This Town— That World

WEATHER REPORT: High pressure area over Mid-West, centering in Chicago this week, moving in West coast over weekend with bluffs of hot air hitting San Francisco next week.

The title of the baseball game featuring Ted Williams might have been called "Great Expectations."

ALL BELONG IN JAIL, TOGETHER

We have no sympathy at all for those so-called American citizens who were billed out of $10,000 or so by a negro miner from Middleburg who extracted money from them by simply signing Hilt's name, or the name of Hilt's late paramour, to letters soliciting support of a "New Negro" "The Disturbance" fund. The fact is that there are people in this country who would follow Hitler if he were alive.

CONSOLATION

John Hunsley recently returned here from Indiana where he visited his brother. He tells of a fishing trip the week before he left, and says that he and his brother caught what they claim to be the largest bass ever caught in the state. He says it weighed 19 pounds.

CLUB CHANGES EVENT LOCALE

Fish Fry Set Sept 16
For Speedway at Allen;
Span Break Forces Shift;

The fish fry sponsored annually by the Floyd County Fish & Game Club will be held Sept. 16 this year and in a new location.

Because of inaccessibility to the Floyd County Club grounds at Allen, with the bridge spanning Beaver Creek there closed to traffic, directors of the Fish & Game Club decided Monday night to stage the fish fry this year on the Sandy Valley Speedway at Allen.

Program for this year's event has not been arranged, but it is expected to be of a nature similar to those of previous years which have attracted the largest crowds to attend any such event in Eastern Kentucky.

2ND PIPELINE JOB STARTED, PLANT RESULT

New Line from Maytown
To West Virginia Will Convey Liquid Products

Second of two big pipeline construction jobs resulting from construction of the $9,000,000 hydrocarbon revery plant being built near Maytown is now being laid by the Carbide & Carbon Chemicals Company plant at Maytown, W. Va., liquid by-products extracted from natural gas at the Maytown plant.

The first pipeline was laid from the Maytown plant to the Clinchfield Coal Company gas field in Virginia via Osborne Gap to draw on that field for additional natural gas supply. The Carbide & Carbon construction company, Prestonsburg, contractor on laying of the 12-inch line, has completed the difficult task of excavating for and laying the pipe over an area as rugged as any to be encountered in this section. The Kentucky section of the line connecting with the Virginia field was calculated to cost $1,200,000.

Carbide & Carbon is building the pipeline from this county into West Virginia. Field construction being done by two sub-contractors—the 38-mile stretch from Kermitt, W. Va., to Maytown by the Stout Construction Co., and the remaining 61.8 miles from Kermitt to Institute by Carl Smith, Inc.

It was said this week that the sub-contractors expect to complete work on the line by Dec. 31, and that liquid gas will be ready at Institute from the Maytown plant by March 31. The tentative date originally set for plant completion at Maytown was Jan. 1, next year.

Once in operation, the Floyd plant will be capable of producing daily about 10 million cubic feet of ethane, propane, butane and natural gas in liquid form. It is being constructed by the Kentucky Hydrocarbon Company, subsidiary of the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company, which in turn is a part of the Equitable Gas System, Pittsburgh.

LETTER ASKS BARNES PROBE

Attorney He Writes
U. S. Official He Has Partisanship Evidence

Paul E. Hayes, Prestonsburg attorney, Saturday wrote J. H. Pallen of the Office of the County Attorney, U. S. Civil Service Commission that he has at his disposal evidence "which will be of interest to you" and other evidence which will be sufficient to convince any impartial person that Vero E. Barnes, commissioner of Kentucky's Department of Economic Security, is using state and federal funds and the program for partisan political purposes.

Mr. Pallen's office, Hayes said, has had supervision of the enforcement of the laws and regulations of the various state and federal agencies established pursuant to requirements of federal law in order to participate in welfare programs.

Mr. Hayes in his letter alleged that:

1. Mrs. Trilby May, of Lanesburg, was discharged from her post as social worker for alleged political activity and her appeal from the dismissal of the Personnel Council found that the evidence did not sustain the dismissal of the Floyd county. The Council recommended her reinstatement but Barnes rejected the recommendation.

Fiscal Court Requests Construction of Highway On Toler to Pike Line

The Floyd fiscal court last Thursday adopted a resolution calling on Rural Highway Commissioner J. B. Wells to construct a rural highway from Toler Creek from the end of the present WPA built road to the Pike county line. Similar requests have been made by the court on two other roads in the county.

The court also rescinded its order of May 11 exchanging property owned by Andy Mitchell on the site of the Frazer branch of Big Mud Creek. Mitchell's deed was voided and the old road which would have been eliminated was re-established.

HEALTH TAX IS PROPOSED

Board of Health Asks
Fiscal Court's Action
In Submitting Proposal

The Floyd County Board of Health at its special August 9 meeting called on the Floyd fiscal court to direct the County Court clerk to place the issue of a health tax of 9 cents per $100 valuation on the coming November election ballot.

The question to be submitted to the voters of the county, to be answered by a "Yes" or "No" vote, was read:

"Are you in favor of establishing a public health taxing district for Floyd county which shall have authority to impose a special health tax of 9 cents per $100 valuation and operation of the Floyd County Health Department, provided that such special tax shall not exceed nine cents on each $100 valuation of all property in the district?"

MARTIN SUES FOR $20,000

Prosecutor Names Meade,
Constable Canfield; Says
Chance for Bond Refused

Commonwealth's Attorney Burman filed Saturday in the Floyd circuit court two suits by which he seeks to recover a total of $20,000 damages.

One of the complaints names as defendant, alleging that Meade last August 14 assaulted him, Compensatory and punitive damages amounting to $5,000 are asked of Meade.

The other asks $15,000 damages of Constable Johnnie Canfield, of Magisterial District 3, on the grounds that Canfield arrested Martin while he was in bed at his home here on advice of Meade, and that Canfield placed him in jail without giving him an opportunity to exercise bond.

The arrest was made on a warrant sworn out by State Senator Douglass of McDowell, who alleged that Martin struck him at the courthouse here.

In the Meade suit the prosecutor claims that as Commonwealth's Attorney his duties had reference to the Eagle Club house and that he felt it necessary to converse with trustees of the club, of which Meade was one. These inquiries, he contends, incensed Meade, who allegedly attacked Martin with his fists and "other weapons" to the detriment of his health.

Floyd School Features Adopted in Ky. Program

Kentucky's place in the general education scheme may be close to the bottom, but the state's work in educating and training exceptional or retarded children ranks with the four or five states nearest the top. That fact is being pointed up by state administrators of the program, it was said here this week.

The Martin School for Retarded Children, started two years ago, has pointed the way for the state, too, it is being noted. The Division of Education of Exceptional Children, Frankfort, noting the success of the Martin institution, has adopted several features of the work into the state program.

Mrs. Joy Begley, of Betsy Layne, who has taught the Martin school, said that the state program, since it was started, will conduct the educable group class this year. A teacher for the trainable class has not yet been secured, but it is hoped one may be procured from the retired or substitute teachers.

Plans were ready for the operation of the Martin school at the meeting of the Board of Education of the County for Retarded Children at Martin recently. Eleven members of the group attended to formulate a sevening program for exceptional children who have been recommended for education or training. Minimum foundation aid will be available for educable children, but for those who belong to the trainable group only private funds may be used.

