. Our educational system faces a crisis, the solution of which, in my opinion, is beyond the resources of the state and local districts. Lack of classrooms is just as serious as the lack of teachers as classrooms can be held without classrooms. This and other major issues such as the need for better highways, an up-to-date farm program and the problems faced by the coal industry will continue to receive my interest and active support."

"The general welfare of all people is the first interest of the Democratic party and I heartily endorse the program of that party."

Tax Commissioner Clyde Albers will manage the Floyd county campaign of Joe Bates, of Greenup, who is seeking to unseat United States Senator Clements. It was announced here Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of Bates' supporters at the court house. The meeting was attended by Bates and the announcement came from him. Albers, in accepting the campaign chairmanship, said:

"We need a man in the office of United States Senator who is willing to sacrifice personal ambition for the good of the people he represents, and a man who is sensitive to the problems of the schoolchildren, teachers, aged, needy blind, dependent, garden and the unemployed Joe Bates is such a man."

Bates, who is supported by the Chandler administration against Clements, is a native of Dry Creek, Knott county, but has lived here in 1916, moving to Greenup county. He spent Tuesday in Prestonsburg, Martin and Allen.

Floyd-co. Native Killed In Automobile Accident; Burial Made at Detroit

J. B. Tackett, 34, a native of the Big Mud section of this county, was killed instantly in an automobile accident at Detroit at 4 a.m. Saturday. Details of the tragedy are not known, but it was learned that he was returning from work when the accident occurred.

His death was the second resulting from an automobile accident in the family of Ben Tackett, of Mays Creek, and the late Alice Tackett, of Dry Creek. Mrs. Tackett, 22, was killed at the Creek, W. Va., when he fell from a vehicle in 1939.

Surviving Mr. Tackett besides his father, is his wife, Dorothy, sons, Gary and Ritchie, and a stepson, Glenn, all at home. His brothers and sisters are Lee, Oscar and Palmer Tackett, all of Detroit. Mrs. Josephine Prater, of Clinton, O., Mrs. Laverna Prater, of Clinton, O., Mrs. Jerry Tackett, of Ashland.

ASSISTANT county superintendent and that all five members of the City Board became members of the Floyd County Board of Education with the end of their terms.

The Martin was quoted as saying the State Board order directed the County Board to assume all valid contracts made by the City Board. It also directed that there be no payment of the bond issue made for construction of the auditorium-restaurant at the new high school building here. The County Board as composed after merger will assume the separate assets and liabilities of the county and independent district.

The City Board of Education last May 13 reemployed Mr. Frazer as City Superintendent for a four-year term at an annual salary of $8,000. Teachers of the grade school also were reemployed. Mr. Frazer said he was laid off Wednesday by Dr. Martin that this is a valid contract.

At the same time the merged board was ordered, the State Board directed the merger of the independent district with the Webster county district. Before the merger also had asked that five members of the independent board of education be retained on the merged board but only two members were retained there as was done in the Prestonsburg case.

Merger proposals of both independent districts had been rejected by the Floyd and Webster County Boards of Education, necessitating State Board action.

The Floyd case was argued before the State Board two weeks ago.

The State Board also established an advisory council on public school education in Kentucky, to consist of superintendents of county and independent school districts.

Dr. Martin said meetings of the superintendents had proved "the value of such assemblies to education."

By forming the council and giving superintendents "direct and extensive with the Commonwealth," Martin said, school boards could legally raise superintendents' salaries to the $12,000-a-year maximum limit prescribed for such duties by the state constitution.

Martin said the maximum salary of officials with local duties is $7,200 a year.

Which reminds us that some day said, "The Bees may, one day, take New York and San Francisco and cover the whole country, but God help them when they hit Eastern Kentucky!"

THERE'S ALWAYS TEXAS
Only Texas can lay Kentucky in the shade in matters such as this. The story is told of the Kentuckian and the Texan who indulged in a bet and bragged of a job of the moose of their respective states.

The Kentuckian started off with the traditional boast about his state's famed horses, most beautiful women, elephants, etcetera. The Texan countered with the tale of the toughest fighter, the highest of wells, the largest tree, and so on.