The term, "psychometric screening," used by leaders of the Council, is really a system of I. Q. tests. It was explained by the committee that it can be determined whether a child belongs in the educable or trainable group. It was pointed out by the committee that a child admitted to either of these classes may be transferred later to either class.

"There are many children not learning in school," it was said by Dr. Sherman. "The state will be required to permit installation of metal window frames and the tile will be replaced by brick, and two restrooms will be added."

W. R. Kendrick, Prestonsburg contractor, was the successful bidder on a two-room structure to be erected in connection with the Martin school and a similar structure at the McDowell school. He bid on each job was $12,150. His building will be separate from present school buildings in the two towns, and one room of the Martin building will be used for classes for exceptional children.

County Superintendent Virgil O. Turner said the average of slightly more than $4,000 a room on the Martin and McDowell jobs is the best bid the Board of Education has received during its administration.

All bids are subject to the final approval of the State Department of Education.

Loar, 86, Born in Pioneer Home, Recalls Early Mill, Silk Culture

BY HENRY P. SCALF
James H. Loar was born at Betsy Layne in a pioneer home built by the pioneer James Shannon Lytle, his great-grandfather. He had lived either on the exact spot or within a few yards of the site a long lifetime of 86 years.

All around Uncle Jim as his neighbors call him, and his wife Pollyann, were born in the pioneer home. He was born in 1870, four years after Kentucky was made a state and four years before Floyd county was organized.

He is a product of the land upon which he has lived so long. Hugged the soil, he said, and he said he had "learned" to be a farmer. He said he had "learned" to be a farmer. He said he had "learned" to be a farmer.

COURT TERM'S LIQUOR CASES STAND AT 59

Court's Rum Docket
Heaviest Since 1930's;
147 Booked for Hearing

The heaviest Floyd circuit court liquor docket since Prohibition was set up to the 147 cases total that will engage attention of the court during the next Criminal term which will convene on the morning following Labor Day.

In all, 59 liquor cases are docketed for hearing during the session. Most of these have been set down for Sept. 4 and 7, third and fourth days of the term. A majority of these cases stem from indictments returned at the last session of the grand jury, and officers said at that time they planned several other indictments for that adjournment of the jury came before they could make them.

The number of child desertion cases is down considerably from the total at the last two preceding terms. Eighteen are docketed, and all these but one have been set for trial on the first day of court, which indicates that several may not be before the court.

Only two murder cases are booked for hearing, and both are indictments made at previous court terms. Ira Hamilton is slated for his second trial on Sept. 16, 1956, was a reversal from a previous conviction. Second trial of Olie Salisbury is booked for Sept. 17. His first ended in a "hung jury."

Two voluntary manslaughter cases are on the docket—that of Edwin Smith set for Sept. 13, and the trial of Tim Jones for Sept. 13. The docket includes six drunk driving cases, one for suffocation or striking or wounding a child, one for carrying a concealed deadly weapon in a vehicle, and two for carrying a concealed deadly weapon in a vehicle.

WRITS ACCUSE DEPUTY SHFS.

Robbery, Illegal Search,
False Arrest Alleged Against Three Officers

Three warrants were issued by the County Judge's office this week naming as many as five Floyd county deputies as being guilty of armed robbery and illegal search and another on a false arrest count.

Dputies Ed Amburge and Al Patton were placed under $1,000 bond on each count in the armed robbery and illegal search warrants, which were sworn out by J. L. Foster. Foster claimed they took from him without his consent a pistol.

Deputy Sheriff A. J. B. was accused of false arrest by Cliff Allen, Monday. Allen in swearing out the warrant for Reed and Chester Neely alleged they arrested him when he was committing no offense. Neely was not an officer, according to records in the County Clerk's office.

Noah Johnson and James Pack were held to $500 bond each this week on a trespassing warrant procured by Flora Little. She said Judge Stumbo the two men fenced up a cemetery and turned cattle into it.

HIGHWAY JOBS ARE ASSIGNED

Construction of Sidewalks
And Surfacing Road 122
Awarded to Contractors

Two contracts for construction work in this county were awarded recently by the State Highway Department.

The first contract for the construction of a five-foot side walk from Bramhan street to the new high school building in Prestonsburg. The R. W. Dawson Bridge Company, Bloomfield, Ky., was the successful bidder on its low bid of $147,475.

Miss Harlowe Is Bride

Of Mr. Brasfield; Vows Said at Louisville, Ky.

Miss Sarah Helen Harlowe became the bride of Robert Thomas Brasfield on Saturday, Aug. 5, at 8 o'clock in the Crescent Hill Methodist Church, Louisville, Ky.

The altar was graced with palms, tall baskets of white gladioli and daisy pompons, and four pairs of seven-branched candles. White satin ribbons and clusters of huckleberry foliage were used as aisle markers.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Julian Churchill Harlowe, of Louisville, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harlowe, of Prestonsburg. Mr. Brasfield is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Brasfield, of Louisville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Murray Ham-burg original of Chantilly lace and organza taffeta featuring a scalloped bateau neckline, long sleeves, and a full skirt. Her hair was styled in a soft roll around the edge. The veil was brought back from Italy when the bride toured Europe last year. She carried a cascade of tuber roses.

Miss Carolyn Williams was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Ann Brasfield, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Janis Scobee, Miss Joan Leachman, and Miss Linda Ware. They were attired in floor-length gowns of aqua taffeta and net. The dresses were made with strapless bodices and matching capeslets. An apron effect over the net enhanced the billowing skirt and the back displayed a large bow. They were wearing matching tiana of iridescent braid and carried bouquets of painted daisies.

Miss Ellen Lighg Agee, of Gallipolis, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of white taffeta with double tiers of net over a hoop skirt. Her head piece was a tiara of white iridescent taffeta, and she carried a miniature bride's bouquet.

Thomas J. Brasfield served his son as best man. The wedding guests were seated by Thomas E. Agee, Jr., uncle of the bride, of Gallipolis, O., Thomas Cochran, James Carpenter, Dale Johnston, and Charles Helier.

Mrs. Harlowe selected a gown of dusty rose matching her matching hat. Mrs. Brasfield wore a dress of blue lace and matching accessories. Their corsages were carnations and orchids.

Mrs. Thomas E. Agee, Jr., of Gallipolis, O., soloist. She sang "Because," "Through the Years," and "Walk Hand in Hand."

After a reception at the Crescent Hill Woman's club, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Cumberland Lake. They will return to make their home at 3214 Utah avenue, Louisville.

The bride is a graduate of the Kentucky Home School for Girls, Louisville, and attended the University of Kentucky where she was a member of Chi Omega society. The bridegroom, a graduate of Louisville Male high school, is now attending University of Louisville dental school.

West Prestonsburg Man Victim of Heart Attack At Local Hospital, Friday

John Horn, 44, of West Prestonsburg, former truck mine operator, died suddenly after suffering a heart attack.

Horn had just returned from Ashland where he and one of his sons had taken a truckload of junk. He had complained of feeling ill and upon getting home at his home he walked to a nearby restaurant where an ambulance was summoned. Dying on the way to the hospital, he was shortly pronounced dead.