"Shucks," retorted the Kentuckian. "At one spot in Kentucky, in Ft. Knox, we've got enough gold to build a wall around Texas."

"That so?" quipped the Texan. "Name us a place and we'll lay you."

THE COLD FACTS
Fargo is if we seem to be plugging for newspapers with the following, for we are. But it's a factual report supplied by the Associated Press:

The Bureau of Business Research at Michigan State University reported that Detroit stores lost 35 million dollars in sales in December because of the city-wide newspaper strike there.

The bureau said its conclusions were based on state sales tax returns from Detroit as compared with the previous December and with sales tax returns from Detroit.

Apparel stores were affected most, the bureau said, with general merchandise stores, next, food stores third and furniture stores fourth. Car sales apparently were not affected, the bureau said.

Adjoining Wayne county communities reaped sales gains during the newspaper strike, the report said.

This period provided a rare opportunity to learn what happens to retail sales—in the short run—without newspaper advertising, the report said.

Coal mined by large will be the chief fuel used by electric utility companies now locating along the upper Mississippi River.

of defense counsel, said.

Five was even a 21-year teen-after the latter had left the courthouse here and made his way about three blocks north on U. S.
23. The officer claimed Whicker was advancing on him when the shot was fired and that he fired in defense of himself and other officers who had sought to restrain the Martin man. Whicker had been adjudged insane, shortly before the shooting.

The court's opinion noted that five testified he did not know Whicker had been adjudged insane, adding, "although there is evidence to the contrary in the record."

The jury evidently believed the officer used unnecessary force—and so do we," was the Appellate Court's conclusion.
Roy was returned to the county jail here Tuesday from La-Grange to be present for the hearing in circuit court of a $20, 000 damage suit filed against him by Sheriff Gordon Collins and their bondsmen by Whicker's widow.
Trial of the case was slated to begin today (Thursday).

17,913 Jobless File Claims For Insurance

Frankfort, March 26. (AP)—Kentucky's rate of insured unemployment until stood at eight per cent, now below those covered by the jobless insurance program—nearly twice the national average of 4.2 per cent in February, Commissioner of Economic Security Vero E. Barnes reported today.

The state's rate was highest for any State in the eastern section of the country, but was surpassed by five western states.

The Department paid out $2,622, 008 in benefits to unemployed workers last month, including $2,671,132 under the veterans program and $12,254 under the federal employees program (these being wholly federally financed, but administered by the state agency, and $2,302,000 in benefits paid from the Kentucky unemployment insurance fund.)

There would be an increase of 20 per cent, divided over two years, in rates for books, magazines, newspapers and other second-class mail.

Third class rates would go up 25
per cent. The overall average rise
could be 17 per cent.

In Prestonsburg, in the past fiscal year $29,900 was spent for stamps and other postal services, according to the Post Office Department's official figures.

This would increase to $35,000, a boost of $5,100, assuming that the average conditions apply locally.

The Postmaster General bases his request for the rate rise on the mounting scale of postal deficits.

Although the business he heads is one of the largest in the world, it is in financial trouble. It loses about $60 million a year. The only profitable segments of its operations are the first class mail, post office box rentals and the postal savings system.

Opposition to the bond in mail rates comes from those who argue that the postal service is for the benefit of the public and is therefore a legitimate charge to general revenues.

The proponents hold that it is a purely business operation and a should, as such, stand on its own financial feet.

Postal Rate Increases Would Cost Residents Of Prestonsburg $1,500

Special to The Times

NEW YORK, Mar. 16.—To what extent will be the proposed bill to increase postal rates, now before Congress, affect people in Prestons-burg, if approved?

In round figures, local residents and business concerns would have to spend an additional $5,000 a year.

The measure, proposed by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield and presented to Congress by President Eisenhower, seeks to cope to some extent with the contributing annual deficit of the Post Office Department by upping mail rates.

More than $60 million a year. About $11 million of this would be increases in first class mail charges.

First class rates would rise to four cents an ounce from the present three cents. Air mail would also go up one cent, to seven cents.

There would be an increase of 20
per cent, divided over two years, in
rates for books, magazines, newspapers and other second-class mail.

Third class rates would go up 25
per cent. The overall average rise
could be 17 per cent.