He was the son of Sam and Dora Horn. He is survived by two sisters, Mary Jane Harmon, West Prestonsburg; and Mrs. Martha Meadows, Indiana; three brothers, Melvin, Tom Horn, West Prestonsburg; and Ben Horn, McDowell; four sons, Donald L. Horn and Mike Horn, West Prestonsburg; and John, Ohio, and John R. Horn, Washington; and one daughter, Mrs. Kerry Johnson, address unavailable.

The funeral was held Sunday at the First Church of God at West Prestonsburg under the direction of Rev. B. H. Johnson. Burial was made at the Mayo cemetery under the direction of Carter and Callahan Funeral Home.

Such a tax would eliminate all appropriations now being made annually by the fiscal court. It is estimated that the full nine-cent levy would raise approximately $30,000, which with funds available from state and federal sources would make possible the personnel and services to include the following:

The half-time services of a physician in addition to those of a full-time administrator, four full-time public health nurses instead of the present three; two full-time sanitarians, three clerks; one janitor; two three-hour dental clinics a week for 10 months of each year.

Always hard-pushed for funds, the health department is now operating on the least budget under which it is eligible for state and federal aid. M. V. Clark, administrator, said he also said that the competition for the services of doctors and nurses is becoming keener every year and that counties such as Floyd under the present financial conditions may be placed under a severe handicap in bidding for the services of qualified personnel, as is the case in the bidding for the services of teachers.

Twelve counties have voted special health taxes since the act authorizing health taxing districts was enacted in 1954. Perry county, the latest of the 12, last year voted a 10-cent tax.

The Board of Health at last week's meeting approved the following Citizens Health Committee, which will serve in a liaison capacity between the health department and the public:

Mrs. J. W. Bailey, West Prestonsburg Woman's Club; Cliff Aldridge, Wheelwright Kiwanis Club; Dr. Edward B. Leslie, Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club; Rex Osborne, Harrison Station W.P.O.; Mrs. Myrtle Hardwick, Betsy Layne Woman's Club; Mrs. Sharon Ellis, Prestonsburg Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. Mae May, Prestonsburg Woman's Club; Mrs. Maggie Hewitt, Deft Woman's Club; County Attorney Holbe Conley, Floyd County Times; Mrs. George E. Evans, Wayland-Lacey-Garrett Woman's Club; Miss Blanche Dingus, Floyd County Board of Education; Robert Warren, Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce; Monnette Patton, Maytown Woman's Club; Sarah Laven, Allen-Martin Woman's Club.

Lawrence E. Wills, 72 Garrett Resident, Victim Of Heart Attack, Tuesday

Lawrence E. Wills, 72, of Garrett, succumbed to a heart attack, at 2:30 a.m., Tuesday at home. His wife, Ida Goodman Wills, survived.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow (Thursday) at the home and burial will follow in the family cemetery at Garrett under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Mr. Advertiser:

The above space is the exact size of a two-cent postal card that business establishments sometimes use for advertising their products.

An ad this size in THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES is seen by at least 12,000 people and at a cost of only $6.50 to you.

If postal cards were mailed to 12,000 people it would cost you, the advertiser, $240.00 for the cards alone plus the cost of printing and handling.

THROUGH NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING YOU CONTACT THE SAME NUMBER OF PEOPLE AND AT A SAVINGS OF MORE THAN $280, besides saving the work of addressing and mailing cards.

Newspapers Lead In The Advertising Field

In a survey made of the advertising practices of department stores in all sections of the country, it was found that the typical store allocated 80 per cent of the advertising dollar to the newspapers, 9 per cent to television, 4 per cent to radio, 3 per cent to direct mail and 4 per cent to other media. Newspapers have been and still are the advertising leaders.

Hayes added that he is in position to supply Patton with the names of persons who made and received the calls and also names of certain employees who made contributions.

(Governor Chandler a few days ago said he would not accept contributions made, if any, and it was strongly denied that any gift proposed was to finance the Governor's presidential campaign.)

The weathermen counties as well as the poorer ones have requested this service from the Department. Kiser said he added that many times trucks have been asked to haul loads of mail enough to have been carried in a sedan. An added problem, he said, has been storage of the commodities in state warehouses and garages. In some instances, Kiser said, the Department even has been called upon to distribute the commodities.

The Department had received a previous order, effective last April 12, that the practice be discontinued so that counties involved would have sufficient time to arrange for the hauling by other means.

Paul Garver Hackworth Young Goodloe Resident, Dies at Parents' Home

Paul Garver Hackworth, 19, son of Albert and Minnie Hackworth, passed away at the home of his parents last Sunday around 3:30 p.m.

Hackworth had been sick most of his life and had been confined to his home at Goodloe before his final illness. He is survived by his mother and father, one sister, Jim Hackworth, one brother, Larry Hackworth, his grandfather, Mr. Ernest, Arthurville, Ky., and his grandmother, Mrs. Della Hackworth, Silver Lake, Indiana.

The funeral was held at 10 a.m. Tuesday of this week at home with the Rev. Banner Mann officiating. The burial was made at the Arnett Cemetery at Arthurville, Ky., under the direction of Carter and Callahan Funeral Home.

Aged Boldman Resident Victim Last Wednesday

Funeral services for Alex Meade, 74, of Boldman, who died at 7:45 a.m. Wednesday of last week, were held at the home of son, Albert Meade of Boldman, Saturday.

The Rev. Julian King and Bert Coan officiated. Burial was made in the Meade cemetery at Boldman.

A life-long resident of Boldman, he was a son of the late John and Ester Burgess Meade.

He was a miner and farmer. His wife Mrs. Linda Stevens Meade died in 1918.

Surviving are two sons, Albert and Harold Meade; of Boldman; a daughter, Mrs. Hester Blair; Boldman; a brother, Rhonda Meade, of Bazaar.

Retired Garrett Miner Is Heart Attack Victim

Willie Howard, 69, of Garrett, died at 4 p.m. at home Monday of a heart attack.

Mr. Howard was a son of the late John and Nancy Baldwin Howard and the husband of C. C. Canfield, who survives.

Surviving children are Kelly Howard and Mrs. Della H. Canfield, both of Garrett; Henry and Mark Howard, both of Petersburg; Mich. Brothers, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Howard, of Estill.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Baptist Church at Garrett, and burial will be made at the Howard cemetery on Rock Fork, near Garrett, under the direction of Carter and Callahan.

Mrs. Nancy Layne Honaker and the locally famous North Carolina mule that lived, oldsters declare, to the age of 67. (This picture was reproduced from a copy made from an old tintype by Col. J. H. Hatcher, of Pikeville).

stayed there in 1897, wrote in his life and travels. "Our first quarterly meeting was held about the middle of December at James S. Layne's who was well prepared to support such meetings. In fact, I thought it was one of the best homes I had ever found in all my travels."

Lo also tore down the Layne slave house but continued to use the old well. That well was dug by the human chattels of the Layne family around 180 years ago.

He has many changes to his life. He says in the late 1880s, he was as he looks out at the whaling traffic on U. S. 28. That road was a wagon-rutted trail when it was a boy. During the Civil War it was a busy road. That road was "built" when after licking the Confederates at Ivy Mountain, re-appearing to his superior on the state of that road, and he had to stop pursuing Col. Andrew Jackson May and camp ten miles out of Pikeville. He yielded to battle fatigue and the army had pitched his tent near the old Layne home.

Two or three hundred feet from the present home of Jim Loar the leaves had a hole in the wall where a wagon wheel was. Jim Loar went to work driving a horse there when he was ten years old. People brought grain in covered wagons from as far away as Catlettsburg after the Civil War. Uncle Jim remembers seeing a horse and carriage loaded with grain coming down the river and going up at the Laysan Landing. The mill ground as high as 300 bushels of grain some days.

The horse mill reminds Uncle Jim of the famous "Nancy Honaker" mule. It lived, he and many oldsters affirm, to be 67 years old. James S. Layne acquired the mule in a swap with a North Carolina trader long before the Civil War. It was a young mare, then, but gentle and gave it to his daughter Nancy. She rode her beloved mule as long as it lived. It's made it famous in the section. Everybody calling it "Nancy Honaker's mule" Jim Loar drove his grandmother's mule many days around the wide sweep of the horse mill land.

A few years before Nancy Honaker died in 1900 the mule succumbed, all agreed, to senility. She had it buried, but in a short while growing sentimental about the beloved beast of burden, she exhumed the dead, wrapped the skull in red velvet, gave it a place of honor in the store. Drummers came in, begged for a souvenir, knocked out the teeth and took them away. Finally, after the teeth were all gone with the memento-hunting knights of the road, Mrs. Honaker took it out of the store, put it under the floor. The skull lies there yet under the floor of her granddaughter's house.

So runs the saga of Nancy Honaker's mule. Col. J. H. Hatcher, great nephew of Mrs. Honaker, hunted up a picture of her with the famous animal, and had copies of the old tintype made, kept one as a prized possession as long as he lived.

Talking about his grandmother, Nancy Layne Honaker, Uncle Jim recalls the death of his grandfather, Thomas Honaker. He married Nancy in 1841, two years after what post Civil War Big Sandhans referred to as "The Typhoid Year."

The disease was rampant in the valley that year, and although Nancy recovered, three of her brothers died. One was Tandy Middleton Layne, husband of Elizabeth (Betsy) Jones Layne, who leave her name to Betsy Layne, the second to succumb was John Lewis Layne, grandfather of Col. Hatcher, and the other was William Henry Layne, son-in-law of Judge John H. Hatcher.

Nancy and Thomas lived at Pikeville for a short while. He was elected County Judge and a session of court he tried a half-witted boy on some sort of charge, now forgotten, and adjourned for dinner. When he returned to the courthouse yard the boy stabbed him. Judge Honaker died instantly.

The Honakers had three children, one dying in infancy. Louis Layne, Honaker married James Cecil Beale married Dr. Steven G. Loar. The last-named were the parents of Uncle Jim. Dr. Loar was a son of a German immigrant who had settled at Kenova. His wife inherited land from the Layne estate and they spent their days at Betsy Layne, his wife surviving him many years. One of Uncle Jim's prized possessions is a rifle the barrel hand-made, which his father used on the Confederate side in the Civil War.

The horse-driving job of James Loar's at the old Layne mill was not his first around the farm. He had to feed Grandmother Nancy's silkworms. He recalls now that if they were fed lettuce the resulting silk thread would be cream-colored, and easily broken. If fed mulberry leaves, good, strong silk could be taken from the cocoons.

Logging, too, came in for part of the life work of Jim Loar after he married. He sawmilled on many of the larger tributary streams of the river. He ran many a raft to Catlettsburg, saw men die and fight along the river's inflames.

Front Street where the bars stood end to end. He worked long periods for 50 cents a day. Working long he hired a boy to make a few hours, was charged $6. Uncle Jim paid it, saying, "Young man when I was a boy, it would have taken me over a week to earn that much."

The science of medicine seemed to attract the Loar family. Dr. Peter, a brother, was the doctor in charge of medical services for the railway company between Pikeville and Jenkins. He went to Silverton, Oregon, 27 years ago built a hospital, operated it for years. He is retired now. There was his father, Dr. Steven G. Loar, and now there is the grandson, Dr. Ray Stratton, who is just completing a stint in the army in the Philippines.

Jim Loar, though, never longed for any of the professions, loved only the land over which hangs the history and lore of his people. The land imbues him with serenity and peace in the weighty years of life. Uncle Jim is harvesting that now.

CRASH FATAL TO JARRELLS

Magoffin Man Killed, 2 Hurt in Auto Wreck On Middle Creek Road

A Magoffin county man was killed and two others were slightly injured shortly after Tuesday midnight when the auto in which they were driving toward Prestonsburg, struck the end of the bridge at the forks of Middle Creek.

Dead is Frank Jarrells, 38, of Wadon, pumper for the Island Creek Coal Company at Evanson. He was dead on arrival at the Prestonsburg General hospital of a broken neck and chest injuries.

The injured are Clifford Miller and Lester Prater, both also of Wadon. Miller suffered a head laceration and bruises; Prater, minor cuts.

Body of Jarrells is at the Moore Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements await the arrival of his widow, who was in California at the time of his death.

Grady Nelson, 18, Prestonsburg, suffered mild concussion and lacerations and contusions on his head and body Tuesday night when he was thrown from a motorcycle on the West Prestonsburg-Prestonsburg bridge. He is expected to be released shortly from the Prestonsburg General hospital.

Fair Board Schedules Meeting at Courthouse; Elliot Asks Reports

The Floyd County Fair Board will meet Thursday evening in an important session to iron out some of the several matters needing attention to successfully promote the agricultural exhibition, it was noted by Anna L. Garrett, board secretary, in a letter to interested persons.

The board will meet at the courthouse at 7:30, she said. County fair is only one month away and there remains a lot of work to be done if we are to have a successful fair this year," she added.

Jesse Elliott, fair chairman, said he expects the fair board chairmen have matters in their departments worked out and he has ready to report to the board by the Thursday meeting.

Coal consumption by electric generating plants reached another all-time high in January, 1956. Coal usage for January was 15,222,769.

SCHOOL NOTES

By Wayne Ratliff
Superintendent of Instruction

OPENING DAY FOR CONSOLIDATED SCHOOLS
Consolidated schools will open Monday, August 14th. Children will be caucused in the morning and teachers will report to Martin High school for group meetings at 1:30 p.m.

CRIDER SPEARS, the Rev. Emory Ferguson officiating. He moved with his parents to Lawrence county about seven years ago in the removal of families from the area affected by impoundment of Dewey Lake, but was employed at the time of his death by the Timken Roller Bearing Co., Columbus, Ohio. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving Spears, besides his parents, are four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Creed Baker of Blaine, Mrs. Thomas H. Endicott, Dayton, O., Mrs. Crawford Cline, Jr., Cordell, Ky., Mrs. Vada Cline, Columbus, O., and Earl Howard Spears, of Blaine.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE TIMES
The County Fair will be held on the Prestonsburg elementary school grounds. The school includes last year required more space for display than they did the year before and for this reason are seeking for additional space for this year's exhibits. We feel that through your help and cooperation the school display has been an outstanding attraction for the parent and people in Floyd county. Let's continue our section of the fair to make worthy of the highest praise.