MEMORIZING POETRY

Our country teachers at Fidelity and Polunk used to make us memorize lines upon lines of verse; some of the poems were classics, but others were merely rhymes. And some of us learned to memorize quickly and rejoiced when we were asked to "say our pieces." Most of our memory work came from our Mr. Coffey Readers which were used so long that if we had forgotten, almost anyone present could have prompted us. To tell the truth, those poems would be to review almost the whole of literary training for millions of people. "Casablanca" "The boy stood on the burning deck," "Mary's Lamb," "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star," "Curtain Shall Not Ring Tonight," "Harry and the Guide Post," "Little Gussie," "Sweet and Low," "Like up from there and go as long as you like. Even though the little fellows who said some of the simple ones I have mentioned did not know how to read the longer, more difficult pieces, they had heard them recited over and over and later came to know them as old friends when they found these poems in the Fifth or Sixth Reader. Occasionally we of the Redmore Insurance Agency and the pulp magazines and felt that there would be another chance to know of the young hopeful reader. As we look sometimes, "THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION," "I am Frank L. Stanton, with his rhymes in Negro dialect, many of which have been set to music. In HOME AND FARM I got acquainted with our own Kentucky version of Stephen Collins Foster and by some regarded as the greater. Colonel Will S. Hays wrote an innumerable lot of sentimental songs, "Mollie Darling" still being popular as sung by Eddie Arnold. In fact, it could almost be said that that one old song as revived by Arnold brought him more money than Hays was ever able to make by writing songs or running steamboats. Hays also wrote under the pen-name of Old Hayseed; it was these poems, very much after the style of James Whitcomb Riley of a later date than Hays' early work: a picture of an idyllic country life by rural philosopher. Not much has been made of the enormous array of religious songs we all memorized. Hymnbooks were scarce, but the hymns were a real service to the congregation, but later it was purely ornamental, for all of us knew the words and made to dance, almost hundreds, of songs. The odd thing about all this is that, right in the midst of some program, with no slant towards old times, there will pop into my memory some phase right out of those classic hymns. Isaac Watts, William Cuyler, John Newton, John and Charles Wesley, of the older writers, and Panny J. Crosby, John Greenleaf Whittier, John Hughes of the later ones found us in our remote little corner of creation and interpreted for us some of the noblest truths that man has ever discovered. Of course, we mixed these nobler things with some pretty trifling stuff from the popular song books of the time and spent as much good time in memorizing trash as in learning lasting poetry.

WHICH IS Bigger?

Most folks will say that "B" is larger than "A". Actually, these two geometric figures are exactly the same size. This old but simple optical illusion is proof that things are not always what they seem.

When you get your electric service bill, it may seem that you're paying more for electricity than you did 10 years ago. Actually, you're paying less.

Your bill, covering a two-months period, is higher because you're using more electricity. Our average customer today uses more than twice as much electricity as he did 10 years ago. Why? Because most people have added a number of wonderful new electric appliances, and enjoy living better electrically.

Since the average household uses more than twice as much electricity, you'd think he'd pay more than twice as much for it. But not at all. Use has more than doubled, but bills have increased only two-thirds. This is mainly because of two things: First—We are constantly striving for and have found more efficient ways to bring you service. Secondly—Electricity costs you less when you use it in larger quantities.

What else can you buy today that costs less than it did in 1946?

How many electric appliances have you added during the past ten years, to better your living? Make a list of all these in your home—then cross off all those you did not own ten years ago. You may be surprised to see how much more you've put electricity to work for you—to better your living!

Robbers Ask Leniency For Youthful Assistant In Three Member Gang

Hammond, Ind., March 23.—Two bank robbers were given long terms today in Federal Court after pleading for leniency for the youngest of their three-member gang.

Judge Luther M. Senger sentenced the leader, Carl George Smith, 31, Ontario, Cal., to 25 years in prison and fined him $25,000 for his part in the $21,747 robbery of a branch of the Mercantile National Bank of Hammond last December 6.

John Walter Marum, 25, Viola, Tenn., who admitted he helped Smith plan the robbery, was sentenced to 20 years and fined $10,000.