Preparation of exhibits should be made at once as "Fair Time" will soon be here.

An agreement has been reached whereby one teacher from each school may be designated for the purpose of bringing materials from her school and placing them on display at the fair.

The teacher representing each school will be responsible for setting up her school's display and will also be responsible for picking up these materials by 9:00 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 22.

HOME VISITATION DAY
Permission has been granted by the State Department of Education for us to have Home Visitation Day for all teachers of the county.

It has been stated to the Department of Education that this day will be used to become better acquainted with our parents and with the needs and conditions of our pupils. Furthermore, another reason given for using the day in this manner is that better parent-teacher-pupil relationships will grow out of it. Too, we have stated that a full-day—equal in length to teaching day—will be spent.

On the day (with rural and consolidated teachers, visiting at the same time) we should be able to get the most complete census that Floyd county has ever had.

Your enrollment-census cards should be delivered to your principal if you have one, or to the attendance office by September 4.

EIGHTH GRADE EXAMINATIONS
Examinations for those pupils who have spent a year in the seventh grade, and a year in the eighth grade and were unable to take the test given at the close of rural schools in the spring may report to the office of the Superintendent of Schools, Tuesday, August 21 at 9:00 a.m. and take the test.

THIRD
horrible thing of absolute destruction. All these were basically helpful until man made them harmful.

Man, who alone of all God's creatures possesses the gift of intellect, is given the freedom of choice. And under the perverse impulses of his sinful nature he too often chooses unwisely.

IS ON HOOK
Speaking of fishing—or were we?—George H. Archer, of Prestonsburg, topped all Floyd county catches a few weeks ago. Fishing in Florida, he landed 13 fish on one hook—believe it or not! After reeling a shark 45 hours, he decided on one fish could give a body that much trouble, and he was right. His catch was a 29-pound mother shark, and when she was cut open he learned he had also landed 17 baby sharks.

It is in the land expansion of bare transportation of coal some 200 miles for loading and unloading of thousands have been built in eastern watersheds.

Moore and Martin Collins partnership line; thence a straight line down the hill with same conditional line to a stake 100 feet of the center of branch; thence around the hill a distance of 155 feet to a marked stake; thence down the hill 75 feet to center of branch; thence up the branch to the beginning, and being the same land conveyed to first parties (defendants in the action) by Green Manno. So from Manno, his wife, by deed dated the 29th day of November, 1953, which is duly recorded in Deed Book 155, page 587, Floyd County Court Clerk's office, containing 70 acres, more or less.

Said property will be sold to satisfy a judgment against defendants in favor of plaintiff for the sum of $800.00 with interest from March 29, 1955.

For the purchase price the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety or sureties, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment with a lien retained upon said property as a further security. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms. Given under my hand this 6th day of August, 1956.

BILL SIGNED BY IKE TO GIVE AUTO DEALERS RIGHT TO SUE

Washington, Aug. 4.—President Eisenhower signed a hotly disputed bill today giving dealers the right to sue manufacturers on charges of coercive practice and bad-faith cancellation of franchises.

Congress passed the bill amid conflicting arguments as to whether it would help or hurt private enterprise, and whether it would discourage or stimulate so-called "boot-leg" sales of automobiles which allegedly permit the private buyer little or no redress if the car proves faulty.

In signing the bill, the President said "it constitutes only a partial solution to the problem."

It must be considered an unwarranted intrusion by the Federal Government into an area traditionally reserved to private enterprise, and therefore "represents a new departure in the exercise of federal authority, a point which will undoubtedly come to the attention of the courts," the President added.

But he said, he was approving the bill in view of the findings of Congress that the conditions in the automobile industry may be of a temporary nature.

He directed Government antitrust enforcement agencies to review conditions which brought about a demand for the legislation "to determine whether they continue to exist, to study alternative or different solutions to the problem, and to make recommendations for appropriate actions by the next Congress."

The bill was an outgrowth of public hearings at which a Senate antitrust subcommittee heard disputed testimony that dealers often had been forced by coercion and intimidation to buy from the manufacturers more cars, trucks, and parts than they could sell through normal trade practices.

The National Automobile Dealers Association contended those who refused to overbuy or resell too strongly often were penalized by cancellation of franchises or other actions called unfair.

But not all of the dealer witnesses agreed with this. And the automobile-manufacturing industry opposed the measure vigorously.

The bill allows the dealer to sue in the federal courts for damages, including costs of the suit, for failure of a manufacturer to "act in good faith in performing or complying with any of the terms or provisions of the franchise, or in terminating, cancelling, or not renewing the franchise with said dealer."

Class work will begin Sept. 24.

Hog fire may cause from 2 to 6 percent loss of the hog's money value at market time.

SECOND DAM BIDS SOUGHT

Contract on First Work On Buckhorn Reservoir Up for Letting Sept. 2

Bids for the first phase of construction of a second Eastern Kentucky dam, the Buckhorn Reservoir flood-control project, were solicited by the Army Corps of Engineers Louisville district office last Wednesday.

The project, for which Congress appropriated $1,000,000 this year, is on the Middle Fork of the Kentucky river. It will create a large lake in Perry and Leslie counties. The final cost is expected to be about $19,000,000.

The first work will be on a control tower and culvert works. Tentative date for receiving bids is September 11 at 2 p.m.

The control tower, from which movable parts of the dam will be operated, will be of reinforced concrete with plumbing, heating, and electrical facilities.

Also to be built under the initial contract are hydro-pneumatic control gates and a 600-foot-long reinforced concrete discharge conduit. The dam will be built over and around these foundations.

The work calls for about 5,500 cubic yards of concrete, 32,000 yards of earth excavation, and 6,070 yards of rock excavation.

The Engineers' office said the first contract covers about 10 percent of the total job.

LOSS NOT FATAL

A leading utility executive who anticipates a "gradual" loss by the coal industry to nuclear fuel has said he believes "on balance, even the atomic energy scales will be tipped in favor of coal for at least 10 to 20 years."

Floyd County Times, Aug. 16, 1956 — Sec. 2 Page 1

Commonwealth Edison Company of Chicago, one of America's largest electric utilities, anticipates use of 11 million tons of coal in 1956, out of 12 million tons of coal it used in 1955. It is Tampa, Fla., a distance of 1,600 miles.

One of the longest barge hauls for coal will be that of West Kentucky Coal Co., which plans to send coal by waterways from Uniontown, Ky., to Tampa, Fla., a distance of 1,600 miles.

SAYS STATE AUTO OWNERS WERE OVERCHARGED $400,000

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 8.—Insurance Commissioner C. P. Thurman said today that Kentucky automobile owners are entitled to at least $400,000 in refunds from overcharging insurance companies.

The figure may run as high as $750,000, he said.

Thurman said a study of practices of certain "well-known automobile insurance-writing companies" showed automobile owners had been overcharged to a larger extent than first thought.

He identified them as companies who do not operate through duly licensed insurance agents.

They have failed, he said, to obtain the proper information for correct classification and rating of the insured.

The few companies evidently gave policyholders a high-premium rating when they were entitled to a different rating, he said. Policies

Commissioners Are Eligible To Retire

Frankfort, Aug. 12 (Sp.)—Commissioners of the Court of Appeals are now eligible for the state's new retirement system through an order recently signed by Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Judges and employees of the court were covered by a previous order.