Thomas Ray Patrick, 20, Salyersville, Ky., was given a 10-year term, with no fine.

The three robbers, wearing stocking masks, held three clerks, three customers, and the bank manager at gun point while they ransacked cash drawers. They fled in a stolen car. Marum and Patrick were caught two days later at Tracy City, Tenn. Smith was arrested the next day at McMinnville, Tenn.

Authorities recovered $19,000 of the loot.

Mother of 19 To Return To Her Job Very Soon

Chicago, March 24.—Mrs. August Hoffman gave birth to her 19th child today in St. James Hospital, a suburban Chicago hospital. A 9-pound, 5 1/2-ounce boy.

The 29-year-old mother said she planned to return to her job as a nursery aide in the hospital early next month. The family—her husband and the 13 other children living at home—will get along just fine, she said.

Their six-room home is large enough to accommodate the newest arrival, Paul, she said. Folding beds and the conversion of one room into a dormitory does the trick.

Modern William Tells Use Cans for Apples

Charleston, W. Va. — Reports to the State Conservation Department from officers in the field include one which has been filed as the "William Tell Case."

In his February report Conservation Officer Claude S. Rice of Keyser told of investigating rifle shots he first thought might have been fired by out-of-season hunters.

Rice said he found three boys taking turns shooting tin cans from each other's heads with a 22-caliber rifle.

CONTINUOUS MINERS

Continuous miners, first introduced commercially into bituminous mines in 1948, have rapidly won a place in America's highly mechanized mining industry. Where only 82 million tons were mined with continuous miners in 1952, the 1955 total was 25 million tons.

Report Suggests Death Penalty Be Abolished

Abolition of capital punishment in Kentucky and substitution of punishment by life in prison without benefit of parole or pardon has been recommended by a legislative committee to investigate conditions for the death penalty. The committee, headed by Senator George E. Overby, Democrat, Murfreesboro, Tenn., created by the recent regular session of the General Assembly, submitted its recommendations to the current special session of the body. It also proposed widespread management changes in the various mental and penal institutions, and asked that the Legislative Research Commission make a general study of evidence proposed and make further recommendations. It recommended that a more balanced diet be furnished inmates of the mental and penal institutions, that stricter security regulations be placed into effect, that a recreational program be installed and that steps be taken to provide suitable employment for each of the prisoners confined within institutions. Steps should be taken to prevent drugs—such as barbitol, benzodrine and similar drugs—being brought into the reformatory. The committee also suggested that Kentucky Children's Home, Lyndon, be transferred to a home for indigent, homeless and dependent children for which it was primarily established and that the Greenleaf institution be used for delinquent and dependent children.

Washington—Commerce Bureau figures indicate that if 65 is the supposed age to retire, a lot of people are simply not following the rule. Of all the nation's workers, 8.4% are between 60 and 65 years old compared with 5 per cent 65 and over.

Kennedy Wants Cabbies To Know He Was Joking

Washington, March 24 — Senator Kennedy would like all cabbies to know that story he told was only a joke.

During a recent Providence, R. I., speech, the Massachusetts Democrat, who told that, instead of giving his fare driver a big tip and meant that he vote Democratic, he had used a reverse psychology trick suggested by Senator Green, D. R. I., would not tip and requesting the cabbie to vote Republican.

A newspaper item carrying the story along let loose a barrage of critical mail. It came not only from cabbies, who fear the idea might catch on, but from others who protested it as a cheap political trick.

Asked whether Kennedy actually did so, a cabbie up the cable, an aide said:

"He didn't take a cab to the meeting. He was driven in a private car."

RECORDS SET BY COLEMAN

Could Last For Years;
Hughes Breaks Records
For Prestonsburg High

By Gordon Moore

Record-smashing Wayland high school and its phenomenal Kelly Coleman together established eight new Kentucky state high school basketball tournament records, also ran up several other offensive marks that could last for many years to come.

In 41 games during the past season, Coach "Copper-John" Campbell's Wasps burned the nets for 3,700 points for an unbelievable 90.4 average per game, the highest ever reached by a Kentucky prep team. Coleman without question the greatest high school prepster of all time finished an amazing career by gathering 4,263 markers in 127 games for a lofty 33.6 per game mark for each outing in his four-year career at the Floyd county school.

During the past season the anti-performer chalked up 1,819 counters, a 46.8 per game mark that could last forever.

As a junior, Coleman hit 1,174 points in 26 contests, in his sophomore year, he tallied 784 in 30 games and as a 14-year-old freshman, he buckered 386 points in 20 games.

Teammates Elmer Hall, Melvin Robinson, Bill Pyle and Billy Combs also may have established some sort of record as all averaged in the double figures during the season. Hall had a 17-point per game mark, Robinson 12, Pyle and Combs 10 each.

Wayland also became the third team in the state's history to win 35 games in a single season. They lost six-four of these by margins of one to two points.

Two other unannounced region cup stars Lowell Hughes of Prestonsburg and Charles Osborne of Flat Gap staged dazzling scoring exhibitions during the season, only to have their fine feats overshadowed by the great Coleman.

Hughes a 19-time all-state football quarterback played 21 games all away from home during the season and totaled 927 points for a mark of 40.2 per game. He broke every existing Prestonsburg high school record in winning six new ones.

Osborne-Charles Osborne, Flat Gap's six-foot, five-inch junior center, averaged about 30 points a game for the season, recording 1,174 points. He was second in the state with 1,227 tallies in 36 games for a 34-point per game performance.

The 1955 rise in coal exports emphasizes that 90 per cent of all coal shipped from the state ports for New England and overseas leaves from Hampton Roads, Va.

Adair Tourney Stories
Not Critical of Coleman

Quentin Adair's article in last week's Floyd County Times erroneously ascribed to Bob Adair, assistant sports editor of The Lexington Herald, statements indicating that Adair was unjustly critical of Kelly Coleman of Wayland, during the state high school basketball tournament. Mr. Adair, it should be noted, was fair and objective in his reporting.

The Times is glad to make this explanation in fairness to Sports writer Adair.

DIAMOND PLAY
ON WAY BACK

To Prestonsburg, Plan
Announced This Week;
Emma Team in Plans

Negotiations are under way to bring back baseball to Prestonsburg, according to David B. Leslie, Prestonsburg traffic officer. An excellent field can be developed on the site beside the Floyd County high school. The Times was told this week if permission is granted for such an undertaking, the team has ten days to start play by the middle of April.

Pending availability of the field, Amon Childers has made application for membership in the Blue Grass League. Childers is in charge of the Emmas baseball team last year. Members of that team will transfer to Prestonsburg, it was said.

Leslie said that the project must be a community project if it is to succeed. It would round out the recreational plans of the city, he said, in mentioning the progress made in the Little League and Pony League teams.

There are plans to move the football bleachers from the playground here to the baseball site. "We are not in this for profit," Leslie said.

"However, we may need approximately $500. It is a shame that this community has not supported baseball as have smaller towns such as West Liberty and Jackson have done in past years."

CAGE RULE CHANGES

The Rules committee of the National Basketball policy-making body has passed six changes that will not go into effect until the 1957-58 season.

Major change was the extension of the 12 foot free throw line to high school. During the coming season, the line will be the same as in previous years.

Players in the future will no longer be able to leap into the free throw line until the ball hits the backboard or hoop. Previously, a player could jump into the line so long as his foot was not on the floor until the ball made contact.

Another revision makes the free throw line two inches instead of one and a half inches long and the boundaries of the three-second rule easier to distinguish.

The committee also placed a restriction on the jump ball, and no player may have his foot within the circle until the ball is tapped.

Another revision concerns activity under a team's basket. No offensive player in the future may reach above the hoop to guide an attempted shot by a teammate into the basket.

This rule is on the same order where a defensive player cannot reach up and knock a ball out of the basket.

ADMITTED TO BLUE
GRASS LEAGUE

Emma's semi-pro baseball team has been admitted to the Blue Grass Baseball League and will play all of their home games on the new field adjoining the new Floyd County high school.

ALL-STATE TIME

The Louisville Courier-Journal's All-State basketball team will be announced Sunday, April 1. Watch for three 15th region cagers to be named to the select.