The commissioners are appointed by the court. In most cases they are judges of long service who choose not to seek re-election. They receive $5,000 a year.

Kentucky now has four full-time commissioners.

Widener is State police commissioner and Sturgill is legal counsel for the State Police Department.

State Hospital Patients Participate In Picnic

Approximately 1350 patients, including 50 in wheel chairs, at Eastern State Hospital, Lexington, took active part in the 3rd annual picnic held on the front lawn of the hospital on Aug. 8th. The patients not able to go outside were served on the wards.

There was a gaily decorated midway, booths for games and contests, "supper on the ground" and a special musical program. The musical program was provided by a grant from the music performance Trust Funds of the Recording Industries. Booths were manned by hospital employees who contributed their own time for the project and many volunteers.

The food for the picnic supper was prepared by the dietary department of the hospital but the "road trays" those that meant so much to the patients, such as ice-cream, candy, cakes, cigarettes and soft drinks, were donated by many individuals, church and civic groups, business firms and homemakers. These came from Lexington and some from the 35th Northeast counties included in the hospital district.

It's a great time to buy a Buick!

Today you can have what other cars may not have for years

JUST BETWEEN US—don't you get a kick out of keeping a step ahead of the other fellow—especially when it comes to cars?

So wouldn't you find it fun to boss the newest thing in motordom—a car with the greatest advance in transmissions since the gearshift left the floor?

And wouldn't you like to have all this at a price that is right—and when the weather is right—and right when your car is at its top worth?

Well, sir, we've got that kind of situation for you—now.

Because this very day you can step into a 1956 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow* and drive away with a transmission so modern, so responsive, so smooth that you may not find its like in other cars for years to come.

You can have the thrill of split-second action from the merest nudge of the pedal—and with the good-news gas savings this economy range brings.

You can have the safety-surge of power that comes from pushing down on the pedal and switching the pitch.

All with the wallowing might of Buick's 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. All with the new luxury of a ride that's built on 4 brawny coil springs for buoyant levelness. A ride with new steering ease and sweeter handling.

Best of all, you can make the buy of a lifetime. For today's low prices have helped move Buick into America's best-selling 3 more firmly than ever.

That means we can come to terms on the trade-in value of your car in a way that's bound to tickle you pink.

Why not stop in and take us up on that—today?

36 EXTRA EGGS PER HEN

Proved by 1033 Purina feeders who kept records

Some folks think pullets produce about the same on one feed as they do on another. Purina asked 1033 ladies with average farm flocks to keep records and see.

These careful day-to-day records showed that more than 2 million hens produced 3 dozen extra eggs per bird—over U. S. average production in just the first 4 months of laying. Your pullets should lay more eggs than average and make more money on Purina, too. Call us or stop in and let us show you what other folks in our neighborhood are doing.

McDowell Hospital Staff Host At August Meeting

McDowell—The August professional meeting of the McDowell physicians and surgeons was held at the McDowell Memorial hospital. This is the monthly meeting where members of the medical profession discuss and analyze pertinent medical problems and new developments.

An innovation was instituted when members of the nursing profession of Floyd and Pike counties were invited to attend As guests, it was felt that this action would lead to more intensive and greater coordination, which is required in meeting the many and varied problems of health that are to be encountered in their areas.

The culinary staff, under the direction of Mrs. Clara Broadwine, the hospital's dietitian, served dinner in the P. Wheeler auditorium at the Cumberland Field Station. U. S. Public Health service spoke on the "High Incidence of Enteric (Intestinal) Infections." His talk illustrated by slides.

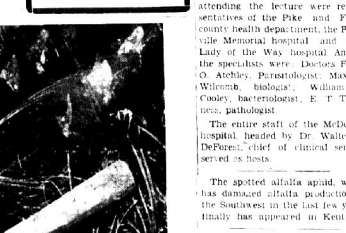

Among the 44 members and guests attending the lecture were representatives of the Pike and Floyd county health department, the Pikeville Memorial hospital and Our Lady of the Way hospital. Among the specialists were: Doctors Floyd O. Atchley, Parasitologist; Maxwell Wilcomb, biologist; William T. Coker, bacteriologist; E. P. Tharrett, pathologist.

The entire staff of the McDowell hospital, headed by Dr. Walter R. DePue, chief of clinical service, served as hosts.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tolliver, Age 89, of Lawrenceco., Dies at Daughter's Home

Mrs. Elizabeth Kasez Tolliver, 89, of Ulysses, Lawrence county, died Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Fred Peck. She was a sister of Mrs. Martha Quisley, of Exell, this county.

Funeral rites were conducted at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Chestnut Grove Church by the Rev. Scott Griffith and the Rev. Bruce Daniels. Burial was in Kasez cemetery at Ulysses.

Mrs. Tolliver was born June 30, 1867 at Charley, Ky., a daughter of the late James and Martha Edwards.

She had lived in Ulysses for the past 70 years.

Her first husband, Henry Wise Kasez, died in 1918.

Surviving in addition to Mrs. Peck are a second daughter, Mrs. Ogie Boyd, of Columbus, Ohio, two sons, Lawrence Kasez of Ulysses and Arlie Kasez of Marysville, Ohio, and another sister besides Mrs. Quisley, Mrs. Frank Spaulding, of Plain City, Ohio, two brothers, Joe Edward of Ashland and Ephraim Edwards of Exell and 19 grandchildren, all great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

The total strawberry crop from Perry county was worth about $40,000 from about 60 acres.

ANTI-TB DRUGS HELP CLOSE MANY HOSPITALS, SANATORIA

Special to The Times

New York, N. Y., August 13.—Scores of tuberculosis hospitals and sanatoria are closing their doors for lack of patients at a time when more Americans are undergoing treatment for TB than ever before, the Health News Institute reported today.

This paradoxical situation can be attributed in large measure to the dramatic success of isoniazid, and other TB-fighting drugs developed after years of costly research by the nation's pharmaceutical manufacturers, a survey by Health News Institute, information agency for the health field, disclosed. Introduced only a few years ago, these drugs are changing the entire complexion of the medical fight against one of man's oldest and deadliest scourges.

The effect of isoniazid and the other principal anti-tuberculosis drugs, streptomycin, dihydrostreptomycin and PAS (para-aminosalicylic acid), is to cut down the time a patient must stay in the hospital, while the infectious period of his disease runs its course. The patient then is discharged, to continue treatment either by regular visits to hospital out-patient clinics or at home.

The HNI survey disclosed that while the number of persons being treated for tuberculosis rose steadily during 1954 and 1955, due to better screening and detection, 84 hospitals and sanatoria caring for TB patients either closed their doors during these two years or were converted to other uses. Twenty-three new ones were opened, but there was a net reduction of 3,215 beds.

The savings resulting from the shrinkage in the number of beds devoted to tubercular patients are considerable. With bed costs for TB patients estimated at $9.72 a day in 1954 by the United States Public Health Service, the reduction of 3,215 beds means a saving of millions a year even though the patient, productive again at home or at work, must still receive treatment on an ambulatory basis, for example. New York's Bellevue Hospital estimates it costs just half as much per day to treat a patient in its out-patient chest clinic as it does when he is hospitalized. And the savings in manpower and equipment, to say nothing of freeing these beds to care for other sick persons, also are sizable. Paralleling isoniazid's spectacular medical success has been a sharp drop in price. Since it was first placed on the market in 1952, the retail price has dropped about 70 percent, as manufacturers have improved production methods and written off the millions they spent in developing the drug and putting it through its first clinical tests.

One of the most important accomplishments of the TB-fighting drugs has been a drastic cut in the number of deaths among children with military tuberculosis or tuberculosis meningitis—two acute forms of the disease. Dr. Edith M. Lennell of Bellevue Hospital reported recently that only one sick child in 100 died from either of these two forms of the disease when treated with isoniazid in combination with streptomycin or dihydrostreptomycin. This compares to a death rate of five per 100 when streptomycin alone was the best available treatment—and a death rate approaching 100 per cent before streptomycin came into use.

The drugs also have changed surgical techniques in treating TB. Since they tend to control active infection, the chest surgeon can cut small sections of calcified tissue from the lung to eliminate inactive, but potentially dangerous trouble spots.

More than 100 pharmaceutical companies in the United States today have been licensed to make preparations containing isoniazid. Despite all its successes, data, however, Health News Institute points out isoniazid and the other anti-TB drugs have not eliminated tuberculosis as a public health problem. But the outlook is bright for the TB patient whose disease is discovered early and treated promptly. And work goes on in the research laboratories of pharmaceutical companies all across the country to find a drug that will destroy the tubercle bacillus wherever it exists in the body.

Akin, Former Physician, At Wayland, Dies Aug. 2 After Six-Year Illness

Dr. W. W. Akin, 55 years old, who formerly practiced medicine at Wayland and who later was a member of the Paintsville hospital staff, died at Veterans Hospital, Louisville, Aug. 2, as the result of a cerebral hemorrhage suffered in 1950.

Born Dec. 10, 1901, in Jackson, Miss., he was a son of the late William Edwin Akin and Alice Hobson Akin.

Dr. Akin was graduated from "Ole Miss" in 1925 and afterward practiced pharmacy for two years in Yazoo City, Miss. He then entered medical school at the University of Louisville where he was graduated in 1931. He returned to Mississippi where he spent one year of internship at Vicksburg hospital under Dr. Jack Parsons. The next two years were spent at St. Joseph Infirmary, Louisville, where he was resident surgeon, studying under Dr. Travis. He was married in 1933 to Lola Belle Haycox, a nurse at St. Joseph Infirmary, and the following year came to Wayland, to work for Dr. M. V. Wicker. In 1934 he became associated with Dr. J. H. Holbrook and Dr. Paul B. Hall at the Paintsville hospital where he practiced until April 1941, when he entered the Navy as a lieutenant commander. Volunteering at the beginning of World War II, he was in service three years, and was given the rating of full commander. Dr. Akin served in the South Pacific theater during the conflict.

After the war, he returned to the Paintsville hospital and was in private practice until 1950, when he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage while attending a medical conference in New York. He had been a patient in the Louisville hospital since October 23, 1952.

Surviving besides his wife are two sons, William Allen Akin and James Paul Akin, one daughter, Alice Joyce Akin, all at home; and two brothers, Garland Akin, Shreveport, La., and Allen Taylor Akin, Dallas, Texas.

The payoff!

There are many ways to measure life insurance values. Financial stability, service, prompt payment of claims: these are some of the important yardsticks.

Woodmen of the World, financially strongest fraternal benefit society, is proud of its showing of excellence by these measurements.

Of more than 7½ millions of dollars paid in 1955 death and disability claims, litigation required settlement in but a single one. This remarkable record is second to none in the life field.

In the matter of promptness, too, Woodmen has a superb record. Checks to beneficiaries are usually in the mail within 48 hours after receipt of proofs.

This fast, liberal, speedy performance in claim settlements stands out. It is another demonstration of the plus benefits offered by membership in a great Society.

San Diego, Calif. — Carl G. Nunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nunn, of Prestonsburg, Ky., is scheduled to complete recruit training August 17 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif. The ten-week course includes instruction in all basic military subjects and the firing of all basic infantry weapons.

Upon completion of training, the new Marines are assigned to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for further infantry training or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.

TWO SCHOOLS NEED COACHES

Grid Teams of Section In Trouble As Season To Get Started Soon

Eastern Kentucky's football playing schools are plagued with many difficulties, and the 1956 season is less than a month away. Louisville is frantically searching for a grid teacher, and Jenkins high school is in need of a football tutor.

Louisville schools open August 20, and football practice is scheduled to get under way Monday. In addition, Elkhorn City, Pikeville and Paintsville will have new coaches this season, and Mc C. Napier, Leslie County and Wheelwright have added football to their athletic program this year.

This is the coaching line-up at present: Pikeville, Bobby Phillips; Whitesboro, Ed Moore; Fleming, Nance Davis; Prestonsburg, Robert Wallace; Hazard, Jim Caldwell; Paintsville, Walter Brugh; Harby, Guy; Paintsville, Elkhorn City, Arthur Mullins; Wheelwright, Wilbur Jamerson; Leslie County, John Origen.

The annual shortage of football officials is present again this season, and many schools are having problems in completing their schedules.

Elkhorn City is seeking an opponent for September 14, either at home or away, and Fleming-John would like to fill September 8 for a game at home.

GRID GOSSIP
Jack Hall, ex-Fleming high school star and more recently of the University of Wyoming Cowboys, will return to Fleming this season, as assistant coach in football and basketball. John Morgan and Preston Armstrong will again serve as grid aides to Hurst and handle basketball, baseball and track.

Elkhorn City will not have a single senior on its '56 football team. Alvin Brown (Marshall) is the new assistant to Charlie Snyder at Catlettsburg high. Raceland and Catlettsburg will meet twice on the grid during the coming season.

Each will play once at home, but the N. K. S. C. — John Thompson, last season's mentor at Louisville, will assist Driver Ball at Raceland. "Moon" Edwards has replaced Everett Vanover at the helm of Wheelwright's grid forces. Vanover has moved to Paris High.

Prestonsburg Expecting Good Team Despite Loss Of Star Quarterback: Black Cats To Be Light But Speedy

Prestonsburg high school expects its 1956 football team to equal or better last season's unit which recorded five triumphs, lost three, and tied one and finished fourth in the nine-team Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference. The Black Cats have graduated their two-time all-state quarterback, Lowell Hughes, who will perform for the University of Kentucky freshman team this fall, thus losing his brother, John Delmar Hughes, on the U. of K. squad.

Brother No. 3, Paul Phillips, of the Hughes family of football greats, is the leading candidate for the quarterback spot, which has been capably filled by a Hughes since the 1950 season.

Coach Robert Wallace, Western State college graduate and second season mentor at Prestonsburg, had 41 candidates entering his first call for practice last Monday.

In this group were 10 lettermen and eight starters from last year. However, Jackie Bull Borer, 5-foot-11-inch, 220-pound junior letterman.

Both halfbacks are junior one-lettermen and are small. Lowell McKenzie is a 6-footer and weighs 180-pounds. Joe Jack Harris is 5-foot-8 inches and tips the scales at 145 pounds. Speed is their chief asset.