The Lexington Herald released its "dream team" Tuesday, with Kelly Coleman and Pat Gaps' Charley Osborne on the first team and Lowell Hughes on the second. "We are not familiar with the system of selection of the Lexington paper, but fail to see how Hughes, who averaged 40.2 per game during the season, was left off the first unit."

TENTH TEAM IS ADMITTED TO MOUNTAIN CONFERENCE

M. C. Naper high school, of Perry county, was admitted as the tenth member of the four-sport Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference at its Spring meeting in Pikeville Sunday afternoon.

The football and basketball member of all ten schools convened Wednesday morning at Pikeville to study proposals to divide the two sports into two divisions, an east and west section of five teams each, and then stage a play-off in each sport.

In other action in the four-hour session, Bernard Mims, Pikeville high school principal, was elected president of the loop for the coming year; H. M. Wesley, Hazard high principal vice-president; and Arthur Mullins, Elkhorn City high athletic director, was re-named secretary-treasurer.

The 1956 conference basketball championship was won by the Belfry Pirates under the Dickinson system of rating, and Elkhorn City and Elkhorn City shared the runner-up spot.

Named to the all-loop cage team were: Lowell Hughes, Prestonsburg; Bryon Hall, Paintsville; Charles Hall, Paintsville; Everett Varney, Belfry; Howard Huffield, Belfry; Tommy Atkins, Pikeville; Rex Polk, Whitesburg; Clifford Davis, Hazard; Marvin Blevins, Jenkins; Delbert Justice, Elkhorn City. The annual track meet was set for Elkhorn City during the week of May 11, with the exact date and time to be scheduled later.

Baschall eliminations were once again divided into two divisions. In the west division will be Jenkins, M. C. Naper, Whitesburg, and Fleming, and in the East will be Prestonsburg, Pikeville, Elkhorn City, Belfry and Paintsville.

All division games must be played before May 4 and the two division winners will vie for the championship crown on May 5 at a site to be determined by the two participating schools.

The highly-successful annual preview football roundup, played every school to meet at least once in basketball was dropped, thus reverting to the old amendment that requires school to play at least six cage games to be eligible for the basketball crown.

At the close of Wednesday's conference session, their proposals will be submitted to the entire body for final decision.

CONFERENCE CHATTER

Belfry high school would like to schedule a 1956 football opponent for September 7 or 28. Walter Brugh, ex-Citadel back, will be the new football mentor at Paintsville high school. Paul Wright, former Western State College ace, will assist Jim Caudill at Hazard. Prestonsburg will open its 1956 schedule with Louisville Plaget. All E.K.M.C. schools have opened spring football practice.

Defending champion Pikeville had the largest number at 55. Dave Hurst, resigned Fleming monitor, is conducting their spring drills. Jack Ketcham, ten-year football tutor at Elkhorn City, has resigned, effective at the close of the current school year. Paul Phillip Hughes will be third quarterback in the Hughes family to play on a Prestonsburg eleven.

Integration Scheduled At Pikeville High School, City Board Announces

Pikeville, Ky., March 23 — Integration of white and Negro pupils will begin at Pikeville High School next fall, the City Board of Education announced today.

There will be no chance at the elementary level, a board statement said.

The Pikeville independent school system now includes two schools—Pikeville Elementary and High School for white students and Perry Cline School, a combination grade and high school for Negroes.

Integration in Grades 9 through 12 next fall will mean the transfer of about 20 students from Perry Cline to Pikeville High, a school official said.

The School Board made the integration decision Wednesday, but did not announce it until today.

It followed only in part recommendations of a citizens advisory committee that had been studying the problem since the first of the year. The committee and both the student and faculty proposed complete integration at levels.

No action has been taken to integrate schools in the Pike County system.

Medical Week Is Proclaimed By Governor

Frankfort, Ky., March 26 (Sp.) — Governor Chandler designated the week of April 22-28 as "Medical Education Week" and asked that Kentucky acknowledge its common debt to medical schools and to "foster their continuing contribution and security."

It was noted that medical schools throughout the country are endeavoring to raise $10,000,000 as "additional income to discharge their responsibilities to the nation."

Also proclaimed was April 25 as Kentucky Social Hygiene Day.