Paul Hughes, a 6-foot, 1-inch junior, will have his work cut out for him to fill the shoes of his previous brother who has been the elite quarterback for the past four years in Kentucky.

The Black Cats, thus far have carried a nine-game schedule, including seven E. K. M. C. opponents. School officials would like to schedule a game either at home or away on August 31.

Louisville Flag is the only newcomer to the schedule. The schedule: Aug. 21 (to be filled), Sept. 8, Louisville Flag; Sept. 14, Hazard, home; Sept. 21, Elkhorn City; Sept. 28, Whitesboro, home; Oct. 5, "Pikeville" (home); Oct. 12, Leslie County; Oct. 19, Harby, Williamstown, W. Va.; Oct. 26, Whitesboro, home; Nov. 2, Paintsville, there. E. K. M. C.

If the fall of a woodchuck you've just shot sticks straight up, the August issue of Sports Afield magazine says that you can be reasonably certain he's finished.

LEFTY HURLS COLTS TO WIN

Childers Holds W Wright To Five Hits—Win Brings Record to 6 Won, 4 Lost

Southpaw Archie Childers yielded only five hits and three runs in a Prestonsburg Colt 9-3 victory over the Wheelwright Colts at Wheelwright last Wednesday. The pitching of Childers and the potent bat of Wayne Dixon, who lined out a triple among three hits, made the Prestonsburg won and lost record 6 and 4. G. Hall, center fielder, was a key player in the victory. Wheelwright's most effective batsman against Childers as he gathered one hit, got two free passes and scored two runs. Behind Wayne Dixon, Prestonsburg rightfielder, who paced the winner's attack, were Joe Harris, Charles Wells and Henry Hughes chipping in with two hits each.

If They Weren't Breaking the Law They Apparently Were 'Fixin' To'

Frankfort, Ky. Aug. 9 — It takes a hunter a gun to make a hunter, not a bagged animal — nor even the sight of an animal. County Attorney Davis Williams of Mundorville was told today he had a case against a group of men gathered around a tree where four coon dogs were barking, even though: 1. They had no guns. 2. They had no coon. 3. No one actually saw a coon. 4. No one was climbing the tree. Assistant Attorney General John B. Browning, answering Williams' query, said hunting laws were so strict in their definition of "hunter" that a jury might be convinced the men were hunting out of season simply by their presence around the barking dogs. He suggested, however, Williams' case would be stronger if someone had seen a coon or if someone had been caught climbing the tree. The jury might believe the men's story that they had been fishing and were exercising their dogs, he said.

WHAS CRUSADE FOR CHILDREN OFFERS TEEN-AGERS TV SPOTS

Two Kentucky teen-agers are going to join nationally prominent entertainers and WHAS on the line-up on the third WHAS Crusade for Children which will be broadcast and televised simultaneously over WHAS Radio and TV September 22 and 23.

Floyd county's retarded children have benefited during the past two years through funds raised by WHAS Crusades for Children.

WHAS announced plans last week for the selection of the Crusade Teen-Age King and Queen. The requirements are that they must be teen-agers, no younger than 13, not over 19. They must be residents of Kentucky or Southern Indiana, and their talent must be in the non-professional category whether it be singing, dancing, instrumental or specialty act.

Entries may be made by sending a postcard to King and Queen contest, WHAS-TV, Louisville 2, Ky. The postcard should bear the entry name, address, telephone number, age and description of his or her act. All entrants will undergo pre-

1956 Safety Drive Slated Next Month By Mining Groups

For the sixth consecutive year, a month-long coordinated educational campaign to help reduce the toll of accidental injuries and death will be conducted in tri-state mining areas of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia. It was announced this week by James H. Phelan, chief of the Kentucky Department of Mines and Minerals.

Cooperating in the "September—No Accident Month" safety program will be the mining departments of all three states, various mining institutions, the U. S. Bureau of Mines, United Mine Workers of America, coal operators and insurance underwriters.

"Safe today—safe tomorrow," the theme of the 1956 campaign, is designed to emphasize as forcibly as possible the vital importance of obeying the rules of safety not only in the mines, but on the highway, in the home, at school, on any job and at play.

Originally conceived as a mine safety program, the campaign was broadened three years ago to cover all phases of daily living.

"The reduction of injuries and deaths in our mines through the application of safety rules and procedures has proved that accidents can be prevented," Phelan declared, "and if we can focus attention on safety rules in other phases of our activities, similar progress can be expected."

"Our slogan for this year's program is 'Safety today—safe tomorrow.' A recent reminder that safety pays, and with the cooperation of the press in the tri-state mining area we will again bring the rules of safety to people in all walks of life. If everyone heeds, everyone will benefit."

The recent resurgence of the coal mining industry, it was pointed out, makes the campaign especially important this year.

In addition to newspaper publicity, the program will be furthered by the use of $60,000 "Safe Today—Alive Tomorrow" stickers for miners' caps, 20,000 automobile bumper stickers, 5,000 safety posters and 5,000 window transparencies. All display and educational materials are furnished by the Safety Engineering Department of the Bituminous Coal Association, one of the leading underwriters of workers' compensation and liability insurance in the coal mining industry.

Kentucky Parks Give State Great Industry

Frankfort, Aug. 15 — Kentucky's operation of the parks, a $60,000,000 industry, doing approximately $500,000, yet the park department is a 300 million dollar business a year at its parks, shrines and memorials.

This statement was made by Mrs. Ben Kilgore, state park director at a Lexington Kiwanis club meeting recently. Kilgore is one of the top two states in the union in park development, with a great future in this field, Mrs. Kilgore said.

The park director said the state hopes to expand facilities at the parks including cabins, hotels, camp areas and recreational equipment.

One plan calls for linking the Pine Mountain Natural Bridge and Cumberland Falls parks with trails and providing designated camping areas along the way for overnight hikers. Another plan is to start drift fishing at the Cumberland park, Mrs. Kilgore added.

A budget of $225,000 is provided for the parks department.

Corn-on-Cob Freezing Pores Several Problems

Freezing corn on the cob is less satisfactory than the freezing of almost any other vegetables, according to Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the University of Kentucky. She bases that statement on the number of letters and telephone calls that come to her concerning the problem. The corn has a flavor of the cob, however, report.

The probable cause is due to the variety of corn grown that has large cobs. Mrs. Haak explained. By the time the corn is blanched long enough to heat through the cobs, the corn is overcooked and loses its delightful flavor. If the cob isn't heated through, enzymes change the flavor of the corn to that of the cob.

Here are Mrs. Haak's recommendations:

Select for freezing perfect ears with small cobs and young tender corn in the thin milk stage. Haak, remove silks, trim and wash. Place ears in boiling water for 7 to 11 minutes, according to size. Use a large amount of water so that boiling resumes quickly after the corn is placed in it. Immediately after the blanching period, place the corn in about the same amount of cold or ice water until the cob is chilled.

To freeze, wrap each ear separately in moisture-vapor-resistant cellophane and store with stock, or pack in bags. Have the quick-freeze temperature at least a zero or preferably 10 to 15 degrees below zero. After freezing, store at zero or lower.
